

Happy New Year To All

THE NEW STORE WITH NEW MERCHANDISE

THE PASNIK CO., 158 Main Street, Norwich, Conn.

We buy for cash, we sell for cash, we have no delivery expenses. We know where to get the goods through our long experience in the New York stores, and that is the reason of our low prices.

- Children's White Corduroy Coats, all samples, a bit handled, narrow and wide wale, some belted, others smoked, worth up to $5.00—Our price $1.97
Ladies' Coats, worth $12.00—Our price $7.97
Ladies' Coats, worth $19.50—Our price $12.97
A few Plush Coats at less than cost not to carry them over
Children's Outing Flannel Night Gowns, worth 39c—Our price 24c
Any Ladies' or Childs' Hat in stock, trimmed or untrimmed, 47c. We don't carry any over for next season.
Ladies' Silk Stockings in colors black, white, gray, champagne, pink and blue, worth 39c—Our price 24c
We are still selling Children's Ribbed Underwear, worth 39c—Our price 24c
Ladies' Four-Garter Corsets made of heavy contil, long and short—Our price 47c
Ladies' Brassieres—Our price 19c
Another lot of those Sample Skirts just came in worth up to $10.00—Our price $3.97
Women's Bungalow Aprons, materials of chambray and gingham, worth 59c—Our price 37c

YANTIC

Happy Family Parties on the Holiday—Services and Christmas Festival at Grace Church—Accidents—Many Guests During the Week.

Eugene T. Connors has returned from a few days with relatives in Huntington.

Miss Bertha Bromley has returned after a few days' stay in Worcester.

Family Gathering. Mrs. M. J. Bogue entertained twenty members of her family at dinner on Christmas.

Twenty-Five at Feast. Mr. and Mrs. John Burns entertained twenty-five at dinner Christmas.

Christmas at Grace Church. There were three Christmas services at Grace church Monday—early service and holy communion at 6.30 and the regular service at 9.30 a. m.

Christmas Festival. At the 6.30 p. m. service and Christmas tree exercises at Rev. Welling Areson spoke on the significance of the day and gift-giving, and Miss Helen Rietta Morris, Ralph Gibbs, John and George Browning and Miss Marion Gibbs recited poems suggested by the Christmas season. Presents were distributed and all the members of the Sunday school and juvenile members of the church and candy and popcorn was distributed.

The choir boys were remembered as well. Recent Visitors. Miss Nellie Driscoll has returned to Mansfield Depot after a few days' stay at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Driscoll.

Miss Grace Bulkeley of Southport, was a recent guest of her roommate at the Willimantic Normal School, Miss Mary Curry.

Dinner For Sons. Louis Vanderwaert of Binghamton, N. Y., and Peter Vanderwaert of Farmington, Pa., are spending the holidays in town with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Vanderwaert.

Miss Florence Carpenter and Harold Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carpenter, Miss Beulah Carpenter, Master Clyde Carpenter and Roy Carpenter.

Miss Timothy Leary and daughter, Miss Evelyn Leary, of New London, were recent guests of Mrs. Frederick Kingsley.

Horse Has to Be Killed. The white horse used on M. E. Manning's delivery team ran away and broke the stone wall across from the mill on the Fitchville road and broke a bone in its leg so that it was necessary to kill the horse. Christopher Hansen and the carcass was away.

Wednesday as John Pillar was returning from Fitchville in his automobile and was coasting along by Jones store, he ran into a carriage owned by John Sullivan, of Bozrah and driven by his daughter, Miss Sullivan, in order to avoid hitting Miss Sullivan, who was in the middle of the road. The shafts and cross bar were broken, but no one was injured. The extreme

WESTERL SCOUTS AT PROVIDENCE

Local Boys Attending State Meet—Politicians Getting Ready For Opening of General Assembly—Milk Producers' Meetings Today—Clerks Join International Protective Association.

A large delegation of Westerly Boy Scouts is in Providence attending the two days' session of the state organization. Friday afternoon Leslie Mann, center of the Chicago National center, spoke to the boys on baseball.

In the evening the young scouts were inspected by Governor Beckman and Mayor Gainer, there was music by the Boy Scout band, and a general reception. John R. Rathon, editor of the Providence Journal, presided, and the governor and mayor made addresses of welcome.

Saturday morning Mr. Longfellow and Chief Scout Donald North will give a practical demonstration of life saving in the swimming tank of the Young Men's Christian association.

The republican senators-elect to the 1917 session of the Rhode Island general assembly in caucus nominated Philip H. Wilbour of Little Compton president of the senate, and John E. Dooley of Johnston reading clerk.

At the caucus of house members Frank H. Hamill of Bristol was nominated speaker and Charles E. Howland and Raymond G. Mowry clerks.

Councilman and Mrs. Frederick E. Fowler entertained the Methodist choir at their evening at their home in Elm street.

The third district court convened in Westerly Friday and adjourned without the trial of any cases. The docket was read and the several cases continued.

As less than 100 persons in Westerly dignified their intention of taking a trip to Boston to see and hear Billy Sunday, the special train project has been abandoned.

It was noon of Friday before the Westerly chief of police was advised of the shooting affair in town on Thursday evening and asked to be on the lookout for the shooter.

The Westerly Clerks' union has voted to join the International Clerks' Protective association of Lafayette, Ind., the only organization of the kind affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

George Streeter, surman No. 1 at the Quonocotaug coast guard station, has been promoted to be captain in command of the station.

An auto owned by James Coffone of Bradford and another owned by Melvin H. Hackett, were in collision at Oak and High streets Friday morning. Judge Williams of the Third district court was in Surveyor's office in connection with a case in the judge's court assigned for trial next Friday.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, John H. Tillinchat, president; Mrs. Allen C. Slade, Mrs. George B. Mars-ton, vice presidents; Miss Jennie P. Mars-ton, secretary; Mrs. Eugene P. Hyde, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Cousins, chairman social committee; Mrs. Helen Dewhurst, chairman visitation committee; Miss Edwina Eron, chairman membership committee; Miss Rose Studley, chairman entertainment committee; Mrs. Norman F. Wilcox, chairman of waiters committee.

Breakwater Spray. The post office will close at 9.30 a. m. on New Year's day, and reopen for an hour at 6.30 p. m.

COLCHESTER. Willimantic Pythians to Visit Borough Lodge—Christmas Festival of Baptist Sunday School.

About 50 members of Natchaug lodge, K. of P., of Willimantic, will visit Oliver Woodhouse lodge of this place Tuesday evening, January 20, when the officers will be installed by the district deputy. They will come over on the regular train and a special will take them back. Members from Lebanon, Norwich and New Britain also will attend.

William E. Adams of Westchester, was a caller here Friday. E. McCall of Lebanon was in town Friday.

Christmas Festival. The Baptist Sunday school held Christmas exercises and tree at the church Wednesday evening. Candy and oranges were distributed to the children.

William H. Blacker and son, George, were visitors in Middletown Thursday.

Benjamin Horowitz of New York is at his home on Hall Hill avenue for the holidays.

Leave For Lakewood. Mrs. E. Fishkind and daughter, Miss Roslyn, who have been guests of Joseph Fishkind's, left Thursday for Lakewood, N. J., where they will spend the winter.

Frank Doane has returned from spending the holidays in Hartford and Boston.

Miss Rose Levine who is teaching in East Lyme, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Levine.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cavanaugh have returned to their home in Beacon Falls, after a week's visit with Mrs.

the auspices of the New England Milk Producers' association, in keeping with others held throughout New England, and for the interest of farmers and consumers. The Washington county milk dealers will meet in the courthouse at Kingston. John G. Clarke will deliver an address and be in charge of the meeting. Address will also be made by President Edwards of the Rhode Island State college and by E. W. Thernert, president of the Providence Co-operative Dairy association.

In Bristol county the meeting will be in charge of J. Bernard French, be in the Y. C. C. rooms at Bristol, with Sidney A. Sherman as the speaker.

The Newport county session, with J. A. Peckham of Melville the speaker in charge, will be held in the town hall at Middletown.

Providence and Kent counties will unite in a meeting in Irons hall, Olneyville. The speaker will be Henry S. Turner, president of the Rhode Island Milk Dealers' association.

Local Laocions. New Year's calls do not have the call in Westerly.

C. Leo Higgins was on a business trip to Boston Friday.

The winter term of the evening school begins next Tuesday.

It will be Ladies' night at the Colonial club on the first night of the New Year.

Clarence C. Peckham of the coast guard service at Quonocotaug is on a short furlough.

The Westerly town council will start in with the new year by holding a business session.

As it comes on Sunday, larger attendances than usual are expected at watch meeting exercises.

Addison S. Archie underwent a successful operation in the Hope street hospital, Providence, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Larkin of Montreal are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Larkin in Beach street.

The silent policemen have been called in for the winter in many places, but they will continue on duty in Westerly.

Councilman and Mrs. Frederick E. Fowler entertained the Methodist choir at their evening at their home in Elm street.

The third district court convened in Westerly Friday and adjourned without the trial of any cases. The docket was read and the several cases continued.

As less than 100 persons in Westerly dignified their intention of taking a trip to Boston to see and hear Billy Sunday, the special train project has been abandoned.

It was noon of Friday before the Westerly chief of police was advised of the shooting affair in town on Thursday evening and asked to be on the lookout for the shooter.

The Westerly Clerks' union has voted to join the International Clerks' Protective association of Lafayette, Ind., the only organization of the kind affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

George Streeter, surman No. 1 at the Quonocotaug coast guard station, has been promoted to be captain in command of the station.

An auto owned by James Coffone of Bradford and another owned by Melvin H. Hackett, were in collision at Oak and High streets Friday morning. Judge Williams of the Third district court was in Surveyor's office in connection with a case in the judge's court assigned for trial next Friday.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, John H. Tillinchat, president; Mrs. Allen C. Slade, Mrs. George B. Mars-ton, vice presidents; Miss Jennie P. Mars-ton, secretary; Mrs. Eugene P. Hyde, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Cousins, chairman social committee; Mrs. Helen Dewhurst, chairman visitation committee; Miss Edwina Eron, chairman membership committee; Miss Rose Studley, chairman entertainment committee; Mrs. Norman F. Wilcox, chairman of waiters committee.

Breakwater Spray. The post office will close at 9.30 a. m. on New Year's day, and reopen for an hour at 6.30 p. m.

COLCHESTER. Willimantic Pythians to Visit Borough Lodge—Christmas Festival of Baptist Sunday School.

About 50 members of Natchaug lodge, K. of P., of Willimantic, will visit Oliver Woodhouse lodge of this place Tuesday evening, January 20, when the officers will be installed by the district deputy. They will come over on the regular train and a special will take them back. Members from Lebanon, Norwich and New Britain also will attend.

William E. Adams of Westchester, was a caller here Friday. E. McCall of Lebanon was in town Friday.

Christmas Festival. The Baptist Sunday school held Christmas exercises and tree at the church Wednesday evening. Candy and oranges were distributed to the children.

William H. Blacker and son, George, were visitors in Middletown Thursday.

Overcoat Sale Substantial Price Reductions On All Winter Overcoats COMMENCING TODAY OVERCOATS That Were $15. to $35. at January Prices Men's, Young Men's and Boys' Overcoats SPECIAL NUMBER 1—MEN'S SWEATERS 55c SPECIAL NUMBER 2—MEN'S SWEATERS $1.19 The F. A. Wells Co. "Good Clothes Store"

Cavanaugh's parents on Norwich avenue.

Harry Elgart and daughter returned Friday from several days' visit with relatives in New York.

Miss Abby Willard returned Thursday from several weeks' visit at her sister's, Mrs. E. B. Craig's, in New York.

W. H. Button III. William H. Button is ill at his home on Lebanon avenue. It is feared that pneumonia may set in.

F. H. Bartlett of New Haven was a Colchester caller Friday.

Louis Alexander of Willington was here Friday.

Excellent Skating on the Shetucket—Search For Site Suitable For Khaki Cloth Plant.

Friday morning workmen for the town sprinkled the streets with sand.

Friends of John J. V. Woods, C. E., who has been ill at the home of his parents, are pleased to learn of his recovery.

Arthur Parent was a Hartford caller Friday.

Arthur Allard is contemplating a trip to Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Veronica Gallagher was a Willimantic visitor, Friday.

William Rooney, who has been visiting friends in Washington, D. C., has returned to business. While in Washington he visited many places of interest.

Siguard Swanson was a Providence visitor Friday.

Timothy Connerton was the guest of Boston friends this week.

Miss Alice Driscoll is spending a few days at her home in Colchester.

Mrs. D. S. Martin was the guest of Willimantic friends Friday. Skating Good.

The different ponds are frozen and the skating is exceptionally good.

Miss Ethel Brown is the guest of Boston friends.

Louis Trudeau was in Boston and Worcester this week.

Harry Gaucher, Jr., a student in St. Hyacinth seminary, Canada, is spending the vacation with his father, Harry Gaucher.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Riel and Zoelle Gaucher leave today (Saturday) for a month's stay with friends in Montreal. While in Montreal they will visit different parts of Canada.

T. F. Zurner of Detroit was a Baltic caller Friday.

G. A. Cote was in Hartford on business Friday.

Talk of Khaki Industry. It is rumored that speculators have been in town looking for a site upon which to locate a plant for the manufacture of khaki cloth.

A local ice dealer stated Friday that the scarcity of help in this vicinity is noticeable this year.

J. J. Britt of Worcester, was the guest of Thomas J. Burke Friday.

Ray Love was in Hartford Friday. Al Cullen was in Boston on business this week.

PLAINFIELD. Annual Meeting of Protection Lodge—Social of 1916 Class at Home of the President.

Protection Lodge, No. 19, I. O. O. F., held a meeting in Odd Fellows hall, Central Village, Thursday evening.

The following officers were elected for the year 1917: Noble grand, Frank O. Davis; vice grand, Arthur I. Moffitt; secretary, Joseph Z. Jett; treasurer, Benjamin R. Briggs.

The next meeting will be held January 4, 1917.

William C. Cohan of Brooklyn, N. Y., was a caller in Plainfield yesterday.

E. Garreaux of Webster, Mass., was a business caller here Friday.

Frederick and Arthur Racine of Mechanicsville are visiting at their uncle's, Frederick Racine's, on Railroad avenue.

Class Social. The 1916 class of the Plainfield High school held a social gathering at the home of Clark Denison, president of the class, Friday evening.

The members greatly enjoyed the evening. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The United States produces a bushel and a half of apples per capita.

Stop That Cough. A hacking cough weakens the whole system, drains your energy and gets worse if neglected; your throat is raw, your chest aches and you feel sore all over.

Believe that cold at once with Dr. King's New Discovery. The soothing pine balsam heal the irritated membranes, and the antiseptic and laxative qualities kill the germs and break up your cold.

Don't let a cold linger. Get Dr. King's New Discovery today at your Druggist, 50c.

DENTIST DR. E. J. JONES Suite 46 Shannon Building Take elevator Shetucket Street entrance Phone.

A Card to Our Customers As the year draws to a close it seems fitting that we express our appreciation of all that you have done to make it so successful. Our holiday business has been the largest in years. We have exerted our efforts most earnestly to serve you in a manner befitting the high standards adopted by this firm years ago. However mistakes may have crept in. If such is the case, no one regrets them more than we. Needless to say, we ask the privilege of rectifying any mistake that may have occurred in any particular. This is but justice to yourself and to us. Now, as always, we consider no transaction complete until YOU are satisfied. Again we thank you for your past kind favors and respectfully solicit a continuance of them in the future. Extending to you our most sincere compliments of the season. We are Yours for a still brighter and better 1917, Shea & Burke COMPLETE HOME FURNISHERS

We Give Royal Gold Trading Stamps. Ask For Them SPECIAL BARGAINS FOR SATURDAY Smoked Shoulders - lb. 16c Fresh Shoulders - lb. 16c RIB ROAST BEEF, lb. 16c LEAN POT ROAST, lb. 12 1/2c LOINS LAMB, lb. 16c VEAL to Stew, lb. 12c Salt Ribs, lb. 5c Beef Liver, 3 lbs. 25c Hamburg Steak lb 12 1/2c FRESH PORK LOINS, lb. 17c SMALL SAUSAGE, lb. 20c LEGS OF LAMB, lb. 20c LEAN CORNED BEEF, lb. 10c FORES LAMB, lb. 12 1/2c ROUND STEAK, lb. 20c Lean Bacon, lb. 23c Lean Salt Pork, lb. 15c Sliced Ham, lb. 30c A&P FLOUR, 1-8 sack. $1.20 BUTTER, lb. 42c EGGS, dozen 40c COMPOUND, lb. 19c POTATOES, peck 49c CHEESE, lb. 28c Very Heavy GRAPE FRUIT 4 for 25c LEMONS 25c dozen PINK SALMON 12c can ORANGES dozen 20c ONIONS lb. 6c PEANUT BUTTER 15c lb. 135 Main Street Free Delivery Telephone 29-4 We Give Royal Gold Trading Stamps. Ask For Them