the stewed berries and some on the top.

Huckleberry Pie: Line your pie plate with crust. Put into it one pint berries. Sprinkle over them one-half cup sugar and one teaspoon flour. Add your top crust, and bake.

ORIGINAL REFRESHING DRINKS FOR HOT WEATHER.

Dear Social Corner Sisters: I am sending in recipes for cold drinks, and hope you will try them, for they are all fine.

iced Tea: Juice of two lemons, grape juice one pint, tea that has been steeped and cooled, one quart. Add water enough to fill twelve glasses and sweeten to suit the taste. Strong tea will require more water.

Lime Juice and Water, not more than a half teaspoon to a glass of water, with a good pinch of cream tartar, makes a nice fizzy drink, and is very good for the system.

Lemonade: Juice of two lemons, one cup grape juice, three quarts, and sugar to taste.

Cold Cocoa: Make any desired amount of cocoa and put on ice; when ready to serve put one tablespoon of whipped cream over each cup, or serve in tall glasses, and flavor both cocoa and cream with vanilla.

To Make a Fine Grape Juice put one cup grapes in the quart fruit jar, add one generous half cup brown sugar, and fill jar to over-flowing with boiling water and seal immediately. Turn end for end twice or three days for a week. It is ready to drink in six weeks. Cut this out and save it until grape time.

The best of all can be found at all times of day or night on the western porch of Remember Me, and all you have to do is to turn the crank.

CHIPS.

WAYS OF USING FLOUR SACKS.

Dear Social Corner Sisters: Just a few lines. Will send in ways for Utilizing Flour Sacks.

There is always an accumulation of flour sacks where there is a large family. When sacks are emptied, put to soak in a water in which a little turpentine is added and they will come clean easier; wash and bleach.

Now take four sacks, sew them together, then fringe, one inch around, and over-cast, or turn up one inch and hemstitch with red cotton thread. These make fine table cloths for every day use and launder beautifully. If wanted larger use more sacks.

Take some of these sacks, purchase dye, and color, black, and make bloomers for the wee little girls. Put elastic at the knees and at the wrists, and they can put them on themselves without bothering busy mother. These also save so much more washing than if they were white; and can also be used to make under clothes for the children.

Always keep plenty hemmed for tea cloths for if not hemmed they are liable to be torn by the tea tray.

They can be put to another use: Color them bright colors, such as red and orange, tear into strips and mix with dark color, and use for curtains themselves without bothering busy mother. These also save so much more washing than if they were white; and can also be used to make under clothes for the children.

GREETINGS FROM REMEMBER ME.

Dear Social Corner Sisters: As I am nicely rested after our picnic I will take time to thank The Bulletin company for helping our good time along. The ice cream was very nice. We had a lovely day, rather warm, but no thunder showers. We had a good number there, but sorry not to have seen still more. Ocean Beach is I want to thank those who so kindly helped us on that day, Grace, Joe, Olga, Sidney, and all others I did not know.

I have found a plate, and two napkins and a book strap left by some of the Sisters. If they will tell me who they belong to I will try and return them. I also want to thank those who helped us with our programme.

I hope Aunt Abbie, Aunt Mary and Paula may have as nice a day for their picnic as we did.

Dom Pedro: I think the Sisters will like to come to Ocean Beach as you suggest. I, for one, would like to go.

Kitty Lou: I want to thank you for the present you sent me. Think it very pretty.

Dorinda: Hope you are much better than when I last heard from you. Amy: Hope our picnic come out all right. Will attend to them as soon as possible.

I thank all those who sent me cards for my birthday. I enjoyed them very much. I had 55.

REMEMBER ME.

LUCY ACORN CHATS.

Dear Sisters of The Social Corner: I am delighted in reading of so many picnics. And my wish is that I could go to every one of them. I am all ready for my picnic. Bought my equipment at the ten cent store. A child's set, knife, fork, and spoon, just fits nicely in my hand bag; an aluminum cup, says darling on it. (Some class to that.) I never discovered the sentiment until I arrived home.

Aunt Abby: Am surely coming. I am still thinking of the good times of the past.

Aunt Mary: Your invitation reads so good. Those berries! Nay! I am going to bring the biggest box.

Aunt Sarah and Remember Me: Was sorry I could not attend. Am anxious to hear all about it.

Etta Barber: I would be pleased to meet you.

Clara of C. and Young Mother: Are you coming to Aunt Mary's?

Ready: Bring the wood-box.

Lucy Ann: How are the chickens? Come over and see my Butter Cup Hens, they lay a white egg. All the rage in New York.

Married and Happy: Was so disappointed not to be at home when you called. Since then have read and heard of the sad news of your dear mother. You have my heartfelt sympathy.

Biddy: Think I saw you at Ocean Beach two weeks ago. Wanted to holler out, "Hello, Biddy," but thought the people would think I was a little off, and it may not have been you. There was a little biddy, a wee one, with you. Bluebird: Will you have a cup of tea? Your sister, LUCY ACORN.

THE OUTDOOR BEVERAGE

Summer sports and outings are thirst creating. What to drink is the question. Syrupy drinks don't satisfy and may upset the stomach—ice cold beverages with no life to them taste good going down but fail to "reach the spot." But a clear, clean, cool lager beer or ale—ah, that's different. On your outings take along a case of
