LIBERTY COTTAGE
Will Be Started at Once—Bank Votes to Donate Site.

The directors of the Windham National Bank voted Monday morning to let the Willimantic Liberty Loan committee erect a Liberty cottage in the driveway between the bank building and the Chamber of Commerce block. Plans have been donated by Valentine Murphy for a building ten foot frontage and fifteen feet deep. Work will be given immediately.

VICTORY CONFERENCE
Good Attendance at Interesting Meeting Held Monday.

There was a good sized crowd in attendance at the Victory rally at the Willimantic Women's club rooms on Monday morning and afternoon, held under the auspices of the state council of defense.

The war savings certificate exhibit claimed quite a little attention and was guarded by Sergeant Conant and Private Arnold and Luton while the conference was open. A food exhibit showed gratifyingly the food rations of England and France. Two dressed dolls showed the patriotic graduation gowns. Later in the afternoon a speaker from Storrs gave a short talk.

The exhibit goes to Putnam from this city by automobile and will tour Connecticut. Mrs. E. W. W. Hay-

Fined in City Court.
John Madura pleaded guilty to intoxication in the police court Monday morning to intoxication. He was fined $1 and costs, amounting to $1.50 which was paid. His employer was present and vouched for his good habits.

WEDDING.
Noel—Garend.
George Dewey Noel of Warrenville and Miss Mary Garend of this city were married at St. Mary's church Monday evening at 7 o'clock by Rev. Ludovic Paradis. They were attended by relatives of the groom. The bride is employed at the Kossie Velvet company and her parents reside in Jewett City.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel left late in the evening for New York city, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Harrington—Jordan.
George Everett Harrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Harrington of 194 Church street, and Miss Marion Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Jordan of 228 North street, were married Monday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. M. Raymond Plumb, of Windham.

Only relatives and intimate friends, numbering about thirty, were present. Homer M. Harrington, brother of the groom, was best man while Mrs. Homer M. Harrington was matron of honor. The bride was given away by her father and the double ring service was used. A luncheon was served following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Harrington left in the evening for a short honeymoon trip.

The groom is a graduate of Suffolk University and a first class Lieutenant of the Naval Reserve. The bride is a graduate of Windham High school and Smith college.

To Elect Six Directors.
Six new directors of the Y. M. C. A. to succeed Vernon W. Cooke in the service, J. B. Fullerton, in the service, George H. Hall, J. W. Hillhouse, George E. Stiles and W. P. Barstow, will be elected at the annual meeting Wednesday evening.

Motor Drivers Questioned.
Many automobilists were stopped Sunday and Monday and warned of the auto laws in regard to speeding and warnings at the street intersections. No more warnings will be given and offenders will be told "to tell it to the judge."

Leaves For Camp.
George B. Latham left for Camp Upton, Saturday. He was included in the quota which left Friday, but did

$100 REWARD $100
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Catarrh being caused by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of "Hall's" Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Missed Supper at Storrs.
Corporal B. A. Crawford of the 29th Infantry Corps of Camp Devens, was a visitor in this city, Sunday. Corporal Crawford was graduated from Storrs College last year, and he had planned to attend a fraternity supper of Alpha Phi at Storrs, but was delayed in Hartford Saturday evening as he could not find any means of getting to this city as the last train for Willimantic had left and the trains were not running frequently, so he had to miss the banquet.

He said that the military training given at Storrs was very beneficial to those in the army, as a Storrs graduate knows the rudiments of drill. At the present time he is in a division studying gas attacks.

At Kelley Field.
Postal cards have been received from George Robinson, who enlisted a short time ago in the aviation corps that he has arrived at San Antonio, Texas, at Kelley field. He says that the trip from Fort Slocum consumed six days, most of which was made by boat.

Wire Re-strung.
Western Union men were at work replacing the guy wire on the large telegraph pole at the foot of Railroad street. The guy wire, which is a large steel cable, was formerly stretched across Main street, but when it broke one evening last winter, it touched the trolley feed wire, sending a death-dealing current about the street, and showing what a menace it could be so it has been attached to the northern approach to the footbridge.

Brief Mention.
Nicholas Jones left Monday morning for a short visit in Bridgeport and New Haven with friends.

Jeremiah Youngs of Camp Devens spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Young of South Coventry.

George Noel of this city, who is employed at the Ship and Engine Works at Groton, is home on a short vacation.

Surgical Dressings Class.
A surgical dressings class has been organized by the Red Cross chapter with nineteen members. Mrs. Overlock of Putnam and, her assistant, Miss Sargent of Putnam gave two days' instructions, without expense to the chapter, and they are excellent instructors. A good amount of work was accomplished. Mrs. Overlock appointed Mrs. R. F. Cheney as supervisor. Mrs. Overlock and her assistant are to come later an finish the course of instruction.

Mr. Curtis of Manchester, who has a steam saw mill on the Howlett lot, has rented a house in Eastford.

The schools of the town had a corn test at Chapel Saturday evening. Miss Gladys Joslyn returned to Worcester, Sunday.

Evening of Cards.
Saturday evening a number of Miss Joslyn's friends called on her and two tables of whist were played. Homemade candies and fruit were served. Among the guests was Robert Colburn of Camp Devens.

Good News From France.
Mrs. Howlett recently received a letter from her son, White, who is somewhere in France, that he is enjoying the best of health and having with no discount, while electricity sells at 15 cents a kilowatt as before, but only half a cent discount is given when the bill is paid on time. The new rates will go into effect on gas and electricity sold after April 30, but will not be noticed until the June bill, as the meters are read in the middle of the month.

Another Volunteer.
Charles W. Hills has enlisted in the U. S. navy as a yeoman.

To Choose Men for Draft.
The local exemption board will pick out the men who are to leave this city Wednesday morning for Fort Slocum. The board has been delayed because of the postponement of the examinations of several men. Probably all of the men in Class I with numbers below 1,000 will be included in this quota.

Initiation in Third Degree.
The Connecticut grand lodge officers of the Knights of Pythias attended the initiation of a class of candidates in the third degree at the Willimantic lodge, No. 22. The officers were Nehemiah Candee, grand chancellor; Manlius H. Norton, grand vice chancellor; George H. Wright, grand keeper of records and seals, and J. Cowlishaw, grand outside guard. A Hoover supper was served after the initiation.

Funeral.
Mrs. Guilmett.
The funeral of Mrs. Prudent Guilmett was held Monday morning at St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock, a requiem high mass was sung by Rev. Ludovic Paradis. The body was escorted by a delegation of St. Anne's society of the church of which the deceased was a member. The bearers were Joseph, Frank, Albert Guilmett and Pierre Marcoux. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Mrs. Martin Morrison.
The funeral of Mrs. Martin Morrison was held from her home at 8.59 Spruce street, Monday morning at 8.59 o'clock. In the solemn high requiem mass at St. Joseph's church Rev. T. E. Bannon was celebrant, Rev. John A. Dooley of South Coventry was deacon and Rev. John Sullivan sub-deacon.

Special music was sung by Mrs. A. W. Turner, Miss Elizabeth Kelley and Mrs. Henry Mathieu. The bearers were Lawrence, Ambrose, Arthur and Robert Casey, Harry Robin and James Morrison. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery in charge of Killourey Bros.

Gas and Electric Prices Advanced.
The Willimantic-Rockville Gas and Electric Light company announced increases in the price of gas and electricity sold in this city of about 3 and 7 per cent respectively.

This increase is made by reducing the discount which has been given to those who pay their bills promptly, so that now sells at $1.50 a thousand feet

Scoffers and Doubters

Why Let Prejudice Bind You to a Life of Rheumatic Torture?
Be fair to yourself, you suffer from rheumatism, no matter what form. Go to Lee & Osgood Co. or any good druggist and get a package of Rheuma, the guaranteed prescription. Use the entire bottle, and if you don't think it has given you quick and sure relief, say so, and you can have your money back.

Isn't that a fair offer? Can you see any deceit or red tape about it? What chance do you take? Absolutely none. Then get a bottle of Rheuma today. It's a reputable physician's prescription, altogether different from remedies usually prescribed, free from narcotics, and perfectly harmless. Rheuma acts on the kidneys and helps to force the uric acid from the swollen joints and other lodging places. It pleases you in a day; it makes you hopeful and happy in a week. It has released from bondage rheumatic sufferers who thought nothing would give relief. It should do as much for you—if you—take it.

Don't miss this money-back offer. A large bottle, sufficient for two weeks' treatment, is inexpensive.
