Cross-Country WHIRRING cross-country with smooth easy progress, and just sufficient honking to announce its presence, Scripps-Booth has proven, over and over and over again, its endurance and its ability to cover long distances with minimum of fatigue and effort.

Its favor for city work is but the entering wedge of popularity, which has been augmented and backed up by remarkable cross-country work.

If you have never experienced the unusual sensation of riding in a Scripps-Booth on a country road, then you have missed a new motoring sensation, and have been denied to date the maximum luxury which is obtainable in present-day construction.

Scripps-Booth cars are owned in the leading communities by the most exacting purchasers whose names alone are proof of Scripps-Booth purchase-value.
