

DOORSTEP BABY HAS FOUND GOOD HOME

First Selectman Casper K. Bailey found a good home on Friday for a three-month-old baby who was left on a doorstep at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hyde of 59 Franklin street.

No far no clue has been found to locate the real parents of the child. Those who deserted the child evidently knew where they were leaving it, for Mrs. Hyde conducts a day nursery and was well qualified to give the baby the right kind of care even since it had been in her charge.

The fact that the Hyde family knew about the infant in their doorstep was about eight o'clock when they had work from the Harrington & McCune cigar store next door that somebody wanted to speak to Mrs. Hyde on the telephone.

The bundle was the baby, nearly blue with cold. It had a little of clothes on it and had been merely wrapped in an old cloak.

It is believed the child had been there since about 5 o'clock as two neighbors say they heard a baby crying about that time and Mr. Hyde had also heard a baby crying about that time when he went to bed about 9 o'clock.

As soon as the baby had been found it was taken by Mr. and Mrs. Hyde, who were the only all night looking after the baby. It was washed and fed and washed it for it showed it had been badly neglected.

SENT BODY TO ADAMS FOR INTERMENT

The body of Mrs. Otto Kieselring, who committed suicide on Wednesday by hanging in the attic of her brother's home at 42 McKinley avenue, was sent to Adams, Mass., on Friday morning by Undertaker Gager.

Mrs. Kieselring had lived in this city for about a year with her brother, Emil M. Fox. She was born in Germany 26 years ago, her maiden name being Hedwig Fox, and had passed a large part of her life in Adams, Mass.

Permits to Alien Women.

U. S. Deputy Marshal A. L. Lamphier was here again on Friday at police headquarters to issue permits to alien women to reside in or enter the barred zone. This is the second time he has been here for that purpose and he has issued about 20 permits. This is a much smaller number than there are alien women in town as Police Chief George Linton registered 65 at the time when they were required to register.
