

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County

LEFFINGWELL

Pastor at Northfield Conference and Sunday Services Will Be Omitted—Visitors of the Week.

Mrs. Arthur Boynton and Miss Harriet Hall of Norwich were guests Sunday at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weaver of Norwich Town visited local friends Sunday.

Mrs. Olin Boynton has returned to her home at Gardner Lake after spending a few days with E. E. Reynolds.

Mrs. William Smith and son of New Britain, N. J., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Rector.

John H. Hathorne and Pearl W. Jones are spending a week at Northfield, Mass.

Mrs. Emma Miller of Norwich was a guest this week of her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Johnson.

Miss Alice and Helen Tyack and William Tyack returned to New York after spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. J. Elliott Dolbear.

Mrs. J. G. Ward of Plainville spent a week among her former friends recently.

Mrs. Albert Hill and son, Elmer Hill, of Hartford are guests of Mrs. William H. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gardner have moved into their new home at East Great Plain. The house, which they had purchased by Jesse E. Rogers.

Miss Myra C. Ellis is spending a week at Renton, Wash. Her week end guests Miss Elsie Beard and Miss Margaret Beebe of Westfield.

There will be no morning service at the Baptist church Sunday owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. Laurence O. Gates, who is spending a week at the Northern general conference of Christian workers. There will be the usual E. Y. P. U. meeting at 7:30.

NORTH STONINGTON

Attending Storms Summer School—Tea Garden Has Been Most Successful—Grangers Attend Pomona Outing.

Rev. George H. Chambers of Fitchville has been spending the week at the home of Mrs. H. M. Perkins.

Miss Alice E. Avery and Miss Marion E. White are attending summer term school at Storrs.

Miss Talulah Maine, principal of the Stratford hall school, Bronxville, N. Y., has been in town for a few days.

Principal R. Moore of Wheeler school visited on Wednesday.

Miss Flora Harris of Buffalo, N. Y., has been visiting Mrs. W. D. Smith.

Mrs. Curtis Wilcox of Lisbon has been a recent visitor in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Matne of Norwich were in town Wednesday.

Most Successful Ever Held. The sixth annual Tea Garden held this week in the Congregational church for the support of the children's playground has been the most successful one ever held.

A number of local grangers attended the Pomona grange field day at Atlantic Beach Thursday.

Rev. S. M. Cathcart of Westerly will preach in the Congregational church Sunday morning at a vacation supply.

Rev. O. D. Fisher is now taking a part of his vacation. He expects to occupy an out of town pulpit on Sunday.

Will Preach at Old Mystic. Rev. Leland Drury will preach in the Baptist church at Old Mystic Sunday morning.

Rev. W. H. Lakin of Montville will supply the Third Baptist church Sunday.

GRISWOLD

Rev. F. S. Child's Sunday Subject—Birthdays Surprises—Deacon and Mrs. Edgar Entertain.

Rev. F. S. Child's Sunday morning subject will be "The Profit of Godliness." Evening subject, Mr. Father's Business, Luke 24:9.

Charles Edmond of Hartford returns to his home Sunday after a week's visit with his brothers and family.

Surprised on 21st Birthday. Miss Mildred Montgomery was very happily surprised Wednesday evening when sixteen neighbors gathered called at her home to remind her that it was her twenty-first birthday. The evening was pleasantly passed with games and music. Cake and cream were served. A large birthday cake with 21 lighted candles was pronounced "O K."

Miss Mildred and Bertha Montgomery go (today) Thursday to Providence, R. I., for a visit.

Mr. George Herbut of Worcester, and Mrs. Annie of Westerly, visited at Victor Campbell's Saturday.

Rev. C. L. French and family and Mrs. Taylor, visited friends in town on Monday.

Geer Family Gathering. Sixteen with the family attended the meeting Wednesday at the home of Deacon and Mrs. E. A. Geer.

Henry George of Three Rivers, Mass., is visiting his brother, Edward Geer.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edmond of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Richardson of Freeton, called on friends in town Wednesday.

PENDLETON HILL

Harrison Kinnear at Pomona Outing—Guests at Palmer Homestead.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Wesley Hale and Mrs. Emma Hale returned to Springfield, on Thursday and will spend the remainder of the summer at Wales, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Milne of Boston are spending a few weeks at the Elizabeth Thompson's.

Deacon and Mrs. Elmer Coon, Clark Coon, and Miss Sarah T. Palmer, attended the band concert at Atlantic Beach Sunday afternoon.

Classroom C. Maine is moving on the John Coit's place this week.

Harrison Kinnear attended the New London County Pomona picnic at Atlantic Beach on Thursday.

Mrs. Lillian N. Palmer, Miss Jean Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Culbert Palmer and Miss Anna Culbert of Stonington, were at the Palmer homestead on Tuesday.

David Outworth is employed in Norwich.

BOZRAH

Grangers Attend Pomona Outing—Supervisor Tables Here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jones of Milrose Highlands, Mass., were the guests over night of Rev. and Mrs. J. Young.

About sixty attended the grange meeting held at the home of Edwin Lathrop on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bishop, Mrs. Olive A. Bishop, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lathrop and Miss Maude G. Lathrop, attended the Pomona meeting on Thursday at Atlantic Beach on Thursday.

Mrs. Rhoda Miner has returned to her home after a week's visit in Mystic.

Miss S. Tapley, supervisor of the summer school at Storrs spent Thursday night with J. C. Young.

Henry Morse of West Bridgewater, Mass., and Lucia Morgan of East Great Plain were guests at dinner at Edwin Lathrop's on Wednesday.

NORTH FRANKLIN

Mrs. Hannah Kingsley Attended Reunion of 26th Regiment—Grangers at Bozrah Meeting.

Station Agent Clifford Heath was a New London visitor Sunday.

Mrs. J. D. Simpson has gone to Norwich to spend some time with her son, Clinton Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Harding and son, Mr. and Mrs. Oehl and son, Emil, and grandson, Frank Oehl, spent one day last week at Atlantic.

Mrs. Kate Whitford and Miss Lydia Johnson have returned home after spending several days in Providence.

Mrs. S. Stanton of Willimantic and the Misses Alice Bishop and Lillie Hatch of South Windham, spent Tuesday with Mrs. A. T. Browning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Woodward and Mrs. J. W. Burrum of Hampton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. White.

Mrs. A. E. Crutcher of Norwich was the Wednesday guest of Mrs. J. J. Mahoney.

The Misses Ethel and Bessie Randall of Goshen spent one day this week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Manning.

R. H. White of South Coventry spent Friday with H. E. White.

Mrs. Louisa Ladd of Warehous Point is visiting with Mrs. J. J. Mahoney.

Mrs. Hannah Kingsley attended the reunion of the 26th Regiment at Crescent Beach Wednesday.

Mrs. James Young, Mrs. E. Bishop and Miss Alice Bishop attended the Lathrop of Bozrah, were callers Tuesday on Mrs. Grace Peckham.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rockwood and family, Mr. F. H. Hoxce, and the Grange meeting at Bozrah Wednesday evening.

LISBON

Mrs. Fred Kananah Underwent Serious Operation in Boston—Harry Foote at Newent Church.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Reynolds visited last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Max Reynolds of Danvers, who are soon to move to Atlantic.

Paul Budget of Pittsfield, Mass., is spending his vacation with his brothers and sisters here. His father is filling his place in Pittsfield during his absence.

The Ladies' Aid society met at the parsonage Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Kananah underwent a serious operation at a hospital in Boston Saturday. Mr. Kananah, who was in the home of Mrs. Kananah's sister in that city for a few days, received a telegram Sunday notifying him of the death of his mother.

Mrs. Kananah and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. August Hoelck and Alfred Kennedy attended the funeral of Mrs. Susan Kananah in Norwich Tuesday, and on Wednesday Mr. Kananah and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy accompanied the body to New Haven for burial.

The service at Newent church Sunday morning will be in charge of Harry Foote, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Foote, pastor, who is preparing for the ministry.

MONTVILLE

William Nichols and Family Remove to Norwich—Prayer Meeting Led by Mrs. Browning.

Miss Ruth Dowe of Medford, Mass., has been the guest of Marion Henry, John Olson of Watertown called on friends in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Sarah Atwood of Harrison is visiting Mrs. George Allen of Gay Hill.

William Baldwin of Groton called on friends in town Tuesday.

Miss Grace Hooper spent the week end with friends in Killingly.

Edward Phillips of New Haven spent Sunday at his home in the village.

William Nichols, formerly with the C. M. Robertson company, is moving his family to Norwich.

The weekly prayer meeting of the Union Baptist church was led by Mrs. Ida Browning Thursday evening in the absence of the pastor, Rev. William Lakin.

ABINGTON

A. B. C. Club Camping at Crystal Lake—Recovering After Operation.

Mr. Fuller and several of the boys of the A. B. C. club are camping for a week at Crystal Lake.

The Pomona picnic held at Roseland park Tuesday was well attended by Wolf Den members.

Mrs. Averill of Worcester, Mass., were recent guests at Mrs. Grosvenor's.

Mrs. Cowell is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Ingalls, and daughter of Pawtucket.

Mary Horton is staying with Mrs. Thomas Elliott.

Jane Hains, who was operated on Monday at the Day Kimball hospital, is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Elliott are on an automobile trip in New Hampshire and Vermont.

CLARK'S FALLS

Thurman Paine Overcome by Heat and Thrown From Moving Machine.

Miss Maria Collins was the guest of Mrs. Clifford Thompson recently.

Tuesday John B. Perry was in Worcester on business and Mr. and Mrs. Horace F. Palmer, Martin Chapman and Miss Kittle Green, Mrs. Guy Marra and Mrs. Richard Maine, were also in the city.

Thurman Maine was overcome by the heat while operating a mowing machine Tuesday morning and was thrown off. Not being willing to give up he tried it again and fell off. His condition was so alarming Dr. Thurman Maine was called. His friends are glad to hear that he was much better last evening.

Mrs. Gladys MacKenzie is the guest of her father, Cassius Collins and was also in the city.

E. P. Chapman was in Westerly on Tuesday afternoon.

GARDNER LAKE

Friends Here Sorrowful Over Mrs. Maynard's Death—Personal.

Mrs. Charles Ellis and daughter Myra of Leffingwell are at Best View cottage.

Miss Edith Carpenter, who has been visiting Mrs. Orville Nicholson, has returned to her home in Norwich.

Many friends of Mrs. Edna Maynard were grieved to hear of her sudden death on Monday evening.

been spending a few days with his wife, who is stopping at Mrs. Danolis's. Mrs. and Mrs. Wilcox and daughter, who have been visiting Mrs. Backus, have returned to their home in Buffalo.

Miss Royce Boynton is visiting her sister in Providence.

Miss Bessie Corcoran of Norwich is guest of Miss Grace Lathrop.

Windham County

EAST KILLINGLY

Attend North Scituate Old Home Day—Miss Barlow Improving at Day Kimball Hospital—Personal.

Mrs. Clarence O. Chase, Mrs. Cora Handy and daughter, Sadie, of Providence, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Chase Wednesday.

Jewett Collins and wife of Hartford have been the guests of relatives here the past week.

Miss Alma L. Rich is employed in the office of Mrs. Davis and Brown, Woolen company at Uxbridge, Mass., for two weeks.

Carleton Chase and wife of Providence called on friends here Sunday.

Fred Soule of North Attleboro, Mass. is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elissa Soule, the past week.

Several firms here attended the old home day exercises at North Scituate, R. I. Wednesday.

Robert Adams of Rochdale, Mass., spent a few days last week with his nephew, Luther G. Andrews.

Mrs. William Yare was the guest of Mrs. Albert E. Sayles at North Scituate, R. I. Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wade entertained friends from Worcester, Wednesday.

Fred Wilcox and family of Putnam spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Rufus R. Chase at the Chase homestead.

Miss Alice Batty who has been ill for several weeks is improving.

Daughter Gaining Slowly. Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Barstow's youngest daughter, who is at the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam, is gaining slowly, although it will be several weeks before she can be removed to her home here.

Irving Hill and wife were in East Putnam Thursday.

Mrs. Clarence Aldrich and Miss Emily Kennedy of Providence are spending a few days at Mr. Aldrich's summer home here.

Miss Bertha Soule is visiting friends in South Woodstock.

WESTFORD.

Henry Newell Spains Wrist.—Bible Meeting Largely Attended.

Guests at the Barlow homestead over Sunday included Miss Ruth Barlow and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Eastman and son, Warren, of Hartford, and F. W. Eastman of Windham.

The Bible meeting this year was held in the Chalmers grove on Westford Hill. It was a perfect day for the meeting and a large attendance was present to hear the fine speaking and enjoy meeting old friends.

Charles Huntington of South Windham, Mrs. F. W. Eastman and Mrs. Walter Bowen of Windham were the guests of Mrs. C. H. Barlow, Wednesday.

Mrs. Nason and Mrs. Arthur Wood and children of Gurteville, were guests at Everett Barlow on Tuesday.

Curtis Crane is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Eastman in Windham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bond and son, Fred, visited in Westford, Mass. through Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont.

While getting a load of wood on Monday, Henry Bond had the misfortune to so badly sprain his wrist that he was taken to Stafford and had to have a doctor dress it.

Miss Annie Tremble of Southbridge is at her home for a visit.

MOOSUP

William Surr of Springfield, Mass., is enjoying a short vacation at his home in Moosup.

John West spent a few days in New York on business.

Misses Mary and Irene Moulton are visiting in New Bedford and surrounding places.

Mrs. George Deschamps is spending a few days in Baltic.

S. L. King is having a new coat put out on his home and barn. Fred Baker's sister and niece from Los Angeles, Cal. were recent visitors at his home.

The Circuit league held a picnic at Alexander lake Saturday afternoon. Each person brought a lunch and placed it in the middle of the party. They all enjoyed the day very much. Many people from Sterling also went in an auto truck. Most of the party was on its way home after 6 o'clock.

The house just this side of the town farm was burned to the ground Sunday evening. It started about 6:30. The Central Fire company was called out but when it arrived the building was too near gone to try to save. The firemen took out many of the windows and two doors. One of the windows from the nearby towns witnessed the fire.

ELMVILLE

Local Fans See Red Sox Play at Boston—Visitors of the Week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. John Larkin of New London were guests of Miss Nellie Dwyer Sunday.

Mrs. C. H. Pike has returned from a week's outing in Maine.

Mrs. Herbert Barty is visiting her mother in West Woodstock.

Mrs. Frank Brophy is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wright, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Batty, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers, and Miss Florence Brawton were in Foster Center, R. I., for Old Home Day.

Mrs. Frank Davis has returned from a visit with her sister in Providence.

Mrs. E. C. Conklin was a Putnam visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bramham of Providence spent Tuesday at their farm here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elston and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hinchcliff of Providence were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Potter at the Hill Crest house.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Call of Cedar Tree Point, R. I., visited Mrs. Addie E. Call Monday.

Advertisement for Narragansett Beer. Features a large illustration of a beer bottle with a label that says 'The Famous Narragansett ALE TAP'. Text includes: 'The Narragansett Label has been your protection on bottled beer. Now, by means of the Tap Sign, Beer on draught is labelled. The Narragansett Tap Sign is a reminder to order the beer or ale you like best, and at the same time an assurance that you are receiving genuine Narragansett Products. NARRAGANSETT BREWING COMPANY PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND'

BROOKLYN

Capt. Deliverance Brown Association Addressed by Hartford and Philadelphia Speakers—Personal Interests.

Mrs. Dr. Blake of Philadelphia, who has been spending a month with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Blake, has returned to her home.

Mrs. George F. Genung and her granddaughter have returned from their visit in South Manchester.

Miss Sylvia Minott is the guest of Rev. G. F. Genung, D. D., and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Woodbridge and Mrs. Hallock of Riverside Drive, New York, called upon Mrs. William B. Potter recently while taking an automobile trip.

Miss Rita E. Pond of Providence has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Pond.

Miss Laura Dixon, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Laura Chapman, for a few weeks, has returned to her home in Worcester.

Miss Alice James has returned from her sister, Mrs. Ida Dixon, in Worcester.

Wallace L. Pond was with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Pond, for a few hours Sunday.

Rev. George F. Genung, D. D., on Monday took his grandchild, Dorothy Minott, to her home in Greenfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Moffitt of Willimantic were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mary G. Longdon and daughter Myrtle of Providence and recent callers upon Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Martin.

Mary Caplan, chairman for Mrs. Isaac, has been taking a week's vacation down in Maine. George Pearl taking his place while absent.

Miss Annie Tremble of Southbridge, R. I., is with relatives in town, coming in his automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Frink were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Spaulding.

C. Wain Blake has returned from his camping in Narragansett bay.

E. West spent a few days in LeRoyard with relatives.

Brown Association Meeting. Capt. Deliverance Brown association met Tuesday in the Unitarian hall and in the evening an open meeting was held in which Rev. Sherrod Soule of Hartford gave a short talk and Miss Cornelia Brown spoke very interestingly upon her work in the Philippines.

The Church Street Friends' auxiliary met with the former association.

On Wednesday the Putnam association met in the Unitarian hall. These associations meet only every two years.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church furnished a chicken pie dinner in their church vestry each day.

CHAPLIN

New Haven Pastor in Local Pulpit—John Whitford Sells Place—Haymakers Still on Job.

Rev. Robert Williams and family of New Haven are spending a few weeks at the home of Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Howard.

Rev. William Williams preached a solemn sermon at the church Sunday that was highly complimented by all who heard him. Rev. Mr. Williams will preach again next Sunday and it is expected a large congregation will be in attendance.

Prof. Wesley Howard and Mrs. Howard are spending some time at George B. Howard's, Mr. and Mrs. Howard assisted the choir at church Sunday. Mr. Howard sang a fine solo, No. 100.

Buyers Place at Ashford. John Whitford has sold his place and bought a place at Ashford village. Rev. W. B. Gallup is visiting friends in Groton this week.

Michael Landeck of Bedlam, who is engaged in market gardening, has bought a Ford delivery truck to help him in his business.

The haymakers are still on the job, and many will have to hustle lively to finish in August.

NORTH STERLING

Oak Tree Killed by Lightning Bolt—Blueberries Scarce Hereabouts.

A large oak tree near the Checkerberry school grounds was killed by lightning last week.

Henry H. Crowell and family took an auto trip to Rocky Point Tuesday.

Mr. St. John of New York is visiting his family on the Wilson place.

Miss Sarah A. Avery of Groton is visiting at George C. Spoor's. Miss Fred Brooks and wife of Providence were visitors at G. F. Pierce's Tuesday.

Blueberries are very scarce this season and bring good prices.

STERLING

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson and daughter, Mrs. Ellen Biven of Voluntown were callers here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sweet are entertaining Miss Irene Peck of Providence.

Miss Shepard and Mrs. W. W. Vaughn were Norwich visitors on Tuesday.

THOMPSON

Congregational Sunday School Picnic at Bates Grove—Rev. M. A. Muir Will Hold Evangelistic Services in Quadic Schoolhouse—At Eighteenth's Reunion.

Mrs. William Chase and children, Nathan and Alice, have returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Harvey Crosby.

Wednesday was all that could be desired for a picnic day. The Congregational Sunday school met in their usual numbers and passed a delightful day at Bates Grove, Webster Lake.

Mrs. M. L. Eddy has been with her daughter, Mrs. Reynolds, this week because of the illness of little Ellen Reynolds.

Mrs. Minnie Whittemore, Mrs. J. A. Craft, Miss Mahoney and Judge Munyon were in Worcester on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramsey welcomed a little daughter on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Charles Davis, Sr., is caring for mother and child.

Mrs. Carlson has returned to her home in Westford after being with Mrs. Harrison two weeks. Mrs. Harrison has named the little newcomer Myrtle Genevieve.

Evangelistic Services Next Week. Rev. M. A. Muir will speak at the Baptist church next Sunday morning. The week following he will hold evangelistic services in the Quadic schoolhouse every afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Whitley, because of the infantile paralysis at Mrs. Williams' home, Miss Helen Greene is the guest