

What is Going On Tonight

ANNOUNCEMENTS

King's Daughters Working For Liberty Loan. The Norwich Home Chapter of King's Daughters is one of the societies busy at present raising funds for a Liberty Loan bond.

Norwich Equal Franchise League. At the open meeting of the Norwich Equal Franchise League this afternoon, Miss Katharine Ludington, state president, will speak.

Pickett's Dance Orchestra. This orchestra makes its first after-noon appearance in Norwich at Pickett's this evening.

Auditorium. Splendid Comedy Bill, Full of "Pop." Catchy Tunes and Dances—Big Tango Contest Tonight; Several Local Dancers Entered—Feature Picture Entitled His Own People, an Irish Love Drama.

To a good sized audience that filled nearly every seat in this popular theatre, the King Myrtle-Harder company, headed by Miss Myrtle Harder, comedienne, Tom Carroll, presented another new comedy last evening.

Angered at the murder by game wardens of one of their companions, two score villagers storm the manor of Lord Percival Cheltenham, demanding his life. They are appeased only when Hugh O'Donnell, blacksmith in the Irish village, promises to turn his life over to the constables and that justice is done.

When the theater-going public of Norwich have an opportunity of seeing such timely and startling drama as The Lie and at one-quarter the price of admission charged in the larger cities, they certainly should avail themselves of this opportunity and see this great play.

Miss Illington was the talk of New York when the play was presented at the Empire theatre last season.

Like all great plays it is entirely different from the ordinary, and the theme of the play is laid in Ireland and has to do with a wealthy family that has gradually dropped into poverty.

The Myrtle-Harder company has been one of Norwich's favorite comedians. Nothing seems to be too big for them to handle and they consider the theatregoers' wishes and tastes in selecting their plays.

Myrtle-Harder's company consists of only the best players. That is one reason why they always do such splendid business not only in this city but every place they go.

Edith Storey heads the double feature bill at the Bred theatre today in Revenge and Franklyn Farm in The Scarlet Car.

Edith Storey heads the double feature bill at the Bred theatre today in Revenge, a dramatization of Edward Moffatt's famous novel, and in the fast. This gripping drama tells the story of a love that battled against hate until it won.

completes this big double bill for today and tonight.

Camp Devens Boys Rehearsing. Headquarters, Co. 301st Machine Gun Bn., Camp Devens. Around a certain barracks in Camp Devens there has been an air of mystery the past two weeks, at times burst of sweet harmony would cleave the air then again "lost chords" would shatter the atmosphere and the mules across the company street would stop hitching their harness.

After a lot of clever gum shoe work it was found that the disturbance was caused by Privates John Slattery, Carl Lyons and Sergeant Nicholas Spellman, rehearsing with the Headquarters Company of the 301st Machine Gun Bn. "Norwich Own" their big military sketch, "A Hot Night in Camp," which they will produce in Norwich April 13th.

All the officers of the Headquarters Company and the commanding officer of the 301st Machine Gun Bn. who have kindly offered to play for the big parade.

Reports coming to the camp have it that the Knights of Columbus and the Elks are working on all cylinders to make it a big success and it is hoped that all Norwich is doing the same for today, it is our last time home so everybody do their bit.
