FRANK GARDNER HALE ADDRESSED ART STUDENTS

Former Student of Norwich Art School Lectured on Jewelry and Enamel.

A large and interested audience filled Slater hall Monday evening when Frank Gardner Hale, of Boston, lectured on Jewelry and Enamel, under the auspices of the Norwich Art association.

Miss Lucas made a most happy introduction, alluding to the fact that Mr. Hale gave some of the early history of jewelry and the part it played in personal adornment from earliest time.

Annual Meeting of First Baptist Church

Officers Re-elected for Another Year and Board of Deacons Increased From Three to Five Members—Treasurer's Report Shows Church's Finances in Excellent Condition.

EARLE W. STAMM (Re-elected Church Clerk)

There was a good attendance at the annual meeting of the First Baptist church, held at the church, Monday evening, Rev. George H. Strouse, the pastor, presided, and the meeting opened with prayer offered by Frank L. Lathrop.

Following the approval of the minutes of the last meeting, the annual reports were read by the respective officers.

Clerk Earle W. Stamm gave an excellent report of the year. Robert W. Otis reported that all obligations of the church had been met and that there is a balance in the treasury. This report was followed by reports of the assistant treasurer, Mrs. William Gilchrist and collector, Walter M. Cowan.

Reports of the chairman of the several committees and church organizations were approved as follows: Music, Robert W. Otis; property, George W. Rathbun; finance, Will J. Koons; benevolence, Mrs. Will J. Koons; Sunday school superintendent, Stephen E. Peckham; church aid society, Mrs. Arthur Howard; woman's home and Foreign Missionary society, Mrs. Carrie Park.

The annual election resulted as follows: Francis Lathrop was re-elected deacon for three years and Jacob Starkweather, re-elected for one year. It was voted that the board of deacons should be increased in number from three to five.

George Am-burn was elected for three years and William C. Noyes was also elected. Church Clerk, Earle W. Stamm was re-elected as were the other officers as follows: Treasurer, Robert W. Otis; assistant treasurer, William Gilchrist; trustees, Messrs. Frank L. Lathrop, Charles Cross, Will J. Koons.

Prudential committee, the pastor, treasurer, Mrs. Edwin Olcott and Miss Katie Willey. Executive Council—the official board of the church, and Mrs. Elizabeth Perkins, Mrs. Carrie Park, Mrs. Charles Cross, George W. Rathbun, Mrs. Arthur H. Howard, Will J. Koons, Miss Jessie Willey, J. O. Peckham, Mrs. Fred Wilson, Mrs. Will J. Koons.

The Sunday school officers and the officers of the B. Y. P. U. were ratified by the church.

Following the pastor closed one of the most interesting meetings ever held by the church.

A. S. SPALDING MADE REVENUE INSPECTOR

Has Been Advanced from Office of Deputy Collector.

Having passed civil service requirements, he has been advanced from deputy collector to internal revenue inspector and advised to sever all political engagements.

COMPENSATION AGREEMENTS. Papers in Five Cases Were Approved Monday by Commissioner.

Five compensation agreements were approved Monday by Commissioner James J. Donohue as follows: George A. Fuller Co., New York city, and Gabriel Sargent, alias Victor Sargent, New London, On Dec. 6 he suffered blood poisoning from a scratch. He received $5.91 weekly from Dec. 17.

New London Ship and Engine Co., Groton, and John President, New London. On Oct. 30 he was injured when he received a brass chip in his right eye. He was awarded $6.21 weekly from Nov. 16.

Ponemah mills, Tatville, and Joseph Belair, Tatville. He slipped on snow and strained his back on Dec. 16. He was awarded $5 weekly from Dec. 27.

Robert Palmer & Son Shipbuilding and Marine Co., Noank, and Leo Barwick, New London. He was struck by a steel chip in his left eye on Sept. 8. The award in this case was $10 weekly from Sept. 19.

Method. In modern work the setting is subordinate. Jewels have often been valued by royalty in their robes and dresses.

In the Middle Ages, all these jewel workers were banded into guilds and later years some attempts to revive them have been made, especially in England. The Arts and Crafts society in Boston is in organization somewhat on this line.

The demand for hand wrought work is increasing. Last year the Boston Arts and Crafts society sold $100,000 worth of hand work.

Mr. Hale had some very choice and rare pieces of his own work with him to illustrate his talk. Very noticeable was a pendant with a pair of large pearls set in gold with pearls and a baroque pearl set in a most unique fashion, a necklace of Australian opal set about with opals and oriental pearls and a very stunning necklace of blue chrysopease cut in cameo and set in silver chain set with opal matrix.

A most unusual and lovely plaque with a very large and handsome opal center set in gold with pearls and diamonds. There were very handsome and unique rings and watch fobs and two or three fine examples of enamel. Altogether a very fine exhibit of true artists' conception of the beauty and value of his materials, combined with a rare ability in its execution.

Mr. Hale is a member of the Boston Arts and Crafts society and has taken its highest medal. He also won a medal at the Panama Exposition.

W. C. T. U. RE-ELECTS OLD BOARD OF OFFICERS.

Miss Harriet G. Cross at the Helm for Another Year.

At the annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. held on Monday afternoon in the room on Shetucket street the old board of officers, re-elected for the ensuing year and the annual reports were read, which showed that the union has accomplished much during the past year.

A discussion of the coming year's program revealed the fact that the union will broaden their field of activity. The meeting was called to order and presided over by the president, Miss Harriet G. Cross, who led in the singing. The hymn something for Jesus was sung, with Mrs. H. F. Palmer presiding at the piano.

Miss Cross read the 146th Psalm and an earnest prayer was offered by Mrs. Edward E. Phreaner.

Miss Cross addressed the meeting in a few impressive remarks along the lines of work carried out by the union and of the many accomplishments.

The secretary, Mrs. H. F. Palmer, read her monthly report, followed by her annual report, which showed that ten regular meetings had been held during the year.

In the absence of the treasurer, Mrs. S. Howard Mead, President Cross read the report. On Jan. 1, 1916, there was $29.41 in the treasury. During the year the union has received altogether $207.82; $23.97 netted from food sales. The union has donated for benevolent and other purposes $22.50, and the expense of the union netted $209.95, leaving treasury $25.18 besides a deposit fund.

A copy of the campaign number has been sent to every minister in the town. There was discussion of the work in general which will be followed during the coming year, which was followed by the annual election of officers.

The old board of officers was re-elected as follows: President, Miss Harriet G. Cross; secretary, Mrs. H. F. Palmer; treasurer, Mrs. S. Howard Mead.

Miss Cross spoke briefly on the posters that are being arranged by the union and which will be placed in various places about the city.

Mrs. Joseph J. Fleide gave an excellent report of the work accomplished by the Loyal Temperance Legion during the past year, although it was necessary to postpone some of the

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Don't look old! Try Grandmother's recipe to darken and beautify faded, streaked hair

That beautiful even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
