THE FIRST SAVINGS BANK

In a Cottage, which still stands in Ruthwell, Scotland, Henry Duncan organized, on May 10, 1810, a savings bank, the first one on a plan suitable for the world at large.

In the United States there were, in 1914, 2,100 savings banks, over 11 million depositors, about 5 billion dollars of deposits, and an average of $444.35 per depositor.

When you put money in the savings bank you are putting it in a tried and trusted institution.

It is the safest place in the world. Eleven million people say so by their action.
