Doors will be open at 8:30 to all who enjoy a good time—See adv.

BREED THEATRE.

Ann Pennington in "Susie Snowflake," Five Part Paramount Production Feature For Today and Saturday.

Today and Saturday the Breed will present Anne Pennington in the five part Paramount production, "Susie Snowflake." This is a gripping photograph of stage and screen life and is from the pen of Shannon Flake. Miss Pennington has been one of the colossal hits in musical productions for the last three years and has now descended the stage and signed a long term contract with the Famous Players to star in productions for the Paramount programme. She is a natural comedienne and a natural comedienne.

"Susie Snowflake" is a story that gives Miss Pennington opportunity for the fullest display of her superb dramatic qualities. It brims with novel and striking situations through which runs a thread of romance that grows stronger with each succeeding incident. Miss Pennington repeats in the silent drama the tremendous success which she scored in the Broadway play. The Breed will also present the Pathe Weekly and Bud Fleisher's animated cartoon of Mutt and Jeff which completes the bill for today and Saturday.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Entire Change of Programme Today—New Musical Comedy and New Pictures.

There will be an entirely new show at the Auditorium today. The new musical comedy company will present another of their popular musical comedy pieces. Everything will be new, new songs, new wardrobe and all. On the picture programme there will be a very good comedy reel and the five reel feature "Why Cowboy is King" a spirited and truthful portrayal of cowboy life in the west. It will be a picture very interesting to the grown-ups and the children at their 5 cent Saturday matinee. Main floor all ten cents, both matinee and night. Balcony reserved evenings, at 20 cents. Three complete shows each day, at 2:30, 7:30 and 8:45.

FLORA BELLA.

Coming to the Davis.
Flora Bella, the bright, tuneful and altogether pleasing musical success, will be the attraction at the Davis theatre, Friday evening, January 12th. For one night only. The music which contains many catchy songs, is by Charles Cuvillier and Milton Schwarzwald. The lyrics are by Percy Waxman and the book by Ed. Dwyer. It has been revised and adapted by Cosmo Hamilton and Dorothy Donnelly. The story centres around an affair of the heart. Princess Maria, who takes her life in the quiet country home of her husband, Prince Nicholas Domidoff. Life to the young couple becomes monotonous. The prince, who takes his wife for a much reserved person, is greatly disappointed, having found out that she requires gaiety in life. It happens that a former stage manager, now ruined, stops at the home and recognizes the princess as Flora Bella, the captivating cabaret singer who used to entertain the cafe of the "Sign of the Golden Calf" in Petrograd. As she had given up the stage to marry the prince, who knows not her life as a professional singer, she has been taking every precaution not to disclose her past. The old fellow begs her to return to the cabaret if only for one night so that she may retain her prestige, to which she consents. The prince, craving for frivolity, goes to Petrograd on the same night and, entering the cabaret, finds her and is tremendously shocked at her appearance in the dress of a dancer. She tells him she is Flora Bella and that his wife is a twin sister. The prince falls madly in love with the girl and after many complications they reach that happiness they craved for. In his presentation here Flora Bella will be seen with an excellent cast. It has to its credit this season a five months' run at the Casino Theatre, New York. In the company will be found such artists as Eleanor Henry, Viola Leach, Lily Leonard, Edith Mason, Lynn Pratt, Guy J. Samuel, Julian Rueli, Ben Grubbs, Jack Bell and an ensemble of beautiful girls.

Seats go on sale Wednesday. Prices, lower floor, $1.50 and $1; balcony, $1.50, $1.75 and 50 cents. Seats at 25 and 25 cents. Mail orders, with remittance accepted now. Send checks or post office money orders, payable to Davis theatre.

GIFT OF $150,000 FOR TRINITY COLLEGE

From J. P. Morgan to Aid Campaign for an Endowment of $1,000,000.

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 4.—A gift of $150,000 from J. P. Morgan to an endowment of $1,000,000 for Trinity college of this city, was announced tonight. The endowment will be used to pay increased salaries to the faculty and to provide for a new chapel and gymnasium. Mr. Morgan, a member of the board of trustees of the college, said that the late J. Pierpont Morgan, was a liberal benefactor of Trinity and a few years before his death bequeathed $150,000.

New Haven.—Peter Petrillo, aged 18, in the court of common pleas Tuesday pleaded guilty to attending a threatening letter to attorney Phelps Montgomery demanding $1,000, and was sent to the reformatory. He was arrested by Detective Currier.

Different Kinds of Coughs.
Bad colds lead to different kinds of coughs. There is a "dry cough," a "winter cough" in gripe cough, bronchial cough, asthmatic cough, and, of course, the racking, painful cough to raise choking phlegm. Foley's Honey and Tar gives quick relief in all cases. T. J. McCall, Athens, O., writes: "We used Foley's Honey and Tar in our home for several years and find it almost invaluable for the cure of coughs and colds, and especially for croup with our children."

CAUSTIC ARRANGMENT OF WILSON ADMINISTRATION

Senator Works Scolds "Decadence in American Society and Government"

Washington, Jan. 4.—With an arraignment of President Wilson's administration and of what he called decadence in American society and government, Senator Works, of California, who retires March 4, began a limited power on the part of the president, denounced profligacy of wealth, recommended that the idle rich be compelled by law to work and urged formation of a new progressive political party known as the "Liberty Party."

Recess for the night interrupted the speech after two hours and the senator will conclude tomorrow.

Usurpation of Power by President. Senator Works declared usurpation of the power by the president had amounted to practically a dictatorship.

Referring to executive pressure on legislation, he said: "If this kind of executive coercion is continued, it will result in a government, not our government, but a government of the people. It is not a democracy. It is not a republic. It is a despotism worse than any known monarchy."

Reviewed Administration in Detail. He reviewed the Wilson administration in great detail, in urging repeal of the Panama Canal tolls, which he said the president had "descended to the level of a common lobbyist," and the submission of a bill to amend the act "humiliating spectacle."

Efforts to force the shipping bill, he said, were "shameful," adding that the bill was "a piece of legislation dictated and concocted by the child labor bill by 'humiliating lobbying for political reasons. The president being a politician, the Adamson Act is a disgraceful piece of legislation."

The president's insistence upon the passage of the Adamson act, Senator Works declared, "was deplorable. While the recent confirmation of a supreme court justice furnished a 'shocking example of unwarranted influence.'"

Denounced Mexican Policy. "The course of the president in Mexico," he continued, "has been one of arrogant and arbitrary, if not unlawful, exercise of power. It has been without lawful authority to negotiate with commissioners appointed by Carranza to settle our returns with Mexico."

The senator also denounced the president's appointment of personal representatives to Mexico, which he said "United States had twice gone to war with Mexico without the sanction of congress."

Advocating a single presidential term, Senator Works said the idea of a president being the leader of a political party was "a dangerous and degrading, deplorable and dangerous."

Pork Barrel Legislation Scored. "Lush use of campaign funds and pork barrel legislation," he was scored by the California senator, who gave in detail appropriation records of the democratic administration. He then turned to the issue of a more militant spirit because the public mind had been shrewdly perverted, largely by those having selfish interests.

New Alignment of Political Parties. A new alignment of political parties suggested by Senator Works to meet these evils would contemplate a union of the progressive republicans and the name of the "Liberty Party." The progressive party, he said, had been deserted by its leaders in its hour of need, and the republican party had become hopelessly disorganized and the democratic party was as hopelessly divided between reactionaries and progressives.

NO VOTE IN SENATE ON PRESIDENT'S PEACE NOTE

Hitchcock Resolution Will Come Up for Further Debate Today.

Washington, Jan. 4.—The note to the belligerent powers proposing a discussion of peace terms was debated again today in the senate but two hours of attack and defense failed to bring to a vote to the Hitchcock resolution. President Wilson's action in sending it. The resolution will come up again tomorrow with a prospect of further antagonism by senators.

An effort by Senator Hitchcock to secure unanimous consent for a vote later tomorrow, failed to succeed. Senator Hitchcock, during parliamentary maneuvering that followed the resolution, Senator Works gained the floor to make a two hour prepared valedictory speech.

Before Senator Works began, however, Senator Stone, chairman of the foreign relations committee, made a discussion and that the senate should consider and act upon it at once. Senator Gallinger, republican, also spoke with a warning that any attempt to force action would not meet with approval. After listening to the remarks of the republican senator, the senate recessed until tomorrow, when he will resume. The vote on the Hitchcock resolution cannot come up at least until he concludes.

THE BRITISH TRANSPORT IVERNIA HAS BEEN SUNK.

One Hundred and Fifty Military Officers and Men Are Missing.

London, Jan. 4, 7:45 p. m.—The British transport Ivernia has been sunk, it was officially announced tonight. One hundred and fifty military officers and men are missing.

The text of the announcement reads as follows: "The Ivernia was sunk by an enemy submarine in the Mediterranean sea on Jan. 3 during a bad weather and while carrying troops. At present four military officers and 146 men are missing. The casualties among the Ivernia's officers and crew are not yet definitely known, but hopes are entertained that the only officers of the ship missing are the surgeon and chief engineer."

The Cunard liner Ivernia, a 14,278-ton steamer, has been for some time in the British government service as a transport, having at various times carried troops from Canada and between British ports and the Dardanelles. There has been nothing in recent reports regarding her movements. She was built in 1900 at Newcastle. Her length was 528 feet and she was 64 feet in beam and 37 feet in draft.

Danbury.—One hundred thousand dollars will be the figure at which a company for the ownership of a cooperative milk plant, to be located in or near Bridgeport, will be incorporated, according to vote of the Western Connecticut Milk Producers' association in Old Fellows' building in this city Saturday afternoon.
