The Bulletin

Norwich, Saturday, April 20, 1918.

THE WEATHER

Pressure is high along the northern boundary from New England westward to the Rocky Mountains and there is a shallow depression over the east Gulf states and the lower Mississippi valley. There has been no precipitation of consequence in any part of the country.

The temperature is relatively low in northeastern districts and has fallen sharply during the last 24 hours from Ohio westward to Kansas. The temperature will rise slowly in the Ohio valley and upper lake region and the changes elsewhere will be slight and unimportant.

Winds for Saturday and Sunday: North Atlantic—moderate northeast to north winds; fair weather. Middle Atlantic—fresh northeast winds, cloudy weather.

Forecast. Southern New England: Fair Saturday; Sunday partly cloudy.

Observations in Norwich. The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Friday:

Table with 4 columns: Time, Temp., Wind, Bar. Rows for 7 a.m., 12 m., 6 p.m., Highest, Lowest.

Comparisons. Predictions for Friday: Clearing; continued cool.

Friday's weather: Fair and cool, south wind.

Table with 4 columns: Sun, Moon and Tides. Rows for Sun, Moon, High, Low.

Six hours after high water it is low tide, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENEVILLE

Painting Out of Trolley Stops Causes Confusion—Village Notes.

The work of painting out superfluous stops on Central avenue took place Friday and was attended, without a little confusion. A large proportion of the patrons of the company failed to notice the black band on the pole and signalled the car from their old stop. The stops at Third, Seventh and Ninth streets have been painted out and the stop at Eleventh street has been moved about 25 feet north.

Arbor Day in Grammar School. The usual Arbor day exercises were held in the Greenville Grammar school Friday afternoon. The last hour of the afternoon session was given over to simple programs for the most part consisting of recitations and reading by the pupils on subjects allied with the study of birds and trees. The governor's proclamation was read during the course of the exercises and speeches were made by four-minute speakers from among the pupils. The cards to be filled out by those desiring school gardens have been distributed to the pupils at the school.

Candidate for Pastorate at Federated. The Rev. William Garthorse of the Newton Theological institute will occupy the pulpit at the Federated church as a candidate for the pastorate Sunday at both morning and evening services. The local pastorate has been vacant since the resignation of Rev. A. W. Burden last fall, although Rev. E. W. Ayers has been supplying the pulpit.

TAFTVILLE

Camp Fire Girls Hold Social Meeting at Home of Miss Ethel Graham—Brevities.

Friday evening the A-O-Wa-Ki-Ya circle of Camp Fire girls held a social meeting at the home of Miss Ethel Graham in Lisbon. A very pleasant evening was passed, the meeting breaking up at a late hour. There was a large attendance. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Thrift Stamp Campaign. A thrift stamp campaign was inaugurated in the Sacred Heart church by the pastor, Rev. T. O. Bellows. About 350 thrift cards were distributed to the pupils and as soon as a pupil fills his card he may exchange it for an extension stamp. Almost every pupil took a card and the few who did not take them Friday are expected to do their bit Monday.

Arbor Day Observance. Friday afternoon (Arbor Day) was observed with appropriate exercises at the Wagoner school. The governor's proclamation was read and poems and readings pertaining to Arbor and Bird day were given by the students.

Village Brevities. The cards for the school gardens have been distributed to the school children of the village.

The engine house for the Taftville Hose Co., on Merchants' avenue is rapidly nearing completion.

Bernard Hasler and daughter Katharine are on an extensive tour of the south visiting Washington and other points of interest.

George Weller, Jr., and Dean French, a classmate at New Bedford Textile school, are spending the week-end at Mr. Weller's home in the village.

Joseph Laramie has resigned his position with the Shore Line company and has accepted a position with the Penemah company in the card room of Mill No. 1.

Friends of Miss Anna Mueller, who has been seriously ill at her home on Merchants avenue for several days, will be glad to learn that she is recovering and is able to be out.

EVENTS OF FIFTY YEARS AGO

Construction of Richards Building on Main Street Began—Blacksmith Shop Roof at Thamesville Rolling Mill Collapsed—Commodore Lanman Promoted to Rear Admiral—West Chelsea District to Build New School Houses.

In Norwich fifty years ago with the coming of spring building operations in the city took on a pretentious aspect. Houses were being erected in every part of the city. The largest contract was that of erecting the Richards building on Main street where the Porteous and Mitchell Co. are now located. The first thunder storm of the season visited Norwich during the week and was very heavy.

Extracts from The Bulletin's files of '68 follow: April 13, 1868—The wood work of the Richards building was laid.

The foundation for this building was begun on Saturday. It will extend from Water street through to Main street and will occupy the space between The Bulletin and Rockwell buildings.

A deserter from Fort Trumbull was arrested by the local police on Saturday. The officers from the fort came for the man and took him back to New London.

There were special Easter services in all the churches of the city on Sunday and all the clergy preached Easter sermons.

Building Operations. April 14, 1868—With the coming of spring the building operations in the city have increased and on Lincoln avenue alone seven new buildings are in the process of erection. There also many new buildings going up on Laurel Hill and the West Side. The Falls bids fair to eclipse in a short time most pretentious of the city.

The local police made arrests to the number of 108 during the month of March. Two hundred and forty men were being with lodging during the month.

April 15, 1868—The markets remain about as usual this week. The demand for butter is moderate and the supply is limited. Choice butter has declined three cents and the price of eggs has advanced five cents.

Made a Rear Admiral. Commodore Lanman's promotion to a rear admiral has been confirmed by the senate.

This promotion is one which will be most gratifying to the friends of that officer not only here, but in every part of the world.

April 18, 1868—The roof of the J. M. Huntington blacksmith shop near the rolling mill at Thamesville gave way about 10 o'clock morning and fell in with a loud crash. But one man was in the shop at the time of the accident and he escaped serious injury by getting into a corner. A few minutes previous some workmen had been applying tar to the roof and had only just descended.

The sale of slips in Broadway Congregational church on Wednesday evening netted $3,920.

The meeting of voters in West Chelsea School district, was held Wednesday evening to consider the question of erecting two new primary school houses. A committee was appointed to draw plans for the sites and to report at a meeting to be held in about two weeks.

First Thunder Storm. April 17, 1868—A severe thunder storm, the first of the season, visited Norwich on Thursday afternoon. The lightning was at times vivid and the thunder loud and heavy.

Daniel J. Woodward, superintendent of the A. S. Hubbard Co. paper mill, in Greenville, was presented with a beautiful lee pitcher Thursday by the employees of the establishment. Mr. Woodward thanked the employees for their gift and hoped that the existing conditions would continue.

Injured by Fall. James Hall, a clerk in the grocery store of Isaac Johnson, fell Thursday and broke one of the bones in his left hand.

April 18, 1868—Two females appeared on the streets and sang various patriotic and sentimental songs to the accompaniment of a dulcimer which one of them carried. They drew crowds wherever they went, but their efforts did not seem to result successfully in a pecuniary point. They were unmistakably professional singers.

The Children of the Republic appeared at Franklin hall last evening drawing a large crowd. They executed a Zouave drill with great efficiency.

REPORTERS CAN HELP IN POLICE WORK. So New London Department is to Take Press Into Its Confidence.

One of the most important suggestions made to Acting Captain of Police Charles A. Pinney by Chief of Police William Quilly of Springfield, says the New London Globe, when Chief Pinney visited that city last week for the purpose of receiving suggestions that would tend to obtain a higher standard of efficiency in the local department, caused Mayor Rogers to invite members of the press to attend a meeting of the police committee and Acting Chief Pinney at the mayor's office. The suggestion was made by Chief Quilly that the reporters writing police matters be kept in connection with the department and that nothing be kept from their knowledge, for he declared that the newspaper writers could assist the police department very materially. He also declared that the reporters should not be deceived in police matters regardless of importance for every newspaper writer of experience could help the police if the two co-operated. Chief Quilly also declared that the taxpayers were entitled to have a knowledge of what the police are doing and the best and legitimate way to so inform them was in the public press. Mayor Rogers and Alderman Murray declared that the suggestion of Chief Quilly would be followed. So he called upon the members of the press for suggestions and receiving them declared it was his desire to have a meeting of the police committee, Captain Pinney and the newspaper writers once a month.

In the future the blotter will be available to the newspaper writers at all times. Of course, however, such matters as would interfere with the efforts of the police to run down criminals or that would tend to hinder the accomplishment of their work if published were given them will not be available to the newspaper writers. This was brought about when it was shown that in every city where a successful conduct of police departments existed this was the case.

In an interview with a representative of the Amsterdam Jewish Correspondence Bureau, Dr. Heimsler, ex-prime minister of Holland, advocated the formation of an independent Jewish state in Palestine.

On Monday there will be a foreign debate in the Reichstag. On Tuesday the Russian peace treaty will be discussed, and sanctioned. On Wednesday a fresh war loan for $100,000,000 (nominally 750,000,000 pounds) will be proposed.

"After the conclusion of a peace conference, speaking in the Reichstag, the German Eastern Province of Posen shall also be granted that continued development which is its rightful heritage." The latter is the principal council of Posen.

The Methodist conference at Adelaide, Australia, has decided not to appoint any church to the Rev. Mr. Morria, who took the platform against conscription. Mr. Morria's congregation virtually ostracized him, and only 13 people attended service.

Italian recruits of the 1900 class who have already been examined and placed in the first three categories will be called up on March 29. Those who have not yet been examined will be enrolled and sent to their regimental districts immediately after examination.

COMFORT BAGS NEEDED, AND NEEDED AT ONCE

Norwich Red Cross Gets Emergency Call For 300—Chance For All Patriotic Persons to Help. Mrs. Edmund H. Perkins, of the Norwich Red Cross, has received the following emergency call for comfort bags, the Norwich allotment being 300, and is asking patriotic citizens to help meet the demand, either by making the bags, contributing toward filling them or donating money. To All Chapters in the Atlantic Division: The demand for comfort bags is so urgent for the men serving for camps and cantonments, that we have decided not to wait for the issuance of the new edition of the pamphlet A. R. C. 40. As this is an emergency call and not a monthly allotment we are asking your chapter to proceed at once to produce 300 comfort bags. You are requested to furnish the comfort bags as rapidly as possible until this allotment is complete. We are sending with this letter a sheet showing items which are to be included. These contents have been officially approved by Washington after conference with the directors throughout the country. The bag itself should be similar to our No. 1 in the original pamphlet on "Comfort Kits" R. C. 40, except for the fact that the housewife should be a separate roll which is dropped in, not attached to the top through which is run a gathering string or tape. Contents—Housewife: 8 sharp needles, 2 darning needles, 8 safety pins (about 3 inches long), 2 blanket pins (1 1/2 inch long), 2 blanket pins, 12 khaki buttons, 6 white buttons, strong white thread, carded, hooks and eyes. Jack knife (to contain cork-screw, can opener, leather punch, combination screw driver and bottle opener). Small carborundum stone (about 2" x 1-1/4"). 20 yards light strong cord, fish line style. Cigarette lighter (cotton wick and flat steel spark, no liquid). Shaving soap. Tooth brush. Small comb with case. Pencil. Twenty-five post cards. Bags should not contain anything perishable, such as chocolate, candy, etc.

Size—About 12 x 18 finished; not to exceed 12 inches finished. As there are bags for the army they should be made of khaki colored material. Goods to be sewed up into a simple bag with draw plans for the sides and top, which is run a gathering string or tape.

POETRY

OVER THE TOP. Over the top by day or night. To battle for the truth and right. While kindred hearts are used to feel A measure of their faith and zeal. Over the top they go.

Over the top they go as one. To grapple with the ruthless Hun. And teach him that he is a fool. Who thinks the law of might should rule. Over the top they go.

Over the top with fearless eyes. They go to do and dare and die; And pay the price that heroes pay. Who rightly serve their own and day. Over the top they go.

Over the top they seem to hear. The cry of the helpless far and near; And voices from the grimy old trench. Call to them as they lie asleep. Over the top they go.

Over the top they gladly go. In honor's name to fight a foe. That has no heart or soul to care. For other people anywhere. Over the top they go.

Over the top in faith and trust. Till the power of might shall bite the dust; And every nation then shall be. Beneath the smile of heaven's free. Over the top they go.

—Christian Goodheart. Ottumwa, Iowa.

HOW WILL IT SEEM? How will it seem when Peace comes back once more. After these desperate days of shattering? How will it be with all of us again. When hushed forever is the thunder of war?

There still are primroses by many a shore. And there still bloom, in many a Hawthorn and lilac; and the roses' stain. Is red against full many a garden door.

Oh, days to be! Oh, honeyed nights of sleep. While the quiet moon shall mount the quiet sky! Shall we be wholly happy when the bud buds? Remembering those who dared to bleed? Can we be glad again? Or shall we weep?

For those who told this end, glad world good-bye? —Charles Hanson Towne, in Harper's Magazine for April.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

"Out of the mouths of babes—" "Come some embarrassing family secrets in public." "Life. They keep everything locked up.—Boston Transcript.

"Five hundred dollars." "Does that include the war tax?"—Judge.

"The New Maid—In my last place I always took things fairly easy." "The Cook—Yes, won't do that here. They keep everything locked up.—Boston Transcript.

"She—I suppose you saw some close things at the front?" "Hi—Batter! The one was McDougall of our battalion—think he was the closest.—London Bits.

"In the old days a gentleman used to call upon a lady with much formality and a stately ceremony." "Well—" "Now he merely drives up and honks for her to come out."—Kansas City Star.

"A girl's life is full of jolts." "Shoot!" "She dreams of a prince who can give her everything and she gets a proposal from a man who asks her what's the best she can live on."—Kansas City Journal.

"Dauber—I got more than I expected for my money." "Friend—Why, I thought your landlord agreed to take it in lieu of next month's rent." Dauber—That's right, but he raised my rent. —Boston Transcript.

"You are the ultimate consumer." "I'm not," protested Mr. Cross looks; "with worthless days, meatless days, and everything else." "I'm not worth mentioning as an ultimate consumer. I'm the original economist."—Washington Star.

"I have heard of people who take their pleasures seriously." "Yes." "Did you ever meet a person of that sort?" "Quite often. Any man who plays a good game of poker takes his pleasures seriously."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

"Don't you love our sons, The Star Spangled Banner?" "I do," replied Senator Sorghum. "Then why don't you join in the chorus?" "My friend, the way for me to show real affection for a song is not to try to sing it."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.
