ard of Norwich, who said that she didn't think she was guilty, but later changed her plea to guilty. The court recessed for ten minutes while those who pleaded guilty paid the costs, as the cases were nolle prosequi on payment of costs.
Paid $20.10.
Antonio Girasolo, through his lawyer, P. J. Danahay, entered a plea of guilty to charges of breach of the peace and carrying a concealed weapon. Officer McLean said that he had arrested Girasolo for breach of the peace and had to put the twist-ers on him in front of the Ford garage. Girasolo drew a razor, but some girls warned the officer and Girasolo threw the razor in the gutter. The argument for the defense was that Girasolo did not know what happened Sunday as he had been drinking. He was fined $5 for breach of the peace and $15 for carrying concealed weapons, amounting to $20.10, which was paid.

Case Continued a Month.
Charles Cahill, of Hartford, pleaded guilty to speeding in the city limits, but though that he was not going 45 miles an hour, as he has run a license from this city to Hartford for more than a year and never caused any trouble and he explained that if he were sent to Hartford and had his license taken away from him, it would ruin him, he was allowed to change his plea to not guilty, and the case was continued one month, to see how he acts around here.
The city might use some of the money collected from autoists in the police court, Monday morning, to erect signs at the city limits on the four main roads into this city, warning automobilists that prosecution would follow failure to give a warning while approaching street corners in the city and for speeding. Most of the cases before the court Monday were out-of-town drivers who were not aware of the enforcement of the law.
The disposition of the automobile cases follows: Case nolle prosequi on payment of costs, amounting to $6.00: John E. Bassett; Danielson; Gaston A. Madden, Dan-ton; Arthur A. Boule, Danielson; Edward J. Grishaw, Hartford; Mrs. Louise W. Leonard, Norwich; M. J. Travers, Thompsonville; Omias La-

Money for Roads—Local Guests at Plainfield Birthday Party.

A special town meeting held in the town hall Friday evening was largely attended. John C. Donovan was chairman and Town Clerk Arthur P. Cote was clerk. The object of this meeting necessary repairs to the roads. A former town meeting expended $1,300 of the town funds.

Selectman Jodoin said Monday that this amount would not meet the payments of the bills and the special voters and taxpayers were satisfied to vote an additional $1,000 to continue the repairs. They voted by acclamation to add the needed amount.

Wild's Linoleum

MAKES THE BEST FLOOR COVERING

The first Linoleum, and for many years the only Linoleum made in this country was WILD'S, and in quality, artistic patterns and durability it easily stands first today.

CLEAN AND SANITARY
A clean home is a sanitary home, and the cleanest, most sanitary and germ dispelling floor covering is WILD'S Genuine Cork and Linseed Oil Linoleum. We have suitable patterns for bedrooms as well as bath rooms, kitchens, dining rooms, etc.

WILD'S INLaid LInOLEUM Wild's Inlaid Linoleum is a true, straight line "inlaid." It is noiseless, elastic, more sanitary, easily cleaned, and never needs refinishing. As the Linoleum is inlaid and the colors go through to the back, the patterns will remain intact for years. We recommend WILD'S LInOLEUM because it possesses the quality that endures.
