SOUTH MANCHESTER WON

Took Saturday Night's Game From High School Five, 36 to 27-Olds, Visiting Player, Has Teeth Knocked Out.

The South Manchester five won from Windham High by a score of 36 to 27, in a fast game played in the local high school gymnasium Saturday evening. The game was exceptionally close, the last part of the second half with the lead pivoting from side to side. Gager played a fine defensive game, while Read starred in the first half with four field baskets to his credit, including a fine shot from the center of the door. Moriarty starred for the Manchester team this period, and made a fine shot while kneeling on the floor.

changed, Donahue going in for Howie; R. Finnegan for Balleiser, and F. Finnegan for Olds, the latter having several teeth knocked out during the second half and being taken to a dentist. At the beginning of this period the score was 14 to 12 in Windham's favor, but South Manchester took the lead and at 16 minutes it was tied by Pickett. Then the South Manchester team speeded up, getting five fields and one foul and Windham one field in the remaining time. Crockett was the star of this half with six field baskets and one foul basket, and also of the game with eight fields and one foul; Read coming next with seven fields and one foul basket. The lineup: South Manchester—Windham Olds, F. Finnegan—Gager Right guard Verplanck—Howie, Donahue Left guard Moriarty—Center Read Balleiser, R. Finnegan—Pickett Left forward Crockett—Lamoureux Right forward

Score: South Manchester 36, Windham 27; field baskets, Crockett 8, Read 7, Moriarty 4, Pickett 3, Finnegan 3, Lamoureux 2, Olds 1, Balleiser 1; baskets on fouls, Moriarty 1, Crockett 1, Gager 1, Read 1, Pickett 1; referee Downer; time 20 minutes halves.

A preliminary game between the Pickups and Ravagers was won by the former with a score of 17 to 9, Lamoureux leading for the Pickups and Carcio for the Ravagers.

PAGE HEIRS APPEAL

Children of Sister of Mrs. Margaret Page to Fight Probating of Her Will

Johanna Crotty of Chicago, P. H. McCarthy of St. Charles City, Minn., and Mary McCarthy of Kansas, children of the sister of Margaret Page, have taken an appeal from the probate of the will of Mrs. Page. The complainants state that they are the legal heirs of Margaret Page, they were not present when the court accepted the will, that they had no legal notice to be present, and that they have twelve months in which to make an appeal from the order of the court.

This will case was before the superior court in this city and after some deliberation the jury decided that the will should stand. The attorneys at that time were E. J. Danahy of this city and Walsh of New Haven and these two attorneys have again retained to fight the case for the heirs. As this is an entirely new case and will have no connection with the other case the whole matter will have to be gone over again.

Plate Glass Window Blown Out

The strong wind which prevailed throughout Saturday night blew one of the large plate glass windows from the rear of the five-and-ten-cent store. The damage was discovered Sunday morning by one of the employees of the railroad who notified Chief E. H. Richmond, the chief got in touch with the manager of the store, who had the window boarded up.

Think They Saw Flash from Haskell

Many local people saw the reaction of the explosion which occurred in Haskell, N. J., on Friday evening. Those who saw the flash were under the impression that the explosion occurred in Haskell, N. J., and seemed to come from that direction. People in their homes at the time stated that the blast could be distinctly heard and in some cases things were knocked from shelves. One man stated that he thought that something had happened to his furnace but upon investigation he found that nothing was all right. It was not until morning that these people found out the cause of the disturbance.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Pierre St. Onge. The death of Mrs. St. Onge, 38, occurred at her home at 117 Union

Mrs. Julia L. Snow. The death of Mrs. Julia L. Snow, wife of George Snow, occurred at her home at 123 Union street Sunday morning. She was born in Rockville, July 26, 1841, the daughter of Chester Lamb and Ann Corey. Besides her husband she is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Broadhurst, Mrs. Leona Jones, Mrs. Frank T. Jones of this city and Violet L. Snow of New Haven, one son, George Snow, of this city, six grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Cora Anisole of Medford, Mass.

JOHNSTONE'S CASE CONTINUED

Driver Who Caused Scholaska's Death Will be Charged With Manslaughter.

Robert J. Johnstone, driver of the machine that fatally injured Michael Scholaska on Main street, Friday evening, appeared before the police court Saturday morning. He was held in lieu of $1000, and a summons for Chief E. H. Richmond. Upon the request of Mr. Johnstone, who will be charged with manslaughter in the case, the trial of the case was put over until next Saturday at 9 o'clock. Attorney William A. King has been retained by the defendant, Joseph Scholaska, children of the deceased, Daniel Watts and John Bielak have been summoned as witnesses.

Lost His Pocketbook

A local man came to the police station Saturday evening and stated that he had lost a pocketbook containing between twenty and thirty dollars in bills and a check for five dollars and fifteen cents and the contents of the same. A thorough search was made in all places the man visited but the lost money could not be found.

Under the auspices of the Woman's

Pollard of the city, who drives a jitney in this city, struck and injured a dog in Sodom during the morning. The chief notified Dog Warden George Worden of the matter.

PLANS BEING MADE TO FRUSTRATE LAWSON

Should He Attempt to Obtain Writ of Habeas Corpus.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Refusal to recognize a writ of habeas corpus in case Thomas W. Lawson should obstruct in possible contempt proceedings against him and create a precedent for the use of such a writ to prevent the name of any representative of a foreign government being placed on the list of those who are preparing for resumption tomorrow of the "leak" inquiry. The whole committee will pass on the plans at an early meeting before the hearings begin.

NO STOMACH PAIN, GAS, INDIGESTION

IN FIVE MINUTES

"PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN" IS THE ONLY REAL STOMACH REGULATOR KNOWN.

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that is what makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments in your stomach, if you belch, if you eructate, sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with wind and indigestion, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach regulator in the world.

Frank Thomas Was in Norwich State Hospital.

Frank Thomas, arrested by Patrolman McArthur Saturday, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital during the afternoon. Thomas, who has been an inmate of the Norwich State Hospital at Brewster's Neck, was arrested for intoxication but his condition seemed to improve and he was taken to the police station. Chief Richmond called in a physician who examined the man and stated that he should be put into a hospital, which was done.

Narrowly Escaped Injury.

Four occupants of a large touring car had a narrow escape from serious injury Saturday night when they struck a stone causing the left rear wheel of the car to cave in. The car was traveling on the top of Coolley hill where the road was very slippery on account of the snow which had fallen during the early part of the evening. A rear wheel was procured and the car proceeded on its way to Hartford, the home city of the owner.

Died in Hospital.

Antonette Feought died at St. Joseph's hospital Saturday night. Not much is known of the woman except that she has been a resident of the town farm. It is thought that she formerly came to this city from the town of Coventry.

FUNERALS

Alfred C. Lathrop. The funeral of Alfred L. Lathrop was held from his home on Lewiston avenue Sunday afternoon. Rev. Robert S. Moore officiated at the services which were largely attended by relatives and friends. A number of beautiful tributes were placed on the casket showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held by his friends. Burial was in the Willimantic cemetery under the direction of Jay M. Shepard, funeral director.

Michael Scholaska.

The funeral services of Michael Scholaska were held from his late home at 44 Ives street at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Services were held in the home of Mrs. Scholaska, Rev. J. A. # Romance! Thrills! Mystery! "The Dark Star" by Robert W. Chambers

A dashing adventure to keep imagination constantly on tip-toes. Buy February Cosmopolitan and read "The Dark Star." Enough plot and action for a dozen usual novels. One mystery is revealed only to expose a still more teasing situation. The best delineations of character in recent fiction. Chamber's fancy has sheared the black sheep of the universe to make this yarn. It's a tale of heathen gods and New York gunmen—of the Far East and East Side—of world powers and under-worlds—in which a crew of spies, secret service men, crooks, kings and soldiers-of-fortune pit their sinister resources against an American girl marked for peril by Erik the Dread Planet. But there's a man whose love is strong enough, whose wit is sharp enough to thwart them all. A clean wholesome thrill-filled story that every member of the family will delight to read.

MOOSUP

Woodstock Academy Defeats P. H. S. 33 to 16—Scouts' Entertainment Clears $12—Local People Attend Firemen's Fair at Central Village.

The Plainfield High school basketball squad went to Woodstock Friday and played a team representing Woodstock academy. The game was slow because of lack of team work on both sides. The first half resulted in a score, 12 to 12. In the second half the two teams kept within one or two points of each other until the last five minutes of the game, when Woodstock rolled up six baskets before the Plainfield team could stop the shooting. The game finally ended in a victory for Woodstock, 33 to 16. The Plainfield lineup follows: Philup, center; Smith and Potter, forwards; Allen and Burby, guards.
