

Murray's Boston Store WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

Home Craft Week

Home Craft Week is a week devoted particularly to the showing of all that is new and desirable in the way of home furnishings for decorative purposes, such as Curtains, Curtain Materials and Draperies.

QUAKER CRAFT LACE FOR WINDOW GRACE

The practical daintiness of Quaker-Craft Laces appeal to home lovers. Modern window treatment demands a window covering which lets in light and air with an over-drapery to cut it off like the frame of a picture.

Quaker Craft Lace is an ideal window covering, delicate, yet durable, and made in endless variety of artistic patterns.

CURTAIN MATERIALS AND DRAPERIES

Quaker Laces in ecru, white and ivory, 39c, 59c, 69c and 75c a yard. Scrim and Marquise in white and ecru, 25c, 29c, 39c, 45c, 69c, 75c and 85c a yard.

MADE-UP CURTAINS

Quaker Lace Made-up Curtains in white, ivory and ecru, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $3.75, $5.50, $5.98 and $6.50 a pair. Nottingham Lace Curtains in white and ecru, $3.75, $4.50 and $4.98 a pair.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

WILLIMANTIC

There will be no meeting of the town school committee tonight. Mrs. Carroll Farrington has been engaged as principal of the Windham Center school.

The Hun Is On The Run Keep Him Going

He will turn—he will strike hard—he will strive desperately to keep the booty already taken and to capture more. But he must be made to do penitential restitution.

We must send more men—all that are needed—we have pledged our aid "to the last man and to the last dollar"—and we are giving glorious help.

THE J. C. LINCOLN CO. WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

DANIEL F. KILLOUREY BROS. FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS

DR. F. C. JACKSON DENTIST

JAY M. SHEPARD Succeeding Elmore & Shepard Funeral Director & Embalmer

A. F. WOOD "The Local Undertaker" DANIELSON, CONN.

Maine of Bank street. Letter Carrier Joseph Paulino, who was injured by an automobile Monday, is confined to the house.

The Red Cross is sending out cards of appeal for the saving of plum pits, plum pits, cherry pits, date seeds, olive pits, apricot pits, and the shells of hickory nuts, butternuts, English walnuts and walnuts.

The Connecticut Agricultural College at Storrs has been closed during the influenza epidemic.

The figures for the Liberty Loan on Tuesday were $45,200 for the Willimantic Trust Co., $4,550 for the Liberty National Bank, and $23,000 for the American Thread Co.

Miss Myra A. Smith has returned from her home in Wallingford. Oscar D. Baker of Warrenville, was a visitor in Willimantic Tuesday.

Mrs. W. P. S. Keating, R. N., was the first graduate nurse to offer her services as a volunteer nurse. She is installed as superintendent of the emergency hospital, under the supervision of Dr. MacDougal.

Miss Martha Kalm, one of the teachers at the Oaks school, was the first volunteer nurse who has had no training. The others are Mrs. Mollie Slater of 66 Spring street, Mrs. Clayton Towne, and Walter Nichols of the Hooker House.

James M. Smith, the new first selectman, took the oath of office yesterday. The oath of office was administered by Town Clerk Frank P. Penton.

City Health Officer Riordan has ordered that all glasses used in saloons, restaurants and soda fountains be washed in boiling water before being used.

There was a fire in the basement at the rear of the store occupied by J. C. Tracy on Main street yesterday morning at about 1.30. There was about fifty dollars worth of damage, covered by insurance.

Stella G. Watson and Nellie Gullev, 21, died at the Mansfield Training School and Hospital.

Charles H. Perkins, 30, died at 51 Moulton Court from pneumonia. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Hannah Dean Perkins, a son, Donald, and a sister, Mrs. Raymond Craig of Pawtucket, R. I.

Mrs. Mellie Oggins Solovitznik, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Oggins of this city, died at her home in Westerly, R. I., Saturday.

Louise Dion, 31, daughter of Arthur and Mary Gellinas Dion, 52 Lebanon avenue, died Tuesday from pneumonia.

John Herbert, of Eagleville, died at his home Tuesday from pneumonia. Miss Helen Fuchs, 14, died at the home of her uncle, John Erbacher, 29 Winter street, of influenza.

Funeral services for Mrs. Alfred Card were held from her home in South Windham Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. M. Raymond Plum officiated; burial was in Windham Center cemetery.

Joseph Laban, 38, died yesterday at his home, 141 Main street, from pneumonia. He is survived by his wife, his father, three sisters, and two brothers.

Frank Darwin Reads, 31, died at his home, 28 Ash street, yesterday. He is survived by his wife and two minor children.

Rosa Zembia, the eight months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Zembia, 29 Jackson place, died Tuesday of pneumonia. Her father, who is a member of Co. L, 102d Infantry, is in France.

Michael F. Denneshe, died at his home, 12 Center street, from pneumonia. He is survived by his wife, three minor children, two brothers, and eight sisters.

Mrs. Mary O'Neill Hickey, wife of John J. Hickey, the druggist, died Tuesday at her home, 226 Jackson street, from pneumonia. She is survived by her husband, her mother, a brother, Rev. Felix J. O'Neill of Stafford Springs, and three sisters, Mrs. A. W. Turner, Miss Mathilda O'Neill, and Miss Frances O'Neill.

Mrs. Eucille L. Thompson, 24, died Tuesday at her home, 141 Crescent street, from pneumonia. She is survived by her husband, John Thompson, her mother, nine sisters, and two brothers.

The funeral of George M. Jones, who died at Camp Gordon, Ga., was held yesterday in the Hebrew church, Rev. C. Harley Smith of this city officiating. Arrangements were in charge of Jay M. Shepard.

Brief Mention. Lieutenant James P. Cochrane, U. S. A., is spending a furlough in this city. There were 13 patients at the emergency hospital Tuesday.

Louis F. LeBlond of the 101st Machine Gun Platoon has been reported as severely injured Aug. 29. This is Private LeBlond's second injury. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LeBlond, 143 Jackson street.

Private Fred Maas, who was severely wounded in action September 6. He was a private in Co. F, 11th U. S. Infantry.

The local exemption board has received notice that the call for 400 men from this state to receive special training at Troy, N. Y., has been cancelled because of the influenza epidemic.

The board will begin immediately to assign order numbers for the new selective draft.

There was no service at the church Sunday on account of the absence of the pastor.

Miss Hartig is spending a few days with friends in Waterbury and Norfolk.

Friends of Raymond Packard have received word of his illness in camp. Practically all the patients have recovered sufficiently to attend to their regular duties.

Stanley Place of Foster visited his aunt, Mrs. P. H. Coffey, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Tullinchat and Miss Hartig motored to Hartford recently.

INDIGESTION, GAS, UPSET STOMACH

HURRY! JUST EAT ONE TABLET OF PAPER'S DIAPESPIN FOR INSTANT RELIEF

No waiting! When meals don't fit and you belch gas, acids and undigested food. When you feel indigestion, lumps of distress in stomach, heartburn or headache. Here is instant relief.

Just as soon as you eat a tablet of Paper's Diapiespin all the dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach distress ends. These pleasant, harmless tablets of Paper's Diapiespin always make sick, upset stomachs feel fine a once and they cost so little at drug stores.

DANIELSON

Earl Wood, who has been very ill at his home on the West Side, was reported Tuesday as resting more comfortably.

Miss Helen C. Lawrence of Springfield visited with friends in Danielson Tuesday.

Because of the epidemic and the closing of some of the Maine churches, Rev. H. N. Grown, formerly pastor of the Pentecostal church, will not go there to preach.

Private Philip G. Phaneuf, who has been ill at his home on Riverview, is recovering.

Chief A. P. Woodward said Tuesday that the new motor fire truck for the Danielson department has not left the factory at Colchester, but that it may be shipped any day.

Judge W. Fenner Woodward Tuesday announced the appointment of Charles S. Francis as deputy judge of the Killingly town court, to succeed Judge James N. Tucker who retired Tuesday on account of having reached the age of 70.

Class 1A. Captain E. L. Darbie, who is an officer in the National guard reserve and who has not received a call for active service, has waived all claim for exemption and placed himself in Class 1A.

Many tributes were paid here Tuesday to the late George D. Clark, who died at his home in Killingly on Friday. He was a member of the company of the Connecticut Mills company which was inactivated as a protection against the influenza epidemic.

Will the pony express come back? That was a question that was exciting curiosity in some minds in Killingly Tuesday. Killingly will be a "dry" town after the end of this month.

A heavy percentage of the employees of the Connecticut Mills company have been inoculated as a protection against the influenza epidemic.

There was little change Tuesday in the health situation in the town of Killingly. Here in Danielson the cases of severe illness were few and far between, probably less than a dozen all told, but there are a great many confined to their homes.

Dog owners are anxiously awaiting the word that their dogs will be suspended on dogs, which have been kept confined in Killingly and surrounding towns for a whole year.

Tuesday Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Ayes was named as executor of the bankrupt estate of Harold Copeland, who has been operating a farm in the Allen Hill section of Brooklyn.

Thursday evening will bring the roll call and supper of the Westfield Congregational church members on account of the church and congregation have been bidden to this annual event, which is to be held in the vestry.

From letters received here from members of Battery D, 5th Infantry, their relatives and friends have been trying to establish at just what part of the western front they have been in action, but so far no one has succeeded in so doing.

The fighting fourth Liberty loan war relic train is scheduled to stop in Danielson for the period of two hours from noon to 2 o'clock, Friday, Oct. 11.

This train has been gotten up at a great expense to the government and is composed of three flat cars and a baggage car loaded with German guns and other material captured by our boys during the second battle of the Marne at Chateau Thierry.

Our boys have actually charged these guns. Perhaps their blood has been spilled upon them. Some of them have given their lives in carrying on these heroic deeds.

The fourth Liberty loan, absolutely essential to back up those boys, is lagging. This exhibit is free of charge and for the benefit of all, something that no one wants to miss.

If a married man admits he is a fool it is his wife's duty to agree with him.

PUTNAM

Miss Viola Kane, who has been an assistant clerk at the office of the local board, is resigned and returned Tuesday to her home in Millbury, Mass.

The influenza epidemic has held up the prompt filing of questionnaires by a number of registrants of this district.

Former Deputy Sheriff Michael H. Grimshaw, who died at his home in Attawaugus, was a native of Putnam, where he was a frequent visitor.

The annual meeting of the board of management and committee of visitors of the Windham County Turners' Home, which was held on Thursday, has been postponed.

This action is a measure of precaution. The health of the children at the home is excellent and it is thought best not to expose the young people to the danger of an epidemic by having such a gathering as the annual meeting would bring.

Druggists report a heavy demand for camphor, which is popularly supposed to be a preventive against influenza, but physicians say there is no foundation for this belief.

George Bagan, proprietor of a local lunch room, was reported Tuesday as so dangerously ill with pneumonia that his recovery seemed almost hopeless.

Eugene Bibeault, Willimantic, has been visiting at his home in Putnam. Using an old saying, he stated that the reports of his recent death in Willimantic were exaggerated.

The following figures show the latest posted total sales of thrift stamps by means of the new office force: H. L. Converse, $229.69; H. E. Johnson, $289.94; G. D. Clark, $37.38; A. C. Guerin, $41.26; H. K. Carpenter, $21.16; A. E. Per, $24.65; G. C. Williams, $75.79; B. N. Andrews, $42.50; P. Lafantasia, $331.85.

Letter Carrier George D. Clark has made one of the best sales records of any carrier in Connecticut, and he is still going strong, piling up his grand total from week to week.

Captain J. J. McGarry of the Putnam State Guard company, has had a number of members of his command at the military rifle range south of Killingly for target practice, in which the company men will engage from time to time, perfecting their marksmanship.

The name of Jouseuf Mustafa, of Groverdale, appeared in the casualty list published Tuesday. At Groverdale Tuesday it was stated that Mustafa was an Armenian mill hand who volunteered for service and who has been in France for several months.

After a meeting of the Liberty loan committee it was announced Tuesday that the stop of the Liberty loan rally (on, scheduled for Friday in this city) had been cancelled.

After a meeting of the Liberty loan committee it was announced Tuesday that the stop of the Liberty loan rally (on, scheduled for Friday in this city) had been cancelled.

Six deaths within 24 hours were reported in Putnam Tuesday morning. Of these deaths, five were reported to others being due to causes aside from those bringing so many deaths in England, France and Italy.

After Nov. 1 Putnam will remain the only town in this part of the county. This means that the killingly business that has been Putnam's in no-license years in the neighborhood will revert to the other towns of the district.

To handle the rush of work piling up at the office of the local board, there are a shortage of clerks, due to illness, members of the high school faculty have volunteered to work and some came on duty Tuesday afternoon.

Putnam High school was closed on Tuesday as an additional precaution against the spread of influenza in Putnam, which so far has escaped the serious consequences of the epidemic that is sweeping over New England.

The night school, which opened on Tuesday evening, also has been closed until further notice. Many pupils at the high school have been out on account of illness during the past few days.

Members of the National Woman's party in this city were quoted on Tuesday as being in sympathy with the party programme of campaigning against the suffrage amendment.

Miss Elizabeth Donovan, who resigned some time ago as a member of the Putnam High school faculty, Tuesday on Bridgeport, where she is to teach. Miss Agnes Osborne, another member of the high school faculty, also left Tuesday on a visit with her family in Bridgeport.

Miss Merwin Cutler, 24, died Tuesday morning at her home in this city. She had been in poor health for a long time. She leaves a brother, Irving, and the following sisters, Mrs. Ruth, Mrs. H. Darling and Mrs. E. J. Chandler.

Death was received here Tuesday of the death from influenza in a Maryland camp of Robert Marsh, who was inducted into the service in Putnam in this district. His serious illness was reported last week, when relatives went from here to his bedside.

Allen Sayles received a telegram last week stating his son, Harry, had been killed in action somewhere in France. A memorial service was held Sunday for him, the church being filled with relatives and friends.

The death was received here Tuesday of the death from influenza in a Maryland camp of Robert Marsh, who was inducted into the service in Putnam in this district.

Allen Sayles received a telegram last week stating his son, Harry, had been killed in action somewhere in France. A memorial service was held Sunday for him, the church being filled with relatives and friends.

The death was received here Tuesday of the death from influenza in a Maryland camp of Robert Marsh, who was inducted into the service in Putnam in this district.

Allen Sayles received a telegram last week stating his son, Harry, had been killed in action somewhere in France. A memorial service was held Sunday for him, the church being filled with relatives and friends.

The death was received here Tuesday of the death from influenza in a Maryland camp of Robert Marsh, who was inducted into the service in Putnam in this district.

Allen Sayles received a telegram last week stating his son, Harry, had been killed in action somewhere in France. A memorial service was held Sunday for him, the church being filled with relatives and friends.

The death was received here Tuesday of the death from influenza in a Maryland camp of Robert Marsh, who was inducted into the service in Putnam in this district.

Allen Sayles received a telegram last week stating his son, Harry, had been killed in action somewhere in France. A memorial service was held Sunday for him, the church being filled with relatives and friends.

LET THIS CREAM CURE YOUR PIMPLES

For several weeks past Lee & Osgood Co. has done a big business in selling Hokara, the skin healer that has won so many friends in Norwich.

It has been found to heal not only all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but also the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum.

There is no garment that gives the ease and comfort equal to a Sweater. It returns one hundred per cent. on the investment.

Here you will find them in all colors, all weights, and all styles.

Heavy Coat Sweaters with either roll or square collars and pockets, $4.00 $5.00 $7.00 $10.00 $13.50

Heavy and Medium Weight Coat Sweaters $3.00 $4.00 $5.00 $6.00 $7.50

V Neck Sweaters in solid colors and with striped bodies and sleeves, $7.00 $9.00

Army Sweaters with sleeves, $8.00

Sleeveless Pull-over Sweaters, $5.50

Boys' Sweaters in all styles and colors, $1.50 $7.50

THE CHURCH COMPANY

CYR BUILDING DANIELSON

At the annual election of town officers Monday the following vote was cast: Assessor, Leon Broder, 130, W. E. Adams, 117; board of relief,

Abraham Japp, 119, B. A. Mintz, 4, 117; selectmen, E. R. Gillette, 121, Samuel McDonald, 121, Guy B. Clark, 126, J. W. Phelps, 118; grand town deposit fund, E. T. Bunyan, 121, John Condon, 117, grand jurors, Louis Bernstein, 115, Myron R. Abell, 123, Sam Levine, 115, G. B. Miller, 123, Charles F. Brown, 116, Leon Broder, 118, John N. Strong, 116, Carlton Skinner, 117; collector of taxes, Myron R. Abell, 116, 235; constables, Isidor Mintz, 114, Clayton Miller, 123, Elmer Chamberlain, 120, George T. Loomis, 118, Roy Clark, 118, John Higgins, 112, Fred B. Clark, 114, Emil Comette, 114; registrar of voters, D. E. Williams, 122, C. H. Strong, 113; school voter for three years, E. T. Bunyan, 123, J. J. Sullivan, 112; to fill vacancy for one year, Ben London, 114, David Shea, 117.

The vote was very light, only 257

parture but wish him the best of success. He was elected captain of the State guard when it was organized here. Walter B. Lombard of Hartford was the guest of his mother on Norwich avenue over Sunday.

Dr. J. M. Klein has been in Norwich the past week, assisting the doctors in that city in caring for influenza patients.

Frederick A. Beck returned to New York Monday after a few days' visit with his family at their summer home on Broadway.

Prof. Earle F. Maloney, who has been principal of the Academy school for nearly two years, has resigned to teach in Girard college, Philadelphia. He left Monday to begin his new duties. While in town Mr. Maloney has made many friends who regret his departure.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

There is no garment that gives the ease and comfort equal to a Sweater. It returns one hundred per cent. on the investment.

Here you will find them in all colors, all weights, and all styles.

Heavy Coat Sweaters with either roll or square collars and pockets, $4.00 $5.00 $7.00 $10.00 $13.50

Heavy and Medium Weight Coat Sweaters $3.00 $4.00 $5.00 $6.00 $7.50

V Neck Sweaters in solid colors and with striped bodies and sleeves, $7.00 $9.00

Army Sweaters with sleeves, $8.00

Sleeveless Pull-over Sweaters, $5.50

Boys' Sweaters in all styles and colors, $1.50 $7.50

THE CHURCH COMPANY

CYR BUILDING DANIELSON

At the annual election of town officers Monday the following vote was cast: Assessor, Leon Broder, 130, W. E. Adams, 117; board of relief,

Abraham Japp, 119, B. A. Mintz, 4, 117; selectmen, E. R. Gillette, 121, Samuel McDonald, 121, Guy B. Clark, 126, J. W. Phelps, 118; grand town deposit fund, E. T. Bunyan, 121, John Condon, 117, grand jurors, Louis Bernstein, 115, Myron R. Abell, 123, Sam Levine, 115, G. B. Miller, 123, Charles F. Brown, 116, Leon Broder, 118, John N. Strong, 116, Carlton Skinner, 117; collector of taxes, Myron R. Abell, 116, 235; constables, Isidor Mintz, 114, Clayton Miller, 123, Elmer Chamberlain, 120, George T. Loomis, 118, Roy Clark, 118, John Higgins, 112, Fred B. Clark, 114, Emil Comette, 114; registrar of voters, D. E. Williams, 122, C. H. Strong, 113; school voter for three years, E. T. Bunyan, 123, J. J. Sullivan, 112; to fill vacancy for one year, Ben London, 114, David Shea, 117.

The vote was very light, only 257

parture but wish him the best of success. He was elected captain of the State guard when it was organized here. Walter B. Lombard of Hartford was the guest of his mother on Norwich avenue over Sunday.

Dr. J. M. Klein has been in Norwich the past week, assisting the doctors in that city in caring for influenza patients.

Frederick A. Beck returned to New York Monday after a few days' visit with his family at their summer home on Broadway.

Prof. Earle F. Maloney, who has been principal of the Academy school for nearly two years, has resigned to teach in Girard college, Philadelphia. He left Monday to begin his new duties. While in town Mr. Maloney has made many friends who regret his departure.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct. 12. There will be a celebration in connection with the event. The honor roll will carry 400 names of young men of the town who are in the service.

Southington. — If everything goes well, it is expected that the honor roll will be in place on the Central green Oct