ANNOUNCEMENTS

W. C. T. U. meeting today at 3 p. m., 35 Shennock street, Room 6. Business of importance, large attendance desired.

Elizabeth Street House Sold.
Patrick O'Neil has sold through the agency of Francis T. Donohue to Emil Travelling, 107 Elizabeth street, the house has all improvements and a large lot. The new owner may later occupy the property.

DAVIS THEATRE

The show booked for the Davis theatre, the first half of this week will feature with any programme presented this season. The Keith vaudeville is headed by The Old Home Town, a quartette of comedians, excellent harmonists, and those you think of Denham Thompson and the play that everyone has heard and Barlett a duo of Irish entertainers.

tertainers, have a pleasing comedy. The this act is a Scatman and Prince in an amusing comedy. The Song Painters. All three acts are standard Keith attractions and will make an entertaining programme. The feature play is a new play, "The Venus of the East," a five part Paramount play adapted from the famous Saturday Evening Post story. This is one of the best vehicles that this popular star has appeared in and he is at his best. The Burton Holmes Travelling Entertainers, featuring Lyons and Moran comedy, Mixed Tapes, complete the show.

THE AUDITORIUM
Manager Ed Conroy of the Auditorium theatre, will present for the first three days of next week, the Astor Sisters' original Jazz Glee Revue. This company of eleven girls will give a complete change of programme daily. The Revue will be the feature of the bills but there will be the usual selection of high class vaudeville which will take place before and after the Astor Sisters, with the original Jazz Glee Revue.
