

PIN THIS UPON WIFE'S DRESSER

WARNS WOMEN AGAINST CUTTING CORNS AND SAYS THEY LIFT RIGHT OUT.

Because style dictates that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of a drug called freeze-one applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain. Ask the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freeze-one, which costs very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This drug is gummy but it dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

WOMEN IN WAR SAVINGS CANVASS

Start House-to-House Visitation in Norwich Today—To Continue a Week — Twenty-Two Teams Enlisted — Will Urge Everyone to Do Utmost in Purchase of War Savings Certificates.

Twenty-two teams of women, enlisted a week of house-to-house canvassing to cover the town of Norwich, begin their drive today (Friday) in the cause of War Savings. Each day they will report at the headquarters to the general chairman of the women's committee, Mrs. Arthur Harvey Lathrop, in the former Plaut-Cadden store on Main street.

It will be the particular aim of the canvassers to induce the people to pledge what they will buy in War Savings Certificates for the year and every one will be urged to make their pledge nothing short of the utmost that they feel they can do.

The government expects during the year 1918 an average per capita contribution of $20, which is the equivalent of about $100 per family. In order to secure this amount many who have outstanding pledges for specified amounts must be induced to increase those already made. In Norwich it is stated that the quota for the town will be reached if every individual would pledge to buy at least one $5 War Savings certificate each month.

Pledges for more than that number a month by many will of course make up for those who are not able to pledge at least one.

In the superior court here on Thursday afternoon the trial was begun in the suit for an injunction and $1,000 damages brought by the Charity and Relief Lodge Masonic corporation of Mystic against Mrs. Mary F. and Miss Jennie E.
