BREED THEATRE

Norma Talmaidge, Selecta star in her latest and best photoplay, Her Only Way, heads the double feature bill at the Breed theatre today. Miss Talmaidge and Eugene O'Brien have given to the screen six huge successes and in this latest picture in which they play to perfection the new roles of small-town lovers, they are better than ever. Mary Garden, celebrated star of opera, will also be seen in a sensational version of the great novel, Thais, by Alexandre Dumas. The Hearst-Pathe debut in America as prima donna in this opera. The story is by one of the greatest living French writers, Alexandre Dumas, and his permission to present his famous story in cinematographic form was secured only on the condition that Miss Garden would appear in it. In Miss Garden's supporting cast are Hamilton Revels, Crawford Kent, Charles Townbridge and Edward Adams. The Hearst-Pathe news will complete the bill.

INFLUENZA

A Slight Chest Cold Often Leads to Deadly Pneumonia

When you catch cold during this season don't take any chances. Influenza starts with a cold so send for your doctor at once.
In the meantime protect your throat and chest and ward off inflammation and pneumonia by rubbing on Mustine.
It is better than a mustard plaster, it does not blister and stops all aches and is the quickest that anything you can use.
Tens of thousands use it for your throat, chest, colds, pleurisy, tonsillitis and bronchitis. It is wonderful.

WANTED

with her son William, moving to Otrabando avenue about seven years ago, from a farm in Franklin, where she had lived for a number of years.
At the Sheltering Arms Sunday afternoon Rev. Dr. H. Hove had the choir of Park church were present for the service, which was much enjoyed by all. The subject of the address was "The Good Shepherd." Dr. Hove gave an exposition of the 10th chapter of John. He told how he tried to call the sheep in a little town in Palestine.
They would not respond, but came quickly at the call of the real shepherd, Christ in the Door. He shuts us in the fold, a safe place. No life, nor good works, nor the church, but Jesus is the way to salvation. We are not shut up in the fold, we emerge from it in higher things. The wonders at the beautiful relationship between Christians and their Lord. A great life is coming which this world would not satisfy. There is progress in that world, where eye hath not seen nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man. There are arrangements to be made and find nature also find absolute satisfaction. Miss Anna Taft accompanied for the hymns sung, which included a wonderful recitation of "Nearer My God to Thee." Mrs. Arthur E. Story, Miss Anna Head, Eben Learned and Eugene O.
Seaman formed the quartet.
Sunday was Rally day at the First Methodist church, with a full attendance at both church and Sunday school service. Rev. William Crawford preached a special sermon, singing for his text "The people had a mind to work." There was special music.
At the Sunday school rally the program was entitled "Call to the Colors." Singing of America, Sunday school; An American's Creed; prayer given in unison; responsive reading; superintended and Sunday school; hymn, Oh God, Our Help in Ages Past; recitation, The Flag We Love; Gladys Cru-ick recited the following: (a) Father to Son, Frederick H. Bushnell; (b) A Mother's Dedication, Mrs. George E. Manning;
(c) America, Mrs. Country, Louis Irish; The Soldier of Christ, Arthur; recitation, The Flag, Louis Irish; recitation, Three Things, Bulah Rogers; recitation, In Flanders Field, Miss Florence Bennett and Millie Manning; Battle Hymn of the Republic; recitation, The Flag of Service, Herbert Miller; recitation, Heavenly Pa-ther, Bless the Soldiers, Augustus Miller; recitation, Holy Father in Thy Mercy, Inez Edmiston; hymn, Our Petition, recitation, The Christian Faith, Pauline; recitation, Prophecy, Miriam Griswold; a communication, read by Mrs. Albert Meyer; the Rally day offering; singing, The Star Spangled Banner.
