Keep are coming from Andover, Mass., to live at Farmington.

The maple season at Union seems to be about over, although the freeze Tuesday night started the sap to running again. The season has not been very favorable to large production of syrup, but a good number of gallons have been manufactured.

Tomorrow Rev. F. W. Coleman will coming week. April 16th the sessions of the New England conference begin at Springfield and there he will receive his new church appointment.

Wednesday evening fire was reported at the farmstead at Black Point. It was at first thought the farmhouse was on fire, but it proved to be a large woodshed, and grass close to the house. Owing to the quick work of men and boys on the roof, little damage was done.

Better quarters for the Guard at the Thames river bridge have been fur-

RECRUITING A SAFE ARMOR

Recruiting at the state armory for the two companies, Third and Fifth Coast Artillery, although not as fast as desired by the officials to fill up the ranks, is encouraging.

They are coming in daily and on Friday recruits were received, the Fifth company getting 11 and the Third company 3. There is great need of more recruits and to which company putting forth every ounce of energy to bring the companies up to 100 so as to be ready to receive the representation of the Ross of New England will be proud of. The men are on the anxious seat as to which company are going and when. They are generally all very enthusiastic about being called out to service and are only waiting for the chance to bivouac in the country.

In the fourth annual indoor rifle match which was held at the Con-
