DANIELSON

Private Victor Perreault Writes From the Front—Putnam Phalanx to Visit Brooklyn on Bunker Hill Day—Chauffeur Goes to Jail For Theft—Masonic Lodge to Observe St. John's Day.

From Somewhere in France, Private Victor Perreault, Company H, 162nd Infantry, Connecticut's fighting regiment, has written to relatives here of what it seems like to be in the very midst of a real war.

Private Perreault is well known here and at one time was engaged as a tree specialist.

He says in part: "I will tell you something of my experience in the trenches. We were in the line for weeks. Talk about excitement! One can get enough here in one day to last him a lifetime."

I am writing this letter in my dugout, which is 20 feet under ground, where the Boche shells cannot get us. We have a candle burning and one of the boys by the name of Jimmy Harrison (also of Danielson) is across the dugout from me, reading: the rest of the boys are asleep in their bunks. We are up at night, so have to sleep in the daytime.

We have to be careful when we go out, so as not to get hit with the German shells, for they are apt to strike anywhere and the pieces fly in showers.

The boys in this regiment are showing up wonderfully well, and already they have made the Boches sit up and take notice. I have had some real jobs to do here the past few weeks, believe me; but for all of that nothing has worried me yet. We have a fine bunch of boys and we have jolly times here. I have had some great experiences in the trenches. I have seen airplanes fighting the Boche flyers and, oh, how they drop! One fell right in front of our dugout.

I had one little experience that was interesting. I was sitting on the side of the trench the other day when a German flyer went over and dropped a small bomb at me; but it fooled him; it didn't explode.

All-Star Team Coming Sunday.

Manager Thomas McDermott of the Putnam baseball team has arranged one of the sport treats of the season for Sunday's game. The team that will be here tomorrow to oppose Putnam is no less than the Queen Quality organization of Boston, the semi-professional champions of New England.

This team trimmed Putnam 1 to 0 in a ten-inning game last season. McDermott hopes to do as well this year. For a pitcher he announces Murray of the Boston Nationals, and Connolly of the Boston Braves to catch. Manager McDermott said Friday afternoon, Putnam will use the same lineup that was on the field last Sunday.

HAS 111 MEN PASSED.

Number Local Exemption Board Has Accepted for Military Service.

Statistics compiled at the request of the adjutant general show that the local exemption board has 111 men passed and accepted for general military service. These men are ready for induction into service at any time.

In addition, 75 men of the district have been qualified and accepted for inducted into military service, and are also ready for induction at any time.

In remedial group B are nine more men and five additional Class I men in the emergency list.

There are 60 names on the delinquent list—this list made up of men who have not filed questionnaires or who in some other way have failed to comply with the selective service law.

The total membership of Class I in this district, as classified, is 565. There are 232 men in Class II, 42 men in Class III, 605 men in Class IV and 677 men in Class V. Class V includes, of course, all men who had entered the army or navy service before questionnaires were put out last winter, and there are scores of such men in the district. The total number of registrants in this district is 1,948.

This number, 216 have been inducted into service through the operation of the selective service law.

The figures here given do not include, or apply to, the 134 young men who registered in this district on June 5 of this year, but to the original registrants.

Canning Campaign Ahead.

Miss M. Estelle Sprague, representing the Hartford food committee and other organizations that are striving for the conservation of foodstuffs, addressed members of the food committee of the Putnam war bureau at the Chamber of Commerce Friday.

A great canning campaign is right ahead and among other things it was announced that the people of Connecticut will be expected to preserve 5,000,000 quart cans of perishable food this season. Windham county's share of that big total is 234,500 cans, and Putnam by itself alone is asked to produce 200,000 quart jars of preserved foods. This seems a monumental task, but it is felt by the workers that it can be accomplished if all do their parts.

County Agent Ellis said Friday afternoon that the people of all towns herabouts must can every quart of foodstuff that is possible, for next winter is likely to be a record breaker as to shortage of foodstuffs in this country, and the canned foods will be worn almost to their weight in gold from the standpoint of having plenty to eat, when next winter's snows are falling and the earth seems dead.

In a near future Putnam housewives and young girls will be asked to sign pledges to aid in producing canned goods, so that perishable foodstuffs may be saved and transportation lines relieved. Mr. Ellis advised getting jars and rubber bands ready now, for the canning season is opening.

A bureau of information is to be established by the Farmers' association so that producers of canned foodstuffs may know where to find customers, and vice versa. A bulletin board also is to be placed outside of the Chamber of Commerce that will give valuable information relative to when to can, how to can, and where to get the food-

A TEACHER OF "NEW THOUGHT"

Believes "FRUIT-A-LIVES" Highest Result of "New Thought" in Medicine.

MR. A. A. YOUNG

"I am not in the habit of praising any material medicine as I am an advocate of New Thought (akin to Christian Science) but some time ago, I had such a bad attack of Liver and Stomach Trouble that I gave up thinking I did not have it, and took a natural medicine, 'Fruit-a-lives' or Fruit Liver Tablets.

Most gratifying was the result. It relieved my liver and stomach trouble, cleaned up my yellowish complexion and put new blood in my body.

While I am no backslider from 'New Thought', I feel there may be times when a help to nature may be necessary; and if so, I believe that 'Fruit-a-lives' is the highest result of New Thought in medicine."

PELLETIER AND GREENWOOD

Names for Goodyear's Honor Roll—Both Married, But Anxious for Service.

Napoleon Pelletier and Alfred Greenwood, both of Goodyear and both married, Class IV men, have waived all claims to deferred classification, as granted them some months ago, and have asked to have their order numbers advanced so they may be inducted into service with the next quota that goes to camp from this district.

Pelletier is not only married but is, as well, the father of children, and these registrants have set a new record as the only Class IV men who have asked to have their order numbers advanced.

These registrants have set a new record as the only Class IV men who have asked to have their order numbers advanced.

VOTE SUM OF $75,000.

Special City Meeting, Near Close of Balloting, Carries Appropriation for Improved Water System.

Putnam's citizens who voted at Friday's special city meeting expressed themselves by a fair majority in favor of the proposal to appropriate $75,000 for the improving of the city's water supply system by the laying of a new and additional 18-inch main from the pumping station into the city.

The vote was 140 yes, 103 no, and it was said after the ballot box was closed that the majority in favor of the project was not obtained until within the last hour before the closing of the polls. In the early afternoon became noised about that a strong current of opposition to the appropriation was being expressed in ballots that were coming in quite steadily, so a last hour drive by those in favor of the project was instituted and many men who would not have voted had they not been urged to do so were hurried to the city hall. But even then the total of the vote cast was only a small percentage of the total city registration.

Excessive cost of the improvement during war time was the chief argument advanced against making it at this time. The improvement is now authorized, however, and it is said that steps will at once be taken to put the project into effect.

The counters at the meeting were the city registrars, Hermon G. Carver and George Potvin.
