GREENEVILLE

Funeral of John Murrah Largely Attended—Strange Experience of Cat—Personal.

The funeral of Joseph Murrah took place from his late home on North Main street at 7:30 Tuesday morning. There was a large number of friends and relatives present from out of town, some coming from Full River, New Bedford and Tulsa, N. Y. A large number of floral tributes were arranged about the casket. The bearers were four friends of the deceased, Art the services in St. Joseph's church Tuesday afternoon at 10 o'clock. The casket was borne to the cemetery where a committal service was read by Father O'Rourke.

Cat Has Queer Experience. A cat which had been into the ash barrels in search of food on Central avenue was seen running wildly about the street in a manner which was a little queer.

Missionary Meetings Postponed. The meeting of the Missionary society of the Federal church which was to be held this week has been postponed until September owing to the warm weather.

Personal. Miss Margaret Redden and Miss Elizabeth Bullard are at Block Island for a week's stay.

Change of Fare Zone at Taftville—Gedere-Normand Wedding—Personal and Notes.

SHETUCKET LODGE OFFICERS SEATED

Joseph J. Fields Installed as Noble Grand—Work Carried Out by Willimantic Degree Team—Social Hour Followed the Lodge Session.

Deputy Grand Master Frederick H. Williams of Willimantic, and his staff of assistants installed the recently elected officers of Shetucket lodge, No. 27, I. O. F., at a largely attended meeting held Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. The guests returned besides Deputy Grand Master Frederick H. Williams were Loyal E. Plimsted, grand marshal; Charles M. Thompson, grand warden; W. E. Thompson, grand secretary; Charles H. Beebe, grand treasurer; C. L. Clinton, grand chaplain; E. M. Young, grand guardian; Kirk Walden, organist.

After the installation ceremonies were completed the noble grand invited a musical program to the banquet hall where the entertainment committee had provided a bountiful feast which was more than enjoyed.

The entertainment committee comprised the following: Past Grand Ernest P. Rogers, Past Grand John J. Parsons, Past Grand S. Smith, Past Grand Albert G. Gule, Past Grand Edward P. Kinney.

Guess there will be some horse racing at the New London County Agricultural Fair this year, according to present indications, as Secretary William W. Beckwith has made several trips to the state to see what there have been some classy turf events and has picked a number of good horses. The purpose this year is to give the members of the largest ever offered by the New London County Agricultural society and is bound to attract many owners of horses and breeders. The horses have been shipped here and Dr. George E. Bitgood has sent a carload of material for the training of his horses. Dr. Bitgood means to give several of the best events and gives his entries a period of training previous to the opening of the fair.

The track will be resurfaced, redressed and put in good condition. Work will be started in a week or so.

In a recent issue of the Breeder and Trainer, the following article on the fair which is of interest to racing enthusiasts:

One of the best programs for a racing meet that has been presented in the past is that of the New London County Agricultural fair on September 4, 5 and 6. The program is so arranged as to give the members of the fair the best of both worlds. It is a free for all, valued at $600, while the others are as follows: Monday, September 4, 2:15 race, $500; Tuesday, September 5, 2:15 race, $500; Wednesday, September 6, 2:15 race, $500.

Tuesday, September 5, 2:15 race, $500; Wednesday, September 6, 2:15 race, $500.

COL. GALE, TREASURER, OF LOCAL FUND is in Charge of Collections for Relief of Armenian War Sufferers.

A movement has been started to raise the sum of $100,000 for the relief of the Armenian war sufferers in the Armenian part of Turkey and Col. Charles W. Gale of the Thames National bank has been appointed local treasurer of the fund.

New England people have brought close to them the situation in the interior of Asiatic Turkey by the Armenian war sufferers. The number of people in Sivas province, some sixty miles from the Black Sea. The men of the Sivas province, Dr. William D. White, head of Anatolia College; Jesse K. Marden, M. D., head of Anatolia Hospital, and Rev. Ernest P. Rogers, professor of philosophy at the University of Vermont, are in the college. In spite of untoward conditions existing since the war began and especially since the Armenian deportation, they have in the past been able to do their duty.

In answer to inquiries about actual conditions in the Armenian part of Turkey, Dr. White, speaking for his colleagues, as well as for himself, said:

Turkey entered the great war as an active belligerent at the end of October 1914, though the country had begun to mobilize in April before. Our work continued with but minor interruption through the school year 1914-15, until the great bolt was hurled at the Armenian people in the summer of last summer, when about 12,000 Armenians were deported from Marsovan, together with many thousands from other points in the region. 1250 of the men and mature boys were slain with axes. In general the women, girls and children were pushed out of their homes in the direction of Malatia, Aleppo and Damascus.

The securing of contributions in New England to meet this urgent and tragic situation has been the duty of the local committee for Armenian relief, of which Hon. Moorfield Storey is chairman and Cardinal Connolly, Hon. John L. Bates, Mr. Edward Chandler with others are members. Mr. Henry D. Forbes, National Shawmut Bank, Boston, is treasurer. This committee is auxiliary to the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief of New York, through whose agency $1,000,000 of small million dollars has been contributed to the suffering people in Armenia, Persia and Syria, about a dollar for each exile. Of this $300,000 has been provided by the Rockefeller Foundation and $100,000 from New England contributors, much of the latter having been secured in the form of contributions, Charles E. Crane, 75 Fifth avenue, New York city.

Interesting and instructive remarks were made by County Director McGuinness and Felix Galahan, one of the older members of the organization.

A committee of four was appointed to represent the organization at the funeral of John Edward Looby, who was chairman of the board of directors. A committee was also appointed to draw up suitable resolutions of respect.

Three candidates were initiated. JULY LAST YEAR HOTTER THAN THIS.

Average for the Week Was Five Degrees Higher in 1915 and Two Degrees Higher in 1914.

Although Tuesday and the past few days have been scorcher the weather records for the past two years show that the corresponding weeks in those years were much hotter than this year. The average temperature for the past week is 80.4, for the same week in 1915 it was 81.1, five degrees higher and for the same week in 1914 it was 82.5, a little over two degrees higher.

The best records for the third week in July, during 1915, 1914 and 1914, follow:

NEWPORT IS AFTER SUBMARINE BASE Secretary Daniels Gets Letter From Congressman O'Shaunessy Regarding Removal.

Newport would very much like to have the New London submarine base and has already taken steps toward securing its removal.

Congressman O'Shaunessy has sent Secretary Daniels the following letter: Washington, July 15, 1916. Hon. Joseph Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Daniels: I have heard a rumor that New London, Conn., may lose the submarine base now located there because of alleged unsanitary conditions. As you are a proposed appropriation of $500,000 for increasing the facilities of the base, I earnestly request you to consider the advisability of locating the submarine base at Newport, and expending $500,000 there. It is understood that Rear Admiral A. W. Grant, commanding officer of the submarine flotilla, favors the objectionable conditions charged are removed. Sincerely yours, George F. O'Shaunessy.
