Naval Reserve From State Pier at New London Throwing Game Away in the Field in Spite of Superb Pitching by Johnston—Seventeen Errors Chalked Up Against the Sailors in Eight Inning—Dingbats Defeat N. F. A. by the Score of 10 to 8 in Interesting Game.

Sunday afternoon at the Falls the All-Norwich team was the recipient of a touching gift from the team representing the State Pier in New London. The gift consisted of seven rounds of the All-Norwich team was outplayed in every department of the game except fielding.

Farrell pitched good ball but was not in the same class with Johnston. The sailors when they did hit met the ball on the nose and sent it traveling in the general direction of the outfield.

The sailors were easy outs in the first and while Leonard got as far as second on a single, Farrell's error threw the score in their half. W. Calkins walked and went to second when Meeker muffed Clabby's grounder.

Norwich scored another run in the third. Leonard walked and scored on a double by W. Calkins. The fourth inning was a blank although Kliekner doubled only to be nabbed at the plate.

With the score two to two Norwich started her drive in the sixth. McBurney who is a sort of amateur Ty Cobb singled and went to second on Farrell's sacrifice bunt. He scored on a hit by Calkins. In the seventh, Burns reached first on Kliekner's error and scored on an error by Meeker.

The umpire scored a run for the sailors in the eighth. Kliekner fanned three times in the third inning and followed the advice of the crowd and ran to first. Somebody yelled in his ear to take second and he started for the home base.
