YOUR INSPECTION IS CORDIALLY INVITED

B. Gotthelf & Co.

Ladies' Auxiliary Complimented. Ladies' auxiliary, Div. 54, A. O. H., held their regular business meeting in Buckingham Memorial on Thursday evening with the president, Mrs. Julia Brock, presiding. A letter was read from Brother Murphy of Division No. 5 Hartford, congratulating the division on the neat appearance they made at the Middletown parade. North Connolly, the recording secretary, read a gratifying report of the state convention, as did the other officers who attended. The members who took part in the parade are contemplating an exhibition drill dressed in the same costumes as at a minstrel and dance to be given in the near future.

TWO YOUNG MEN HELD FOR THEFT.

George and James Potter Detained in Connection With So-Called River Pirates.

George and James Potter, aged 16 and 20 years, respectively, are being held at police headquarters in New London on a charge of breaking and entering in connection with the recent activities of so-called river pirates on the Thames. The two lads, reside on Shaw street. Their arrest was brought about at 6:30 Saturday morning when Patrolmen O'Donnell and "Cavanaugh" went to their home and "took them out of bed. It was the second time that the lads have been in custody during the past 24 hours, for Friday afternoon Patrolman Hammond detained them and with Lieutenant Jeffers put them under a rigid third degree at police headquarters. At that time, however, no information was gained which would warrant the holding of the boys over on a minor charge.

The boys claim upon which the police could work with any hope for success was the abandoned boat containing the loot. The 15-foot steel craft was left on the shore of the Thames near the Lennox Oil plant, early Wednesday morning after an exciting chase in two boats over the river waters, in which Lieutenant Jeffers played a most active part. The police lieutenant, although on duty Sept. 14, and so pleased was the audience with her playing that she was given quite an ovation and was obliged to respond to an encore. Following the recital, Dr. George Coleman, Gov. of the head of the department of music at the State Memorial hall, by the New York Symphony orchestra, Walter Damrosch conductor, and later she gave a piano recital in the same hall before a large and appreciative audience.

SUES FOR RECOVERY ON PROMISSORY NOTE

Pomfret Man Brings Action Against Clark E. Whitehouse.

Bert W. Whitehouse of Pomfret has brought suit against Clark E. Whitehouse of Ashford for recovery on a note for $500. The note is dated July 2 and in payable to the order of Bert W. Whitehouse. To secure the note the maker mortgaged land in Groton. The plaintiff claims foreclosure. The papers are returnable before the superior court on the first Tuesday of October.

TOOK SEVENTEEN FIRST RIBBONS ON GUERNSEYS

J. B. Palmer Gets Many Prizes For Stock Exhibit at Berlin Fair.

J. B. Palmer showed his prize stock last week at the Berlin fair, where he won seventeen first ribbons on Guernseys and eleven seconds. He was given the title of grand champion on bull and cow. He also won first, second and third on herds and took sixteen firsts and ten seconds on sheep. His wife faced the same success in beef class and first in the working class. He has held his prize two year old bull, Rex, of Round Hill.

Will Attend Grand Sun Council.

The members of Sebequoian council, No. 11, D. of P., held their regular meeting Monday evening. Miss M. Holmes, Pocahontas, presiding. There was a large attendance. Remarks were made by different members. The great sun council will meet in Rockville in October. Quite a number of the members are expecting to attend from the local council.

Short Lobster Causes $1 Fine.

Harry Zakoritis' failure to measure lobsters which he purchased and placed in the show window of his restaurant at 3 State street, New London, cost him a fine of $1 and costs in police court. Saturday afternoon he was found guilty by Judge Coit of having short lobsters in his possession.

EIGHTEEN MILL TAX FOR PRESTON

Annual Town Meeting Heard Reports and Laid Tax For Coming Year—Same Compensation Voted Town Officers—Selectmen Empowered to Borrow for Town Expenses—About Forty Voters Attended Meeting.

At the annual meeting of the town of Preston held Monday afternoon a tax of 18 mills was laid for the coming year. The meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock and Everett P. Barnes presided as moderator, with G. V. Shedd as town clerk. The reports of the selectmen, town treasurer, collector, town school committee and town health officer were presented and were accepted by the meeting. The selectmen were authorized to look after the town roads this coming year as last year and certain town taxes were ordered abated. A tax of eighteen mills was then laid to meet the requirements of the ensuing year.

MANY BENEFITTED BY BABIES ICE FUND.

Twelve families have benefited this summer by the use of the babies' ice tickets, made possible by the generosity of public spirited friends. Dr. Brophy's advice as to the need being greater during August, proved both wise and helpful, for while the tickets were used in June and July the intense heat during the August weeks brought a larger demand for their use.

The tickets have been used in connection with the work of the Public Health Nurse, and have given her an entering wedge into many homes. It has been possible by their use not only to help make sick babies well, and to keep other babies in an even better state of health, but has also afforded the opportunity of teaching lessons in hygiene.

Encouraging reports from the Public Health Nurse, show how gratefully these lessons—many times taught through an interpreter—were received by mothers, who were willing to learn new methods, and the right way of caring for milk, and feeding, bottles, if by so doing their babies could be helped.

In some cases it has been necessary to improve refrigerators, in which to keep the babies' bottles. A wooden box from the grocer's, a little sawdust from the carpenter's shop, and a tin box or pail in which to place the bottles, with a tight cover over the ice, upon which many thicknesses of newspaper have been tacked, completes the ice box.

Second hand ice boxes in good condition have been greatly needed. Many families will gladly purchase such an article, when the price of a new one might prove prohibitive. Tin cracker or cake boxes of sufficient size to hold seven or eight feeding bottles, with room for cracked ice to fill a space surrounding, will be of use another year. See your grocer.

MISS MARGARET JAMIESON TO APPEAR IN CONCERTS

Niece of Archibald Mitchell Among Those Selected For Lockport Series

Miss Margaret Jamieson, niece of Archibald Mitchell of this city, was one of the artists selected to appear in the series of concerts that are being given at Lockport, N. Y., for the purpose of encouraging American artists, and at which none but those who received their musical education in this country are invited to appear. The recital in which Miss Jamieson took part was given on Saturday, Sept. 14, and so pleased was the audience with her playing that she was given quite an ovation and was obliged to respond to an encore. Following the recital, Dr. George Coleman, Gov. of the head of the department of music at the State Memorial hall, by the New York Symphony orchestra, Walter Damrosch conductor, and later she gave a piano recital in the same hall before a large and appreciative audience.

JOHN A. TIBBITS FORMER OWNER OF DAY

Sold It to Theodore Bodenwein Twenty-five Years Ago.

The New London Day recently issued its anniversary number. Just twenty-five years earlier Theodore Bodenwein bought the paper. It had been run by John A. Tibbits, the speaker of the house in 1886 and a brother of Henry W. Tibbits of this city. John Tibbits, after considerable political activity, secured a fat position abroad under the government. The backers of the paper had obligated themselves for $25,000 and were ready to get out from under. Mr. Bodenwein gave a note for $25,000 and $1,000 in cash money, and he agreed to $1,000 yearly or lose his grip on the property. It was most costly asset as a press that he could not use.

Y. M. C. A. SERVICE.

Rev. A. W. Burdon Addressed Gathering in Thayer Building on Timely Topic.

Most of the chairs were occupied at the Y. M. C. A. mass meeting at 5 p. m. Sunday in the Thayer building.

After a spirited song service, assisted by Swahn's orchestra, General Secretary Hill offered prayer. A pleasing solo, "This Meditation," was rendered by William Malone.

The address of the afternoon was delivered by Rev. W. Burdon, who held the close attention of his audience by his earnest words. His topic was "Where Law Fails, Grace Succeeds." The text was taken from Paul's writings.

When the law could not do in that it was weak in the flesh, God did by sending Jesus Christ for our redemption. The speaker developed the thought that all laws, both human and divine, have to a very great extent failed of their purpose for men have always broken them and have gone on in their wrong doings; laws have not cured men of their evil desires, but God through the grace of Jesus Christ has enabled men to overcome the evil tendencies of their lives and only in this way can we be victors in the great battle of life.

It was announced that next Sunday would be the last of the season, to which women were invited, as on the first Sunday in October the regular meeting for men only will be resumed.

NEWEST HAT DESIGNS

Choice Models Proffered to Wise Buyers, Who Seek the Latest and Most Correct Styles.

Among the beautiful hats offered for inspection to Monday shoppers was a rose picture model in hatter's plush, with velvet facing in the same tone. Front flowers in pastel shades were about the crown.

Modish was an aeroplane hat of black velvet, with piping on the edge of black grosgrain ribbon. The finish was a flat disc wing.

Attractive was a navy sailor with black velvet, its trimming shaded blue tips on the brim.

Gracefully draped, a scarf of blue with ends fringed and finished in fur and silver, trimmed a black velvet shape, which was ultra smart.

A dark rose small velvet draped turban as well in front. It had mole-skin banding, and an ostrich fancy shaded from mole-skin to rose peaked at the front.

Belgian blue velvet formed the brim of a black panne model on the mushroom order. Effective made flowers in the Belgian velvet were about the high crown.

A large black velvet collar, facing high at the back, had its crown finished with two bands of fur. A natty blue and coral chenille ornament, set at the front, formed the trimming.

A fancy bird in shaded bobelin blue and black strapping of narrow moire ribbon at the back, trimmed a large black sailor, which rolled in a graceful and becoming way.

Effective, too, was a medium shape black velvet model, with rich trimming of burnt peacock feathers. Blue satin edged a large black sailor, which had a pointed collar at either side of the crown, finished with two chenille flowers.

Cooler weather makes the selection of heavier hat imperative. Let the Bulletin's advertisers this morning help you to discover where the latest superior court office in this city is found.
