JURY DRAWN For Criminal Superior Court—Short Calendar Session Held Friday.

Two cases were assigned at the short calendar session of the Windham county superior court which met at the court room at the town hall Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

At present Judge Malbie is engaged in government law work and has been requested to continue it until it is finished; so he notified the court that he could be unable to hold court until after May 17.

The case of John Conley et al. vs. Horatio T. Hunt et al., administrators, was assigned to May 28, as witnesses will have to be summoned from Rhode Island and New York and possibly across the continent, from California.

The case of Lawrence V. Sweeney vs. August Lindholm will be heard May 17, as the plaintiff is in the service, and may soon leave for overseas service.

The criminal term of the superior court will open next Tuesday. A grand jury was chosen and will meet that day to decide whether to indict Sarah L. Lussier of Moosup on a charge of murder in the first degree.

Criminals held at the jail, numbering four, will be put to plea next Tuesday. The jury for the criminal term was drawn and is as follows: Putnam, W. S. Bates, Alfred Donville, Windham, S. E. Fox, G. R. Tripp, Killings, A. S. Young, August Manard, Woodstock, L. J. Leavitt, Thompson, C. A. Hanson, Scotland, L. O. Haskins, Canterbury, E. L. Moulton, Eastford, R. B. Latham, Pomfret, N. Eastford, Sterling, C. H. Rounds, Ashford, O. D. Chapman, Brooklyn, H. M. Evans, Hampton, Frank Smith.

Case Continued. John Mandura pleaded not guilty to charges of intoxication and breach of the peace preferred against him in the police court Friday morning. The case was continued until Saturday morning as the plaintiff and chief witness was not present. Bonds of $50 were furnished.

Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Hoelck were in charge of a patriotic benefit May basket social in Ruxton hall Thursday evening. The hall was elaborately decorated, the ceiling with red, white and blue bunting, the doors and windows curtained with the same. The walls and chandeliers were adorned with flags.

School Pupils Patriotic. The amount of thrift stamps sold in the Riverside Grammar school is $341, as reported by Principal F. H. P. Clement on Friday.

OBITUARY Mrs. Lydia Barber, who died Thursday, was born in Exeter, N. H., May 19, 1830, the daughter of Phebe Swan and John Lillibridge. The greater part of her life has been spent in the town of Griswold, having lived on a farm for years. For thirty years she has lived in Jewett City. She was married when twenty years of age to Samuel Barber. He has been dead about twenty-five years. She was a member of the Baptist church, uniting by letter from the church in 1852. She is survived by granddaughter, Mrs. Leroy Metcalf, and great-grandson, Leroy Metcalf, Jr., of North Ferrisburgh, N. H. She is also survived by daughter-in-law, Mrs. Laura Barber, with whom she has lived for years.

At Red Cross Convention. Rev. William A. Keefe attended the Red Cross convention held in Hartford, at Postgrad hall, Tuesday, as a representative of the local Red Cross chapter. Many well known national speakers addressed the assembly, among them Governor Marcus B. Holden, Rev. Father Murray, Chancellor of the diocese, and Mrs. Perry Belmont of New York, they making stirring appeals to the assembly which was made up of representatives of the Red Cross from towns and cities all over the state, numbering two thousand. They considered methods for carrying on Red Cross work in the state. Preliminary steps were taken in forming plans for the coming spring drive for funds that the society can further its work on the battlefields of France and the western front. Rev. Keefe brought back a very inspiring report of the meeting.

Enters Worcester Hospital. Miss Helen Rex Horton, granddaughter of Mrs. Orrin Rex of Voluntown left April 30 for the Worcester City hospital, where she is to take the training for three years. She was graduated last June from Wakefield High school. She is the youngest practitioner ever received in that hospital, as she is only seventeen.
