

We Sell Smifage Books The Best Store Smifage Books

A Brush For Every Purpose

Not simply a brush which may do for the task you have in hand, but a brush which is made for that very purpose, and which does it well.

Ever have trouble in brushing out the buttons on mattresses or on upholstered furniture? There is a brush made for that work.

Ever have trouble in reaching the corners in the stair cases? There is a brush which fits that, too.

We Have Them in the Basement Department

Table listing various types of brushes and their prices, including Reversible Counter Brushes, Sink Brushes, Shampoo Brushes, etc.

The Brushes Are Ingenious and Will Save Labor

Buy Thrift Stamps

HELP YOUR UNCLE SAM MAKE IT HOT FOR THE KAISER

We must raise millions of dollars outside of the Liberty Loan. Daily saving of the pennies, a little self-denial here and there, a little very practical patriotism, will produce results which will surprise you.

Put a Harness On Your Petty Extravagances and Make Them Work For Your Country

Buy Thrift Stamps

MYSTIC

James R. Maxson Comes From India to Serve His Country - Minstrel Show For Benefit of S. of V. State Convention of Daughters of Veterans.

Charles C. Dodge, who is receiving treatment in a hospital in New York, was home for Tuesday, returning on Wednesday. He hopes to be able to return home for good in a short time.

Joins the Navy.

James R. Maxson recently returned from British India where he represented a sewing machine company, has been accepted for service in the navy as assistant naval instructor with the rank of lieutenant, junior grade. He will be stationed at present in Boston.

Temperance Cadets Parade.

St. Patrick's Temperance Cadets held their meeting in Columbus hall on Wednesday evening at 7.30, when the preparations were perfected for the Memorial Day parade. After the meeting the cadets had a street parade, about 40 boys being in uniform.

AMATEUR MINSTRELS

Give Successful Show For Entertainment of Big Audience.

There was a large attendance at the minstrel given in Columbus hall on Wednesday evening for the benefit of A. C. Latham camp, Sons of Veterans. The programme was in three parts and everyone helped in an able way toward the success of the evening.

Pimples rashes, livers, redness and skin blemishes can be quickly removed with Glenn's Sulphur Soap Delightful in a warm bath before retiring—soothes the nerves and induces refreshing sleep. Druggists.

WESTERLY GIRL WITH SMITH UNIT

Miss Frances Valentine Aiding Refugees in the Somme District—J. A. Steadman On State I. O. O. F. Official Board—E. Howard Clark Injured While Cranking Automobile—Real Estate Transfers.

J. Attmore Steadman of Westerly, was named a district deputy grand master, and appointed to the committee on unfinished business at the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Rhode Island, Independent Order Odd Fellows, held Tuesday in Providence.

The report of the grand secretary showed a total membership in the state of 6853, a gain of 32 during the year. The total net assets of subordinate lodges is $224,600 an increase of more than $7,000.

Special agent of the department of justice, Tom Horwick, declares that he is fully satisfied that the fire that destroyed the store house of the Henry D. Bailey mill in Hope Valley early on Sunday morning, was deliberate incendiarism.

More than two hundred young men from New Jersey selected for special work in the United States army, have arrived at the Rhode Island state college at Kingston, where they will be instructed in carpentry, repair of motor trucks, electrical mechanics and blacksmith trades.

Frances Valentine, daughter of Mrs. Annie L. Valentine of Maple street, Westerly, and sister of Robert Valentine, musical instructor in the public schools and organist at Christ Episcopal church, is a member of the Smith College Relief unit, stationed in the Somme district.

Frank Mitchell, Stanton King, Robert Gremley, Leslie Haley, John Ingerdenn, Willie Kalm, Lyle Davis, James Winrow, were soloists and chorists, sang, cake walking, quartette, fancy, feet, fancian and the last were all for Uncle Sam with George Richmond as Uncle Sam, Mrs. Palmer Brown, Liberty, England, Miss Al-wilda Holly, France, Miss Minnie Flynn, Russia, Mrs. Eleanor Rattigan, Spain, Miss Helen George, Normandy, Miss Laura Cook.

D. OF V. CONVENTION

About 60 Delegates Guests of Local Tent.

The annual department convention of the Daughters of Veterans, with eight tents of the state represented, began Tuesday morning in Mystic, Rhode Island, at the Odd Fellows building, where the department president, Mrs. Mary Benjamin of the Mystic tent, presiding.

The delegates are entertained in town and the Mystic Rebekah lodge is serving the meals in the banquet hall in the Odd Fellows building, the meetings of the convention being held in Odd Fellows hall.

Tuesday evening's was an open meeting and the speaker was Rev. J. R. Danforth of New London, whom Mystic people are always glad to hear.

Greatness of Charles H. Davis, Art. The last number of Art Notes from the Machett Galleries, New York, has this warm tribute to Charles H. Davis, the distinguished artist who makes Mystic his home.

Wallingford.—A representative from the New England Exchange of Fire Underwriters was in the borough a few months ago making a thorough inspection of electric wires in places of business and public buildings.

beth H. Lamphear to John B. Biddell, and wife, two lots in Brown Bridge road. During the same period six mortgages and one release were recorded.

The Westerly Public Library recently secured at an auction in Boston, a petition for the purpose of relative to inoculation for small pox, bearing the original signatures and the vote of town meeting on inoculation attached thereto.

At a town meeting held in Westerly, April 15, 1783, Voted That Joseph Crandal and Christopher Babcock, be, and they are chosen, a committee to draw up a petition to the General Assembly of this state, praying they would grant a permit to set up inoculation in this town.

James Rhodes, Samuel Berry, Joseph Clarke, Asa Maxson, David Maxson, Nathaniel Stillman, Samuel Brown, Caleb Brown, Phineas Clark, Moses Babcock, Sanford Noyes, Benjamin Clark, William Chesbro, Roger Burdick, Oliver Burdick, Nathan Pendleton, Amos Pendleton, David Brown, John W. Brown, Ephraim Hixson, Jr., Joseph Noyes, Christopher Babcock, Benjamin Pendleton, Joseph Congdon, Jonathan Nash, John Wilbur, Clark Edwards, Benjamin Pendleton, Jr., Maxson Lewis, Peleg Berry, Thomas Thompson.

E. Howard Clark, proprietor of a store in the Briggs building, sustained a severe injury, while attempting to crank his automobile when in Narragansett street before noon on Wednesday. The engine back-fired and resulted in the fracture of both bones of Mr. Clark's left wrist.

Local Laocoms. Peep frogs have just commenced to deep in the woods.

William Wales and Frederick De Vanbrule of East Greenwich enlisted Tuesday in the regular army.

A Westerly farmer says that when tree leaves are as large as mouse's ears it is time to plant vegetables. When the leaves on the gooseberry are full is the time to plant field corn.

Community Flag Exercises—Raising of Service Flag With 25 Stars—Funeral of Charles H. Boss—Birthday Party.

Rev. George H. Miner, D. D., of Mystic occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday morning. A patriotic service was held in the evening.

Community Flag Raising. A community flag raising was held Saturday at 2.30 p. m. opposite the clubhouse of the Old Mystic Young Men's association.

The latest transfer of deeds of real estate recorded by Town Clerk Everett E. Whipple are: Marxist Pathe's, of Boston, to the Westerly strip of land in Beach street; Mariot Fathers of Boston, to Winslow N. York and others the land and buildings in Beach street, known as Villa Marie; Joseph A. Clark to Peter A. DeRocco, one lot in Washington park; Herbert White Eustis to Edmund L. Dow, land at Watch Hill; William Marr, Jr., and others to William Marr, two lots in Fairview park; Antonio Pignetti to Peter A. DeRocco, house and lot in Bradford; Franklin D. Lawson to Ernest R. Wirtzberger, lot at Mosiacolony; Franklin D. Lawson to Mary C. Hinchman, lot at Mosiacolony; Fannie L. Dixon and others to Joseph Gabriel, lot in Marion street; Angela M. Guarino to Santo Vitarito and wife, two lots in Columbia park; Thos. Thayer to P. W. Coy, Real Estate company, land at Watch Hill; Eliza-

United States Tires are Good Tires. Tire-buying Economy. Your car must give greater service this year than ever before. It speeds up your work—increases your working power. The highest car economy lies in utmost service. The most economical tires are those which will give you greatest use of your car. That's just what United States Tires will do for you. You can depend on them for continuous service, —most mileage at lowest mileage cost. Equip with United States Tires. Our nearest Sales and Service Depot dealer will be glad to assist you in selection.

THE FRISBIE-McCORMICK CO., 52 SHETUCKET ST.

Theodore Perry and Clifford Desley; chorus by the school girls, led by Mrs. Marvin C. Smith; First Address, Mr. Marvin C. Smith; first address, Our Service Flag, Rev. Arthur H. Withee; selection, bands; address, Rev. Frederick Sterling; closing selection, Star Spangled Banner, Military band and chorus.

Meriden.—The Liberty loan committee of Ruth Hart chapter, D. A. R., reports the sale of bonds to the value of $2,400. Manchester.—The selectmen have sent letters to the different florists in Manchester asking them for bids to supply and set out in beds in the East cemetery 600 geraniums.

Hartford.—Charles E. Olmstead, who has been city marshal for the last 10 months, has just completed his 21st year in service as messenger of the city court. He served as messenger under two judges and in addition was deputy city marshal at three different times. West Hartford.—The sum of $35 was recently sent the West Hartford Business Men's association by Edward C. Brant, a graduate of the high school, accompanied by a letter acknowledging the privilege he had of attending Plattsburgh last summer and urging the use of the money towards sending some high school boys there this year. The association has decided to send another boy this year.

Funeral. Charles H. Boss. Charles H. Boss of Wolf Neck died Saturday night at the home of his son Hayes Boss, after an illness of a number of weeks. The funeral was held at the home of Mr. Boss Monday afternoon. Rev. Frederick Sterling, pastor of the Old Mystic Methodist Episcopal church, officiated. Burial was in the Wolf Neck burying ground. Entertained Aid Society. Mrs. Frank E. Williams entertained the Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at her home on Main street.

Stonington. Death of John W. Wagner - Honor Flag With Three Stars Raised on the Park - Laborers Arrive For Shipyard. John W. Wagner, for more than forty years a barber in the borough, died Tuesday afternoon at his home in Trumbull avenue, after a long illness. He leaves his widow. He was born in Brantford, Pa. Interment will be at Williamsport, Pa. Honor Flag Cheered. Stonington has its honor flag, with three stars added, denoting that the district went three times over the top in the recent Liberty bond campaign. The flag was raised on the pole in Cannon Ball square, Wednesday, and was greeted with the cheers of those assembled.

Stonington Pointers. The seventh grade school team defeated 23 to 5, the sixth grade team, at baseball in Stanton field Tuesday afternoon. A tern and a two-masted schooner sought shelter in Stonington harbor early Wednesday morning. A sloop with a load of clams was the principal marine arrival Wednesday. Harbert S. Owen is beautifying his premises north of the borough with maple and elm trees. Mrs. Russell Smith of Topsfield, Mass., formerly a teacher in the borough school, is the guest of Mrs. Samuel H. Chesbro. The woods east of the borough are furnishing timber for the vessels in course of construction at the Stonington shipyard.

Brief State News. Torrington.—Charles W. Chiswell, aged 8, died of internal hemorrhage as the result of an injury received when he fell while playing near his home. His left side was pierced, prob-

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. Mothers Know That Genuine Castoria Always Bears the Signature of J. C. Ayer & Co. In Use For Over Thirty Years CASTORIA. Net Contents 15 Fluid Ounces. 900 DROPS. ALCOHOL - 3 PER CENT. A Vegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food by Regulating the Stomach and Bowels of INFANTS, CHILDREN, AND INVALIDS. Thereby Promoting Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Mineral. NOT NARCOTIC. A helpful Remedy for Constipation and Diarrhoea, and Feverishness and LOSS OF SLEEP resulting therefrom in Infancy. The Simitic Signature of J. C. Ayer & Co. THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK. At 6 months old 35 Doses - 35 CENTS. Exact Copy of Wrapper.