MAJOR TEAMS GET GOOD START Despite Unfavorable Weather Conditions and Country's Crisis—Twenty-four Games Were Played During Week.

New York, April 15.—With the country at war and despite unfavorable weather, the 1917 baseball season got away to a good start and the first week ended with two teams tied for first place in the National League and four scrambling leads in the American League.

New York and Philadelphia, in the National League, each ended the opening week with two games won and no defeats. Boston and Brooklyn were unable to withstand the clans of McCraw and Moran and were outclassed and outpitched in the brief series.

The western teams in the older or scheduled games. After Cincinnati had taken two games through good pitching by Schneider and Foney, St. Louis came back and took the final two games of the series.

Washington, without the services of Hans Wagner for the first time in twenty years, made a poor start and lost three of its four games before it was able to wrest a victory from Mitchell's men on Saturday. Wagner, for St. Louis, hit for average and also stop of the National League, is reported to have quit the nation game, but Cleveland manager has not yet announced his retirement.

Boston, Cleveland, Chicago and Washington each had two games won and one lost at the end of the first week in the American League, while the other four teams each had one victory column and two defeats. The champion Red Sox took two games from New York through good pitching by Mitchell and batting and then lost the final game. It was a costly victory for New York as it resulted in an injury to Third Baseman Baker which may cause his absence from the game for several weeks.

Cleveland and Detroit contested their series, with Cleveland taking the odd game. Walter Johnson, with the first shutout game of the season on Wednesday, helped Washington to one of its two victories over Philadelphia. Connie Mack's men, however, won on Saturday by making twenty hits for a total of sixteen runs. Chicago and Philadelphia hit for average in the first two games and the White Sox won on Saturday through superb pitching by Clifton and scoring a third tally on a wild run game of the major league season.

Scott's Benders Baffle Detroit. Detroit, Mich., April 15.—Jim Scott's puzzling curve ball baffled Detroit today and Chicago took the opening game from the Tigers, 6 to 2. Chicago won the game in the second inning by making two runs off Coveleskie before he was driven from the mound and scoring a third tally on a wild pitch by James. This was Coveleskie's first game this season, and he was wild and ineffective.

Cobb made three infield hits, scored both of Detroit's runs, stole a base and robbed Scott of a clean single in the fourth inning by throwing him out at first. Score: Chicago (A) 6, Detroit (A) 2. Detroit (A) 2, Chicago (A) 6.

Reds Bunch Hits and Win. Cincinnati, April 15.—By bunching hits in a fast game here today Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh, 5 to 2. In the second inning Chase singled, took second on an out, and scored on Noodle's single. In the next inning Cuto was given a base on balls and Shean, Groh, Chase, Roush and Neale each singled, netting four runs.

The victors scored in the fifth inning when Hinchman reached first on an error and crossed the plate on a triple by the seventh. Baird, McCarthy and Fischer singled, Baird scoring. Score: Cincinnati (N) 5, Pittsburgh (N) 2.

Cleveland Defeats St. Louis. St. Louis, Mo., April 15.—Coveleskie pitched airtight ball in the pinches today, while his teammates hit opportunely and Cleveland defeated St. Louis in the first game of the series, 10 to 4. Cleveland scored two in the fourth, after two were out.

St. Louis' best chance to score came in the fourth, when, with one out and men on first and second, Maroons drove a long fly to Speaker, both runners advancing a base on the out. Austin then fanned. The score: Cleveland (A) 10, St. Louis (A) 4.

Waltch to Meet Kilbane. Cleveland, O., April 15.—Managers of Freddie Waltch, lightweight champion of the world, and Johnny Kilbane, world's champion featherweight, agreed articles here tonight for a ten round bout to take place in New York May 1. The boxers will weigh 165 pounds at 2 o'clock.
