Modern materials won't stand the old way of washing

REMEMBER the clothes women wore only a few years ago? Sturdy wash waists, heavy enough to stand hard washings. Or else dark silks and plaids that were never tubbed at all! Muslin underwear. "Dark" petticoats. Cotton and linen hosiery.

The old-fashioned rub-rub-rub For the apparel worn years ago the old way of washing answered the purpose. You rubbed the cake of soap directly on the garments—and rubbed hard. Sometimes you even rubbed over a washboard. You rubbed out the soap and you twisted and wrung out the garments.

LUX For All Fine Laundering

How to wash silk blouses. Which a tablespoonful of Lux into a thick lather in half a bowlful of boiling or very hot water. Add cold water till lukewarm. Dip your blouse through the foamy lather many times.
