

QUALITY SHOE SHOP

$1.00 COUPON

THIS COUPON

GOOD FOR A $1.00 REDUCTION ON A PAIR OF MEN'S OR WOMEN'S SHOES

50c ON A PAIR OF BOYS' OR MISSES' SHOES

25c ON A PAIR OF CHILD'S SHOES

Wednesday, February 14th, 1917, Only

ALL THE LATEST STYLES IN UP-TO-DATE SHOES

Charbonneau & Andrews 159 MAIN STREET, - NORWICH, CONN.

WESTERLY TOWN COUNCIL MET

Jurors Selected for Superior Court Session—Police After Suspected Burglar—Rocky Point Oyster Company Elects Officers.

At a special meeting of the Westery town council jurors to serve in the superior court for Washington county were selected as follows: Henry L. Mitchell, George E. Egger, Frederick W. Stiles, Edward J. Pennington, Archie Fletcher, Max Norogowitz, Joseph Geravasi, Michael D. Zapella, Abel P. Randall, William S. Martin, Eugene J. Slocum, Lyndon Taylor, Axel Nelson, Jacques H. Hertz, Eugene B. Pendleton, grand jurors.

The police are after a bald-headed man about 60 years of age, smooth-shaven, and wearing a dark suit and dark overcoat, who is believed to be the fellow who forcibly entered the Sherman hotel last night and the Potter Hill postoffice early Saturday morning.

relatives in Dorchester, Mass. Miss Lizzie Doyle has recovered from her recent illness and is able to return to her duties.

Mrs. Charles Chapman has been visiting in Popquonoc. Mrs. Alice Chester is teaching the fifth and sixth grades in the absence of Miss Cassie Lewis.

Mrs. T. J. Sawyer is suffering from a severe grip cold. Mrs. E. Hull Anderson, after his recent illness, is able to be out.

Mrs. Charles Sweet, who has been ill from blood poisoning, is improving. Mrs. Peter Deveau has gone to Dorchester, Mass., to visit her daughter, Mrs. George Miller, who is ill.

Miss Sadie MacLeod is recovering from grip. A carload of baled oakum has arrived at the freight station, consigned to the Palmer shipyard.

Mrs. O. A. Williams has returned to New York after a visit here. Mrs. J. A. Kenyon of Southington has been visiting here.

Miss Elizabeth Muir of Hartford is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Annie Graham. Miss Eleanor Lamb has recovered from an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. and Mrs. Jack Campbell are to move soon to Baltimore, Md., where Mrs. Campbell has secured employment in the Locust Point shipyard.

Mrs. Elizabeth Chadwick is ill at the home of her brother, Capt. E. W. Latham, as the result of a serious shock. John Gray of Bridgeport spent the holiday with his family here.

E. W. Goeater has severed his connection with the Palmer shipyard and gone to New York. Mrs. William Rathbun is the guest of relatives in Dorchester, Mass.

Mrs. Margaret Rollins has been suffering from blood poison in one hand. Hathaway Wolfe of Detroit, Mich., has been visiting his cousin, Mrs. Carolyn Andrews, in Rambler cottage.

Mrs. Melville Daboll has been entertaining Miss Emma Wilbur of Groton. Miss Annie Campbell is just about to be out after a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Supt. John E. Fitzpatrick of Stamford is spending a few days at his home here. H. D. Scott has returned from a visit in Providence.

Howard Hunter has returned to occupy the Robert Porter house. The Ellis house, in which they now live, has been sold to Mrs. Owen A. Williams of New York and will be at once remodeled.

Personal and Notes. Miss Margaret Rollins has been suffering from blood poison in one hand. Hathaway Wolfe of Detroit, Mich., has been visiting his cousin, Mrs. Carolyn Andrews, in Rambler cottage.

Mrs. Melville Daboll has been entertaining Miss Emma Wilbur of Groton. Miss Annie Campbell is just about to be out after a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Supt. John E. Fitzpatrick of Stamford is spending a few days at his home here. H. D. Scott has returned from a visit in Providence.

Howard Hunter has returned to occupy the Robert Porter house. The Ellis house, in which they now live, has been sold to Mrs. Owen A. Williams of New York and will be at once remodeled.

Personal and Notes. Miss Margaret Rollins has been suffering from blood poison in one hand. Hathaway Wolfe of Detroit, Mich., has been visiting his cousin, Mrs. Carolyn Andrews, in Rambler cottage.

Mrs. Melville Daboll has been entertaining Miss Emma Wilbur of Groton. Miss Annie Campbell is just about to be out after a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Supt. John E. Fitzpatrick of Stamford is spending a few days at his home here. H. D. Scott has returned from a visit in Providence.

Howard Hunter has returned to occupy the Robert Porter house. The Ellis house, in which they now live, has been sold to Mrs. Owen A. Williams of New York and will be at once remodeled.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Rocky Point Oyster company held in Providence these directors were elected: Frank W. Hamilton, George F. Brown, H. Stuart Pettigrew, George H. Church and Charles F. Leung. At a subsequent meeting of directors, officers were elected as follows: Charles P. Long of Providence, president; and treasurer, Frank W. Hamilton, New London; vice president, H. Stuart Pettigrew, New London; secretary, George H. Church, Providence, resident secretary.

The following real estate transfer deeds were recorded in the Westery town clerk's office since last reported in The Bulletin: Arthur E. Sackville, Sackville, lot at Sea View farm; Joseph A. Cloran to Amalia De Bartolo, three lots in Prospect street; Abby J. Thompson to Angelo Algieri et ux, house and lot south side Oak street; Mabel D. McIlvain to Harriet D. Godfrey, lot west side Manchester street; Cary J. Farrell to Hugh A. Dunning et ux, lot west side Summer street; Eugene Atwood to Westery Textile company, brick mill building and lot west side Main street; estate Bethena Pendleton to Westery Textile company, buildings and lots west side Main street; John P. Crandall et al. to Charles H. Crandall, undivided two-thirds interest of four lots with improvement, Front road, or Woody Hill road; Charles H. Crandall to John P. Crandall et al., undivided one-third interest in house and lot east side of High street; Sarah A. Chapman to Washington Trust company, the Charles block, Broad and Main streets; Charles Perry to Washington Trust company, improved property in Westery Textile company, brick mill building; Annie Dixon to McClure to Charles Eccleston, seven lots in Prospect and Oak streets and Highland avenue; Charles P. Eccleston to Annie McClure Dixon, two lots in Narragansett avenue, one lot in Highland avenue.

"Equal suffrage, the great burning question of the day," is the language of the notice sent out to all women in Westery, in announcing a meeting for organization next Thursday evening at the Memorial building. Representative Samuel H. Davis will preside and the principal speaker will be Mrs. Sarah Brooks, president of the Rhode Island Suffrage section. There are already a number of women in Westery, large taxpayers, who are opposed to the franchise, and who are, in representation, anxious to join the league, and some of these are back of this movement, which is new to Westery.

Local Laconics. Edwin Whitney of Boston entertained at the Colonial club Monday night. State Senator James May of New London is a brother of Dr. John L. May of Westery.

Two below zero at the pumping station at 4 o'clock Monday morning and zero three hours later. Mrs. Edgar P. Maxson attended the alumni reunion at Lasell college in Andover, Mass., Monday.

Dr. Joseph Higgins of Manchester, Conn., was a week end visitor at the home of his mother in West Broad street.

Lincoln day was observed in Westery by a general display of colors and by special exercises in the public schools.

Charles Downey of Pawcatuck has entered as a student of the New England Conservatory of Music for study of the violin.

After a brief visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Hazard, James O. Hazard returned to his home in Usherwood, Pa.

Bountiful ice crop for Westery, but the price will be in keeping with the general increase in price of everything else, except water rates.

S. Victor Prince, recently appointed assistant judge of the city and police court of New London, is a brother of Mrs. George W. Williams of Franklin street, Westery.

The civil census to ascertain the war resources of the state has not been commenced in Rhode Island in connection with the existing conditions. It is claimed that most of the information desired by the government is already available in the state.

Senator-elect and Mrs. Peter Goeliet Gerry will entertain visitors from Rhode Island in Washington on inauguration day. They will provide a stand at 464 Pennsylvania avenue, N. W. from which to review the parade and where luncheon will be served.

An able bodied young man, enthused with patriotism, was criticizing Westery generally for lack of patriotism in not making a general display of the national colors. He was told to go to the army and government if he preferred preaching patriotism rather than practice what he preached.

Rev. E. P. Mathewson of Ashaway conducted the funeral service of George Chester Burdick, the locomotive fireman who was killed at Wickford Junction Friday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Burdick, at Chase Hill, Monday morning.

Butler, who reviewed the parade and where luncheon will be served. An able bodied young man, enthused with patriotism, was criticizing Westery generally for lack of patriotism in not making a general display of the national colors.

He was told to go to the army and government if he preferred preaching patriotism rather than practice what he preached. Rev. E. P. Mathewson of Ashaway conducted the funeral service of George Chester Burdick, the locomotive fireman who was killed at Wickford Junction Friday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Burdick, at Chase Hill, Monday morning.

Butler, who reviewed the parade and where luncheon will be served. An able bodied young man, enthused with patriotism, was criticizing Westery generally for lack of patriotism in not making a general display of the national colors.

He was told to go to the army and government if he preferred preaching patriotism rather than practice what he preached. Rev. E. P. Mathewson of Ashaway conducted the funeral service of George Chester Burdick, the locomotive fireman who was killed at Wickford Junction Friday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Burdick, at Chase Hill, Monday morning.

Butler, who reviewed the parade and where luncheon will be served. An able bodied young man, enthused with patriotism, was criticizing Westery generally for lack of patriotism in not making a general display of the national colors.

He was told to go to the army and government if he preferred preaching patriotism rather than practice what he preached. Rev. E. P. Mathewson of Ashaway conducted the funeral service of George Chester Burdick, the locomotive fireman who was killed at Wickford Junction Friday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Burdick, at Chase Hill, Monday morning.

Butler, who reviewed the parade and where luncheon will be served. An able bodied young man, enthused with patriotism, was criticizing Westery generally for lack of patriotism in not making a general display of the national colors.

He was told to go to the army and government if he preferred preaching patriotism rather than practice what he preached. Rev. E. P. Mathewson of Ashaway conducted the funeral service of George Chester Burdick, the locomotive fireman who was killed at Wickford Junction Friday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Burdick, at Chase Hill, Monday morning.

Butler, who reviewed the parade and where luncheon will be served. An able bodied young man, enthused with patriotism, was criticizing Westery generally for lack of patriotism in not making a general display of the national colors.

He was told to go to the army and government if he preferred preaching patriotism rather than practice what he preached. Rev. E. P. Mathewson of Ashaway conducted the funeral service of George Chester Burdick, the locomotive fireman who was killed at Wickford Junction Friday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Burdick, at Chase Hill, Monday morning.

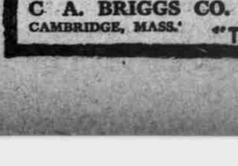

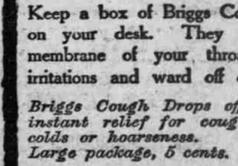

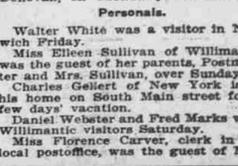

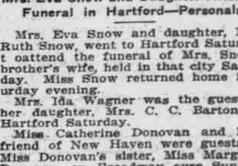

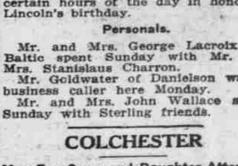

Try This New Recipe for Coconut Layer Cake

1 cupful of Baker's BAKERS' COCONUT

1/2 cupful of Baker's BAKERS' COCONUT

PURFEY HALL-YALE UNIVERSITY

New Englanders Recognize Real Pipe Tobacco!

Old English Curve Cut is not a combination pipe and cigarette tobacco.

IT'S P-I-P-E tobacco, men! Don't buy Old English Curve Cut if you want to roll cigarettes from it.

It's made solely for pipe smoking and these convenient slices of choice, Kentucky Burley yield a snap and flavor you'll never find in "half and half" brands.

Old English CURVE CUT Pipe Tobacco

There are more puffs, more pleasure, more comfort, and more satisfaction in a pipeful of Old English Curve Cut than any other smoking tobacco—bar none!

Why? Because the natural quality of the leaf in Old English Curve Cut has been minimized not pressed to make a cigarette tobacco.

Sliced For Your Convenience In A Carved Tin that Just Fits the Pocket—10 cents

The American Pipe Co. Philadelphia, Pa.

Lincoln, were held at which pupils gloried in the name of one of America's foremost patriots.

The post office was closed during certain hours of the day in honor of Lincoln's birthday.

Personal. Mr. and Mrs. George Lacroix of Baltic spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Stanislaus Charbon.

Mr. Goldwater of Danielson was a business caller here Monday. Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace spent Sunday with Sterling friends.

COLCHESTER Mrs. Eva Snow and Daughter Attended Funeral in Hartford—Personal.

Mrs. Eva Snow and daughter, Miss Ruth Snow, went to Hartford Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Snow's brother's wife, held in that city Saturday evening.

Mrs. Ida Wagner was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Barton, in Hartford Saturday.

Mrs. Catherine Donovan and lady friend of New Haven were guests of Miss Donovan's sister, Miss Margaret Donovan, on Broadway over Sunday.

Personal. Walter White was a visitor in Norwich Friday.

Miss Eileen Sullivan of Willimantic was the guest of her parents, Postmaster and Mrs. Sullivan, over Sunday.

Charles Gellert of New York is at his home on South Main street for a few days' vacation.

Daniel Webster and Fred Marks were Willimantic visitors Saturday. Miss Florence Carver, clerk in the local postoffice, was the guest of Miss Wilfred Royce of Warren was a Sunday caller in Plainfield. Walter Clark of New Haven spent the week end here.

John C. Duff and Albert Moreland of Waterbury are visiting Plainfield relatives.

Lawrence Snyder of Groton was a caller here Saturday. There was a meeting Friday evening of the committee in charge of the supper to be given for the benefit of St. John's church.

Walking in this locality is somewhat dangerous, as most of the public thoroughfares are covered with ice. Skating is reported good.

Friends Surprised Miss Ella Mette on Monday Evening—Schools Held Special Exercises—Personal.

Miss Ella Mette was tendered a birthday surprise party at her home on Lawton Heights Monday evening by a number of her friends. Vocal and instrumental selections were rendered and games were played during the evening. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The party broke up at a late hour, everyone wishing Miss Mette many happy returns of the day.

At the various schools throughout the town appropriate exercises were given in honor of the birthday of Abraham

NOANK Icecremen Will Harvest 10-Inch Ice—Ellis House Sold—Personal.

The icehouse of D. E. Doyle will be filled today and a good quantity of ice has been harvested. It is about 10 inches thick.

Bridgeport after a visit here. John Alderdyce is visiting in New York for a few days. Captain Winnell is spending a few days in New York.

AMERICAN CHICLE COMPANY

The Licorice Gum

Want a piece of Adams Black Jack, Mister Soldier Man? Why sure, little Dear. We catch awful colds in camp, and a little piece of that good licorice gum'll do me heaps of good. Thank you, Miss.

FELT LIKE A NEW PERSON

After Taking Only One Box of "Fruit-a-tives"

"It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you of the wonderful benefits I have received from taking 'Fruit-a-tives'. For years, I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Headaches, and I was miserable in every way. Nothing in the way of medicines seemed to help me. Then I finally tried 'Fruit-a-tives' and the effect was splendid. After taking one box, I feel like a new person, to have relief from those sickening Headaches!"

Mrs. MARTHA DEWOLFE. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ogdenburg, N.Y.

STONINGTON

Real Estate Changes Filed With Clerk Elias B. Hinckley—Funeral of Mrs. Lucy Wheeler Browning Palmer.

The deeds of transfer recorded by Town Clerk Elias B. Hinckley since last reported in The Bulletin are as follows: James H. Bradford to Virginia Donaghe McClure, house and lot at Wall and Main streets; Severina S. Andrews et ux, Anthony of Ashaway, house and lot north side Diving street; Frank G. Sylvia to estate Oliver E. Grant, adjoining railroad land; Samuel D. Watrous to James Higgins-bottom, house and lot Hillside avenue and West Broad street, Pawcatuck; Emma D. Kelley to Edward F. York, house and lot east side Main street; Joseph T. Murphy to Arthur E. Burdick, house and lot 22 Robinson street, Pawcatuck; Joseph T. Murphy to Carrie I. Kelley, house and lot south side Main street, Pawcatuck; Michael Twomey to Epifanio Sammaro et ux, house and lot west side Sullivan avenue, Pawcatuck; William A. Burham et al., trustees, to estate of Calvary

Office Hours: 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. by appointment. Sundays excepted.

Drs. L. F. and A. J. LAPIERRE 287 Main Street, Norwich, Conn.