DAVIS THEATRE

New Show Today—Big Comedy Feature, A Pair of Sixes, with Taylor Holmes; Also Mary Warren in The Vertex, 5-part Tripartite Drama, and the Latest Current Events.

Fun, fast and furious is in store for the patrons of this theatre the last half of this week when Taylor Holmes, the popular comedian, will be seen in his latest production, A Pair of Sixes. Nearly everyone is familiar with this play as the original show played here when it was on the stage in its first production. It is imperative that the management had to bring it back for a return engagement. Critics pronounced it as the funniest comedy that has appeared on the stage in many years. And the picture is even funnier than the stage version, as many scenes are enacted that could not be played on the stage.
Taylor Holmes makes the best of his part and it is admirably suited to his original style of acting. Mr. Spoor conveys the idea of adapting this play to pictures because it seemed an ideal picture play. Rights were obtained at great cost. An admirable cast supports Mr. Holmes in this picture. Maude Edmore, the original "Coddles" of the stage premiere, was secured for the same role. Alice Mann, a favorite in film land, was secured to play Florence Cole, and Robert Conness, for Nettleton. Cecil Owen, appearing on the speaking stage with Lane Taylor, will reappear, also taking an important supporting part in the picture, as does Edna Phillips Holmes, wife of the star. The other feature of the bill is Mary Warren, the dainty Triangle star, in The Vertex, a five-part drama full of excitement, thrills and romance. "Currents will never let me go," "Over here" and "Over there," completes the show.

BREED THEATRE

Charming Emmy Wehlen in The House of Gold, a Powerful Photo-drama of Human Interest, Feature For Today.
The House of Gold, a Metro screen drama from the story by Katherine Havannah is the feature attraction of the Breed theatre. This five-act feature shows the life and experiences of one woman who lived with gold, and who was finally willing to sacrifice her life in the world to retire to the gold.
Emmy Wehlen is the star in this magnificent drama of thrills and mystery, which never for a moment relaxes in absorbing interest.
The events of The House of Gold, surprising as they are, are perfectly possible and are within the limits of credibility, even though they are unusual in the extreme. It is a vital drama of human hearts.
Pearl White in The House of Hate, the photoplay with a thrill every minute, the Burton Holmes travel series and a two-part Mack Sennett comedy entitled Watch Your Neighbor, completes the bill.

AUDITORIUM

Cheating the Public, the Film Sensation of 1918, is Today's Feature—A Mack Sennett Comedy and Harold Lloyd in Somewhere in Turkey.
A massive Cine Melodrama of portentous purpose will be presented at the Auditorium today, tomorrow and Saturday. It is entitled Cheating the Public, and comes to Norwich after a long and successful run in New York city, where it drew a price as high as $1, and will be shown here for the first time at 11, 11 and 22 cents.
See the thrilling foot riots, the fight between man and a girl on golden stairs, the 100-mile-a-minute race against time, the electric chair in operation, the fight on the jury room and the wonderful scene in the court room. There is an all star cast of players. It is a timely American drama of today.
A Mack Sennett comedy entitled Her Troped Love, featuring Ford Sterling and Harold Lloyd in a Fathe comedy entitled Somewhere in Turkey, will make up a programme for the last half of this week that can't be beaten.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Hartford—City Collector Otis J.
Hart reports about $1,237,700 personal and real taxes collected since July 1.
Bridgeport—Rev. William A.
O'Rourke, a Bridgeport son of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Rourke, has been appointed pastor of St. Mary's church at Paris, Ill.
New Britain—A couple of stalks of feeder corn each over 12 feet in height, were left at New Britain headquarters Saturday. The corn was raised at the New Britain town farm.
Stamford—John Roberts, connect-ment-at-large in the Stamford city government, is a candidate for the Republican nomination as mayor, and will endeavor to wrest the nomination from Mayor John J. Treat, who is also candidate for re-nomination.
Simsbury—Thomas H. Desmond, a landscape designer of this town, has been appointed by the government as one of the designers in charge of town planning. Mr. Desmond left for Washington Tuesday to report for duty at the board of industrial housing.

Stamford—John McCormack, the famous Irish tenor, stands willing to sing a $1,000 bet. He is at Jack Cooper's place here reducing, and he was wagered $1,000 that he shall not lose 30 pounds before Sept. 1. Cooper wishes the other end of the bet, and is confident the singer will lose. According to Cooper, McCormack weighed

From the Commerce Reports.
This country has supplanted Germany in the paper and paper pulp trade with Argentina.
Western China is becoming interested in kindergartens.
Power plants utilizing Sweden's streams represent about 4,600,000 turbine horsepower. Of this 1,000,000 horsepower was completed in 1917, one-fourth by the government and three-fourths by municipalities and private corporations.
Algiers has a university with four faculties. The war has reduced the number of students.
There is a market for "snap" dress fasteners in Manchester, England.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by continually failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, and therefore requires constitutional treatment.
Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
