CANDY MADE WHILE YOU WAIT

AT INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION.

The general public has now begun to manifest a natural curiosity as to the nature of the Industrial Exposition and Export conference which is scheduled for Springfield, Mass., the last week of June. As yet it is too soon to give any definite description of the exhibits contemplated by New England manufacturers. However, one co-operative exhibit already arranged for will give some idea as to what the visitor may expect to see.

It is said that the Kibbe Candy Co. will manufacture sweets on National Equipment Co.'s machines. These products will be cooked in Eastern States Refrigerating apparatus, and wrapped in packing machinery Co.'s devices. Such a display will make an equally strong appeal to children, grown-ups and to the most serious-minded efficiency expert.

There will also be concert bands, fireworks and numerous amusement features to hold the interest of the casual visitor. The exporting sales whose sessions will be held daily throughout the exposition week, is designed for the business men who mean business and who have come to make a study of world markets and not merely to be amused.

While the exposition was planned as a New England affair, inquiries are coming in from all over the country for information and plots of the display space.

It is not only a patriotic duty for New England manufacturers to get together along workable lines, but it is an absolute necessity if they hope to maintain their former supremacy in the industrial field.

AUDITORIUM.

Gladys Brockwell in Her Temptation, Feature Photodrama for Today and Saturday at the Auditorium—Johnny Jones in The Boob and Latest Mutual Weekly Complete the Bill.

BREED THEATRE.

E. H. Sothern and Edith Storey in Mr. Sothern's Greatest Stage Success, An Enemy to the King, a Film Masterpieces, Feature for Today and Saturday.

The feature attraction at the Breed theatre today and Saturday, An Enemy to the King, the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature, stars the most famous actor of the modern stage, E. H. Sothern, and Edith Storey, the versatile star, in Mr. Sothern's own choice of the play which he wished to make immortal. This celluloid immortalization will live for years to come and find its place at the head of film masterpieces.

ATOP THE MAJESTIC ROOF.

The Airiest and Fairest Spot This Side of New York.

With the warm weather here, the Majestic Roof is the coolest place in eastern Connecticut and spend the evening from 7.45 to 11 p. m. For this presentation there is Jack Khalil, the king of boys, in the great American play, The Hero of the Hour. An educational feature, Buried Treasure of Ceylon, in which some very picturesque scenes of the far east are presented. Of special mention is A Day in the Life of a Dog, which is interesting. To conclude the picture performance we have a very good comedy, Jargon and Jealousy.

Run Up Old Glory!

By Wilbur D Nesbit Author of "Your Flag and My Flag"

Run up Old Glory! Let it blaze In red and white against the sky And tell the story of the days When hearts were stout and hopes were high. Forget the daily fights of greed, Forget the struggles, the dismay Of facing cruelty and need— Run up Old Glory for the day.

Run up Old Glory! Think of all The old flag means to you and me, Of how the blast of freedom's call Shook out its folds from sea to sea; Red with the blood that it has cost, White with the souls of them that died— Today by laughing breezes tossed It whispers of a nation's pride.

Run up Old Glory! Fling it forth And feel anew the country-call That thrills East, West and South and North And has its word for one and all. Run up Old Glory—fling it far Across the blue of heaven's dome, And feel that every stripe and star Is warder of you hearth and home.
