Plaintiff Appeals Judge's Decision

Rose-Finlay Case Will be Taken to Supreme Court—Controversy Over Property is Settled—Case is Withdrawn From Superior Court.

A plaintiff's appeal was on Monday filed in the superior court in the case of Frank M. Rose of Waterford vs. Katherine Finlay, Ex'x, of Manchester.

Last week Judge Gardiner Greene in a decision filed with the clerk of the superior court granted the defendant's motion for judgment. The action was a $10,000 suit brought by Mr. Rose, who claimed that the late George W. Finley of South Manchester had failed in his agreement to take out a life insurance policy, payable to Mr. Rose and to invest $1,000 in a building association and to assign the principal and interest to Mr. Rose. When the sum of $5,000 in consideration of these agreements Mr. Rose agreed to discharge the defendant's indebtedness to him.

The case of Frank Smith of Boston against Jennie H. Smith of East Lyme has been settled and on Monday was withdrawn from the superior court. This action was controversy over property in Niantic. The plaintiff claimed that he and the defendant had joint interest in the property and he asked a partition or sale and division of the proceeds.

CAPT. HEGARTY GOES DOWN WITH WHALER. Commander of the Alice Knowles Was Father-in-Law of Late Dr. Harris.

The loss of the American whaler Alice Knowles, 302 tons gross, was reported on the arrival here today of the American schooner Fred W. Thurlow, says a despatch from a Brazilian port dated November 18th. Captain William Hegarty who was lost with the ill-fated whaler was father-in-law of the late Dr. George E. Harris of this city. Dr. Harris was at one time interested in the whaling business and was part owner of the brig Sullivan which sailed from New London for Sullivan on Monday.

The Brazilian despatch says: The loss of the American whaler Alice Knowles, 302 tons gross was reported on the arrival here today of the American schooner Fred W. Thurlow, rescued two Portuguese sailors on September 7th. They reported they had been in the water for three days and nights, holding to part of the life-boat.

The Alice Knowles was wrecked in a hurricane on the night of September 2, all of the crew including Captain Hegarty, and the captain's young son were washed overboard when the vessel capsized.

The Thurlow sighted the two Portuguese signalling for help. There was no other trace of the whaler or her crew.

In connection with the loss of the Alice Knowles, a Fall River despatch says: The whaler Alice Knowles, wrecked in a hurricane on September 2, sailed from New Bedford, April 20, 1915, with a crew of 39 men. Capt. William Hegarty was master and part owner who was lost with his young son, was a resident of Somerset and formerly commanded the whaling brig Sullivan, wrecked in Fajal harbor in 1913.

AT THE DAVIS THEATRE. Feature Moving Picture.

Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm with Mary Pickford in the title role, entered the audience at the Davis theatre on Monday afternoon and evening. Quaint little Rebecca and her many experiences at the old New England homestead in Maine completely capture the hearts of her admirers, just as the story itself has captured the hearts of thousands of readers. The scenes were unusually realistic, especially the storm during which Rebecca leaves her hard hearted aunts and is found senseless amid the ruins of the village church, a steeple destroyed by a bolt of lightning.
