The Price and Economy

Some men think it's economy to buy cheap clothing at a low price. Foolish; they know better if they stop to think about it a minute.

The suit is high priced or low priced only according to how it wears, and there is no economy in buying a suit that does not give satisfactory wear.

That is why we recommend paying at least $20 and up, if you can possibly do so.

Suits bought at these prices are lower priced suits than those bought at a less price.

You're smart enough to see that, and that's another reason we say to you "come here for your clothes."

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR EVERY NORWICH CITIZEN.

Statement of Y. M. C. A. Issues Statement on Building Fund Campaign.

The Y. M. C. A. management issued the following statement on Thursday: The management of the local Y. M. C. A. desires to make plain to those who are interested to subscribe to the new building fund that they will not be called upon to contribute to the association during the next two years.

Then the method of payment of pledges made in the campaign should be fully understood: one-fifth of the pledges payable on July 1st and one-fifth every four months thereafter until the full amount is paid. This arrangement makes it easy to contribute and enables the contributor to give a larger amount than he could otherwise.

There are a large number of people who have not yet made their contributions, but who are considering the amount they will give. Inasmuch as the time of the campaign is very short, it is urged that decisions be made as to the amount at the earliest possible moment.

On the above plan, a person can usually give at least twice as much as they would in the regular way.

A Call to Service. Today the civic pride, the municipal enterprise and the religious zeal of Norwich are called on for a real demonstration beyond that which has been manifested at any time in the history of the city.

With $40,000 already pledged by 614 citizens for the Y. M. C. A. building, the rest of the community prove equal to the occasion and provide the difference yet needed to secure the fund desired and make available the subscriptions already offered?

There are needed, at this critical hour more workers who will join the ranks of the loyal band of committeemen which comprises many of the leading business and professional men in Norwich who have practically forsaken their offices and business interests for this great enterprise.

The additional workers are needed especially for the last days of the campaign, in order to cover the territory and gather in the smaller sums which will win the victory. Every one of the workers is urged to be present at the noonday luncheons at 12:15 and board.

Doubtless many who have already contributed will find it necessary to increase their subscriptions and many who are thinking of giving moderate sums will have to increase their figures in order that the Y. M. C. A. enterprise may succeed. There are no large subscriptions held back. All that have been secured have been announced and counted. There is an obligation on every citizen as another in such an enterprise as this. Every citizen should do his share, both in giving time and money.

Will Norwich win? She must win, for her good name.

James L. Case, L. O. Smith, A. A. Browning, J. C. Macpherson, Shepard B. Palmer, Philip Johnson, for the executive committee.

Damage Suit Settled. The case of Joseph P. Connor of Norwich against the Shore Line Electric Railway company for $10,000 for personal injuries in falling from a trolley car was down for trial in the superior court in Norwich Thursday morning, but it was settled.

It has been decided by the Spanish government to reduce the consumption of coal within the country by 35 per cent.

DARING DIAMOND THIEVES NABBED

Trio of Daylight Crooks Ran Into Trap Set by Norwich Police at Middletown Last Night—Pulled Off Bold Daylight Robbery at Sanford's Jewelry Store, Making Away With Seven Valuable Diamond Rings and a Hamilton Watch.

One of the most daring daylight robberies in this city in years was carried out Thursday afternoon shortly after 5 o'clock when two young men snatched a tray containing nine diamond rings and a Hamilton watch from the show case in the store conducted by James M. Sanford, a jeweler on Main street, and made a getaway in a Ford automobile which was waiting for them on Church street.

Through the quick work of the local police they were corralled at the Middletown bridge by the Middletown police.

Earlier in the afternoon one of the young men in the party entered the store and asked the proprietor to show him some diamond rings, and after looking them over he went out after the Ford automobile which was waiting for them on Church street.
