FATALLY BURNED. Alva S. Beckwith of Niantic Dies From Bad Burns on Body.

Alva S. Beckwith, a lifelong resident of Niantic, died Saturday at 8 o'clock in the evening as the result of burns which he received Saturday afternoon.

He had been in failing health for several years. About 8 o'clock, while his family was at supper, they heard a commotion in his room. Members hastened there to find the room full of smoke and the man's chair on fire.

The flames had communicated to his body. The fire was quickly extinguished. Beckwith was unconscious and Dr. Edward Atkinson was sent for.

He found Mr. Beckwith beyond human aid and death resulted about an hour later.

Mr. Beckwith was a member of Niantic lodge of Odd Fellows. He is survived by his wife and four children: Ethel, Phyllis, Yvonne and Ivan. He was 48 years old and a carpenter by occupation.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT On the Death of Mr. Arthur D. Lathrop. In view of the death on June 16 of Arthur D. Lathrop, the following resolutions were passed by the Board of Directors of the Norwich Savings Bank at their regular meeting held June 17th, 1918:

The sudden death of Mr. Lathrop was a shock to his friends and to his fellow Directors of this Bank.

The services Mr. Lathrop rendered this Bank as Director, Vice President and President, from his election in January, 1910, covering a period of more than seven years, were such as to command the respect and admiration of all those who were associated with him.

Resolved: That as a mark of our respect the Board of Directors will attend his funeral in a body.

Resolved: That the following resolutions be entered on their records, that a copy of them be sent to the widow of Mr. Lathrop, and a copy also be forwarded to the press for publication.

Attest: HENRY L. FRISWELL, Cashier.

Still Have Victrola. In a letter recently to his mother, Mrs. Lena Brayman, of this city, Wagner Jesse Brayman, who is in the service of the U. S. army, writes that they got from the Plaut-Cadden company and the boys are playing it all the time. He wants his mother to send him a Victrola.

Likes Conditions There. Robert Goldstein, who is a ship fitter in the U. S. naval forces, writes with perfect satisfaction of the conditions provided for the American forces abroad. His letter to his brother follows:

Dear Brother Phil: - Just a few lines to let you know that I just received your letter dated April 9 and I am glad to hear from you. I also got a letter from Frank and Esther.

Well, I am in the best of health, and you are all the same. You ask about my trip across. I wish to say that it sure is a wonderful experience to come across.

I have seen some funny things since I have been here. I can tell you that a dog is used as a horse in this country. They hitch dogs up in a two-wheeled cart and ride around into town with them. They also use a cow in a plow.

It is quite a grape country. I guess all the Frenchmen think of in their wine. They drink wine the same way we drink tea or coffee. I don't like the wine; it tastes to me like hard cider.

Should Hold On. It is officially estimated that the population of Germany at the end of next year will be 7,000,000 less than it was in 1914. This introduces a grim reason why the war can't last indefinitely. -Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Should Pay the Costs. The army air service having been divorced from the signal corps, we suppose sundry and divers would be profiteers are now wondering who will pay alimony. -Manchester Union.

In a Reuter telegram from Athens, published yesterday, concerning the revolt of Turkish troops in Asia Minor, it was stated that Yania was in Albania. The capital of Epirus, Yania, since 1912 has been an integral part of Greece.
