GREENVILLE

Jackson-Flynn Wedding—Federated Church Falls Vacancies—Polish Citizens Club Meets.

Miss Mary Josephine Flynn and Arthur D. Jackson were united in marriage Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock at St. Mary's rectory, by Rev. J. H. Filimaurice. The bride wore a traveling suit with a picture hat. Her bridesmaid was Miss Helen Flynn, who wore a very attractive gown. The best man was Walter Donovan of Greenville.

The bride carried a bouquet of General Jack roses. She received many presents, including cut glass, silverware and linen. Miss Flynn was employed by the U. S. Fish and Game department. Mr. Jackson is employed as a conductor on the Shore Line Electric railway. There was a supper served at the bride's home on Central avenue after the ceremony. They left in the evening for a tour through New York.

The guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Flynn and daughter, Marjorie, of East Hampton, Conn.

Federated Church Board of Directors Meet.

The board of directors of the Federated church held a special meeting Wednesday evening to fill two vacancies that have occurred. Amos Hill is president of the church and Willis Hill was elected clerk and superintendent of the Sunday school. Mr. Mulkins was elected general missionary treasurer. Matters of general interest to the church were discussed.

Polish Citizens Meet.

The Polish Citizens' club met on Thursday evening at Pulaski hall on North Main street. President Anthony Gryzmko presided, and routine business was transacted. The secretary and his reports were read and accepted.

Loyal Finders Meet.

The Loyal Finders circle of the Federated church will hold their regular monthly meeting in the chapel this evening.

Enlists in Army.

Thomas Delaney of Central avenue enlisted in the army Wednesday. He had to report Thursday evening at Natick.

Local Boys to Leave for Camp Devens Next Thursday—Letters Received From Those Already There.

The war will again be brought home to Taftville, when the third detachment of the Norwich quota for the National Army leaves for Camp Devens next Thursday. It is more than probable that several Taftville boys will go with the next 48 men.

Local people have received letters from the boys who went to camp a week ago. The boys are very enthusiastic over army life. They expect to be home soon on furloughs.

Of Local Interest.

Miss Evelyn Tretault of Norwich avenue will leave Sunday morning to spend the day with her son in Worcester.

NEW DAMAGE SUITS ARE FILED

Nelson Howard Asks $10,000 for Death of His Son Killed by Falling Cornice—Two Other Actions Brought as Result of Same Accident—Clara F. Armstrong Asks for Divorce and Alimony.

Three damage suits have been brought against William M. Redden and George Gilbey of New London, as the result of the falling of a cornice from a building on State street, New London, on September 16th, when one man was killed and several injured. The papers were filed with the clerk of the superior court in this city on Thursday.

The heaviest damages are sought by Nelson Howard, administrator of the estate of his son, Walter Howard, the man killed by the falling cornice. Mr. Howard asks $10,000 damages. The dead man was 22 years of age, who was injured when the cornice fell, has brought action through his father, John Williamson, for damages of $1,000. Both reside in New London.

A similar action for $1,000 damages has been filed by Leonard Maynard, 19 years of age, through his father, James Maynard of New London. The Savings Bank of New London has filed an action against Edward F. Cole of Waterbury, for recovery on five notes aggregating $25,000.

On Thursday a divorce suit was filed by Clara F. Armstrong of New London against John P. T. Armstrong of New London. Mrs. Armstrong claims her husband deserted her August 28, 1914. She is seeking alimony in addition to the divorce. The couple were married Sept. 6, 1905.

WILL COMPETE FOR CUP AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Teams From West Chelsea, Broadway and Greenville Schools Are Entered.

Tonight teams from the West Chelsea, Broadway and Greenville Grammar schools will meet in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium in competition for a cup donated by the Association. The boys from each school have had a day at the gym when they were coached by Physical Director Crosby. It is planned to have all the events decided as much as possible by team work and so discount the ability of the individual star. It is expected that there will be about fifty entrants from each school.
