

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

Windham County WINDHAM

Leavitt-Fay Marriage Announced—New Rectory to Begin Duties at the Episcopal Church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fay of Barre, Mass., formerly of Windham, announced the marriage Tuesday of their younger daughter, Lerion Prudencia, to Rev. M. R. Plumb, Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt will be at home after Sept. 1 in Natick.

Miss Seymour Plumb of Bridgeport is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. M. R. Plumb.

Mrs. W. F. Maine is confined to her home by illness.

Miss Emma Larabee returned on Monday from two weeks' visit with her uncle and his family in Groton.

Miss Kate Tibbitts, H. W. Tibbitts, Norwich and Edward Tibbitts of Boston were calling on friends in town Tuesday.

Mrs. H. C. Hatch and Miss Josephine Blingham were in Norwich Monday.

Miss Elizabeth Anderson was the guest of New Britain friends over Sunday.

Attended Graduation. Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Gould, the Misses Guild and Mrs. E. W. M. Maguire motored to Exeter, N. H., and attended the graduation exercises at Phillips-Exeter Academy, Alan Guild being a member of the graduating class.

Text will be served at the library on the fourth.

Mrs. Fisher is entertaining her mother from Minnesota.

Master William Luffler of Stamford is visiting his grandfather, W. S. Champell.

Rev. Mr. Boucher, the new rector of St. Paul's, is expected to conduct the services for the first time Sunday.

Frank Larabee, president of the Windham Silk Co., of Willimantic, entertained his associate officers at dinner at Mrs. H. L. Bingham's Tuesday evening.

The monthly consecration meeting of the C. T. society will be held tomorrow evening, followed by the regular meeting in charge of the new president, Miss Helen Hopkins.

The list of officers given in last week's Bulletin it should have read vice president Everett Rockwell instead of P. Abbe. Mr. Abbe is the retiring vice president.

Closing Exercises. The graduating exercises of the Centre school were held Friday morning. The members of the graduating class were Victoria Sibley, Everett Potter, Marian Potter, Maro Chappell, Lucy Sherman and Clarence Adams.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Local Boy Takes Yale Examinations at Norwich—Mrs. J. Arthur Atwood III at Watch Hill.

Miss Phoebe Barber spent Sunday with relatives in Putnam.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stone of Providence were Sunday visitors here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall of South Killingly and Miss Gertrude Hall of Putnam were Sunday visitors at William Deane's.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kilpatrick of Poquonoc have been visiting at Everett Ladd's.

Miss Gertrude Handy, a teacher in the High school, has returned to her home at Cochesett, Mass., to spend the vacation.

Miss Beatrice Newell has returned to her home in Auburn, Me.

Mrs. Raymond Rider and daughter, Beatrice, have returned to Watch Hill, R. I., where they will spend the summer. They made a short stay at their home here.

Yale Examinations. George D. Scudder has been in Norwich, taking the Yale examinations. The weekly prayer meeting was held Friday evening.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned home after visiting Worcester relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Broadhead have returned from a visit with relatives in Canada.

Mrs. Mary F. Loring entertained friends from Avondale, Saturday.

Motored From Bridgeport. Mr. Bartlett motored from Bridgeport Friday and Saturday, returned home, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Ethel Bartlett, who has been science teacher at the high school for two years. She will not return next year.

Miss Miriam Chapman attended the class picnic at Willimantic park Saturday.

Miss Lillian Stetson of Norwich has been visiting her brother, Mortimer Stetson.

Frank Edgerton, overseer of the sawe shop at Central, Westport mill has been off duty account of illness.

Miss Ruth Loring is ill.

Mrs. Atwood ill.

Many friends of Mrs. J. Arthur Atwood are sorry to learn of her continued illness at Watch Hill, R. I., since the family is spending the summer.

Nathaniel P. Thompson has returned to his daughter's home in Providence, having spent a few days here.

George D. Scudder is employed at F. H. and F. W. Tillinghast's store.

Miss Lillian Stetson, Mrs. J. J. J., is visiting Misses Ruth and Pauline Mathewson.

Mrs. Charles Lewis has been spending a week with friends in Springfield, where she formerly lived.

Miss Margaret Torrey, who has been attending high school here for two years, has gone to her home in Hebron to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buel Torrey.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Rev. T. A. Turner Concludes Pastorate—Flag Raising July Fourth With Address by A. S. Hardy.

Mrs. E. L. Epham and children of West Newton, Mass., are visiting G. L. Epham and family.

Frank Thompson and family of Worcester spent the week-end with W. T. Westwell.

Allan Epham of Boston is home for the summer.

Miss Margaret Clemons left Wednesday for Northfield, Mass.

Suffrage Meeting. There was an equal franchise meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. E. R. Rollins Monday evening. Mrs. Edith Eddy, who taught at Stafford Springs, is home for the summer.

Closes Pastorate. Rev. T. A. Turner, who resigned some weeks ago, closed his pastorate Sunday morning at the Congregational church. In place of a farewell sermon he gave a history of his life. Mr. and Mrs. Turner made many friends during their residence here and have always been helpful in any good work. They plan for the future a well-perfected and they will remain here through the summer.

Plans for the Fourth. There will be a flag raising on the Common July 4, under the auspices of the Community club. The exercises

COLUMBIA

Members of Library Staff Occupying Cottage at the Lake—Red Cross Week Efforts Crowned With Success—New Members Join Chapter.

Miss Maude Latham, principal of a Pennsylvania school, spending her vacation with her father and sisters at their home on Chestnut Hill.

Rev. J. H. B. Moore, secretary of the Baptist State convention.

The following speakers gave ten minute addresses:

Rev. W. B. Holcombe, East Had-dam; Rev. C. S. Nightingale, Mousup; Rev. C. S. Stoddard, Stamford; Rev. Charles A. Marks, Wilton; Rev. P. S. Collins, North Ashford; Rev. C. H. Ferry, Kent; Rev. Kenneth Matthews, Shelburne; Rev. O. H. Moore, Hart-ford.

At 4 p. m. an address, Do an Un-usual Thing, by Rev. The Campion Acheson, suffragan bishop, Middle-town. An address by Rev. E. A. Deane, district superintendent, New Ha-ven.

The programme for Friday included a personally conducted visit to the poultry, dairy and creamery depart-ments.

Discussion. The sermon for the Ru-ral Church, led by Rev. George B. Gilbert, of Middletown. A very suc-cessful conference was closed at noon Friday.

Drilling New Well. An artesian well is being driven near the central heating plant boiler house by the Providence firm. The water is nearly outgrown the capacity of the old well to furnish water. The new well will yield an additional sup-ply of water for all college purposes.

A road is being built past the row of new houses on the campus.

The play, The Old Peabody Pew, was given again Thursday evening by the ladies, in the Storrs church, for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Outing at the Lake. Miss Edith Little, Miss Marion Bow-lers, Miss Ruth Child of Springfield, Miss Helen Child of Hartford, and Miss Florence Ladd of New Britain, are spending a week at the cottage owned by D. A. Lyman near the lake.

The young ladies are engaged in a busy week at the cottage, in which they are spending their respective cities.

Miss Harriet K. Porter, instructor at the Walnut Hill Preparatory School for Girls, Natick, Mass., after spend-ing a portion of the vacation at North-field, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Porter of Colum-bia.

Clark Place Sold. The real estate known as the Francis Clark property recently occupied by Mrs. Samuel T. Cooper has been sold to a lady in Providence, who is very soon to occupy it.

Beautiful Village. William H. Bishop has been mak-ing some improvements on the prop-erty he bought of the J. S. Bard estate, which he will vacate.

STERLING

Clarence Babcock of Hartford has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Babcock.

Mrs. Bertha Bishop and daughter, Doris, have gone to Stonington for the summer.

Miss Beatrice Gear of Danielson has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. William Kenyon.

Mrs. G. G. Douglass has returned from Hope Valley, where she has been for several days visiting her son, Edith Douglass.

Miss Estelle Brown of Baltic was a visitor in town, Monday.

CLARK'S CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bill and Mr. and Mrs. Woodhouse, all of Hartford, were recent visitors.

Mrs. Viola J. Clark is at Storrs College this week attending the canning demonstration at Sherwood Roosevelt.

Mrs. Lenora Jennings has finished her school and is now at her home here.

WOODSTOCK VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hiscox attended the Mohegan Trail exercises Friday of last week.

Mrs. Emma Spencer has been ill the past week.

Miss L. L. William Ross, local mail carrier, finishes his duties on the Putnam route and takes the Westford road.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Young and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Summer of Waterbury spent Tuesday night at Allen W. Kenyon's.

SOUTH CANTERBURY

Mrs. Bertha Roderick has come to her home for two weeks' vacation. She returns to her duties in Long Island the 8th of July.

The Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. S. B. Hilday Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Corion's horse died at the station Monday morning while she was setting grain.

Mrs. Fred Hyde was in Plainfield Monday to attend the funeral of Frank Lester.

Tolland County

UNION

Work for Red Cross—Sale Adds to Fund by General Subscription.

There was a large gathering at the hall Saturday evening for Red Cross sale. The fund was devoted to the sale of ice cream and cake and by general subscription.

The Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Harry Luffingwell Jr. and daughter, visited relatives in Monson the first of the week.

The Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. William Palmer of Hartford spent the week-end with the latter's father, William P. Marcy, at the Marcy home.

Mrs. William Richards entertained Sunday, Rev. I. P. Booth of Stafford, also Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Tift and Mrs. George Richardson of Westford, and their daughter, Mrs. Albert Hammond of Woodstock Valley.

Mrs. Charles Lewis and Miss Nellie Burleson, who have been spending several days at Mrs. Reed's cottage at Willimantic Camp Ground, returned Sunday.

Miss Mary Scramton is working for Mrs. Joel Reed at Stafford Springs.

ANDOVER

Rev. Charles Williams preached at the Congregational church Sunday.

A heavy storm passed over the church, which in time will greatly im-prove the appearance of the property.

W. C. Sprague, Mrs. Sprague, Mrs. Coleman and L. H. Porter and Mrs. Porter, attended church in Scotland, Sunday.

The young son of H. A. Thompson, who has been ill with scarlet fever, is much improved.

The Ladies' Society met Thursday with Mrs. Thomas Lewis.

A severe thunder storm passed over this place Tuesday night, beating down grass and gardens.

Samuel French, who has been ill for some time, is slightly improved.

L. H. Porter and Mrs. Porter left Tuesday for a visit in Greenfield and Florence, Mass.

BOLTON NOTCH

Mrs. T. Darling and two daughters, of West Hartford, are visiting Mrs. Darling's mother, Mrs. Ida Davidson.

Mrs. Alex Jennings of Hartford was in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Loren Maine was a Hartford visitor, Monday.

Berice Smith went home with her grandmother, Mrs. Kinney, Saturday.

Mrs. Hayling died in St. Francis hospital Sunday. She had been ill for several weeks.

Mrs. Paterson and nurse came to Belknap, Wednesday.

STAFFORD

High Stand Pupils at Primary School—Dunham—Ensminger Wedding—Canning Club Meets.

Mrs. William Fuller of Springfield has been the guest of Mrs. Austin Witt.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Kepler of Norwich have been visiting local friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bowden attended the Keefe-Dunn wedding in New Ha-ford.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn of Derby were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowden a few days recently.

Mrs. Rodney Cary and daughter, Helen Higdon, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bray.

Purchase Quay Place. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wagner have purchased the place on the madacard road owned by Mrs. Henry Quay.

Mrs. F. J. Glover has returned from Worcester after spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Far-num.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Fox of South Will-ington were entertained recently by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox.

High Stand Pupils. In the graduating class of the Pin-ney school Lewis Putney ranks first, daily average for two years, 93.83.

The prize in spelling was won by Helen Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Swift have moved their household goods to Longmeadow.

During the past few weeks Mr. Swift has been employed by the N. Y. In-ghouse company. A new home being built for them in Longmeadow will be completed in the fall.

Dunham—Ensminger. George Dunham and Miss Bertha Ensminger were united in marriage by Rev. Abraham Conkili last week Saturday.

Miss Edna Ensminger, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Ar-thur Chandler of New Britain was best man. The bride wore white crepe and had with her a gown of em-broidered pink crepe de chine and carried sweet peas.

The bridegroom wore a gown of blue and white. The gift to the bride was a brooch and to the groom a watch. The bride's traveling suit was midnight blue serge with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Dunham left for a short trip to New York after July 1.

Canning Club Meets. The monthly meeting of the Mother-Daughter Canning Club was held Monday evening.

The following program was given: Ways to save waste of nutrients and salts in cooking vegeta-bles; Why iron is needed; and fruits and vegetables which supply it; paper by Mrs. B. B. Perry, "Old fashioned method" paper by Mrs. Maude Pur-ness, "Value of fruit and vegetables in the diet" paper by Mrs. August West.

During the evening there was a demon-stration in canning. Mrs. Harry Keefe and Miss Giffins, who showed the different ways of canning rhubarb; Mrs. E. A. Lasbury, pineapple, and Mrs. Alice Dimmock, strawberries. Miss Anna Depeau exhibited a home-made canner.

Temperance Address. Gustav T. Boehman of Hartford, field secretary of the American Temperance Union, gave a fine address at the morning service of the Congregational church Sunday.

Mr. George T. Newcomb, chairman of the Red Cross work in town, held an all day meeting at the Bolton hall, Wednes-day.

In the afternoon Mrs. J. H. Thompson gave an address on the Housewives' League.

William E. Peterson and son, of Crom-well, were in town in their new touring car recently.

Moves From Norwich. Arthur Clark has moved from Norwich to Cromwell. There is a new Summer recently purchased. Mr. Mott is to help Mr. Summer on his farm.

Give to Red Cross. Bolton school has added their bit in the Red Cross fund, those who did the soliciting were Mrs. H. J. Thompson, in the North district; Mrs. C. P. Smith, in the South district; and Andrew E. Maneggia in the Center and South districts. The amount collected was $10.00.

Elmer J. Finley came to his summer home the first of the week and re-turned to town and will spend the week bringing his family to Bolton, Friday, to spend the summer.

Mansfield Depot. Ten Local Graduates Out of 27 for Town—State Acquires Property—Patriotic Sermon Tomorrow.

Robert Smith of Warren, Mass., ar-rived last Friday for his usual sum-mer vacation visit with his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Thompson.

Mrs. Mary Durkee of Manchester visited her children in this village from Thursday of last week to Mon-day last. She attended the gradu-ating exercises of Mansfield high school at Storrs college, two of her grandsons having graduated.

Had Ten Graduates. This village leads the public schools of the town in graduates from the grammar department, having 10 out of 27 total of 27 from the seven schools.

Emma Gerger, Ina Green, Gladys Thompson, Sara Wilcox, Freda Wilson, Francis Bowyer, Marshall Bowyer, Walter Day, Fenelon McCollum and Carl Warren.

Mrs. Marguerite Farrow of New London is visiting her relatives in this village.

The attendance at services in Dun-ham Memorial church was greatly in-creased last Sunday.

The village school had an enjoyable picnic at the lake Tuesday after-noon and closed the year with a cleaning-up bee Wednesday forenoon.

State Acquires Property. It is reported that Hillside hall has been acquired by the state to be made part of the institution on the hill.

Patriotic Sermon. Next Sunday morning Rev. F. W. Klein will preach a patriotic sermon. After the preaching service the Lord's supper will be observed. Sunday school session at 12 m. C. E. meeting at 7.30 p. m.; subject, Little Things That Make a Big Difference. Mrs. William Reed.

Franklin Williams Glazier, Yale 1904, who writes so interestingly of hospital scenes in France, is of Wil-lington, David and Fear Aiden succe-edy.

Miss Doris Hall and Miss Hayes found Red Cross members in nearly every family in town. They were as-aid the Housewives' league that preceded it.

Mrs. Burton and Mrs. Davis of New Haven are guests at G. A. Cosgrove's, having made the trip by automobile.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Hak, mother of Anton Hak, proprietor of the Daleville Pearl Button manufactory.

Prof. Barker of Boston university, returning from a western business trip, passed the week end at the Con-gregational church.

The Children's day concert was pleasing. There were over 100 people present.

Mrs. Esther B. Dimock is enjoying a visit with relatives and friends in Jewett City and Norwich.

Five hundred delegates were pres-ent at the first congress of Zionists of All Russia in Petrograd on Wednes-day.

STAFFORD

High Stand Pupils at Primary School—Dunham—Ensminger Wedding—Canning Club Meets.

Mrs. William Fuller of Springfield has been the guest of Mrs. Austin Witt.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Kepler of Norwich have been visiting local friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bowden attended the Keefe-Dunn wedding in New Ha-ford.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn of Derby were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowden a few days recently.

Mrs. Rodney Cary and daughter, Helen Higdon, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bray.

Purchase Quay Place. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wagner have purchased the place on the madacard road owned by Mrs. Henry Quay.

Mrs. F. J. Glover has returned from Worcester after spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Far-num.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Fox of South Will-ington were entertained recently by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox.

High Stand Pupils. In the graduating class of the Pin-ney school Lewis Putney ranks first, daily average for two years, 93.83.

The prize in spelling was won by Helen Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Swift have moved their household goods to Longmeadow.

During the past few weeks Mr. Swift has been employed by the N. Y. In-ghouse company. A new home being built for them in Longmeadow will be completed in the fall.

Dunham—Ensminger. George Dunham and Miss Bertha Ensminger were united in marriage by Rev. Abraham Conkili last week Saturday.

Miss Edna Ensminger, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Ar-thur Chandler of New Britain was best man. The bride wore white crepe and had with her a gown of em-broidered pink crepe de chine and carried sweet peas.

The bridegroom wore a gown of blue and white. The gift to the bride was a brooch and to the groom a watch. The bride's traveling suit was midnight blue serge with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Dunham left for a short trip to New York after July 1.

Canning Club Meets. The monthly meeting of the Mother-Daughter Canning Club was held Monday evening.

The following program was given: Ways to save waste of nutrients and salts in cooking vegeta-bles; Why iron is needed; and fruits and vegetables which supply it; paper by Mrs. B. B. Perry, "Old fashioned method" paper by Mrs. Maude Pur-ness, "Value of fruit and vegetables in the diet" paper by Mrs. August West.

During the evening there was a demon-stration in canning. Mrs. Harry Keefe and Miss Giffins, who showed the different ways of canning rhubarb; Mrs. E. A. Lasbury, pineapple, and Mrs. Alice Dimmock, strawberries. Miss Anna Depeau exhibited a home-made canner.

Temperance Address. Gustav T. Boehman of Hartford, field secretary of the American Temperance Union, gave a fine address at the morning service of the Congregational church Sunday.

Mr. George T. Newcomb, chairman of the Red Cross work in town, held an all day meeting at the Bolton hall, Wednes-day.

In the afternoon Mrs. J. H. Thompson gave an address on the Housewives' League.

William E. Peterson and son, of Crom-well, were in town in their new touring car recently.

Moves From Norwich. Arthur Clark has moved from Norwich to Cromwell. There is a new Summer recently purchased. Mr. Mott is to help Mr. Summer on his farm.

Give to Red Cross. Bolton school has added their bit in the Red Cross fund, those who did the soliciting were Mrs. H. J. Thompson, in the North district; Mrs. C. P. Smith, in the South district; and Andrew E. Maneggia in the Center and South districts. The amount collected was $10.00.

Elmer J. Finley came to his summer home the first of the week and re-turned to town and will spend the week bringing his family to Bolton, Friday, to spend the summer.

Mansfield Depot. Ten Local Graduates Out of 27 for Town—State Acquires Property—Patriotic Sermon Tomorrow.

Robert Smith of Warren, Mass., ar-rived last Friday for his usual sum-mer vacation visit with his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Thompson.

Mrs. Mary Durkee of Manchester visited her children in this village from Thursday of last week to Mon-day last. She attended the gradu-ating exercises of Mansfield high school at Storrs college, two of her grandsons having graduated.

Had Ten Graduates. This village leads the public schools of the town in graduates from the grammar department, having 10 out of 27 total of 27 from the seven schools.

Emma Gerger, Ina Green, Gladys Thompson, Sara Wilcox, Freda Wilson, Francis Bowyer, Marshall Bowyer, Walter Day, Fenelon McCollum and Carl Warren.

Mrs. Marguerite Farrow of New London is visiting her relatives in this village.

The attendance at services in Dun-ham Memorial church was greatly in-creased last Sunday.

The village school had an enjoyable picnic at the lake Tuesday after-noon and closed the year with a cleaning-up bee Wednesday forenoon.

State Acquires Property. It is reported that Hillside hall has been acquired by the state to be made part of the institution on the hill.

Patriotic Sermon. Next Sunday morning Rev. F. W. Klein will preach a patriotic sermon. After the preaching service the Lord's supper will be observed. Sunday school session at 12 m. C. E. meeting at 7.30 p. m.; subject, Little Things That Make a Big Difference. Mrs. William Reed.

Franklin Williams Glazier, Yale 1904, who writes so interestingly of hospital scenes in France, is of Wil-lington, David and Fear Aiden succe-edy.

Miss Doris Hall and Miss Hayes found Red Cross members in nearly every family in town. They were as-aid the Housewives' league that preceded it.

Mrs. Burton and Mrs. Davis of New Haven are guests at G. A. Cosgrove's, having made the trip by automobile.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Hak, mother of Anton Hak, proprietor of the Daleville Pearl Button manufactory.

Prof. Barker of Boston university, returning from a western business trip, passed the week end at the Con-gregational church.

The Children's day concert was pleasing. There were over 100 people present.