Norwich, Saturday, Feb. 3, 1917.

THE WEATHER.

Conditions. Generally fair weather prevailed Friday except for light snow flurries in portions of the eastern states.

The severe cold wave reached the Atlantic and Gulf coasts Friday and temperatures were below freezing Friday night as far south as northern Florida and ten degrees as far south as northern Georgia.

The indications are that the weather will be generally fair east of the Mississippi river Saturday and probably Sunday. The temperature will continue low Saturday in the eastern states. On Sunday the temperature will rise generally.

The winds along the north and middle Atlantic coasts will be northwest gales diminishing Saturday. Storm warnings are displayed on the Atlantic coast from Provincetown, Mass., to Key West, Fla.

Forecast.

Northern and Southern New England and Eastern New York: Fair and continued cold Saturday; Sunday fair with rising temperature.

Observations in Norwich. The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Friday:

GREENEVILLE

Exercises at the Greenville Grammar School—Reception of New Members into Junior Holy Society—King's Daughters Hold Food Sale—Notes.

The pupils of the Greenville Grammar school assembled in the hall Friday afternoon for their regular week end exercises. An attractive programme was carried out by the school. The programme follows: Lead Kindly Light All Grades A Stolen Custard Celia Rozycski Opportunity James Fitzgerald My Old Kentucky Home All Grades It Can Be Done Benjamin Stearns The Ruling Passion Elizabeth Krohn Lead Kindly Light All Grades The Foot and the Children Elizabeth McClimman The Faidheaded Man, Stephen Hoffman America All Grades Song of Sunshine Seventh Grade Reading of Perfect Tribute Mr. McNamara

Reception of Junior Holy Society. The annual reception and profession of new members into the Junior Holy Society of St. Mary's parish took place at that church Friday evening. The old and new members of the organization have been receiving a course of training in the same under the sisters of the parish and gave an excellent account of themselves, especially in the singing of the hymns during the evening's services. Vespers was sung by the rector, Father Fitzmaurice.

The society met in their assembly rooms at 7 o'clock and marched into the main aisle of the church where vespers were reserved for them. The occasion was headed by the acolyte body and then came the society, new and old members. The banner was borne by John McNelly and the choir was Thomas Howarth and Edward Ward. The act of consecration, pledging the members to the principles of the society, was headed by Arthur Porteleau in an excellent voice.

The evening's programme was as follows: Vespers, hymn, Our Lady hymn to Jesus Heart, All Burnings, remarks, Rev. John H. Fitzmaurice; Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, hymn, Holy God We Praise Thy Name.

In the course of his remarks Father Fitzmaurice called the society's attention to the fact that the day of their reception was the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary and alluded to the fact that the opening hymn asked for the intercession of the Mother of God to pray for them and following their admission they had further interceded with the Sacred Heart of Jesus to aid them. He urged the boys to live also up to the principle of their society—freedom from blame, clean speech, regular attendance at mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation and the frequency of receiving the sacraments, which is a monthly obligation. If they would prove true to these obligations the after effect in their lives would always be noticeable and they would always have occasion to remember with much pleasure the day of their admission to the society's ranks.

The society, which numbered 88 members, approaching the altar rail and received from the hands of the pastor their new banners which he had previously blessed and which will be worn on their monthly communion day as well as at public demonstrations of the society.

The adult attendance at the reception was large.

Successful Sale.

A successful food and fancy party sale was conducted at the Greenville Congregational church by the Hearts Ease circle of King's Daughters. The sale was well patronized and the articles found ready purchasers. The circle will realize next sum Mrs. A. Nelson was the chairman of the committee in charge.

United Social of Bible Classes. The Good Will Bible class and the class taught by the pastor, Rev. C. H. Ricketts, of the Greenville Congregational church united Friday evening and held a supper and social in the church. There was a very large attendance considering the extreme cold weather. After a beautiful supper had been served the members enjoyed an interesting programme which consisted of musical selections and addresses by several speakers. The speaker of the evening was Clifton Hobson, former principal of the Greenville Grammar and teacher of the Good Will class. Mr. Hobson spoke on the relation of the class to the Sunday school and the work which can be done by a men's Bible school. The other speakers of the evening were the pastor, Rev. Mr. Ricketts, Rev. George H. Strump, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. Arthur Varley, pastor of the Taftville Congregational church. Rev. Mr. Varley spoke interestingly upon the topic, The Bible—the Book.

During the evening Elmer Johnson, president of the pastor's class, presented Rev. C. H. Ricketts with token from the class in appreciation of his services during the past year as teacher of the class.

The following programme was carried out: Address, Clifton Hobson; solo, Mother McGee, Walter McNeely; address, Rev. C. H. Ricketts; address, Rev. Arthur Varley; solo, The Highlands, Alexander Purgason; solo, Open the Gates of the Temple, Frank Adams; address, Africa, Rev. George H. Strump.

The affair was under the direction of the executive committee of the Good Will class.

Notes. Many members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Federated church attended the social evening of the society at the First Congregational church in Norwich Town.

The meeting of the Euphemian circle of King's Daughters which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. William Clark of North Main street was indefinitely postponed.

The Mighty Five team of basketball players met with defeat at the hands of the Tigers of Taftville Friday evening by the score of 1-2 to 6. Murphy starred for Taftville and Tilley for the Mighty Five.

NORWICH FIFTY YEARS AGO

Free Bridge Across the Shetucket Ceased to Exist as New Structure Replaced It—Central Wharf Building Sold for $4,500—E. Frank Rogers Resigned as Court Clerk.

Fifty years ago the old bridge across the Shetucket river known as the fire bridge ceased to exist as a new one had replaced it. Some navigation on the Thames near Norwich was discontinued because of the great quantities of floating ice.

Gleanings from the Bulletin files of '57 follow: Jan. 28, 1867.—By reference to the congressional report it will be seen that Mr. Brandegee introduced a resolution which passed recommending that a suggestion be made to the engineer department that the channel of the Thames near Norwich be dredged and maintained.

During the past seven or eight months many long needed improvements in the condition of streets and sidewalks have been completed, and Alderman Cottrell, the chairman of the street committee has earned the gratitude of the good citizens by the energy and promptness with which he has discharged his duties.

Central Wharf Building Sold. Jan. 28, 1867.—John Stanton has sold his building on the east end of Central wharf, occupied by McDougal's fish market. The price was not far from $4,500.

About 5-46 o'clock on Monday morning S. B. Rowell in the employ of Amos King, agent of the King Woolen Co., discovered a fire in the second story of the company's mill, at Eagleville, town of Sprague. Running rapidly to the mill he rang the bell, and then hurrying to the door of the card room to find the entire floor in flames. Turning on the steam at once deadened the flames when Mr. Rowell ran downstairs, armed with the watchman, who had been engaged the moment the fire broke out, gave a general alarm which sent all hands to the ground, in some five minutes.

Navigation Tied Up. Jan. 30, 1867.—Sound navigation is very much obstructed by ice in nearly all the harbors and rendered dangerous on account of the great quantities of floating ice. No boats left from either end of the Norwich route, and there was no boat on either the Fall River or Newport routes, Tuesday.

On the West Side in the forenoon, Joseph Randall, a ship carpenter, living near the boiler shop, fell from a cherry tree to the ground, a long distance, and was very seriously injured. He was picked up senseless and Dr. Maynard called. His condition was considered as still serious on Thursday afternoon.

Feb. 2, 1867.—Look out! A leader reader desires to know if there is not lime and cement stored in some of the basements on Commerce and Market streets which in the probable event of a freshet would make mischief. The inquiry is pertinent if there is any lime stored where it is exposed to a freshet it should be speedily removed.

The Laurel Hill bridge is at length so far completed that teams will be able to cross it today. The last plank of the roadway in front of the bridge is not yet finished and some work will be required on the road at either end.

Seized Liquor Returned. The Liquor Seizures. It will be observed by our superior court report in the New London column that the liquor seized under various names at various parties in this city a month or two since, have been ordered, by decree of the court, to be returned to the owners, thereof, their being found guilty in the proceedings. The cases were decided upon technical questions and not upon their merits.

ARNOLD SMITH HEADS LOYAL TEMPERANCE LEGION Elected President at Annual Meeting in W. C. T. U. Rooms.

The Loyal Temperance Legion held their meeting Friday at the W. C. T. U. rooms with an attendance of 21. The meeting was called to order at 4 o'clock by Mrs. Fields. After the singing of a Saloonless Nation, Mrs. Fields led in prayer. Then followed the election of officers:

President, Arnold Smith; vice president, Lloyd Rathburn; treasurer, Marian Royce; custodian, Florence Carpenter; custodian, Helen Risley; secretary, George Rice.

Vice presidents: Dorothy Gildersleeve, George Fairbanks, West Side Baptist Sunday school, Dorothy Gildersleeve, George Fairbanks, West Side Baptist Sunday school, Natalie Bussey.

Yantic church, Clyde Carpenter, Beulah Carpenter. West Side Baptist church, William Cuprak, Helen Cuprak.

After the officers took their seats the superintendent gave a short talk. The meeting closed with the Missal benediction.

Crescents Outclass Westery in One-Sided Game—Many at Reception in Willimantic—Boy Scouts at Rally—Notes.

The Crescents outclassed the Westery team in their match in Parish hall Friday evening by a large margin. The Rhode Island boys didn't have a chance after the local boys got their eyes fixed on the hoops. Blair and White were invincible and shot basket after basket almost at will.

Stanley also worked his way into the limelight with some pretty pass work and caged several hard baskets. Higgins of the visitors was their star man. When the final whistle blew the score was 23 1-2 to 10 in favor of the local boys.

Time 20 minute halves. Referee Fontaine. Preliminary. Demon Five 10 1-2, Mighty Five 6.

OBITUARY. Mrs. Annie Couture. The death of Mrs. Annie Couture occurred at the home of her son, Desaire Couture of Front street, Friday night after a lingering illness. Mrs. Couture was 72 years of age and part of her life was spent there. She has made her home in this place for a number of years. Her husband died several years ago. Mrs. Couture is survived by two sons.

Attended Reception in Willimantic. Many of the members of Prof. Bernard's dancing class attended the reception given by Prof. Bernard in Willimantic, Wednesday evening.

Boy Scouts Attend Rally. The local troop of Boy Scouts attended the Boy Scout's rally at the Trinity church Friday evening.

Itching Blisters On Baby's Head

And Face. Scalp Sore and Red. Itched so Had to Tie Hands. Hair Fell Out. Head Disfigured. Cuticura Healed in 13 Days.

"My baby had blisters break out on his head and face. His scalp was sore and red and he was very cross and fretful. The breaking out itched and kept him from sleeping, and I had to tie his hands to keep him from scratching. His hair fell out and his head was disfigured. His face was terrible.

"My niece was telling me about Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I bought them. He was healed in thirteen days." (Signed) Mrs. Felix Smart, 21 Seventh St., Old Town, Me., Aug. 7, 1916.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are not only most valuable for the treatment of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness, dandruff and irritated scalps, but their great mission is to prevent such conditions.

For Free Sample Each by Return Mail, address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. R. Boston." Sold everywhere.
