ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE.

Four Shows Today at 1.30, 3.15, 6.45 and 8.45—Big Bill of Keith Vandeville and Triangle Photoplays.

There will be four shows at this theatre today and the bill which finishes their engagement tonight is one that has been the talk of the town the past few days. Both vandeville and photoplays are the best seen here in some time and everything combined makes a very pleasant afternoon or evening's entertainment. The vandeville consists of the DeKoch Troupe of athletes, who juggle and throw human beings in a manner that is something wonderful. The other act is Robinson and Lemoine, two colored comedians, who have one of the best singing and talking acts ever seen in this city. The Triangle feature photoplays Casey at the Bat, with DeWolf Hopper as the star. This is an interesting comedy drama and one that appeals to everyone. To complete the show there is a two reel Keystone comedy called Wings and Wheels, and it is just about full of laughter.

For the first half of next week the management of this popular theatre has secured a bill of vandeville that cannot be equaled anywhere for the money. The feature attraction is Fred J. Gardner and company, presenting 'The Yellow Peril,' a tense dramatic play of international interest, showing the workings of the United States secret service men. This is the greatest sensational dramatic offering now playing vandeville. The cast consists of four talented artists and a special setting is used. The other vandeville feature is the Southern Four, four pretty girls in a beautiful harmony offering of old southern airs. This is an act that you will like if you enjoy good singing. In the photoplays another big Douglas Fairbanks feature will be shown. This latest one is called 'Fighting With Fate,' a five reel Fine Arts production, and declared by the New York critics to be the best picture this popular star has ever appeared in. Douglas Fairbanks needs no recommendation to the patrons of this theatre, and his many admirers will be glad to witness this latest success. The show would not be complete without the two reel Keystone comedy which usually sends everyone home with a smile, and the one on this bill is no exception. It is called 'The Surt Girl' and shows the famous Keystone driving girls in exhibitions of fancy and high diving. For the last half of the week the management have booked 'Geebung,' the big seven part sensational drama.

There will be singing of hymns, with cornet and organ accompaniment.

her and her dying brother in his hunting lodge, how she learns that his father is the Prefect, who has murdered her father and brother and drenched her, makes the thrilling and tragic events that follow, form a story of compelling quality, and a real dramatic sensation. The Dresden will also present the Metro travelogue and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in a very funny one reel comedy entitled 'System is Everything.'

ATOP THE MAJESTIC ROOF.

Dancing to the music of Jacobs' New York Society orchestra atop the Majestic Roof is getting more popular every evening and the very latest one is the 'The Roof' which is being played at the dancing. Mr. Jacobs has promised to be here personally some evening next week and will himself conduct the orchestra which is without doubt the best orchestra for dancing ever heard in this city. Besides the dancing the refreshment tables are well patronized and quick service is assured by the eight hustling waiters which appear very neat in their white coats and caps. The picture program is one of excellence as the features run are those of only the best producers and made by the Vitaphone, Edison, Selig, Pathé and other such well known companies. Tonight the feature will be a four-reel Vitaphone comedy drama of exceptional interest and for a good laugh producer 'The Pest Vamoose' a Selig comedy is hard to beat. Admission to the roof is only 15 cents and in case of rain after the performance starts, rain checks are given to all those coming in before nine o'clock. The Roof will be open every night you see the starlight.

Y. M. C. A. Open Air Meeting. The fourth in the series of open air meetings conducted by the Y. M. C. A. will be held on the Buckingham Memorial grounds on Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, weather permitting. The speaker is to be Rev. L. M. Keneston of Preston City. Mr. Keneston has been heard before at the meetings in the Thayer building, where the earnestness with which he spoke gave much satisfaction to his audience. The Buckingham grounds were very refreshing in last Sunday's heat, so that the men and women who will attend will be assured of comfort, and chairs will be provided for all.

There will be singing of hymns, with cornet and organ accompaniment.

POETRY AUGUST.

Berries on the hilltops. Oranges on the trees. Peas in the orchard, August's FINISH. Katvrids hum. And birds sing. And I just dream. In the garden swing!

The whole world thrills. And the gladness spills. Over the meadows. And woods and hills. FROM A SOLDIER. You set me good without a sign of fear. You brave good-bye, and singe my hair. And though you would not turn me by a hair. I saw your eyes were wet.

And was it that your love was any less. Than those who keep their men from duty's quest. Nay, it was more, for with unselfish love. You loved my honor best. —Jenny, a Soldier, in the London Gentlewoman. A MARTYR. Folks always look at me askance. As though they would not take. On me or my veracity. —A Martyr.

Humor of the Day. Sillyness—Who was it that said "the world is mine oyster?" Cynicus—Give it up; but I'll bet it was some fellow who couldn't open the shell.—Judge. Gloomy actor—What's the matter this morning, Albert? Glozier manager—Baby Briggs is getting married, and the show's queer.—Sydney Bulletin.

"Strange Mary doesn't have any of her! She'd make some man a good wife." "Yes, but the trouble is, everyone knows she'd make him a good husband, too."—Life. "Are your children much of a help and a comfort?" "Yes, indeed. I can always depend on them to tell me when the best moving pictures are to be
