

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County

UNCAVILLE

Dr. Robert Harrington, Formerly of North Stonington, Moves to Town—Sermons by Former Pastor—Scouts Have an Outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rosenlund of Pequot have stored a part of their household goods and moved the rest to New Haven where Mr. Rosenlund obtained employment several weeks ago.

Charity Work Planned. There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Goodcheer Sunshine society at the home of Mrs. Cornelius Flaherty Friday afternoon.

Plans were made for the distribution of good cheer among those needing it for Thanksgiving. There was work on articles for the society's coming sale. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent. Mrs. Flaherty served refreshments.

Joseph Doctor of Baltic is to open a shop here.

Lived in North Stonington. Dr. Robert Harrington has arrived in town. Dr. Harrington comes here from Massachusetts but a few years ago was in North Stonington.

Rev. Charles Tibbets, pastor of the M. E. church recently returned from a recent visit with friends in Providence.

Homes From Sweden. Fred Bergman of Pequot, who has been on a several weeks' visit with friends in his native Sweden, has returned home.

Miss Helen Nichols of Meriden has been spending some time with friends in town.

Men sent by a New York firm are installing the heating apparatus in the Palmer Memorial school building.

Former Pastor Preaches. Rev. Elisha Sanderson of Bridgewater, Me., occupied the pulpit in the Baptist church on Sunday morning.

At afternoon at Charles C. Johnson's home, came to occupy the pulpit in the Montville church when about ten years ago he was the pastor.

There was a large attendance at the service to hear him. Mrs. P. Mitchell entertained him during his stay in town.

Mrs. F. E. Newton has returned to her home in a dozen members of Pequot council, Knights of Columbus, were in town.

Frank Bentley of Hill Top has rented a portion of his home to Mr. and Mrs. Hosmer of Springfield, Mass.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lees left town Saturday to visit friends in Patuxent, N. V.

Mrs. Albert Avery of Hill Top has as her guest her sister, Mrs. Henry Avery of Norwich.

Mrs. Joseph Levois entertained on Sunday Miss Mary Raymond and Miss Blanche Raymond of Baltic.

Pageant at Success. The pageant given by the society in the Methodist church was well attended and successful.

Among those taking part were Misses Charles Tibbets, Frederick Lathrop, Edwin Dart, George Brierly, Mrs. Richard Johnson, Miss Vera Bartlett, Melvin Robinson and Ralph H. Moore.

The other parts were taken by members of the church and Sunday school.

John Killen will be laid up with a badly sprained ankle, is able to be out.

Scouts' Outing. The Boy Scouts of the village enjoyed a three-mile luge Sunday.

The boys carried lunch and built a fire by which they broiled their steaks.

Patrick Donnan, employed in Mystic, spent the week-end at his home in town.

Mrs. Henry Jerome has as guests Mr. and Mrs. Prescott of New Jersey and Everett Angus of New York.

Mrs. James Jones of Hartford has a brief visitor in town the first of the week.

The weekly prayer meeting Tuesday night was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ramage and Mr. and Mrs. William Noble.

During the week-end the regular carrier E. B. Tooker, the first of the week Fred Simpson substituted.

NORTH STONINGTON

Reports From Congregational Conference and Sunday School Convention—Milk Producers Organize League—Red Cross Work.

Reports of the conference of Congregational churches at New Britain were given at the morning service in the local Congregational church Sunday by Rev. O. D. Fisher and Deacon John D. Avery.

At the session of the Sunday school, Mrs. O. D. Fisher reported the state Sunday school convention at Hartford.

Mrs. Jones of South Windsor was an over Sunday guest at the Congregational parsonage.

Supervisor of schools, O. E. Lowell, met the town school committee Wednesday to plan improvements for the schools.

Milk Producers' League. A milk producers' meeting was held Monday evening in the town hall.

It was voted to organize a milk producers' league. J. Frank Brown was appointed a delegate to attend a state meeting. County officers were present.

Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Fisher, Mrs. T. P. Norman, Mrs. Daniel E. Gray, Mrs. Ellsworth H. Gray, Mrs. Anna Wheeler and Miss Anna Wheeler attended the fellowship meeting at Ledyard, Wednesday.

Attended Ordination. Mrs. H. M. Perkins went to Boston, Thursday, to hear Billy Sunday and attended on Friday, the ordination services of Albert L. Townsend, who is now pastor of a church in Lynn.

Mr. Townsend preached last year for the Third Baptist church in this town, leaving here in May.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. York returned Thursday, after two weeks' visit in Hartford.

Master John Myers of Preston has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. T. P. Norman.

Albert C. Norman and family of East Orange, N. J. are in town for a week vacation.

Jeannette, the eight months old daughter of Mrs. and Mr. Lyle C. Gray, is recovering from a serious illness.

Mrs. W. H. Gotchell and Mrs. L. A. Betts of Groton, were recent guests of Mrs. W. H. Hilliard.

MOHEGAN

Schoolmates Give Earl Quidgeon a Surprise Party.

Earl Quidgeon was pleasantly surprised at his home Wednesday evening by a number of his schoolmates.

NIANTIC

Church Supper—Building During Winter Will Keep Men Busy.

A supper was held at the Congregational church Tuesday evening. There was a good attendance. Quite a number were present at the Grove.

Winter Building. The Ladies' Aid Society has nearly completed work on the Fortier and Belknap places in the Grove, and will leave shortly with a force of men for Otago to build a large bungalow for Mrs. Norman Beckford of Brookline, N. Y.

They will require a long time and make work for his men through the winter. Joseph Perkins of the Flanders road has the contract to put in the cellar and left Wednesday for that place, to start the work.

Mrs. Beckford has a summer place at Pine Grove.

Alvin Dimmock is carting ties to the freight yard.

The Week's Happenings. Mrs. F. A. Aston and maid have gone to Middletown for the winter.

Mr. E. S. Ebler of New Haven was in the village Tuesday, renewing acquaintances. Mr. Ebler is owner of a garage on the New Haven system and was stationed here for many years.

A flock of wild geese were heard passing over this section Monday evening.

H. E. Smith of New Haven passed Sunday at his cottage in the Grove.

Mr. George Harrington of Philadelphia have been recent guests of Mrs. Charles S. Noyes and sister, Miss Hatfield.

Mrs. Deborah Reed of Morristown, N. J., and daughter, Mrs. Leonard of Mystic were guests of Mrs. Marcia Johnson of Providence.

Harold Middletown who has just returned from the border called on Mrs. Johnson.

The grange held a meeting Wednesday evening the church parlors.

Several from here attended the Fellowship meeting in Ledyard Wednesday.

The Newark, N. J. papers announce the engagement of Miss Edith Brown to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. W. Trowbridge of 313 Broad street, that city, to Harry Newton Randall, of Detroit, Michigan, formerly of Stonington.

Mrs. Eugene Palmer has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Johnson of Providence.

Noyes Palmer, Joseph Noyes, Harry Palmer and Wolcott Palmer attended an auction in Pendleton Hill, on Wednesday.

The community was shocked Thursday morning by the suicide of Edward Webber. Mrs. Webber went to near neighbor's for milk, and on her return found her husband had shot himself with a revolver.

Mr. Webber had been very despondent. He is survived by his wife.

Library Benefit Nets $48. The library benefit entertainment was a very successful affair. A fine program was presented. Vocal and instrumental music, recitations and tableaux were featured.

Chappelle and Mrs. Noyes. A chicken supper was served and useful and enjoyable. There were for sale, forty-eight dollars was the receipts.

Mrs. John Tiffany and son, Leon, attended the high school reception in Deep River last week.

Shot Thick Ducks. A party of duck hunters from New Haven spent a few days the first of the week in town and carried home several ducks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Harding were in Middletown, Saturday, to visit their daughters, who are attending school there.

Martin Joseph and family went to New York, Wednesday night. Mrs. Joseph was less afraid and turned out the newlyweds are keeping house at the Stanton house.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Kneeland of Columbia spent Thursday at Edwin D. Kneeland's.

Miss Lavina P. Kneeland spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Robert L. Ledyard.

Mrs. Howard Carpenter with her son, Robert, will move to Norwich, where her parents live.

BOZRAH

Missionary Meeting Held With Mrs. Henry Hamilton—Grange Sisters Hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maples have moved from Frances Lathrop's house to Miss Lillie Gager's house on Bozrah street.

Missionary Meeting. The missionary meeting held last Saturday at Mrs. Henry Hamilton's was well attended. Rev. J. C. Young, who has just returned from Boston, gave a very interesting talk of the Billy Sunday meetings being held there.

Several prayers were offered and The Ladies' Aid Society, under the presidency Mrs. A. J. Bailey, the collection was $2. Mrs. Hamilton served lunch. The next meeting is to be Dec. 16 with Mrs. Young.

Brothers Entertained. The sisters of Bozrah grange gave the brothers a chicken pie supper at their last meeting which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Dec. 6, is to be an open one.

CHESTERFIELD

Rabbi Trautman Seriously Ill in Hospital.

Waterford were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Harpey.

William Darling, Abram Slinnowicz and son, George, were New London callers Monday evening.

All-Day Services. The Ladies' Aid Society met Tuesday with Miss Mary Wheeler for all-day services. Dinner was served by the hostesses.

After spending several days at the home of Miss Ella Darling, returned to his home in New London, Tuesday.

Their choir rehearsal at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Clark, Wednesday evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Lella Rogers. Richard Tibbets was a caller in Colchester, Tuesday.

ROAD SOCIETY

Charles Church of Westery spent Sunday with Farnsworth Wheeler and brothers, and enjoyed a day hunting on Saturday.

Mrs. William R. Hill and family of Norwich were at Maple Lawn the first of the week.

Mr. Wheeler and James Noyes are repairing the old graveyard where Miss Mary Wheeler was buried.

Miss Hazard has purchased a new automobile.

The Sewing society met Tuesday with Mrs. Eliza P. Noyes.

Mrs. George Harrington of Philadelphia have been recent guests of Mrs. Charles S. Noyes and sister, Miss Hatfield.

Mrs. Deborah Reed of Morristown, N. J., and daughter, Mrs. Leonard of Mystic were guests of Mrs. Marcia Johnson of Providence.

Harold Middletown who has just returned from the border called on Mrs. Johnson.

The grange held a meeting Wednesday evening the church parlors.

Several from here attended the Fellowship meeting in Ledyard Wednesday.

The Newark, N. J. papers announce the engagement of Miss Edith Brown to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. W. Trowbridge of 313 Broad street, that city, to Harry Newton Randall, of Detroit, Michigan, formerly of Stonington.

Mrs. Eugene Palmer has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Johnson of Providence.

Noyes Palmer, Joseph Noyes, Harry Palmer and Wolcott Palmer attended an auction in Pendleton Hill, on Wednesday.

The community was shocked Thursday morning by the suicide of Edward Webber. Mrs. Webber went to near neighbor's for milk, and on her return found her husband had shot himself with a revolver.

Mr. Webber had been very despondent. He is survived by his wife.

Library Benefit Nets $48. The library benefit entertainment was a very successful affair. A fine program was presented. Vocal and instrumental music, recitations and tableaux were featured.

Chappelle and Mrs. Noyes. A chicken supper was served and useful and enjoyable. There were for sale, forty-eight dollars was the receipts.

Mrs. John Tiffany and son, Leon, attended the high school reception in Deep River last week.

Shot Thick Ducks. A party of duck hunters from New Haven spent a few days the first of the week in town and carried home several ducks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Harding were in Middletown, Saturday, to visit their daughters, who are attending school there.

Martin Joseph and family went to New York, Wednesday night. Mrs. Joseph was less afraid and turned out the newlyweds are keeping house at the Stanton house.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Kneeland of Columbia spent Thursday at Edwin D. Kneeland's.

Miss Lavina P. Kneeland spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Robert L. Ledyard.

Mrs. Howard Carpenter with her son, Robert, will move to Norwich, where her parents live.

BOZRAH

Missionary Meeting Held With Mrs. Henry Hamilton—Grange Sisters Hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maples have moved from Frances Lathrop's house to Miss Lillie Gager's house on Bozrah street.

Missionary Meeting. The missionary meeting held last Saturday at Mrs. Henry Hamilton's was well attended. Rev. J. C. Young, who has just returned from Boston, gave a very interesting talk of the Billy Sunday meetings being held there.

Several prayers were offered and The Ladies' Aid Society, under the presidency Mrs. A. J. Bailey, the collection was $2. Mrs. Hamilton served lunch. The next meeting is to be Dec. 16 with Mrs. Young.

Brothers Entertained. The sisters of Bozrah grange gave the brothers a chicken pie supper at their last meeting which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Dec. 6, is to be an open one.

PRESTON

Mrs. Walter Rich of Putnam was a recent visitor at her brother's, Arthur Parks.

A. D. Crary and Jesse Crary called on their cousin, Mrs. Henry Doherty, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Prink of Norwich Town visited their niece, Mrs. Edith Wheeler last Sunday.

Miss Abbie Stanton and Mrs. Lynwood Crary visited in Griswold, Thursday.

Master Douglas Follows spent the week-end in North Stonington.

Mrs. Charles Crary is spending with her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Siny at present.

Windham County

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Bridges Repaired—Pupils' Surprise Visit to Teacher—Mr. and Mrs. Willie D. Rouse Leave for Florida.

Mrs. Daniel Dutton of Greenfield visited friends here Friday.

The upper iron bridge has been badly planked the past week as it needed on the New Haven system and used much of the time for several months while one of the other bridges in town was open.

Louis Sedyaky of Webster, Mass., visited relatives Saturday.

Miss Edith Lawton of Brooklyn spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. William Loring.

Mrs. Rose has moved his family to Norwich to be near his business several months at the Shepard Hill farm by William S. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. George Deer of Norwich spent Sunday with her brother, Fitch A. Carey.

Mrs. Alice Busbee of Providence has been visiting at Frederick Tillinghast's.

Mrs. Stephen Clarke has been entertaining her sister, Mrs. Rathbun of Norwich.

Mrs. Celinda McStay has been spending a few days at Charles Leavens' home.

Mr. Edward Elliott, formerly postmaster here, but recently employed by Undertaker George E. Grant of Norwich, has been at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott.

Miss Phoebe Barber has been spending a few days with her friends.

Miss Olive Dutton of Greenfield spent Sunday with Miss Mary Ladd.

Roses for Teacher.

The members of the senior class at the high school paid Miss Charlotte Reed, the history teacher, a pleasant surprise visit Friday evening at the home of Israel Seguin where she has been a resident here was the guest of local friends the past week.

Frederick Brewster was a visitor in Westery, R. I. Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Lawton and daughter, Catharine of Brooklyn was guests of relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pauline Mathewson was in Westery Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Cross of Newport, R. I., have been guests at Mr. Cross' brother, L. Howard Cross.

Howard Pratt of Boston spent Sunday at Frank H. Tillinghast's.

Start for Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis D. Rouse have been visiting at Sheriff Sydney Hawkins in New London and left Friday for their winter home in St. Cloud, Florida.

Miss Louise Tillinghast entertained the embroidery club at her home Friday afternoon.

Fall From Load of Hay.

Many friends were sorry to learn that Henry Loring of Wauregan had been injured by a fall in Danielson from a load of hay. Mr. Loring formerly lived here.

Dr. Crabtree's wife and baby have returned to their home in Brookline, Mass., having spent a few weeks at the home of Israel Seguin, on account of cases of infantile paralysis near their Brookline home.

Miss Clara Fletcher spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Providence.

Miss Rose E. Segun returned to Boston Sunday, having visited at her home in Providence.

Mrs. Charles Day has been visiting in Boston.

Lucy Webb Hayes circle of the Ladies of the G. R. held their November meeting Friday afternoon.

We Give Royal Gold Trading Stamps. Ask For Them

SPECIAL BARGAINS FOR SATURDAY. Fresh Smoked Shoulders, lb. 16c. FRESH PORK to roast, lb. 17c. NATIVE VEAL to roast, lb. 16c. FRESH PORK CHOPS, lb. 17c. LEAN SALT PORK, lb. 16c. Plain Tripe, lb. 6c. Fresh Pigs' Feet, lb. 10c. Pigs' Liver, lb. 8c. HAMS, whole or half, lb. 23c. LEAN POT ROAST, lb. 12 1/2c. RIB ROAST BEEF, lb. 18c. CORNED BEEF, lb. 10c. BACON, lb. 20c. FRANKFURTERS, lb. 18c. SHOULDER STEAK, lb. 15c. FORES LAMB, lb. 12 1/2c. NATIVE FOWL, lb. 23c. SAUSAGE, lb. 22c. Fine Gran. SUGAR, 12 lbs. $1. Malaga Grapes, lb. 15c. MINCE MEAT, package 10c. SEEDED RAISINS, package 13c. CRANBERRIES, lb. 10c. SEEDLESS RAISINS, package 15c.

NUTS. Mixed, lb. 20c. Paper Shell Almonds, lb. 27c. Brazils, lb. 20c. Filberts, lb. 20c. Soft Shell Walnuts lb 25c. GANDY. Chocolate Drops, lb. 15c. Dixie Creams, lb. 15c. Gum Drops, lb. 15c. American Mixed, lb. 15c. Caramels, lb. 15c.

We Give Royal Gold Trading Stamps. Ask For Them

BROOKLYN

James Crane Goes to Hartford—Admiral Pond Relieved of Command—Golden Wedding Anniversary.

James Crane, who has been occupying the premises of Martin Krouse and carrying on the blacksmith business, has closed the place and gone to Hartford. Since he was operated upon in the hospital it has been very difficult for him to shoe horses.

The position he now has is to work upon wood entirely.

Admiral Pond Retired. Rear Admiral Charles F. Pond, who has been in command of the cruiser squadron of the Atlantic fleet and been in control of the situation in Haiti and San Domingo, and who lost his flagship the Memphis in the tidal wave a short time since, has been relieved of command by reason of ill health. Capt. H. S. Knapp has been assigned to relieve him.

Sells Property. Thomas Smith has sold his place to a man named Davis, who expects to take possession by Dec. 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Spaulding had for guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Spaulding of Norwich and they and Frank D. Spaulding and his wife went to West Hartford in automobile and called upon Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walker, returning the same day, leaving Mrs. F. D. Spaulding for a visit.

Monday evening the Women's Club of Brooklyn held a meeting. Mrs. E. M. Marler being the hostess. It was gentlemen's night. Refreshments were served.

Golden Wedding. The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Vine R. Franklin was celebrated at their home from 3 to 6 o'clock Tuesday. The groom, bride, daughter, grandson and aunt of the bride were in line to receive the guests with whom the house was filled. The guests numbered two from the submarine freighter Deutschland, one of them being the wireless operator. The company enjoyed a pleasant evening and were served refreshments by Mr. and Mrs. Landeck.

Lockjaw Necessitates Shooting of a Horse—Two of Deutschland's Crew Entertained.

Frank W. Martin lost one of his horses Tuesday. The veterinary who was called pronounced it lockjaw and the horse was shot.

Clifford Burdick with his new truck is drawing large loads of ties to the North Windham station.

Two Guests from Deutschland. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Landeck of Bedlam entertained a party of about twenty-five Saturday evening. Among the number was two from the submarine freighter Deutschland, one of them being the wireless operator. The company enjoyed a pleasant evening and were served refreshments by Mr. and Mrs. Landeck.

HAMPTON

Officers Elected by Little River Grange.

F. A. Phillips lost one of his pair of gray team horses recently.

Mrs. M. O. Phillips is visiting her son in Plainfield.

Lockjaw Necessitates Shooting of a Horse—Two of Deutschland's Crew Entertained.

Frank W. Martin lost one of his horses Tuesday. The veterinary who was called pronounced it lockjaw and the horse was shot.

Clifford Burdick with his new truck is drawing large loads of ties to the North Windham station.

Two Guests from Deutschland. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Landeck of Bedlam entertained a party of about twenty-five Saturday evening. Among the number was two from the submarine freighter Deutschland, one of them being the wireless operator. The company enjoyed a pleasant evening and were served refreshments by Mr. and Mrs. Landeck.

Lockjaw Necessitates Shooting of a Horse—Two of Deutschland's Crew Entertained.

Frank W. Martin lost one of his horses Tuesday. The veterinary who was called pronounced it lockjaw and the horse was shot.

Clifford Burdick with his new truck is drawing large loads of ties to the North Windham station.

Two Guests from Deutschland. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Landeck of Bedlam entertained a party of about twenty-five Saturday evening. Among the number was two from the submarine freighter Deutschland, one of them being the wireless operator. The company enjoyed a pleasant evening and were served refreshments by Mr. and Mrs. Landeck.

Lockjaw Necessitates Shooting of a Horse—Two of Deutschland's Crew Entertained.

Frank W. Martin lost one of his horses Tuesday. The veterinary who was called pronounced it lockjaw and the horse was shot.

Clifford Burdick with his new truck is drawing large loads of ties to the North Windham station.

Two Guests from Deutschland. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Landeck of Bedlam entertained a party of about twenty-five Saturday evening. Among the number was two from the submarine freighter Deutschland, one of them being the wireless operator. The company enjoyed a pleasant evening and were served refreshments by Mr. and Mrs. Landeck.

Lockjaw Necessitates Shooting of a Horse—Two of Deutschland's Crew Entertained.

Frank W. Martin lost one of his horses Tuesday. The veterinary who was called pronounced it lockjaw and the horse was shot.

Clifford Burdick with his new truck is drawing large loads of ties to the North Windham station.

Two Guests from Deutschland. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Landeck of Bedlam entertained a party of about twenty-five Saturday evening. Among the number was two from the submarine freighter Deutschland, one of them being the wireless operator. The company enjoyed a pleasant evening and were served refreshments by Mr. and Mrs. Landeck.

Lockjaw Necessitates Shooting of a Horse—Two of Deutschland's Crew Entertained.

Frank W. Martin lost one of his horses Tuesday. The veterinary who was called pronounced it lockjaw and the horse was shot.