

The Bulletin's Circulation in Norwich is Double that of Any Other Paper, and its Total Circulation is the Largest in Connecticut in Proportion to the City's Population

BRITISH ARE GIVING GERMANS NO REST

Field Marshal Haig's Men Make Additional Gains South and Southeast of Messines

CAPTURE TRENCH SYSTEM OVER A MILE FRONT

Cannon is Roaring from the North Sea to the French Border, Probably as a Preliminary to Infantry Attacks by the French and Belgians—Berlin Tells of a Surprise Attack on French Trenches on the Chemin des Dames—Quiet Prevails on the Russian Front—There Are Indications of Another Intensive Attack by the Italians in the Region Southeast of Trent.

While the cannon is roaring along the greater portion of the front in Belgium from the region of the North Sea to the French border, probably preliminary to infantry attacks by the French and Belgians, the British troops in the Messines region are giving the Germans no rest.

Comparative quiet reigns on the front held by the French except for artillery duel on various sectors, especially in the region of Mont Camille. The German war office asserts that on the Chemin des Dames Sunday night the Germans in a surprise attack killed the occupants of French trenches and returned to their own lines later in the day.

DISASTROUS FLOODS IN VICINITY OF UTICA, N. Y.

Utica, N. Y., June 11.—Three known dead, many livestock lost, railroads tied up and great property loss was the toll completed tonight of this section's greatest rainstorm in 25 years. Manufacturing plants are hard hit and houses and buildings have been washed from their foundations.

ROOT AND PARTY DUE IN PETROGRAD TONIGHT.

Petrograd, June 11, 2 p. m., via London, June 12, 2:02 a. m.—The special train which is bringing Eilhu Root and the American commissioners to Petrograd is due here tomorrow evening. Representatives of the Russian government and the entire staff of the American embassy will meet the commission at the station.

MOEWE CAPTIVES HELD AS PRISONERS OF WAR.

Germany Has Notified the United States They Are to Be Treated as Such. Washington, June 11.—Germany has notified the United States that she regards the 74 American merchant sailors brought in by the Germans as Moewe as prisoners of war and that they will be treated as such.

LETTERS REVEALING NAVAL ORDNANCE SECRETS

Were Mailed from Detroit to Senator Frelinghuysen—Searching for Writer. Washington, June 11.—Investigation by the senate naval committee of gun accidents on armed merchantmen was interrupted today to await the outcome of a search by government agents for the writer of letters, mailed from Detroit, Mich., to Senator Frelinghuysen, revealing naval ordnance secrets.

PRESIDENT'S LATEST NOTE PUBLISHED IN GERMANY.

Newspapers Ordered to Make No Comment On It. The Hague, via London, June 11, 10:10 p. m.—President Wilson's note to Russia was published today in Germany. The newspapers made no comment on the foreign office had given instructions that comment should be postponed until tomorrow.

TRADING-WITH-ENEMY BILL INTRODUCED IN HOUSE

Heavy Fine and Imprisonment the Penalties Recommended. Washington, June 11.—The administration "trading-with-the-enemy" bill was favorably reported to the house today by unanimous vote of the state and foreign commerce committee.

15 PERSONS CHARGED WITH SEDITIONARY CONSPIRACY

Most of Them Members of Farmers' and Laborers' Protective Association of Texas. Dallas, Tex., June 11.—Fifty-five persons, most of whom are members of the Farmers and Laborers' Protective Association, were charged with seditious conspiracy against the United States government in indictments returned here today by a federal grand jury.

ITALIAN MISSION STARTS ON ITS TOUR TODAY.

Prince of Udine Will Not Make the Trip Because of Illness. Washington, June 11.—Arrangements for the Italian war mission's deferred departure to the city of the south and west to begin tomorrow were announced tonight by the state department.

ITALIAN MISSION STARTS ON ITS TOUR TODAY.

Prince of Udine Will Not Make the Trip Because of Illness. Washington, June 11.—Arrangements for the Italian war mission's deferred departure to the city of the south and west to begin tomorrow were announced tonight by the state department.

OBITUARY.

Judge Samuel L. Bronson. New Haven, Conn., June 11.—Judge Samuel L. Bronson, democratic candidate for governor in 1900 and former corporation counsel here, died at his home here today of heart disease. He was known well throughout the state both in political and professional circles.

Cabled Paragraphs

British Steamer Burned. St. Pierre, Miquelon, June 11.—The burning of the British steamer Njord, coal-laden, was reported today, with her captain, Joseph Turner, and the crew were landed here by the British schooner E. B. Walters.

DISAGREEMENT AMONG ITALIAN CABINET MEMBERS

Crisis Reached Over Selection of the Mission to the United States. Rome, June 11, via Paris, 5:50 p. m.—Crisis in the Italian cabinet has developed when least expected, only a few days before the re-opening of parliament, which is fixed for June 14.

Great Britain's Note to Russia

IS TO BE INSISTED ON BY THE ADMINISTRATION

SECOND BILL IN HOUSE

Makes the President Food Dictator—Would Permit Government Operation of Food Producing Plants, Storage Houses and Coal Mines.

Washington, June 11.—Early enactment of food legislation will be insisted on by the administration, it was made clear today after a delegation of labor leaders and congressmen called on President Wilson to ask that he do so before congress meets in conference on the administration bills.

Text of the Reply.

Following is the text of Great Britain's reply to the request from the Russian government for a statement of the British war aims. Great Britain has forwarded to Russia a note which expressed hearty acceptance and approval of the principles President Wilson laid down in his message.

Free Poland.

"They heartily rejoice, therefore, that free Poland has been proclaimed by the old Russian autocracy, but equally that within the dominion of the Germanic rules. In this enterprise the British democracy wish Russia Godspeed.

MISSING BOATS OF STEAMER SOUTHLAND FOUND

The Forty Men Who Were in Them Have Been Safely Land. London, June 11, 4:36 p. m.—The two missing boats from the steamer Southland, which was torpedoed and sunk on June 4, have been found, and the forty men who were in them are safely landed.

WORKING TO RESCUE ENTOMBED MINERS.

Ten Men Were Found Alive Yesterday in the Speculator Mine. Mt. Pleasant, Mont., June 11.—With hope rekindled by the finding of 10 men alive today in a cross cut, 2,000 feet from the station on the 2,000-foot level of the Speculator mine, efforts of the rescuers exploring all accessible workings in the mine have been redoubled.

ONE PARDON GRANTED BY STATE BOARD

That of John Lambert of New Haven—There were 35 Petitions. Wethersfield, Conn., June 11.—Of thirty-five petitions for pardons presented to the state board of pardons today, one was granted.

ANTI-CONSCRIPTION ARRESTS IN NEW YORK CITY

Eleven Men Taken Into Custody After a Mass Meeting in Harlem. New York, June 11.—Eleven men were arrested and 28 others were detained by the police after a mass meeting held in a Harlem hall tonight by the No-Conscription League.

NEW ENGLAND LIBERTY LOAN SUBSCRIPTIONS, $143,300,000

Effort Being Made to Double the Amount Before Close on June 15. Boston, June 11.—Liberty loan subscriptions in New England reached $143,300,000 today. A total of $200,000,000 has been allotted to the New England drive and efforts to double the amount in hand before the books close on June 15 are being pushed vigorously.

GOVERNMENT MAY TAKE OVER MUNITIONS INSPECTORS

New in Employ of British, French, Russian or Italian Governments. Washington, June 11.—President Wilson by executive order authorized the civil service to take over at its discretion inspectors employed at munitions plants in this country on material contracted for by the British, French, Russian or Italian governments.

Heavy Rains in Vermont.

Montpelier, Vt., June 11.—Two days of heavy rains put most of the streams in this vicinity over their banks today. Cellars were flooded and at mid-night the waters were still rising.

Condensed Telegrams

The fuel situation is worrying Denmark. The Cuban House voted an appropriation of $5,000,000 for war needs. Britain is considering placing a limit on individual expenditure for clothing.

Selection of Men to Solve Irish Problem

WILL REPRESENT EVERY WALK OF LIFE IN IRELAND TO BE 101 MEMBERS

CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE WILL SELECT THEIR OWN DELEGATES, AS WILL EACH POLITICAL PARTY—CONVENTION MAY CHOOSE ITS OWN CHAIRMAN.

London, June 11, 4:25 p. m.—The convention to be convoked by the government in an attempt to solve the Irish problem will be composed of 101 members representing every walk of life in Ireland and will be presided over by a chairman of its own selection, or failing that, by a man chosen by the government.

Leading Irishmen of All Sections.

The 15 members to be nominated by the government, said the premier, would be taken from among leading Irishmen of all sections. The government will advise the premier to nominate its own chairman, but the government was prepared to nominate one if necessary.

THOUSANDS ATTEND FUNERAL OF BABY LLOYD KEET

Search Going on for Those Who Threw the Child Into the Well. Springfield, Mo., June 11.—Baby Lloyd Keet, who was killed by a well in the town of Springfield, Mo., was buried here today.

President Wilson is in favor of American colleges and universities continuing to maintain according to a telegram received from him by President Bryan of Indiana University.

Two packages of giant powder, each containing half a pound, were found beside the main line of the New York Central Railroad at Youngstown, O. The packages had been lighted but put out by the rain.

Charles H. Kuhn was awarded damages of $14,740 against the L.L. Gorton alley, Pa. Railroad. He was a conductor on the passenger train which was derailed and twenty-three persons killed.

The Widener Library at Harvard University has received a gift of 1500 volumes from the collection of the late Frederick Lewis Gay from Mrs. Josephine Spencer Gay.

The United States government notified the United Fruit company that one of its steamships now discharging its cargo at an Atlantic port is requisitioned for federal service.

Since Nov. 1 last 989 new engines and 4,063 new cars have been placed in service by the railroads in the United States according to a report issued by a member of the Railroads' War Board.

Arthur Huff, of Blairtown, N. J., attempted to deliver an oration against the government in the streets of Phillipsburg. When several patriotic citizens finished with him he was taken to the hospital.

Minister of the Interior Gomez, of Argentina, who was strongly in favor of governmental intervention in the troubled affairs of the province of Buenos Aires, resigned because Congress overruled him.

Nearly a hundred of the most expert engineers and city planners in the country have volunteered their services to the United States government in the construction of the sixteen cantonments for the draft army.

Four thousand Mexican soldiers, under the leadership of Canuto Riccio, formerly in the Mexican army, are being sent to the United States to guard the Tampico oil fields which are owned and controlled by British capitalists.

Two persons were drowned, a score were injured and more than 30 were rescued in Dockers Hollow, Braddock, Pa., followed a cloudburst which wrought havoc in the Monongahela valley. A dozen dwelling houses were washed away.

Thomas A. Boyle of New York began suit in the Supreme Court on behalf of his son, Harry Boyle, a school teacher, for $500 damages against Clara L. Hibbits, a teacher in Public School 53, alleging she injured the youngster by beating him.

Plans have been filed for three big hotels along the lower beach front at Atlantic City. They will have a combined capacity of 3,600 rooms and the operations will involve about $5,000,000. New York and Baltimore capitalists are back of the ventures.

At the stroke of midnight all German aliens in New York lost their last chance to receive permits to reside in, or pass through the "barred zone." Armed guards were thrown around these zones with orders to "shoot to kill" in case of disturbances.

The little town of Derby Line, Vt., close to the Canadian border, holds the banner record in New England for subscriptions to the Liberty loan. With a population of 400 it was called upon to subscribe $17,000, but already the New England committee announced today, it has taken $27,000 and promised to run the total up to $35,000.

Great Britain Has Borrowed $2,000,000,000.

London, June 11, 7:45 p. m.—In reply to a question in the House of Commons today Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, announced that the beginning of the war (great Britain had borrowed from the United States a total of $2,000,000,000).

They are making very good sauerkraut in Germany out of white turnips, instead of cabbage.