DAVIS THEATRE.

The show billed for the Davis the first half of this week is one that both young and old will enjoy. The Keith vaudeville is a selected program and the pictures are away above par. The headline offering is George Crandall and company, who present a rollicking comedy sketch entitled 'Too Easy.' This is a regular big time Keith standard attraction and is full of laughs. The

MARGUERITE CLARK
in 'Miss Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch'

Next act is Jimmy Duffy, the jolly jester, in comedy songs, stories and music. The third act is the three Maxim girls, a trio of pretty and clever misses, in a juggling sensation that you very seldom see. They are jugglers of every description.

The feature photoplay is Alice Hegan Rice's famous novel, 'Miss Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch,' with dainty Marguerite Clark as the star. We won't go into a lengthy dissertation concerning the story's tremendous stage popularity, although we could, but will just ask you to come and see if you don't think that this is the best picture Marguerite Clark has ever appeared in. Miss Clark plays the role of Lovey Mary, a orphan in an orphanage, in whose care is placed a child of whose parents she is ignorant, and whom she loves as a brother. This child subsequently is the central figure of an interesting story. The Burton Holmes Traveltogue and a funny Lyons and Moran comedy completes the show.

The polls will be open in all four city districts today from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

BREED THEATRE.

Today and Tuesday the Breed will present Theda Bara in her latest super production, 'When Men Desire.' A story more thrilling than this has never been screened and the spectacular adventures of the heroine holds one spellbound. Miss Bara appears in a starring role. She plays the part of a young woman who is naturally shy and modest, but fate forces her to parade as an infamous woman. With great attention she makes advances to a multitude of men, and thus is exposed to many harrowing adventures. She does this only so that she may be able to join her true lover. Her experiences demand emotional acting of a high order, the sort of work in which Miss Bara excels.

June Edwige will also be seen in her latest World production, 'The Buffer,' and carries herself with extreme grace in her heroic role, who is ably supported by Irving Cummings, Frank Mayo, George MacQuarrie and a notable cast.

The Public weekly will complete the bill for today and Tuesday.

YANTIC

The members of the Girls' Friendly society gave an entertainment in Fire Engine hall Thursday evening to raise money towards completing payment on their Liberty bond. A spirited playlet, Miss Rebecca Pearce's 'Boarding School,' written by a member of the society, Miss Robert Burdick, was given by the following members: Peggy, Jessie Hitchcock, Flossie, Mrs. A. J. Bailey, Patty, Lois Manning, Ann, Rose, Marie, Gussie, Florence, Steery, Dot, Dorothy, Hilda, Gertrude, Lila Smith, Jessie, Eleanor, Prizer, Jean, Beulah, Carpenter, Polly, Olivia, Bishop, Betty, Josephine, Margaret, Minnie, Charlotte, Bentley, Natalie, Henrietta, Florence, Violet, Elsie, Tottingham.

The scene was laid in one of the girls' rooms which became a very animated place when the program was brought in that Miss Bease had gone to the opera, an unusual occurrence. A judge party was immediately started and a general good time resulted for the young ladies. During the evening there were many interesting solos, duets and concert singing, each number of which pleased. The musical numbers included 'Song, Bingo, choruses, song, Down on the Farm, Charlie Bentley, piano solo, Smiles, Dorothy Harvey, song, Thaine, Louis Manning, piano, solo, of the Boat, Lila Smith, duet, Billie, Henrietta, Morris and Olive Bishop, song, Oh Moon, Elsie Tottingham and Jessie Hitchcock, song, My Bonnie, chorus, song, Elsie, chorus.

Then a waltz was enjoyed by the young ladies to the music of Beautiful Ohio, during which Miss Bease unexpectedly arrived home, and the young ladies were obliged to their rooms. They disappeared singing 'Good Night, Ladies,' and the audience regretted that the pleasing party was broken up. There were many original hits and a general good time resulted for the young ladies. During the evening there were many interesting solos, duets and concert singing, each number of which pleased. The musical numbers included 'Song, Bingo, choruses, song, Down on the Farm, Charlie Bentley, piano solo, Smiles, Dorothy Harvey, song, Thaine, Louis Manning, piano, solo, of the Boat, Lila Smith, duet, Billie, Henrietta, Morris and Olive Bishop, song, Oh Moon, Elsie Tottingham and Jessie Hitchcock, song, My Bonnie, chorus, song, Elsie, chorus.
