ANNOUNCEMENTS

Some very desirable building lots in Norwich are being offered for sale by the Norwich Housing Co.

DAVIS THEATRE.

New Show Today—Three Big Keith Headline Acts and Triangle Supreme Photoplays—The Best Show of the Season.

There will be an entire new show at the Davis today, and the bill announced for the last half of the week promises to surpass anything ever seen here.

The beautiful gowns of Miss Wehlen and the other women in the scenes in the Adirondacks and on Fifth Avenue add to the general attractiveness of this unusually fine screen offering.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Starting next Monday, Nov. 6, John J. Grotto will present the star comedian, Phil Ott, and his Musical Polka company.

The star, Phil Ott, is a real star, not a drama but of real comedy, and for the past ten years has been constantly adding to his popularity.

At the entertainment to be given this afternoon by the College club for the benefit of the Connecticut college scholarship fund, the program will be as follows:

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Three New Acts of Vaudeville and New Feature Pictures Today.

Three new acts of vaudeville headed by Ernie and Ernie, a pair of lively acrobats, will be produced by many new stunts in the athletic line.

On the picture program Maude Fealy will be seen in The Immortal Flame, a society drama in five parts.

James Forbes, a congressman with higher political ambitions, lives at Washington with his wife Marion and daughter Ada.

He has achieved success and Alice, his wife, children, devotes her time to charity. The premiere of Cory's opera is followed by a reception in his honor given by a leader of Washington.

Ada goes to New York to meet by Cory. He provides a home for her in an apartment hotel on Riverside Drive.

POETRY

APPEARANCE. You mustn't judge a person by the clothes that he may wear. You might have done so years ago, but now you know better. A man may be responsible and serious of mind. Yet you might overcast that's belted in behind. He may be all profound of thought, and all wise withal. That his youngest boy, you know. That his youngest boy, you know. But now the statement with a share of doubt must be received.

ONLY A TEST. You mustn't trust appearances. At present you will see. A general effort to appear like twenty-two or three. And those who put on glasses and look solemn as a rule. Are principally youngsters who are not yet out of school. As has been wisely said, this world is full of youngsters who are not yet out of school. We are all youngsters, as upon parade we go. And perhaps just as well for us to do the best we can. And perhaps just as well for us to do the best we can. —Washington Star.
