

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

Windham County

CANTERBURY GREEN

Judge Warner to Speak Sunday Morning—Miss Rogers Tells of Mission at Van—Voters to Be Made—Democratic Delegates to New Haven Convention.

Sunday morning's service will be in charge of Judge Edgar M. Warner, of Putnam, who will speak also in the sermon hours.

Address By Miss Rogers. Miss Gertrude Rogers last Sunday spoke on the things of Christ. That cannot be shaken. She pictured the results of Mohammedanism and of Christianity in evidence in Turkey, and told of the miracle of relief that came to the city of Van in its hour of greatest need.

Christian Endeavor this Sunday will be led by Mrs. Eva Hoyle, at 7 p. m.

Attended State Convention. Canterbury representatives at the democratic state convention in New Haven this week were A. Hale Bennett, James Apply, Charles S. Hyde and William Cone.

Mrs. Fred Young of Scotland sang a solo last Sunday during the morning's worship. Mr. Willoughby is the son of a former much beloved member of the church on the Green.

Mrs. Frank E. Hoyle will lead the C. E. meeting, the topic being, "Christianship compared with the religious." 1 Cor. 10:1-21.

Miss Woodbury to Speak. The meeting of the Ladies' association will be with Miss Frances Palmer, Wednesday, October 4. Miss Miriam Woodbury, of New York, who has spent much time traveling among the missionaries of America, will address the members.

Miss Constance Jones of Hartford is visiting at the parsonage. Mrs. William Wright of Worcester, attended the Brooklyn fair and visited relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lyons visiting in Willimantic over the week end.

Mrs. Lathrop of Norwich is visiting her son, James Lathrop.

Mrs. W. H. H. is the host to be made voters in the town of Canterbury.

Wm. Cressney, George Simino, Wm. Deserie, E. E. Brown, Fred Kimball, Allen Moody, Ernest E. Plassman, Louis Utz, Fred W. Newton, Olaf Kaway, William Johnson, Myron W. Baxter, Isadore W. Hermon, Herman Patsch, Horace Crawford, John Wallace, Benjamin Davis, James Wood, William Stephens, Salie Olson.

Biting Dog Killed. Miss Ruth Moore was recently bitten by Charles Kinney's dog. As he had bitten several previously the dog was killed by Dog Warden J. Edward Allen.

Miss Elsie Rodler is much improved so as to be able to sit up.

Miss Edith Williams is staying with Mrs. H. N. Larkham.

Mrs. Melissa Larkham of Norwich is visiting her nephew, Henry Larkham.

WESTMINSTER

Calf Choked By Apple—Speakers Tell of Silver Day Experiences—Cleanup Day Today—Prize Winners in Club Exhibition.

Mrs. Emelia Rosenzweig and Max Ingelhoefer are guests of Mrs. Anna Rosenzweig.

Jack Hughson returned to New York after spending his vacation at Westchester.

Harry Grace has returned to New York after spending his vacation as a guest of Ethel Newton.

Mrs. Fred L. Smith's family have moved to the Wedge farm.

Jacob Rosenzweig had a calf choked recently by an apple.

Church Interests. God's goodness and love everlasting are set forth in Heb. 8:25, was Rev. Mr. Davies' subject Sunday morning.

A very appreciative audience, whose hearty thanks were conveyed by the C. E. President, Mrs. Smith, to the speakers gathered here to help Misses Baldwin and Hadley of Newent tell of Mr. Moody's work at Northfield and of the work this past summer at Silver Day, N. Y. The ladies showed great skill in their helpful handling of their subjects.

The Wednesday evening home prayer service of great fervor and pertinence in view of the Saturday gathering at the church. It was a survey of the world's needs. Resources of Strength, Work to Be Undertaken, Facts in Westminster.

At the last Sunday service some of the congregation, who planned the affair, as Rev. Mr. Davies, to announce in "All Day, Fall Day, Church Day" next Saturday afternoon at Westminster, to slick up and improve the condition and appearance of the church building and its surroundings.

Men, women, boys and girls will gather for forceful fun in the work of the day at 9 a. m., enjoy estates provided, picnic, and a variety of games at noon, and continue their willing work to a final finish in time for church.

Exhibits of Club Members Work. Last week Thursday afternoon the Westminster Boys and Girls' Agricultural club held their first annual exhibit at the parsonage. Twenty-two members were represented. The large rooms were well filled during the afternoon with friends and relatives who observed and enjoyed the exhibits.

Miss Elsie Rodler, Miss E. Colte, Miss Signe Olsen and Miss E. E. Brown, Miss Davies acted as judges. Shortly before the gathering dispersed, the President, Bennie Rosenzweig, announced that Judge Coite would award a few words before the prizes were awarded and Mr. Davies would follow, which Mr. MacLeod would award the prizes, which were small, and in cash. Both speakers said they were impressed with the good work of the club's first year and looked for a better result next year, and Mr. Davies advised making preparations his fall for an early start in the spring.

The Prize Winners. The following prizes were awarded: For lettuce, Elwood Hubbard; second, Eddie Green; turnips, Evelyn Cook; Stettin, Bennett; beets, Mary Hagopian; Evelyn Koch; radishes, Stella Bennett; celery, Evelyn Koch; squash, Stella Bennett; Richard Merrifield; onions, Evelyn Koch; Mary Hagopian; cabbage, Evelyn Koch; watermelon, sweet peppers, Mary Hagopian; cucumbers, Fred Allen; Elwood Hubbard; sunflower, Andrew Colburn; Swiss chard, Evelyn Koch; peas, Stella Bennett; potatoes, Eddie Green; Elsie Coombs; beans (shelled), Mary Hagopian; Andrew Colburn; sweet corn, Charles Colburn; green peas, Stella Bennett; New York Green; flint corn, Bennie Rosenzweig; tomatoes, Mary Hagopian; Stettin, Bennett; radishes, Evelyn Koch; embroidery, (certificates) Evelyn Koch; crocheting, Mary Hagopian.

During the afternoon the members of the club dispensed light refreshments at five cents a portion, for the benefit of the village.

At the Wincham County fair this week the Westminster Boys and Girls' Agricultural club also exhibited.

HAMPTON

Birthday Party—Announcement of Jewett-Breckenridge Wedding at Waterbury.

The boarders at Chelsea Inn and Prospect House are returning to their respective homes.

Ralph Burchinal is in Willimantic, where he has entered the employ of H. A. Bugbee.

Many from this town attended Brooklyn fair Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Perkins and son, W. Ernest, of Central Village, were in town, Thursday, Mr. Perkins lives in this village until a few years ago.

Guest From the West. Albert Guild and John Guild are visiting friends in town. Mr. John Guild lives in the West and this is his second trip East in about forty years.

Oren Weeks called on his aunt, Mrs. Austin Pearl recently.

A. L. Mills is attending court in Putnam.

George Allen England is visiting his sister, Mrs. George Springfield, Mass.

Leighton Noworthy is entertaining his college room-mate, Joseph McElroy.

Birthday Party. Mrs. Joseph Condon gave a party last Tuesday afternoon in honor of her granddaughter, Miss Josephine, who is visiting her, the date being her birthday.

Severe frosts are reported in several parts of the town.

Jewett-Breckenridge. Announcements have been received of the marriage in Waterbury of Miss Dorothy Breckenridge and Carl Weaver Jewett of this place.

Miss Helen Wightman and Miss Elsie Phillips have returned to their homes at Westfield, Mass., Normal school.

Visitors From Dakota. Mr. and Mrs. Ramsden, who have been living in Dakota, the past year, are spending a week at their home here.

William Hardaker and family of Elizabeth, N. J., were recent guests of his mother, Mrs. Sarah Lee. Mrs. Hardaker and children are remaining for a longer visit.

Over $450 Pledged. With fifty sewing classes in the state, with two hundred and fifty members, the girls of the local branch are much elated to learn that two of their number received prizes at the state fair at Hartford last week. Miss Alice Lee received third prize, $6; and Miss Catherine Ham, $1.

F. L. Glover has purchased a new truck for use in his business.

Richard Plinney is also a student there.

Junior Fair. The Junior fair held in Stafford was a success and was attended by many. There was a good display of flowers and vegetables raised by the children, and the girls' sewing received much praise.

Over $450 Pledged. Over $450 has been pledged for the Diamond Ledge property, it is hoped this can be increased to $550. It will be a public park for the whole town.

Storrs. The Junior fair held in Stafford was a success and was attended by many. There was a good display of flowers and vegetables raised by the children, and the girls' sewing received much praise.

First Football Game Today With Holy Cross College Team of Worcester—Faculty Club's Election—Reception Friday Evening.

The town of Mansfield stone crusher has been set up near the crusher pond. Stone is being crushed for use in the heating mains for the central heating plant.

Start on New Road. Work has been started on the new road from Copeland's Corner to Beech Hill, Storrs. The first grade work is being done by the town.

Game With Worcester Today. Football practice has begun with a large squad under the direction of Coach Donohue. The first game will be with Holy Cross in Worcester, today (Saturday).

Ladies' Circle Meets. The Ladies' Circle met at the church on Thursday to organize and discuss plans for the remainder of the year. Tea and sandwiches were served.

College Reception. The college reception was held in Holy Cross on Friday afternoon. The freshmen lost the rush, being pulled through the pond.

Freshmen Lost Rush. The annual rope rush between the freshmen and sophomore classes took place on Monday afternoon. The freshmen lost the rush, being pulled through the pond.

Faculty Club Election. The annual meeting of the Faculty club was held in the club room on Tuesday evening. The following officers were elected:

Professor C. A. Wheeler, president; Prof. J. N. Hart, secretary and treasurer and J. Manton, third member of the executive committee.

William Ferry held a picnic in honor of his cousin, Mrs. Carrie Goodwill, last Saturday. A dinner was served and a good number of friends were present and enjoyed the festivity.

Mrs. Lina Bosworth visited Mrs. Rose Utton Comstock at her home at Stafford Hollow last Sunday.

Mrs. F. H. Ballou and Mrs. Frank Utton, of Stafford, N. H., were in town on Wednesday on business.

Dr. A. F. Blackledge of Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y., visited here on Monday and Tuesday.

WILLINGTON

Delegates Chosen to Attend Association Meeting in Willimantic.

The first Sunday in October which is the first day of the month church services will commence for the half year, in the morning. This is the Christmas quarter and all the children are always alert.

The new Sunday school room in progress rapidly and will be a very great improvement. The graded work that the school is engaged in and finding very interesting. There were 9 present last Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Parker preached and an instructive sermon opened with a very helpful study of the character and work of the Holy Spirit.

The Association letter was read and delegates to be held with the Willimantic Baptist church on the 26th and 27th. Mrs. Preston and Miss Palmer were chosen for the team.

Mrs. Preston expects Miss Howard of Hartford, state president, and Mrs. Timmer of Westfield, to be present at the Woman's Home Mission meeting the 26th.

Mrs. Hutchins came as a pleasant surprise to Rist Cottage Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Brown returned Monday from a visit to New Jersey.

Mrs. Burton of New Haven has been for a short visit at Mr. Costello's.

Mr. Sleight returned to New York Tuesday, a week earlier than he had planned on account of the illness of a lady from Southbridge, called on friends in town the first of the week.

moved into their new house in the south part of the town.

Annual Receipts $17,000. Copy for the town report is in the hands of the selectmen. It shows total receipts for the year of about $17,000. Expenditures outside of depreciation of about $14,000. Net assets $8,899.89. The list of uncollected taxes is reduced by over $1,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Colburn, Walter Colburn, Miss Ruth Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Church and son, Clinton, motored to Springfield, Sunday.

Birthday Celebrated. Several of her young friends helped Jeannette Nichols to celebrate her seventh birthday last Saturday.

Miss Dorothy Macfarlane, teacher of commercial course in the Bristol High school spent the week end at her home here.

Stafford Team Won. The locals lost in last Saturday's game with the Staffords, 1 to 6. The second game will be played in Stafford this (Saturday) afternoon.

STAFFORD

Two Girls From Sewing Class Received Prizes at State Fair—Success of Recent Junior Fair.

Fred Rabideau of New Haven, was home over Sunday.

Clayton Comstock, son of Hiram Comstock, and sister, Miss Johnson, returned last week Monday.

Leon Butler, his father and his son, R. S. Beebe, returned from their recent trip to Los Angeles, Cal., after spending the summer in the east.

Miss Helen Wightman and Miss Elsie Phillips have returned to their homes at Westfield, Mass., Normal school.

Visitors From Dakota. Mr. and Mrs. Ramsden, who have been living in Dakota, the past year, are spending a week at their home here.

William Hardaker and family of Elizabeth, N. J., were recent guests of his mother, Mrs. Sarah Lee. Mrs. Hardaker and children are remaining for a longer visit.

Over $450 Pledged. With fifty sewing classes in the state, with two hundred and fifty members, the girls of the local branch are much elated to learn that two of their number received prizes at the state fair at Hartford last week. Miss Alice Lee received third prize, $6; and Miss Catherine Ham, $1.

F. L. Glover has purchased a new truck for use in his business.

Richard Plinney is also a student there.

Junior Fair. The Junior fair held in Stafford was a success and was attended by many. There was a good display of flowers and vegetables raised by the children, and the girls' sewing received much praise.

Over $450 Pledged. Over $450 has been pledged for the Diamond Ledge property, it is hoped this can be increased to $550. It will be a public park for the whole town.

Storrs. The Junior fair held in Stafford was a success and was attended by many. There was a good display of flowers and vegetables raised by the children, and the girls' sewing received much praise.

First Football Game Today With Holy Cross College Team of Worcester—Faculty Club's Election—Reception Friday Evening.

The town of Mansfield stone crusher has been set up near the crusher pond. Stone is being crushed for use in the heating mains for the central heating plant.

Start on New Road. Work has been started on the new road from Copeland's Corner to Beech Hill, Storrs. The first grade work is being done by the town.

Game With Worcester Today. Football practice has begun with a large squad under the direction of Coach Donohue. The first game will be with Holy Cross in Worcester, today (Saturday).

Ladies' Circle Meets. The Ladies' Circle met at the church on Thursday to organize and discuss plans for the remainder of the year. Tea and sandwiches were served.

College Reception. The college reception was held in Holy Cross on Friday afternoon. The freshmen lost the rush, being pulled through the pond.

Freshmen Lost Rush. The annual rope rush between the freshmen and sophomore classes took place on Monday afternoon. The freshmen lost the rush, being pulled through the pond.

Faculty Club Election. The annual meeting of the Faculty club was held in the club room on Tuesday evening. The following officers were elected:

Professor C. A. Wheeler, president; Prof. J. N. Hart, secretary and treasurer and J. Manton, third member of the executive committee.

William Ferry held a picnic in honor of his cousin, Mrs. Carrie Goodwill, last Saturday. A dinner was served and a good number of friends were present and enjoyed the festivity.

Mrs. Lina Bosworth visited Mrs. Rose Utton Comstock at her home at Stafford Hollow last Sunday.

Mrs. F. H. Ballou and Mrs. Frank Utton, of Stafford, N. H., were in town on Wednesday on business.

Dr. A. F. Blackledge of Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y., visited here on Monday and Tuesday.

North Carolina is thinking of taking a position as stenographer in New Haven.

William Hammon of Charlotte, N. C., is a guest at Janis Smith's.

Community Concerts. The Community concert at Village Hill school on Tuesday evening, was attended by about 60 people. Rev. Mr. Parker sang Miss Dunne and other members of his choir.

A Community concert will be held at the Centre school house next Tuesday evening.

The funeral of Josiah Converse Sparks was held at the church on the Hill, Thursday, at eleven o'clock. Rev. Mr. Parker officiated. Burial was held in his grave in Glastonbury.

COLUMBIA

Missionary Society Meets — Grange Carries Out Interesting Programme — Eighteen Men and Four Women to Be Made Voters.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary society Wednesday afternoon last week was well attended. There were vocal solos by Mrs. E. E. Lyman, Mrs. M. Lyman, Miss Jones read a poem. Miss Hutchins read an article regarding Mission work in China and the pastor, Rev. W. G. Howard, in excellent address. The contents of the mite boxes amounted to $24.74 and between $4 and $5 were given to the society. Five new members were received.

Casper Isham who for many years has been teaching in Boston has been visiting relatives in Columbia where he was born and spent his boyhood days.

Shot a Deer. Raymond Squires shot a deer which was feeding on his premises recently. The animal killed was one of a herd of three frequently seen in this vicinity.

In July, a pair of young twin steers belonging to Stanley Hunt was missing from the pasture. They had not been seen since. The steers had been rounded up and were discovered by John Bowler of Norwich and Harman Wright of South Windor. The steers had been roaming about in a section not searched.

John Bowler of Norwich and Harman Wright of South Windor were week end guests of Mrs. Kate Wolf and family.

The opening of the public schools was announced to take place Monday, the 26th and it is reported has been postponed until Monday, October 2. There is no infantile paralysis in the town.

Mrs. Julia Tuttle of Hartford and Mrs. Sarah Smith of Manchester were recent guests of Mrs. Emily Cobb in West street.

Mrs. and Mrs. Henry C. Isham and daughter, Ruth, and Miss Mildred Latham spent the week end at Grotton Long Point.

Mrs. Emily A. Little has been visiting Winford friends.

Voters to Be Made. The names of eighteen men and four women are on the "To Be Made" voters.

Mr. Carpenter and wife of Indiana are spending several days in town. Mr. Carpenter purchased the Charles Wyman property, about a mile north of Columbia Green more than a year ago but has not yet occupied the place and it is said does not intend to do so.

The W. S. S. E. Ladies' club met with Mrs. J. A. Utley Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ella Collins who has been spending several weeks with relatives and friends in South Windor has returned home.

Grange Meeting. For the grange meeting Wednesday evening the lecturer had arranged an interesting programme consisting of vocal and instrumental music. A short three character farce entitled "Train to Mauro," and a discussion of New York State, which would benefit our town the more. State roads or a Trolley line? Owing to the absence of the lecturer, the farce was not acted. The program regarding State Roads and a Trolley Line, the honors were about even.

Mr. F. H. Kenney, who has been spending the summer at their cottage west of Columbia Green, returned to his home in Westfield, N. J. today (Saturday) by automobile.

Mrs. Myrtle Collins has a large and beautiful garden at her home on Thursday to organize and discuss plans for the remainder of the year. Tea and sandwiches were served.

College Reception. The college reception was held in Holy Cross on Friday afternoon. The freshmen lost the rush, being pulled through the pond.

Freshmen Lost Rush. The annual rope rush between the freshmen and sophomore classes took place on Monday afternoon. The freshmen lost the rush, being pulled through the pond.

Faculty Club Election. The annual meeting of the Faculty club was held in the club room on Tuesday evening. The following officers were elected:

Professor C. A. Wheeler, president; Prof. J. N. Hart, secretary and treasurer and J. Manton, third member of the executive committee.

William Ferry held a picnic in honor of his cousin, Mrs. Carrie Goodwill, last Saturday. A dinner was served and a good number of friends were present and enjoyed the festivity.

Mrs. Lina Bosworth visited Mrs. Rose Utton Comstock at her home at Stafford Hollow last Sunday.

Mrs. F. H. Ballou and Mrs. Frank Utton, of Stafford, N. H., were in town on Wednesday on business.

Dr. A. F. Blackledge of Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y., visited here on Monday and Tuesday.

STAFFORDVILLE

Picnic For Mrs. Carrie Goodwill—Grant Hanna Recovering From a Broken Jaw.

Theodore M. Lyon has purchased a new car. Mrs. Henry M. Vail has been suffering from the effects of a shock since last Friday.

Picnic For Cousin. William Ferry held a picnic in honor of his cousin, Mrs. Carrie Goodwill, last Saturday. A dinner was served and a good number of friends were present and enjoyed the festivity.

Mrs. Lina Bosworth visited Mrs. Rose Utton Comstock at her home at Stafford Hollow last Sunday.

Mrs. F. H. Ballou and Mrs. Frank Utton, of Stafford, N. H., were in town on Wednesday on business.

Dr. A. F. Blackledge of Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y., visited here on Monday and Tuesday.

Cracked Jaw. Grant Hanna who fell on his loom in the Hydeville mill several weeks ago has recovered and resumed his work in the Phoenix Woolen company's mill last Monday.

UNION

Mashapaug Lake Grange Planning Annual Exhibit—Children Only to Get Prizes.

Mashapaug Lake grange, No. 101, is to hold the annual fair at the town hall in Union, Sept. 30. Dinner is to be on the basket lunch plan. Children under sixteen years living in town may attend. The prizes are awarded exhibits of older people. All have been asked to bring something for exhibition.

Miss Clara Post of Hartford spent Sunday with Miss Annabel Poole. Miss Kate C. Pomeroy of Windsor is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. C. White.

Mrs. Margaret Daly, teacher in Canterbury, spent Sunday at her home in town.

Mrs. Lina B. Bidwell is visiting her sister, Miss Ella Bidwell, and uncle, Leslie Keeney, in Wilton.

Guests at Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Legate's were Mrs. F. M. Legate, Mr. and Mrs. Legate Jr., and two children of Hartford.

BOLTON NOTCH

W. E. Rice was a Hartford visitor Monday. Charlie Howard of Manchester

Saturday Bargains MAKE US PAY IT Saturday Bargains Make Us Prove That For Equal Quality No Other Store Can Offer You Prices As Low As Ours. We Claim That You Are Picking Your Own Pocket If You Are Not Familiar With Mohican Food Values. These Prices Will Convince You That We Can Save You Money.

ROUND STEAK lb. 19c cut from Heavy Western Beef. Mohican Rolled OATS, pkg. 9c 3 for 25c. THE MOHICAN COMPANY POTATOES 13 lbs. 25c. Best Red Star Sweet LARD lb. 17c Best Pure 3 lbs. 50c. Rib Roast BEEF lb. 18c cut from Western Beef. FRESH GROUND HAMBURGER lb. 15c—2 lbs. 29c. Native Roasting CHICKENS, lb. 29c. 2 1/2 lbs. LIVER and BACON 25c. Fresh Shoulder Cuts BEEF, lb. 14c. Pearl Barley 7c lb., 4 lbs. 25c. Mohican Rolled Oats, large pkg. 9c, 3 for 25c. Sunbeam Tuna Fish No. 1 1/2 tin 15c. Carmello Head Rice, unpolished, 9c, 3 for 25c. Old Dutch Cleanser 9c, 3 for 25c. Cherry Grove Molasses No. 2 1/2 10c. Mohican Macaroni and Spaghetti 9c, 3 for 25c. Jean Brand Jam, assl. Flavrs, 10c jar, 3 for 25c. Premier Salad Dressing bottle 10c. Tomato Soup 3 cans 25c. Matches 6 boxes 22c. Green Ginger Root lb. 15c. Sal Soda 5 lbs. 10c. Mohican Special Blend COFFEE 1 lb. sealed tin 35c. Succotash Corn String Beans Lima Beans 3 cans 25c. Granulated SUGAR, 15 lbs. $1. If Purchased With $1.00 Worth of Groceries at Grocery Dept. Mohican Creamery BUTTER, lb. 37c 3 lbs. $1.10. Dairy Department CRISCO tin .25c, 50c, $1.00. OLEOMARGARINE lb. .17c, 20c, 25c. MILD MILK CHEESE lb. .17c. COOKING COMPOUND, 3 lbs. .40c. FRESH EGGS dozen .37c. PEANUT BUTTER lb. 15c—2 lbs. .25c. Fruit and Vegetable Dept. Mealy Cooking POTATOES, lb. .39c. Native SPINACH, peck 25c. Head LETTUCE, head. 9c. Fresh RADISHES, bunch 5c. Shell BEANS, 4 quarts 25c. Hot House CUKES, each 6c. Large Baked TOMATOES, 15 qts. .65c. Nice Smooth ONIONS, 3 lbs. .14c. APPLES, 4 quarts. .15c. PEACHES, 2 quarts. .25c. Lean Shoulder STEAK lb. 12 1/2c 3 to 6 p. m. Fresh Little Pig SHOULDERS, lb. 16c 9 to 12 a. m. Smoked SHOULDERS, lb. 16c. Nice Little Pig SAUSAGE highly seasoned in link or bag, lb. 27c. Mohican Snowflake BISCUIT, dozen .12c. Jellied-Round Twisted DOUGHNUTS dozen .12c. MACAROONS and LADY FINGERS, doz. 12c. Chocolate, Orange Caramel and Marshmallow CAKES, each .15c, 20c.

FRESH FROM OUR OVENS AT THIS STORE AND MADE BY EXPERT BAKERS

Delicious Hot Boston BAKED BEANS, quart 20c. Hot Brown BREAD loaf .8c, 6c. BRAN MUFFINS Dozen 12c. CORN MUFFINS Dozen 12c. LARGE CUP CAKES Dozen 12c. Mohican Snowflake BISCUIT, dozen .12c. Jellied-Round Twisted DOUGHNUTS dozen .12c.

BOLTON

Deacon Charles N. Loomis' 76th Birthday Celebrated—Local Guests at Hartford Birthday Party.

Last Sunday was Deacon Charles N. Loomis' 76th birthday anniversary. Mr. Loomis' children and grandchildren gathered at his home to help in making the anniversary a pleasant one.

Mr. Loomis has been a member of the Congregational church, of which he is a deacon, since a young man, was a charter member of the Bolton Grange, No. 47. Fifty years ago he was a member of the Bolton Grange, No. 47. Fifty years ago he was a member of the Bolton Grange, No. 47.

The Eliza Ann, Mr. Denely and Mrs. W. E. Rice, who have gone to Paris, N. Y., their old home.

Mrs. Estelle Reed was a Hartford visitor, Tuesday.

Mrs. Shaw was in New Haven, Tuesday.

HEBRON

Children's Night at the Grange—New Teachers in the