Willimantic Camp Meeting Plans

Bishops John W. Hamilton, D. D., and Franklin Hamilton, D. D., Among Prominent Clergymen Who Will Speak at the Gathering From August 19 to 28—Pastors of Norwich District Methodist Churches Leaders—Epworth League Institute.

At Willimantic camp ground the camp meeting and Epworth league institute are less than three weeks away. The combination of a ten days' services, with lessons by the institute professors in the morning, addresses by prominent speakers in the afternoon and sermons by celebrated clergymen in the evening, which proved so successful an arrangement last season, is to be continued this season also. The date of the meeting is August 19 to 28, including two Sundays, and the services are under the joint auspices of the Willimantic Camp Meeting association and the Norwich District Epworth league.

Noted Speakers Secured.
Among the leaders and speakers are two brothers, presiding bishops, Rev. John W. Hamilton, D. D., for the last six years resident New England bishop in Boston, and his brother, Rev. Franklin Hamilton, D. D., for several years chancellor of the American university, a great Methodist institution at Washington, D. C., and who last May was elected bishop at the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Other speakers are Rev. Edward S. Nixon, D. D., of the Episcopal William Xavier Nields, pastor of Matthews street M. E. church, Providence, R. I.; Dr. E. Perkins, a returned missionary from China, who will leave for the field again in a few months; Dr. W. A. Goodell, professor of biblical literature at the Methodist university of Oklahoma; Dr. Edgar J. Helms, superintendent of Morgan Memorial in Boston; Dr. A. E. Wright, Springfield, Mass.; Dr. Charles Spaulding, Boston; Dr. Edgar J. Helms, superintendent of the Epworth League; Rev. W. H. Bath, South Manchester, pastor; Rev. Otis H. Moore, principal of East Greenwich academy; Miss Alice M. Robertson, president of the Boston Deaconess Training school; Laura J. Birney, dean of Boston University School of Theology; and Dr. C. Albert Tindley, pastor of the First Calvary M. E. church in the city. The latter named is new at the camp ground. His brilliant addresses and wonderful prayers were one of the sensations of the recent general conference. As the singing is a most important feature this year, there is unanimous rejoicing over the return for the second year as leader of the choir, and as gospel soloist, Ernest W. Nafziger, who this time brings his own accompanist. A new Epworth plan is to be provided this year through the generosity of a contributor.

The services open with a Get-Acquainted social to be held in the tabernacle on the afternoon of Saturday, Aug. 19. Other recreation features are as follows:
Saturday evening Mr. Nafziger has consented to provide an entertainment of music and dancing. A social exhibition drill will be presented by the New London legion.
Wednesday afternoon will be celebrated as "Bible Sunday." Each service will be held at the stand, but at an earlier hour than usual, and following this afternoon will be given to the students and faculty of the Epworth League a company of the Epworth League and Camp Fire Girls work. Dr. Irwin and Mr. Helms of East Greenwich academy will have charge of the service.
Thursday afternoon will be home-coming day. This will be the time for reports and reminiscences. An old-fashioned "sing" will be led by Ernest Nafziger, and this will be followed by a general picnic and social time for all.
Saturday, Aug. 26, at 1:30 p. m., will occur the annual convention of the Norwich district. All members of churches in the district are entitled to a vote. A new banner will be awarded this year. The annual junior league convention will also be held at this time.
The tennis tournament last year was a distinct success. This year there will be events for women as well as men, and prizes for the winners.
Picnics and other outings will be planned all through the week. The annual campfire will also be an added feature of attraction in this line.

TWO NORWICH MEN AT PLATTSBURG CAMP.

Grossvener Ely and Louis R. Porteous Enrolled for Military Training.
Among those from this neighborhood who have attended or enrolled for one or another of this summer's military training camps at Plattsburg, N. Y., are the following:
Frank W. Hamilton, Groton.
Piny LeRoy Harwood, New London.
James Norman Bond, Niantic.
Glenville T. Anderson, Crescent Beach.
Leon E. Roseau, Necklet Hill, Lyme.
Thomas K. Troland, New London.
Louis Robertus, Porteous, Norwich.
Grossvener Ely, Norwich.
Richard Schellens, Groton.
Edward L. Kelly, Colchester.
Franklin D. Lord, Norwich.
Henry William Bond, Niantic.
Cliff Cornwall, Mystic.
Over 500 men from Connecticut for this year's training camps. This is about 12 times as many as attended last year from this state, showing the rapid growth of the movement. More than 15,000 have sent in their names from all parts of the country, every State being represented except Idaho. American citizens resident in the continent, Cuba, Porto Rico, Mexico, Alaska and even France and the Philippines also have answered.

Those who have actually attended are the most ardent advocates of these camps. They say that the work is hard, but extremely interesting, and so eagerly graduated that a man in "soft" physical condition has ample opportunity to get hardened up before the hike, which comes the last week of the four. The food, while not elaborate, is good and sufficient, the camp is sanitary, and all the arrangements make for good health. Plattsburgers point out that here is an excellent opportunity for a man to give his vacation to his country and yet have the most useful vacation he ever enjoyed. They also point out that there is nothing militaristic in the scheme of things, and Mr. Bryan himself could go with a clear conscience, since there is no formal obligation of service attached to the enrollment. But they believe that the experience would be a decided eye-opener to him as it is to all who attend.

New Haven county leads the state with about 200. Hartford county is second with over 100. Fairfield a close third with over 80, and Litchfield fourth with over 60.
The next camp will begin Aug. 10 and extends to Sept. 5; after that there is one more camp, beginning Sept. 8 and running to Oct. 3. There are also four special two weeks' camps for doctors. The books are still open and applications may be sent direct to "Officer in Charge, Governor's Island, New York." Inquiries may be addressed either to him or to "Military Training Camps association, 31 Nassau street, New York," or to Connecticut headquarters, which are at present in charge of Anson T. McCook, 50 State street, resident.

HUGHES FAVORS FEDERAL SUFFRAGE

promptly settled," Mr. Hughes said. "I see nothing but danger to our security, to our unity, to our proper attitude toward political questions, in continued restriction of the subject."
In his address to the league Mr. Hughes again assailed the administration for its policy concerning American suffrage abroad during the European war.
Addressed Republican Editors.
The nominee also made a luncheon address today to about fifty republican editors of New York state in which he said he had twice been called upon to live down an undesired reputation for cobwebs and obscurity, but that he was now passing through the third experience. He invited sympathetic cooperation.
No speaking report of the address was made by the nominee and he did not start his remarks to be taken down, that he wanted to talk freely and fully.
Thinking Mr. Hughes addressed a small gathering of social workers in which he heard Herbert Parsons, national commissioner for New York, to meet the nominee at an uptown club. The meeting was private.
In his address to the Women's Republican League for Hughes, the nominee said:
"It is an especial pleasure to meet you this afternoon and to recognize the very deep interest that you feel in this campaign. I am particularly glad to have the support of this organization. I heard the name of an American citizen, whose name you who have very recently brought the whole country to a sense of its obligation and aroused a sense of duty, with regard to the support of our most important concerns. I welcome the support of the Women's League."

Women Take Profound Interest.
"This is a campaign in which I am sure women cannot fail to take a very profound interest. They, if anyone, can be best compared in such a matter, and I am sure they will take a very deep interest in the national house and the maintenance of its institutions, to our proper preparation and our security, and, further, to that organization in our life in all its activities which will guarantee us an American nation forward to meet the responsibilities which are sure to be upon us after this year is over."

Relation to American Rights.
"I hope that you represent a very strong feeling with regard to our responsibility to American rights in connection with that war—to our relation to the maintenance of American rights in connection with Mexico. We do not need to this country to be brought into unnecessary conflict. There is not the slightest danger of that in a just, firm and consistent American policy."

Difficult to Satisfy Democrats.
"It is very difficult to satisfy our friends on the other side. If you say that the administration has been weak and vacillating, they reply: 'That is all very well—they know that before, if you say they have been lacking in firmness and consistency, they say: 'We are going to be firm and consistent now. We are looking to the future and we are ready to turn over a new leaf.'"

This is the Reckoning Time.
"Now, my friends, this is the reckoning time. We are all stockholders in a great corporation, and the balance sheet is presented in order that we may know what kind of administration we are getting. We have had, we look over that balance sheet and we find a serious deficit balance and we do not trust the administrators that have brought it about."

Incurable Defect in Administration.
"There is an incurable defect of character in the administration in respect to the weakness and vacillation which have characterized it, and we cannot expect improvement from that source. We can judge by what has been done and by what has not been done, and we are here together under circumstances very unpropitious to me."

Notes for Women Inevitable.

"I explained last night my position with regard to a very complex subject in which many of you, if not all of you, are deeply interested. I refer to woman suffrage; and as I then said, I have come to the conviction that the granting of a vote to women is inevitable. I base that conclusion upon a consideration of our economic conditions."

Deprecate Sex Organizations.
"That being my conviction, I deprecate most deeply sex organizations based upon sex and not upon the general obligations of citizenship borne by all. I view with a great deal of misgiving a continuation of the activities which I am sure will grow more and more intense as this movement moves determined opposition."

Women Come in as Citizens With Men.
"I speak with reference to the American of the future and the great importance that in our preparedness we should deal with real public issues and not have our political life sidetracked by great and determined movements made by determined organizations with regard to the composition of our electorate. That is a matter that is fundamental. We must start with our electorate and then discuss the matters with respect to which they are to act according to their convictions. And so I want to say, women, if they are to have the vote, as I believe they ought to, come in as citizens with men."

Not Organized on a Sex Basis.
"I desire to see them not organized on a sex basis, developing sex antagonism, but with the responsibility of citizens, and coming in as men do and in connection with the great questions of the day, to exercise their powerful influence according to their convictions on those questions. And so I stated that I favored woman suffrage."

In Favor of Federal Amendment.
"Now, I did not state last night my attitude with regard to the federal amendment. That matter was not mentioned specifically in the republican platform. I did not deal with it in making formal response to the notification of my nomination. Today, in answer to a telegram from Senator Sutherland of Utah, I stated that I was in hearty sympathy with the principle and I announced last night, I was in favor of the federal amendment."

Amendment Should Be Submitted to Electorate.
"I further believe that it is a matter affecting the whole country. It is one of those matters where we must have a uniform policy. The country must decide what that policy must be. I have indicated my belief as to what it should be, but it is a question which affects the whole country, and, therefore, I believe that the federal amendment should be submitted and should be decided by the people."

Going to Summer Home.
Mr. Hughes expects to leave New York tomorrow afternoon for his summer home at Bridgehampton, where he will remain until Saturday, when he will start on his trip to the Pacific coast.
