About 5 o'clock Friday afternoon a still alarm called out Chemical engine No. 1 to a chimney fire in the double tenement house at the corner of Jackson and Ann streets. The house is owned by Leander Freeman and is occupied by the families of John Wright and Leander Wright. The fire had burned through the partition by the time the fire department arrived, but it was quickly checked and much smoke resulted. Two tanks of chemicals were used.

A meeting of those in charge of the campaign drive of the fifth or Victory loan in the town of Willimantic, together with team captains and canvassers, will be held Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. At that time review of the past week's work will be gone over and plans for the coming week and finishing up the drive will be talked over. No new reports were turned in Friday night. As near as could be learned, the total amount of bonds subscribed up to Friday night and the sources were as follows:

Twelve of the German helmets were received by the general committee Friday morning from Hartford. Four of them were turned over to the American Thread company and the other eight in charge of the canvassing in that plant may make any disposition of them that they see fit. At the meeting Sunday afternoon just what disposition will be made of the other eight helmets will be determined. All team captains and members of the teams are urged to be present at the meeting, at which time a full detailed report of results obtained in the campaign will be given.

The death of Mrs. James C. Green occurred at her home in Eggleville Friday night about 8 o'clock after two weeks' illness. Mrs. Green was taken ill with measles, which later developed into bronchial pneumonia. She was born in Coventry, Dec. 13, 1874, the daughter of Emil E. and Evangeline Rathbun, her maiden name being Dezzie S. Rathbun. She was the wife of James C. The weather was one of the chief topics of conversation in Willimantic Friday, and well it might be. A regular winter's day on the 25th of April, and calendar day for the coming month! It must have interfered very materially in point of attendance at the big parade in Boston Friday. Very few went from this city and empty coaches were the rule on the extra trains run from this section to Boston. Among those who went from this city to see the parade in Boston were Dr. R. C. White, James E. King, Vincent Shea, Harold Jacobs, John M. Bransfield, William Bransfield, E. Leslie Besie and George Bedford. Many others had planned to go but their minds and stayed home to tend the furnace.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Spencer of Bridge Street gave an informal dinner this week in honor of Louise May Johnson and Harry Brockway Read, whose engagement was recently announced. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnson, Mrs. F. B. Read, Miss Mildred Johnson, Miss Louise May Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Spencer and Harry E. Read. During the past week rumors were in circulation to the effect that the hotel Hooker was either for sale or that it would close May 1st. The owners of the hotel, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Pillsbury, of Manchester, N. H., were in town during the week, and stated there was no foundation whatever for such reports. The weather permitting, a number of the younger members of the Y. M. C. A. will go on a hike this (Saturday) morning. Fishpots and lunch baskets will be taken along and a good time is anticipated.

Miss Grace Tabor of New York, representing the war work garden committee of Washington, was in town the latter part of the week in the interest of home garden activities. Norwich Evidence For Norwich People

The Statements of Norwich Residents Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers

Home testimony is real proof. Public statements of Norwich people carry real weight. What a friend or neighbor says compels respect. The word of one whose home is far away invites your doubts. Here's a Norwich woman's statement. And it's for Norwich people's benefit.

Such evidence is convincing. That's the kind of proof that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. B. H. Hiscob, 1 Bingley Place, says: 'I have used Doan's Kidney Pills on different occasions and I usually keep them in the house. I have always found Doan's helpful, for they relieve backache promptly. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills because I know they can be depended upon.' Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hiscob had. Stewart, both of Hartford, Ervin Holbrook of East Hartford, Arthur Holbrook of Hazardville and Laura Holbrook of Columbia.

A former curate at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Rev. O. T. Magnell, left Wetherfield Thursday for his new parish in Bristol. The parishioners regret Father Magnell's departure and as a token of their appreciation of his services a purse of $350 was given him. He was instrumental in organizing the Fire and Drum corps, which gave him $100.

For the second time this week, Felix Boudry pleaded guilty to the charges of intoxication and breach of the peace before Judge Poff in the local police court Friday morning. He was arrested on a complaint made by his wife—the second this week. He already had two suspended sentences of 30 days each hanging over his head, and in view of the circumstances Judge Poff imposed another sentence of 30 days and ordered that the other two sentences be put into effect. Boudry will spend the next 90 days or so in the local jail where he was taken Friday morning.

The marriage of David Roberts of this city and Pansy Pedro of South Coventry took place Thursday afternoon, the ceremony being performed by Rev. George W. Christie at his home. The witnesses were Mrs. George W. Christie and Miss Daisy Kenneron.
