LOYAL TEMPERANCE LEGION. Members Observed Gen. Neal Dow's Birthday With Readings.

Company C, Loyal Temperance Legion held their regular meeting Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the W. C. T. U. hall. W. C. A. President George Fairbank presided and Helen Risley was elected secretary pro-tem. The service opened with singing, "We'll Drink There is Danger" and the regular responsive recitations. The superintendent taught the lesson "War, we want it," which is, "It is not safe to take even a little poison," and several of the boys gave the lesson. The outcome of which if they abide by will make them decided teetotalers. General Neal Dow's birthday was observed by the following readings: Neal Dow as a wide-awake boy, Geo. Fairbanks; Neal Dow Was Fond of Sports, Helen Risley; Neal Dow Used Profanity and Influenced Others Not to Use It, Charles Sage; He Never Used Tobacco, Robert Sage; He Never Tasted Strong Drink, Eva Ferns; Why He Became a Hater of Strong Drink, Sigrid Aston; His Grandfather and His Home Life, Mrs. Wymann; He was a Voluntary Fireman and Influenced them to have their functions without any strong drink, Esther Ottovano; "Hurray for prohibition true," Neal Dow, we owe it to you, Robert Montgomery. Mrs. Fields told of his mayorship and the protest during the Civil War where he gained the title ship of general. The meeting closed with Onward We Are Marching, Alcohol to Fight, and the Mispah benediction. Two names were added to the roll.

N. F. A. NOTES. Meeting of Athletic Council Postponed—Many Entries For Williams Prize Reading.

The meeting of the Athletic council scheduled for last night was postponed, owing to the illness of one of the members. The chief subject to be discussed was the question of the track. The Athletic council is part of the fight being waged by Coach McKay for better organized athletics at the Academy. The members are H. A. Tirrell, Dr. Bunnell and Mr. Congdon (faculty), E. G. McKay, Harrison Noyes and C. O. Fletcher (alumni), L. J. Stanley, E. S. McMillan and J. C. Keefe (student).

Many Entries For Prize Reading. About thirty-five girls have reported to Miss Elizabeth Piper for preliminary training for the Williams' Prize reading.

Mrs. R. R. Graham Spoke. The members of the Woman's Guild of St. James' church, Poquatunuck and invited guests met at the home of the president, Mrs. Charles Washburn, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Richard R. Graham of Norwich, who was present gave an interesting talk on the work of the Missionary auxiliary, which was very much enjoyed by all present. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. John Taylor and Mrs. Charles Gear.

Thousands of Birds Tested. During the past two years 154 flocks, totaling 24,498 birds, have been tested for bacillary white diarrhea, under the direction of the poultry extension department of Connecticut Agricultural College. An infection of 9.3 per cent was shown by these birds.

IS URGING GARDENING AND CANNING CLUBS. Work is Especially Adapted to the Rural Communities.

In view of the present high cost of all foodstuffs and with the practical certainty that the coming year will show prices above normal, the education committee of the Connecticut Federation of Women's clubs urges the formation of gardening and canning clubs among the school children of the state. This work is especially adapted to rural communities. In some communities the plan has been adopted with great success. If you want to organize a club or find out more about club work, write to J. J. Hildreth, Storrs, Conn., or Miss M. Estella Sprague, Storrs.

THE EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN. Booster Chorus to Sing at the Service Arranged for This Evening.

Everything is in readiness for one of the greatest programmes ever given by boys and girls in Norwich in the West Side evangelistic campaign at the First Baptist church tonight. The Booster boys and girls who compose this chorus, now over one hundred strong, have done fine work and are being commended in their parents and friends once more as they did on last Saturday night. The singing tomorrow are for the uplift of those who will attend. The schedule of services is as follows: A prayer meeting seeking Divine guidance for the day will be held for everybody in the Sunday school room of the church in the morning and will last just one half hour. The morning service will be held at 10.30 a. m. for everybody. Evangelist Linden will preach on the subject, God's Laborer, the First Baptist church in the afternoon under the auspices of the M. C. A. The evangelist will deliver his famous and stirring sermon to men on the subject, Men's Fellow Strikers or Quit Your Meanness. Once more at 6.30 p. m. in the Sunday school room "Wait" will speak to young people. At the evening service the evangelist will speak on the subject, The Will-Not-of-Life Becoming the Shall-Not.

The Women's committee of the church which did such splendid work in getting out such a large attendance at the woman's meeting last Sunday is busy at work making plans for the second meeting to women and girls only which will be held at the First Baptist church next Tuesday evening.

Two-Day Extension Schools. The college extension service is holding this month a number of two-day schools in home economics. These schools are to be given in communities which had the regular four-day extension schools last season and where the women were so keenly interested that they requested more work of its kind. The following is the schedule of the schools: Old Saybrook, March 19 and 20; Woodstock, March 27 and 28; Preston City, March 20 and 30. The course includes demonstrations and talks on canning, the school lunch and the household budget, and will be given by Miss Maud E. Hayes, who is in charge of the home economics extension work in this state.

Surprise Party. There was a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Denison, 21 Happy Street, Thursday evening. On behalf of the guests Mrs. Baldwin presented the host and hostess a cut glass jelly dish. Mr. Denison thanked them in a few well chosen words. Four tables of whist were played. The first prizes were awarded Mrs. Charles Carpenter and Mrs. Wilbur Chappell, and the second prizes to Mrs. Fred Thompson and Miss Cora Fletcher. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Gertrude Church and Miss Gray Lathrop. During the evening Miss Church rendered several selections at the piano.

His Fifth Birthday. Benjamin D. Shanley entertained at his home, Hedge avenue extension, in honor of his fifth birthday Friday afternoon. The following little friends were present: Miss Frances Higgins, Miss Millicent Jenkins, Master B. Kirsey Bailey, Jr., Kimball Harvey, John and Davy Shields. All the little ones were accompanied by their mothers. The color scheme was carried out in green and yellow. Each guest received a gift. The little host was the recipient of a number of birthday gifts. Refreshments were served. Music and games completed an enjoyable afternoon.

Many Attended Demonstrations. During the years 1915-1916 11,000 people attended demonstrations and lectures on different phases of the poultry work given by members of the poultry and extension forces of Connecticut Agricultural College. Rockville—The plans for the Washington trip of the senior class of the Rockville high school, have been completed by Principal Philip M. Howe and Miss Alice Ottenheimer. The party will leave Friday, March 30.

SPRING SUIT WEATHER ARRIVES AT LAST

Friday's Sun Sets Shoppers in Search of Lighter Weight Garments—Some Stunning Hats Sold.

Friday's sunny weather did much to compensate for an unsatisfactory week, and dealers in women's apparel and millinery had the reward of patience in good sales and good business generally. Suits in Demand. Especially was there a strong demand for suits. Winter clothing begins to grow oppressive, shabby, dingy looking in the light of the bright spring sun. A smart, fresh, lightweight suit is an imperative necessity; or at least one cannot long defer the purchase of a spring coat. In fashionable suits brought forward yesterday, one in apple green, in the well liked Poiret twill was worthy of special notice. The coat was in high waist effect, pleats at the back falling gracefully from shoulders, modestly defined. The skirt was flatterly fitted

In the fashionable cut and the entire suit one of distinction. Rose, gold and green hand embroidered ornamented belt, collar and cuffs. A charming suit in beige Poiret twill had its coat pleated at the back, with four inset cuffs at either side, double belt, collar and cuffs of rosin's egg blue silk, shaded buttons, giving the finishing touch. The skirt carried out the double belt effect and had natty V-shaped pockets.

The Use of Cord. Navy taffeta was developed in a stunning suit, its skirt in barrel effect. The jacket was shirred to the waist-line, ornamented with silk cord, and had a large square collar embroidered in silver disks. The skirt was particularly graceful. One of the sport Jersey suits seen had a broad military belt, fancy pockets, emerald green collar and cuffs, and plain skirt with patch pockets. Emerald cord laced the belt.

Hat Smartness. Numerous handsome hats were delivered to pleased buyers Friday. One which excited lively admiration was a rolled sailor in rose hemp, with rose ribbon and Oriental ornament at the side.

Odd but smart was a new Chinese mandarin hat, its top of Yo Sen satin, facing in copper tinted straw, and tasseled in the same modish copper hue. A black chip turban was entirely crowned with the fashionable new black porcupine. Simple but effective was a tam in black hemp, a spike in Bulgarian colors at the side. A Dashing Type. Kelly green was the spring-like tint of a dashing sailor, with two shades of velvet ribbon trimming, and a smart yellow cabochon. Modest but appealing was a little tete de negre boat-shaped hat, with fancy straw banding and a brown cocarde. To read about these pretty things is not enough! See them today, and make a selection of your spring needs. But before shopping, study what the advertisers in The Bulletin have to say, since they are the real guides to style information, and the hints they give mean saving of time, trouble, money and worry.

Supper for Every Member Canvasser. Served at Methodist Church Under Direction of Mrs. Charles Worthington.

An Every Member Canvasser supper was served at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church on Friday evening to the canvassers under the direction of Mrs. Charles Worthington. Covers were laid for about thirty and the menu was served at 6.30. Assisting Mrs. Worthington were Mrs. G. F. Bentley, Mrs. Alvin Lewis, Miss Lizzie Fellows, Miss Edith Palmer and Miss Viola Palmer. Those taking part in the play to be given by the Epworth League held a rehearsal after the supper. The mid-week service on Thursday evening was devoted to the young people of the church. The pastor, Rev. Frederick W. Coleman, addressed the young people on Good Reading and the Trinity quartette sang.

Brought Here on Non-Support Charge. Richard Kiley was arrested by the New London police late Friday and held for the Norwich police on a non-support charge. Sergeant John Kane was detailed by Captain D. J. Twomey to bring the man to this city. Sgt. Kane arrived at police headquarters with his man at 11.45 o'clock Friday night.
