ANNOUNCEMENTS

Breed Theatre. Big Double Feature Bill for Monday and Tuesday of Next Week.

The feature screen production at the Breed theatre for today is 'The Cornet', featuring the popular young stellar combination, Harold Lockwood and May Allison. The Cornet back is a thrilling story of the great north-west and its production is of the most notable cast appears in the support of the stars and includes Lester Cuneo, Howard Truesdale, George Henry, Bert Starbuck, and Charles Lewis.

The Breed also presents Max Egan in a very funny comedy entitled 'Duclos is Ducks'. This picture is of special interest to local theatergoers as Channing Huntington, a local young man, assisted in directing the picture, and also appears in it.

For Monday and Tuesday the management announces a bill of extraordinary excellence, consisting of two feature attractions, a five part Metro drama featuring the popular character actor X. Bushman, entitled 'A Million a Minute', and the million dollar comedian, Charlie Chaplin, in the most laughable of his screen characterizations, a two-act comedy entitled 'Floce'.

'A Million a Minute' is a thrilling story of mystery, intrigue and adventure covering two continents, and containing many interesting characters. It contains many interesting scenes, some of which were photographed on the transatlantic steamer as she was coming up the bay, and shows many glimpses of New York's skyscrapers and the city's wonderful architecture.

In 'Floce' Charlie Chaplin is seen at his best. He encounters a series of comic and near-tragic adventures and will keep the audience in a continuous uproar for thirty minutes.

Completing the bill for Monday and Tuesday, the Breed will also present the Metro drama 'The Lady Killer'. Sidney Drew in 'The Lady Killer'.

Owing to the length of the performance the matinee will start at 2:15 and the evening shows will start at 8:15 and 8:45 p. m. There will be no advance in prices.

THE AUDITORIUM

Open for the Season of 1916-17 on Next Monday Afternoon.

After a thorough cleaning, painting and general clean up, both outside and in, the Auditorium theatre will open its doors for the season of 1916 and 17 on next Monday afternoon, Sept. 11. The policy of the house will be somewhat changed this season and special attention has been given to the book-keeping department.

An unusually attractive meeting for men and women is arranged by the Y. M. C. A. for tomorrow (Sunday) at 2 p. m. in the large store of the Auditorium theatre on the next two Friday and Saturday. Other pictures on the bill tonight are 'The Three Musketeers' and 'The Three Musketeers'.

The Y. M. C. A. has arranged for a series of six recitals, with a variety of musical programs, and will be held at the Auditorium theatre on Monday and Tuesday of next week.

On next Monday's vaudeville programme will be Wilson and Whitman, two men who will present a comedy singing, dancing and piano specialty, and Ruth Lane, who has a very best musical offering to date.

For the act rated among the best in quantity it will make up for in quality. The Paramount live reel feature for Monday and Tuesday will be David Garrick, featuring Dustin Farnum and taken from the well known book of the same name. The act will be presented by Frank Daniels, the famous musical comedy star, in Mr. Jack. Admission 10c, evenings a few seats 20c.

DAVIS THEATRE.

Four Shows Today, at 1:30, 3:15, 6:45 and 8:45—Three Good Keith Acts and Douglas Fairbanks in a Triangle Feature.

Anyone who wants to see an around good show of vaudeville and pictures cannot do better than visit the Davis today and see the bill that has caused so much talk the past two days. The feature attraction is the old favorite, Brown, Harris and Brown, two men and a woman, and they have the most efficient act ever seen in this theatre. This is an act that the children will enjoy, for Mr. Brown is funny and doesn't need to resort to vulgarity to get people laughing.

Another good act is Jack Donohue, a comedian and dancer that has been a big hit here. His dancing is entirely different from anything ever seen here and his comedy is refreshing. The third act on the bill is 'The Woods Musical Trio', two ladies and a gentleman, and they have an act that could headline any bill. They play several instruments, including violin, cornet and euphonium.

One of the ladies gives some very clever imitations on the drums. If you want to hear something real good don't miss this act. In the photo plays the feature is called 'The Hat Brand', and Douglas Fairbanks is the star. This is a five part Triangle production and one of the best yet. To come here and see this is the usual funny two reel Keystone comedy, the one today, 'The Cat's Paw'.

There will be four complete shows today, at 1:30, 3:15, 6:45 and 8:45, so everybody will have a chance to enjoy this excellent show.

DAVIS THEATRE NEXT WEEK. 'A Dream of the Orient' Big Musical Act With 10 People—Two Other Good Acts—Triangle Feature Plays and Keystone Comedies.

plays even seen in this city for the money. The headline attraction is the huge spectacular musical comedy, 'The Orient', featuring Madame Makarenko and her beautiful Oriental girls. There are black face musical comedies, and the most pretentious feature that has ever played this theatre. They carry two special stage settings and numerous Oriental rugs and draperies, the gorgeousness of which has never been equaled in any vaudeville attraction that has appeared at this theatre.

Every member of the company is an accomplished singer and for dancing, this act is in a class by itself. They carry their own musical director, who leads the orchestra and sings a solo in a rich baritone voice. The costumes of the act has not been neglected and the girls make several changes throughout the performance, although this act is the most expensive production ever seen here and is a whole show in itself the management have not stinted on the bill. There will be two other acts besides this one, namely, Burns and Lyman, two expert dancers and comedians, and Bob Tenney, a black face musical comedian, who provides music and mirth that anyone will enjoy. In the photo plays the Triangle feature is called 'Honor Thy Name', with Frank Keenan, Charles Ray and Louis Glum as the stars.

This is a five part Ince production and a great big message is carried to the audience with the theme of this production. An old fashioned father of the sturdy patriotic stock of the South shows his erring son that a good name is more to be guarded than life itself. The son falls in with a rather fast set in New York and allows a woman of the usual type to ensnare him. The complicated drama ensues while the father tries to separate the boy from this calculating woman forms one of the sensational elements of the story.

There is the usual funny two reel Keystone comedy on the bill and De Wolf Hopper is the star. Matinee at 2:15 daily, all seats 10 cents. Evening at 8:45 and 8:45, 10, 15 and 20 cents, reserved.

ATOP THE MAJESTIC.

Tonight will be your last chance to attend the Majestic Roof Garden and see the excellent picture bill and enjoy the dancing, refreshments, etc., as it will close for the season after tonight's performance. The 13th episode of 'The Mysteries of Myra' will be one of the picture attractions this evening. This picture will run for two more weeks and will be shown at the Metro Theatre on the next two Friday and Saturday. Other pictures on the bill tonight are 'The Three Musketeers' and 'The Three Musketeers'.

'The Three Musketeers' is a thrilling story of mystery, intrigue and adventure covering two continents, and containing many interesting characters. It contains many interesting scenes, some of which were photographed on the transatlantic steamer as she was coming up the bay, and shows many glimpses of New York's skyscrapers and the city's wonderful architecture.
