

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County GALES FERRY

Country Club Holds Annual Meeting—Opening of Roxbury Tutoring School—Subscription What—Norwich Society Entertained.

At the annual meeting of the Gales Ferry Country club, held in the new Club House, Saturday evening, the retiring president, Miss Mary R. Gibbs, presiding, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Clara Maniere; vice-president, Frank A. Applin, Jr.—Mr. Applin also to be chairman of tennis section—secretary, Miss Margaret W. Wulf; treasurer, Walter M. Buckingham; assistant treasurer, Oliver Wulf; board of directors, officers of club, Miss Caroline E. Freeman and George W. Frost. It was voted to hold weekly ice cream sales, the proceeds to be divided equally between the Gales Ferry M. E. church and club; to have at least one entertainment every week for the club; to have a lecture on Shakespeare given by Charles H. Brown of Norwich.

Tutoring School Opens. The Roxbury Tutoring school of New Haven opened here Monday, the 24th of July at the Yale quad, under the direction of Mrs. French. The school is for the purpose of tutoring the students of the Yale University who are in the city of New Haven. The school is for the purpose of tutoring the students of the Yale University who are in the city of New Haven. The school is for the purpose of tutoring the students of the Yale University who are in the city of New Haven.

Subscription What. A successful subscription card party was given in the new clubhouse of the Gales Ferry Country club last Friday afternoon. Auction bridge and 500 were played. There were nine tables. The patronesses were Mrs. Otto E. Wolf of Norwich, Mrs. Frank A. Applin and Mrs. D. W. Jones of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Entertained Norwich Society. Misses Ellen and Lucy Geer, entertained the Parish Aid society of Trinity Episcopal church, of Norwich, Friday at their cottage. The Pines. Among guests recently entertained by them were Mrs. John Brewster and Miss Juliette Geer of Norwich, and Mrs. William H. Gilroy of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Sunday Services. Owing to the rain of last Sunday, Rev. James M. Patten spoke at the M. E. church in a small audience on the theme "The Temptation to Tempt God." The Epworth league evening service was held by Rev. J. H. Galt of Hartford, the topic being, "How Can One Secure Make One Town Better."

Noted to Bay State. Nathan A. Gibbs and Walter M. Buckingham of the Thames National Bank, Norwich, accompanied by Mrs. Buckingham formed a party leaving last Saturday in Mr. Gibbs' automobile for Massachusetts. Mr. Gibbs to spend one week vacation at Onset, Mass., and Mrs. Buckingham at Cape Cod. Mrs. Gibbs is visiting her mother, Mrs. George H. Brown of Norwich, N. Y.

Tutor Lessee Cottage. Mrs. James Martin vacated her cottage at Lakeview, on the bluff, Monday, and returned to her home in Middletown, after receiving Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sherwin of New Haven, who have taken the cottage for August and September. Mr. Sherwin is one of the trustees of the Epworth league. Miss Annette Hurlbut of White Plains, N. Y., arrived last week to spend her vacation at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lucy A. Hurlbut.

Entertaining House Party. Mrs. Beatrice Jones has been entertaining a house party of young ladies from Mt. Vernon, N. Y., at Twin Oak cottages. Rev. Thomas Deaman of South Willington, with a party, called on friends in the village last Thursday, while on an automobile trip to South Beach.

Guest F. Hawkley State. Edmund S. Satterlee of Dunlap, Iowa, spent Tuesday at the home of his uncle, Charles A. Satterlee. Mr. Satterlee is spending two weeks East at the home of Mrs. Fred Richardson of Laurel Hill, Norwich.

Shot Snake In Tree. Cyrus Chapman of the Stoddard district, discovered a huge black snake on one of his trees last week. The snake was about 10 feet long, and was evidently climbing in pursuit of a hen and chickens which had flown there to escape the snake. Mr. Chapman shot the snake, and sent the remainder of the snake to the State Museum at Hartford.

On The Household. Misses Elsie Ernst, Elsie Graham, Elsie Southill and Roslyn Cranks, of Norwich, have been spending the week on the household. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sutton of New York are spending a part of their vacation at the home of Mrs. Sittig's mother, Mrs. Lucy A. Hurlbut.

Harry Manly of Putnam, arrived last week to spend Mr. Manly's vacation at his cottage on the bluff. Miss Jennie S. Perkins, who has been ill for some days past, has been granted a leave of absence from her duties at the Thames National Bank, Norwich, for a few days.

The Beaver family of Richmond Hills, L. I., arrived last week by automobile to spend the remainder of the season at the Jones' cottage, on the bluff. Miss Emma Davis of Norwich, was a visitor at her cottage in the village last Thursday.

Union Service at Uncasville. A union open-air service of the Uncasville M. E. church and the Gales Ferry M. E. church, will be held at the beach on Sunday, August 1st, at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Owing to the disagreeable weather in the morning there was a small attendance. But the weather was a little better when the evening service commenced, and as Mr. Bradley has been heard before under the Pines she drew a full house. She is conducting mid-week meetings at the building and at the beach on Sunday at the morning and evening meetings. A number of tests given by the speaker were well received, August 6th, Frederick Nicholson of Boston, will be heard, August 13th, Mrs. E. D. Butler of East Lynn, Mass., will be the speaker and message bearer. Mrs. Alice M. Weston, of Hartford, will be heard August 20th. Mrs. Beatrice A. Dean, of New Bedford, Mass., will be heard August 27th. The hours of service on Sunday are 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Mid-week meetings will be conducted by the speakers under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society.

Franklin H. Brown of Norwich, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Martha S. Brown. Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Bradley of Boston, are passing a week at the Stone cottage. They will remain here while Mrs. Bradley is giving meetings here. Miss Marcia Delbridge of Bridgeport and Pina Grove, has arrived at the Betty cottage. A party of New London young people is at the Sherman cottage. Mrs. Addie V. Cone has returned to her home in Hartford, after a visit to friends in the village.

Moving To Clinton. Tower operator and Mrs. Joseph P. McCoy are packing their household effects and making preparations to move to Clinton. Mr. McCoy has been transferred from the local tower to the Clinton tower. Mr. and Mrs. McCoy have resided here for several years and have made many friends in this locality who regret to learn of their departure. Mr. McCoy has been in the service of the New Haven system for a long time, and is one of the road's efficient employees. Mrs. George Harding and daughter, Mrs. Helen Harding, of Grafton Hill, are visiting Mrs. Lucy Gleason. S. O. Harrington is entertaining his niece from Hartford. A party of Mrs. Joseph W. Hill of New London are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Slocum. W. D. Howell has returned to New York. George Elton and son of Kensington, are at their cottage "Uneda Rest."

Miss Carrie A. Fox of Hartford, is at her cottage. Miss Ruth Tubbs of Bridgeport is passing the summer in the Pines. Mrs. Fannie Ingalls of Grafton Hill is a guest of Mrs. Norma Beckford in the Pines. Mrs. Luther Davis and children of Worcester, Mass., are guests of Mrs. Charles Chapman. Mrs. William Webster entertained the members of her Sunday school class on the lawn in front of her house Saturday afternoon. Those present were Marion and Annie Babcock, Lillian Spencer, Alice Chapel, Agnes Egleston, Nabel Wilbur, Dorothy Clancy, Ruth Shaler and Dorothy Chapman. Lawn Party Successful. In spite of the lovely weather, the lawn party given by the members of the Christian Endeavor society on the lawn of the Palmer homestead Saturday evening proved a success. Mrs. Lela Troland sturdier sang several selections in her usual pleasing manner. Miss Grace Street of Waterford was in town Sunday. Mrs. Wm. Woodmansee and Mrs. Charles Turner are spending several days on the Williams camp grounds. Miss George Hedges has been spending several days at Pleasant Beach. Miss Grace Allison of Holyoke, Mass., is visiting her aunt, Miss Elsie Landreth. Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong of New Haven spent the week end with friends in town. To Serve Refreshments. The members of Thames Lodge, I. O. O. F., will serve ice cream and cake after the regular meeting Tuesday evening.

Chesterfield Annual Parish Sale—Members of Cradle Roll Entertained—DeWitt M. Lockman Returns to New York. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Maine, Miss Josephine Kenney, Giv Richmond of Hartford, C. A. Kenney, are to spend next week at the Maine cottage, at Groton Long Point. Camping With K. O. K. A. Kenney Lathrop has been camping with the members of the K. O. K. A. of Rev. Rogers' church in Braintree, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. John Young who have been the guests at the inn left on Tuesday for their home in New York. DeWitt M. Lockman who has been in town for ten days returned to New York Tuesday. The ladies of St. Paul's church held their annual sale of fancy work, cake, and ice cream at the rectory Thursday evening. Cradle Roll Members Met. The members of the cradle roll and their parents were entertained in the chapel Saturday evening. The little ones had a merry time with games and candy. A lunch of animal crackers, cake, milk and ice cream was served. Each child was given a tiny cradle in which to collect pennies for missionary work. The success of the affair was due to the leader, Miss Elizabeth Anderson, assisted by Mrs. John Redwick and Mrs. H. C. Lathrop. Among those present with their children were Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Sage, Mrs. Sandstrom, Mrs. H. S. Maine, Mrs. E. P. Plumb, Mrs. H. F. Wood and Mrs. P. Rogers. Mrs. H. W. Loomis who has been with Mrs. E. W. Loomis for several weeks has returned to her home in Westport. Miss Florence Perkins is visiting in Woodstock. Attended Ordination. Rev. M. R. Plumb and A. E. Weldon, two delegates representing the local church at the ordination of Rev. Horace Beebe in South Coventry on Wednesday. Mrs. Hitchcock of New York and Mrs. Gill and son of New Rochelle, who are on a motor trip have been spending several days at the inn. Mrs. and Mrs. Stokess of New York, Mrs. E. Wood and Mrs. P. Rogers. Mrs. H. W. Loomis who has been with Mrs. E. W. Loomis for several weeks has returned to her home in Westport. Miss Florence Perkins is visiting in Woodstock. Attended Ordination. Rev. M. R. Plumb and A. E. Weldon, two delegates representing the local church at the ordination of Rev. Horace Beebe in South Coventry on Wednesday. Mrs. Hitchcock of New York and Mrs. Gill and son of New Rochelle, who are on a motor trip have been spending several days at the inn. Mrs. and Mrs. Stokess of New York, Mrs. E. Wood and Mrs. P. Rogers. Mrs. H. W. Loomis who has been with Mrs. E. W. Loomis for several weeks has returned to her home in Westport. Miss Florence Perkins is visiting in Woodstock.

NIANTIC List of Spiritualist Speakers and Meetings For the Season—Townsmen and Mrs. Joseph P. McCoy Moving to Clinton. Mrs. S. C. Bradley of Boston spoke at the Ladies' Aid building in the Grove, Sunday, at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Owing to the disagreeable weather in the morning there was a small attendance. But the weather was a little better when the evening service commenced, and as Mr. Bradley has been heard before under the Pines she drew a full house. She is conducting mid-week meetings at the building and at the beach on Sunday at the morning and evening meetings. A number of tests given by the speaker were well received, August 6th, Frederick Nicholson of Boston, will be heard, August 13th, Mrs. E. D. Butler of East Lynn, Mass., will be the speaker and message bearer. Mrs. Alice M. Weston, of Hartford, will be heard August 20th. Mrs. Beatrice A. Dean, of New Bedford, Mass., will be heard August 27th. The hours of service on Sunday are 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Mid-week meetings will be conducted by the speakers under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society. Franklin H. Brown of Norwich,

BROOKLYN

Man Who Creates Disturbance Given Jail Sentence of 30 Days and Fine and Costs of $25. Rev. A. P. Knell, rector of Trinity church, has resigned to take effect September 1st and is going to New York. The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church held a food sale Friday afternoon. Mrs. George E. Genung is visiting relatives in Providence. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lathrop have had as guests Miss Mae Manderville and Edward Brown of Meriden and Miss Anna Kelly of Hartford. Edwin Blake left Friday for Narragansett Bay, where he is to go into camp for a few weeks, having chosen his plans from camping at Platteburg, N. Y. Lorin Blake has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Katharine Lutin. Miss Helen Sharp is spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. James Lowry. Clarence A. Porter has sold his residence situated on the north side of the common, to give possession the first of September. Mrs. George G. Gilbert has enjoyed a visit from Mrs. George Morse of Riverside, Conn. Given Heavy Fine and Jail Sentence. Saturday night, very near midnight, Deputy Sheriff Bennett was called by telephone to go to East Brooklyn to arrest a Polish man who was intoxicated and creating a disturbance. He took assistance with him and secured his man and Monday evening he was brought before Justice Frank Bedard and found guilty of assault, breach of peace and intoxication, receiving 30 days in jail for intoxication, $7 fine for assault, $5 fine for breach of peace and costs taxed at $13.35. Miss Florence M. Blake is visiting friends in New Haven. Mrs. J. Frank Hoxie and Mrs. Miller have returned to their homes in Boston and vicinity. Carroll Lawton was with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Lawton over Sunday. Mrs. George F. Genung returned from Providence Monday. William R. Thurber and daughter, Grace, were visitors in Norwich Monday. Mrs. Irving Lyon and daughter have returned to their home in Canton, Mass. Raymond Allen, assistant postmaster at Danvers, has been at his father's spending part of his vacation assisting in the store, his father, E. E. Allen, having been ill. Elbra Baker, from New London, was with his parents over Sunday. Mrs. J. Frank Hoxie and Mrs. Miller have returned to their homes in Boston and vicinity. Carroll Lawton was with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Lawton over Sunday. Mrs. George F. Genung returned from Providence Monday. William R. Thurber and daughter, Grace, were visitors in Norwich Monday. Mrs. Irving Lyon and daughter have returned to their home in Canton, Mass. Raymond Allen, assistant postmaster at Danvers, has been at his father's spending part of his vacation assisting in the store, his father, E. E. Allen, having been ill. Elbra Baker, from New London, was with his parents over Sunday.

Home On The Shore. Mrs. John L. Chapman and daughter, Miriam, have returned from Lord's Point, where they have been spending a few weeks at the Hopkins' cottage. George R. Fowler of Providence has been visiting relatives here, where he formerly resided. William Simmons has returned from Pleasant Beach where he has been spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Vaughn of Norwich, who is passing the summer at the beach. Mrs. Annie Mahew has returned from a visit with relatives in Providence. On account of the storm Sunday, there was no session of Sunday school. Everett Dean Recovering. Everett Dean, senior partner of the C. L. Barber Co., remaining comfortable. Slowly recovering from burns received about two weeks ago, while at work on a gasoline fire-pot. CLARK'S CORNERS Fielder Neph Enters Hospital—Funeral of Edward H. Clark. The Misses Burns have returned to their home in New Haven. Allen Barber Co., remaining comfortable. Slowly recovering from burns received about two weeks ago, while at work on a gasoline fire-pot. CLARK'S CORNERS Fielder Neph Enters Hospital—Funeral of Edward H. Clark. The Misses Burns have returned to their home in New Haven. Allen Barber Co., remaining comfortable. Slowly recovering from burns received about two weeks ago, while at work on a gasoline fire-pot.

WESTMINSTER No Meetings For Children During Present Scare—Church Members Who Do Not Mind Rain. M. Ostrove, of Bronx, N. Y., arrived at Rosedale, Wednesday. Miss Willa Linnell and Miss Minnie Frost are guests of Prone Linnell. Fred Lewis' dog died recently. Mrs. Frinkel and son, David, returned to New York Wednesday, after spending two weeks at Rosedale. Gustav Schiff is spending a week at Rosedale. Junior Activities Suspended. For the present, during the anxiety of mothers for their children, during the prevalence of infantile paralysis in some large cities, there will be no junior activities of any kind at the parsonage. Last Sunday Mr. Davies spoke to those present, some of whom walked two miles each way in the rain, on the text found in Psalms 121: The natural desire of human hearts is to seek God, and the never to be escaped lowering of character in all who choose to try to turn from God. After the service the choir sang in one Bible class, led by the pastor. The Wednesday prayer service, in the home, had the subject, "The Sin of Neglect, based on the Parable of the Virgin."

SOUTH CANTERBURY Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Newton, Mrs. George Hester and Mrs. Lizzie Goodale of New London, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Levi N. Clark, over Sunday. Mrs. William Sprague of Mousup, and Mrs. Holmes of Waterbury, R. I., called on Mrs. Carrie E. Clark, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Larkham of Canterbury Green, called on Mrs. Clark, Tuesday. Mrs. P. C. Barlow, who is an appendicitis patient at Memorial hospital, Pawtucket, is reported as making satisfactory progress toward recovery. Mrs. Ernest Jacques and Mildred Jacques were recent visitors with local relatives. Much complaint is heard among the farmers about what the Weather Man is handing them. Nearly every one has some hay which was cut near a week ago and is still waiting for sunshine. A drive in any direction will show this section is not alone in the unfortunate condition.

WOODSTOCK Week-end Guests From Boston—Debate Planned—Salem Pike Leads State Boys In Potato Raising. Mrs. Agnes Wood, Miss Nellie Pratt, Mrs. Mary E. Fay, Misses Mildred and Annette May, are spending the week in Putnam, attending Chautauqua. Others are attending daily. Mrs. B. E. Kelly entertained her brothers, Alden and Everett Adams, Mrs. Everett Adams and Marion Adams, all of Boston, for the week-end. Members to Debate. A debate is being arranged for the next meeting of the Community club, August 21st. The Largest Yield of Potatoes. Galen Pike, son of Dr. E. R. Pike, had the largest yield of potatoes of any boy in the State, in the contest of the 1915 Boys' Club. He also made the largest amount of profit. He failed to write a story of his work so was not awarded the prize. This was told in a letter from A. J. Brundage of Storrs college.

EAST WOODSTOCK Week-end Guests From Boston—Debate Planned—Salem Pike Leads State Boys In Potato Raising. Mrs. Agnes Wood, Miss Nellie Pratt, Mrs. Mary E. Fay, Misses Mildred and Annette May, are spending the week in Putnam, attending Chautauqua. Others are attending daily. Mrs. B. E. Kelly entertained her brothers, Alden and Everett Adams, Mrs. Everett Adams and Marion Adams, all of Boston, for the week-end. Members to Debate. A debate is being arranged for the next meeting of the Community club, August 21st. The Largest Yield of Potatoes. Galen Pike, son of Dr. E. R. Pike, had the largest yield of potatoes of any boy in the State, in the contest of the 1915 Boys' Club. He also made the largest amount of profit. He failed to write a story of his work so was not awarded the prize. This was told in a letter from A. J. Brundage of Storrs college.

WESTMINSTER No Meetings For Children During Present Scare—Church Members Who Do Not Mind Rain. M. Ostrove, of Bronx, N. Y., arrived at Rosedale, Wednesday. Miss Willa Linnell and Miss Minnie Frost are guests of Prone Linnell. Fred Lewis' dog died recently. Mrs. Frinkel and son, David, returned to New York Wednesday, after spending two weeks at Rosedale. Gustav Schiff is spending a week at Rosedale. Junior Activities Suspended. For the present, during the anxiety of mothers for their children, during the prevalence of infantile paralysis in some large cities, there will be no junior activities of any kind at the parsonage. Last Sunday Mr. Davies spoke to those present, some of whom walked two miles each way in the rain, on the text found in Psalms 121: The natural desire of human hearts is to seek God, and the never to be escaped lowering of character in all who choose to try to turn from God. After the service the choir sang in one Bible class, led by the pastor. The Wednesday prayer service, in the home, had the subject, "The Sin of Neglect, based on the Parable of the Virgin."

SOUTH CANTERBURY Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Newton, Mrs. George Hester and Mrs. Lizzie Goodale of New London, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Levi N. Clark, over Sunday. Mrs. William Sprague of Mousup, and Mrs. Holmes of Waterbury, R. I., called on Mrs. Carrie E. Clark, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Larkham of Canterbury Green, called on Mrs. Clark, Tuesday. Mrs. P. C. Barlow, who is an appendicitis patient at Memorial hospital, Pawtucket, is reported as making satisfactory progress toward recovery. Mrs. Ernest Jacques and Mildred Jacques were recent visitors with local relatives. Much complaint is heard among the farmers about what the Weather Man is handing them. Nearly every one has some hay which was cut near a week ago and is still waiting for sunshine. A drive in any direction will show this section is not alone in the unfortunate condition.

WOODSTOCK Week-end Guests From Boston—Debate Planned—Salem Pike Leads State Boys In Potato Raising. Mrs. Agnes Wood, Miss Nellie Pratt, Mrs. Mary E. Fay, Misses Mildred and Annette May, are spending the week in Putnam, attending Chautauqua. Others are attending daily. Mrs. B. E. Kelly entertained her brothers, Alden and Everett Adams, Mrs. Everett Adams and Marion Adams, all of Boston, for the week-end. Members to Debate. A debate is being arranged for the next meeting of the Community club, August 21st. The Largest Yield of Potatoes. Galen Pike, son of Dr. E. R. Pike, had the largest yield of potatoes of any boy in the State, in the contest of the 1915 Boys' Club. He also made the largest amount of profit. He failed to write a story of his work so was not awarded the prize. This was told in a letter from A. J. Brundage of Storrs college.

WESTMINSTER No Meetings For Children During Present Scare—Church Members Who Do Not Mind Rain. M. Ostrove, of Bronx, N. Y., arrived at Rosedale, Wednesday. Miss Willa Linnell and Miss Minnie Frost are guests of Prone Linnell. Fred Lewis' dog died recently. Mrs. Frinkel and son, David, returned to New York Wednesday, after spending two weeks at Rosedale. Gustav Schiff is spending a week at Rosedale. Junior Activities Suspended. For the present, during the anxiety of mothers for their children, during the prevalence of infantile paralysis in some large cities, there will be no junior activities of any kind at the parsonage. Last Sunday Mr. Davies spoke to those present, some of whom walked two miles each way in the rain, on the text found in Psalms 121: The natural desire of human hearts is to seek God, and the never to be escaped lowering of character in all who choose to try to turn from God. After the service the choir sang in one Bible class, led by the pastor. The Wednesday prayer service, in the home, had the subject, "The Sin of Neglect, based on the Parable of the Virgin."

SOUTH CANTERBURY Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Newton, Mrs. George Hester and Mrs. Lizzie Goodale of New London, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Levi N. Clark, over Sunday. Mrs. William Sprague of Mousup, and Mrs. Holmes of Waterbury, R. I., called on Mrs. Carrie E. Clark, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Larkham of Canterbury Green, called on Mrs. Clark, Tuesday. Mrs. P. C. Barlow, who is an appendicitis patient at Memorial hospital, Pawtucket, is reported as making satisfactory progress toward recovery. Mrs. Ernest Jacques and Mildred Jacques were recent visitors with local relatives. Much complaint is heard among the farmers about what the Weather Man is handing them. Nearly every one has some hay which was cut near a week ago and is still waiting for sunshine. A drive in any direction will show this section is not alone in the unfortunate condition.

WOODSTOCK Week-end Guests From Boston—Debate Planned—Salem Pike Leads State Boys In Potato Raising. Mrs. Agnes Wood, Miss Nellie Pratt, Mrs. Mary E. Fay, Misses Mildred and Annette May, are spending the week in Putnam, attending Chautauqua. Others are attending daily. Mrs. B. E. Kelly entertained her brothers, Alden and Everett Adams, Mrs. Everett Adams and Marion Adams, all of Boston, for the week-end. Members to Debate. A debate is being arranged for the next meeting of the Community club, August 21st. The Largest Yield of Potatoes. Galen Pike, son of Dr. E. R. Pike, had the largest yield of potatoes of any boy in the State, in the contest of the 1915 Boys' Club. He also made the largest amount of profit. He failed to write a story of his work so was not awarded the prize. This was told in a letter from A. J. Brundage of Storrs college.

WESTMINSTER No Meetings For Children During Present Scare—Church Members Who Do Not Mind Rain. M. Ostrove, of Bronx, N. Y., arrived at Rosedale, Wednesday. Miss Willa Linnell and Miss Minnie Frost are guests of Prone Linnell. Fred Lewis' dog died recently. Mrs. Frinkel and son, David, returned to New York Wednesday, after spending two weeks at Rosedale. Gustav Schiff is spending a week at Rosedale. Junior Activities Suspended. For the present, during the anxiety of mothers for their children, during the prevalence of infantile paralysis in some large cities, there will be no junior activities of any kind at the parsonage. Last Sunday Mr. Davies spoke to those present, some of whom walked two miles each way in the rain, on the text found in Psalms 121: The natural desire of human hearts is to seek God, and the never to be escaped lowering of character in all who choose to try to turn from God. After the service the choir sang in one Bible class, led by the pastor. The Wednesday prayer service, in the home, had the subject, "The Sin of Neglect, based on the Parable of the Virgin."

SOUTH CANTERBURY Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Newton, Mrs. George Hester and Mrs. Lizzie Goodale of New London, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Levi N. Clark, over Sunday. Mrs. William Sprague of Mousup, and Mrs. Holmes of Waterbury, R. I., called on Mrs. Carrie E. Clark, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Larkham of Canterbury Green, called on Mrs. Clark, Tuesday. Mrs. P. C. Barlow, who is an appendicitis patient at Memorial hospital, Pawtucket, is reported as making satisfactory progress toward recovery. Mrs. Ernest Jacques and Mildred Jacques were recent visitors with local relatives. Much complaint is heard among the farmers about what the Weather Man is handing them. Nearly every one has some hay which was cut near a week ago and is still waiting for sunshine. A drive in any direction will show this section is not alone in the unfortunate condition.

WOODSTOCK Week-end Guests From Boston—Debate Planned—Salem Pike Leads State Boys In Potato Raising. Mrs. Agnes Wood, Miss Nellie Pratt, Mrs. Mary E. Fay, Misses Mildred and Annette May, are spending the week in Putnam, attending Chautauqua. Others are attending daily. Mrs. B. E. Kelly entertained her brothers, Alden and Everett Adams, Mrs. Everett Adams and Marion Adams, all of Boston, for the week-end. Members to Debate. A debate is being arranged for the next meeting of the Community club, August 21st. The Largest Yield of Potatoes. Galen Pike, son of Dr. E. R. Pike, had the largest yield of potatoes of any boy in the State, in the contest of the 1915 Boys' Club. He also made the largest amount of profit. He failed to write a story of his work so was not awarded the prize. This was told in a letter from A. J. Brundage of Storrs college.

WESTMINSTER No Meetings For Children During Present Scare—Church Members Who Do Not Mind Rain. M. Ostrove, of Bronx, N. Y., arrived at Rosedale, Wednesday. Miss Willa Linnell and Miss Minnie Frost are guests of Prone Linnell. Fred Lewis' dog died recently. Mrs. Frinkel and son, David, returned to New York Wednesday, after spending two weeks at Rosedale. Gustav Schiff is spending a week at Rosedale. Junior Activities Suspended. For the present, during the anxiety of mothers for their children, during the prevalence of infantile paralysis in some large cities, there will be no junior activities of any kind at the parsonage. Last Sunday Mr. Davies spoke to those present, some of whom walked two miles each way in the rain, on the text found in Psalms 121: The natural desire of human hearts is to seek God, and the never to be escaped lowering of character in all who choose to try to turn from God. After the service the choir sang in one Bible class, led by the pastor. The Wednesday prayer service, in the home, had the subject, "The Sin of Neglect, based on the Parable of the Virgin."

SOUTH CANTERBURY Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Newton, Mrs. George Hester and Mrs. Lizzie Goodale of New London, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Levi N. Clark, over Sunday. Mrs. William Sprague of Mousup, and Mrs. Holmes of Waterbury, R. I., called on Mrs. Carrie E. Clark, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Larkham of Canterbury Green, called on Mrs. Clark, Tuesday. Mrs. P. C. Barlow, who is an appendicitis patient at Memorial hospital, Pawtucket, is reported as making satisfactory progress toward recovery. Mrs. Ernest Jacques and Mildred Jacques were recent visitors with local relatives. Much complaint is heard among the farmers about what the Weather Man is handing them. Nearly every one has some hay which was cut near a week ago and is still waiting for sunshine. A drive in any direction will show this section is not alone in the unfortunate condition.

WOODSTOCK Week-end Guests From Boston—Debate Planned—Salem Pike Leads State Boys In Potato Raising. Mrs. Agnes Wood, Miss Nellie Pratt, Mrs. Mary E. Fay, Misses Mildred and Annette May, are spending the week in Putnam, attending Chautauqua. Others are attending daily. Mrs. B. E. Kelly entertained her brothers, Alden and Everett Adams, Mrs. Everett Adams and Marion Adams, all of Boston, for the week-end. Members to Debate. A debate is being arranged for the next meeting of the Community club, August 21st. The Largest Yield of Potatoes. Galen Pike, son of Dr. E. R. Pike, had the largest yield of potatoes of any boy in the State, in the contest of the 1915 Boys' Club. He also made the largest amount of profit. He failed to write a story of his work so was not awarded the prize. This was told in a letter from A. J. Brundage of Storrs college.

WESTMINSTER No Meetings For Children During Present Scare—Church Members Who Do Not Mind Rain. M. Ostrove, of Bronx, N. Y., arrived at Rosedale, Wednesday. Miss Willa Linnell and Miss Minnie Frost are guests of Prone Linnell. Fred Lewis' dog died recently. Mrs. Frinkel and son, David, returned to New York Wednesday, after spending two weeks at Rosedale. Gustav Schiff is spending a week at Rosedale. Junior Activities Suspended. For the present, during the anxiety of mothers for their children, during the prevalence of infantile paralysis in some large cities, there will be no junior activities of any kind at the parsonage. Last Sunday Mr. Davies spoke to those present, some of whom walked two miles each way in the rain, on the text found in Psalms 121: The natural desire of human hearts is to seek God, and the never to be escaped lowering of character in all who choose to try to turn from God. After the service the choir sang in one Bible class, led by the pastor. The Wednesday prayer service, in the home, had the subject, "The Sin of Neglect, based on the Parable of the Virgin."

SOUTH CANTERBURY Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Newton, Mrs. George Hester and Mrs. Lizzie Goodale of New London, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Levi N. Clark, over Sunday. Mrs. William Sprague of Mousup, and Mrs. Holmes of Waterbury, R. I., called on Mrs. Carrie E. Clark, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Larkham of Canterbury Green, called on Mrs. Clark, Tuesday. Mrs. P. C. Barlow, who is an appendicitis patient at Memorial hospital, Pawtucket, is reported as making satisfactory progress toward recovery. Mrs. Ernest Jacques and Mildred Jacques were recent visitors with local relatives. Much complaint is heard among the farmers about what the Weather Man is handing them. Nearly every one has some hay which was cut near a week ago and is still waiting for sunshine. A drive in any direction will show this section is not alone in the unfortunate condition.

WOODSTOCK Week-end Guests From Boston—Debate Planned—Salem Pike Leads State Boys In Potato Raising. Mrs. Agnes Wood, Miss Nellie Pratt, Mrs. Mary E. Fay, Misses Mildred and Annette May, are spending the week in Putnam, attending Chautauqua. Others are attending daily. Mrs. B. E. Kelly entertained her brothers, Alden and Everett Adams, Mrs. Everett Adams and Marion Adams, all of Boston, for the week-end. Members to Debate. A debate is being arranged for the next meeting of the Community club, August 21st. The Largest Yield of Potatoes. Galen Pike, son of Dr. E. R. Pike, had the largest yield of potatoes of any boy in the State, in the contest of the 1915 Boys' Club. He also made the largest amount of profit. He failed to write a story of his work so was not awarded the prize. This was told in a letter from A. J. Brundage of Storrs college.

WESTMINSTER No Meetings For Children During Present Scare—Church Members Who Do Not Mind Rain. M. Ostrove, of Bronx, N. Y., arrived at Rosedale, Wednesday. Miss Willa Linnell and Miss Minnie Frost are guests of Prone Linnell. Fred Lewis' dog died recently. Mrs. Frinkel and son, David, returned to New York Wednesday, after spending two weeks at Rosedale. Gustav Schiff is spending a week at Rosedale. Junior Activities Suspended. For the present, during the anxiety of mothers for their children, during the prevalence of infantile paralysis in some large cities, there will be no junior activities of any kind at the parsonage. Last Sunday Mr. Davies spoke to those present, some of whom walked two miles each way in the rain, on the text found in Psalms 121: The natural desire of human hearts is to seek God, and the never to be escaped lowering of character in all who choose to try to turn from God. After the service the choir sang in one Bible class, led by the pastor. The Wednesday prayer service, in the home, had the subject, "The Sin of Neglect, based on the Parable of the Virgin."

CANTERBURY GREEN

Ladies' Association to Hold Meeting and Social—Officers of Girls' Club—Walter L. Wilson in the Trenches. Last Sunday's steady downpour appreciably affected church attendance, only a few foot passengers appearing. The sermon was one of the series on the Bible, its figurative language was noted. The text, Matt. 13:34, "Without a parable spoke he nothing unto them." Tomorrow (Sunday) evening's subject is How Missions are Blessing our Nation. Loke 19:41-48. Leader, Miss Edith Exley. The Ladies' association meeting and social is set for Tuesday, August 1st, from 2-5 P. M., with Mrs. Paetsch, of the Girls' Club Meets. A Girls' club, lately organized, for church and social interests met with Miss Sarah Louise Hadley, Wednesday afternoon. A busy hour was followed by the serving of refreshments. Miss Elsie Haves is president, Miss Lydia Lathrop vice-president, Miss Maude Graves secretary and Miss Evelyn Graves treasurer. The next meeting is planned for August 16. Mrs. Fanny Stanton has come from the hospital care of Miss Emily Place who is suffering from general debility. Mrs. Helen Burton is considered a trifle better. Harold, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, is improving from an acute attack of illness. Walter L. Wilson in Two Fierce Battles. Canterbury people follow with much interest the sympathetic reports of the war news from the western front in Europe, where for many months Walter L. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Wilson, of New York and Canterbury, has been stationed in the trenches of the Canadian contingent of the British expeditionary forces. Word from him, since the opening of the British offensive shows that he has come unharmed through two of the fiercest battles of the war, during one of which alone, 5,000 Canadians lost their lives. News Briefly Stated. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hyde are home from their cottage at Duxbury, Mass. Ernest Wheaton of Putnam called on local friends Sunday. Earl Perrin of Putnam visited at the home of Herbert Batey last week. Mrs. Frank Davis and family attended the W. R. C. picnic at Wildwood park Sunday. The Faithful Helpers, a sewing circle, recently organized here, gave an entertainment last week Wednesday consisting of a play, recitations, and music. Five cents admission was charged. Proceeds $1.15. Cake and candy were served free. The members of the circle are: Muriel McCarty, Mabel Conklin, Marie Jasmin, Jennette Jamin, Elva Cummings, Hazel Sullivan.

Funeral of Charles Goodwin Held on Thursday—Brief Local Notes. Mrs. Charles Kelly and daughter, Minnie, were in East Thompson on Tuesday. Mrs. Fannie Jennings spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Baker, in New Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Frightman of Manchester were here for the week end. Irving Adams spent Tuesday in Quinebaug, Conn. Miss Alice Jack is in Norwich with relatives for a short time. Mrs. Pratt of Webster was in town over Sunday. After a long illness Charles Goodwin died at his home Tuesday morning. The funeral was held on Thursday.

EAST THOMPSON All-Day Meeting in Interests of Woman Suffrage. There was an all-day meeting at the Inn Wednesday in the interests of Woman Suffrage. There were several speakers and in spite of bad weather there were between forty and fifty in attendance. Dinner was served by the King's Daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Huntington attended the funeral of Charles Goodwin of Wiltonville, on Thursday. He died Tuesday morning after a long illness. A number from East Thompson are attending Douglas Camp Meeting where the gospel is being preached in demonstration of the spirit. Rev. and Mrs. Chamberlain are in Wiltonville for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Silas Joslin are entertaining the former's sister from New York.

NORTH WINDHAM Burton Hall, son of Frank M. Hall fell last Saturday and broke his wrist. Dr. O'Neil reduced the fracture. Several from this place attended the

STEAMER BLOCK ISLAND DAILY SERVICE WATCH HILL and BLOCK ISLAND

WATCH HILL AND BLOCK ISLAND RETURN

SHORE DINNER HOUSES AND BATHING BEACH NEAR LANDINGS AT WATCH HILL AND BLOCK ISLAND.

NEW ENGLAND STEAMSHIP CO. C. J. ISBISTER, Norwich, Agt.

Don't You Want Good Teeth?

Does the dread of the dental chair cause you to neglect them? You need have no fears. By our method you can have your teeth filled, crowned or extracted ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT PAIN.

CONSIDER THESE OTHER FEATURES

STRICTLY SANITARY OFFICE STERILIZED INSTRUMENTS CLEAN LINEN

MUCH OF ASEPTIC DRINKING CUPS LOWEST PRICES CONSISTENT WITH BEST WORK

If these appeal to you, call for examination and estimate. No charge for consultation.

DR. F. C. JACKSON DR. D. J. COVLE

DENTISTS (Successors to the King Dental Co.)

203 MAIN ST. 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. NORWICH, CONN. Telephone

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Mrs. Celfina McStay in Norwich to be Near Daughter—John Toulin Visiting Quebec—Everett Dean Recovering From Burns. Edward Cutler was a recent visitor in Providence. Mrs. George Potoin and children, Ruth and Arlene, have returned from a visit with relatives in Canterbury. Mrs. Samuel Collins is spending a week in Warren, R. I., where she formerly resided. Ernest French cut his hand badly with a piece of glass. Henry E. Lewis was a Norwich visitor last week. William Lambert is employed in Ashaway, R. I. Miss Lena Dennis has returned from the hospital care of Miss Emily Place. Miss Sarah Wilkinson is visiting relatives in Charlestown, Mass. Mrs. Harry Dean has been entertaining her cousin from Danvers. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mitchell of New Hampshire are visiting at Frederick Mitchell's. Mrs. Arthur Davis is entertaining her sister and niece from Manchester, N. H. In Norwich, To Visit Daughter. Mrs. Celfina McStay is in Norwich for an indefinite stay with relatives and every day will visit her daughter, Mrs. Orla Spies of Torrington, who remains ill at the sanitarium. Miss Charlotte Reece of Boston has been visiting Miss Beatrice Seguin. Mrs. Orla Spies is spending a week with Miss Lila Schofield in Passaic, N. J. Brothers To Meet. John Toulin has gone to Quebec, Canada to visit relatives. He expects to meet a brother who lives in Missouri, whom he has not seen for nearly thirty years. Mrs. J. Tillingshast has returned from New York, where he has been spending a few days on account of the illness of a relative. Carroll Mathews has returned from a visit with Providence relatives. John Greenleigh has returned from a trip to New York. Protection lodge of Odd Fellows held a meeting Thursday evening. Home On The Shore. Mrs. John L. Chapman and daughter, Miriam, have returned from Lord's Point, where they have been spending a few weeks at the Hopkins' cottage. George R. Fowler of Providence has been visiting relatives here, where he formerly resided. William Simmons has returned from Pleasant Beach where he has been spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Vaughn of Norwich, who is passing the summer at the beach. Mrs. Annie Mahew has returned from a visit with relatives in Providence. On account of the storm Sunday, there was no session of Sunday school. Everett Dean Recovering. Everett Dean, senior partner of the C. L. Barber Co., remaining comfortable. Slowly recovering from burns received about two weeks ago, while at work on a gasoline fire-pot.

CLARK'S CORNERS