Voluntown Boy in Washington. Following are extracts from a letter received by Mrs. Mary Clark Russ of Voluntown from Ernest Larkin of the same town:

Camp Meigs. "Hello, Mrs. Russ: I thought I would drop you a few lines to let you know that I am well and hope this finds you the same. I received your very nice letter the middle of the week and thank you for writing, because I'm much pleased to hear of and from my friends up there. I can't forget them and some of the good times we used to have at the whist parties and some of the other good times we used to have at your house. There are lots of times I think of in Voluntown, but as for being homesick or anything like that I haven't any."
