

OUR STRAIGHT-GOVERNMENT IS DISSATISFIED WITH TERMS

Austrian People Are Not so Inclined and Appear Anxious to Accept the Conditions as Laid Down—One of the Responsible Newspapers of Vienna Declares the Peace Terms Are Unacceptable—The First Contingent of American Troops on the Archangel Front Has Started Homeward.

(By The Associated Press.)
Like the German government, the Austrian government is said to be dissatisfied with the peace terms of the allied and associated powers, which are declared by one of the responsible newspapers of Vienna to be unacceptable.
Unlike the German populace at large, however, the Austrian people apparently are apathetic, having even no easy terms, and are willing, even anxious, to accept the conditions as laid down and thus bring peace to the sorely stricken former empire, which is rendered by the treaty virtually an inland state of small territorial proportions. Nevertheless, the general opinion among the Austrians seems to be that the terms are based on might, and not on President Wilson's fourteen-point principle.
In Paris the council of four continues to discuss points brought out by the German counter-proposals to the German peace treaty, especially as concerns territorial questions and reparations. Expectations here are that the council for conferences, and in belief apparently prevails in unofficial quarters in Paris that the peace terms may be expected in the original terms of the treaty, particularly as regards the Saar Basin and Silesia.
Discussion of the protest of Germany that being left without merchant ships she is rendered impotent to resume her trade and thereby unable to aid in paying the indemnities asked also has been taken up by the council.
The expectation is that the council

Heroic Act By a New York Fireman

Took Perilous Leap to Prevent Woman Jumping From a Ninth Floor Window.

New York, June 4.—Tying a rope around his waist, Fireman Timothy Fitzgerald leaped into the air from the tenth floor of a fashionable Brooklyn hotel today in a heroic effort to prevent a woman from jumping from a ninth floor window, knocking down Mrs. M. M. Canda and frustrating her threatened attempt to hurl herself to death. The woman had looked herself into the room after announcing her intention to commit suicide.
Police and hotel clerks argued with her through the locked door, but were afraid to force an entrance, as she announced that she would throw herself out of the window if anyone entered the room.
They succeeded in keeping the woman in a parley while Fitzgerald prepared for his jump. He measured the distance between the windows—twelve feet and a half of feet—and then, at that length about a life belt, and while three policemen held the loose end, he took his perilous leap. Fitzgerald was recently discharged from the army having served as a second lieutenant in the quartermaster's corps.
After Mrs. Canda was overpowered she was taken to the hospital in a critical condition. Her health was given by her family as the reason for her actions.

Fight in Senate Over Treaty With Germany

Riled Over Report That Copies of Unpublished Treaty Are in Hands of Persons in New York.

Washington, June 4.—The senate fight over the treaty with Germany branched out into new channels today with the introduction of a resolution by Senator Hitchcock ranking the treaty with the foreign relations committee, proposing that the committee investigate statements by Chairman Lodge and Senator Borah, republican committee members, that copies of the unpublished treaty are in the hands of certain persons in New York.
Senators Lodge and Borah promptly announced their approval of such an investigation, which under the resolution would seek "the names of persons, corporations or interests which have secured copies of said treaty and from whom they were secured and by what methods." The first prediction was that the measure would be adopted virtually without opposition.
Senator Borah also announced that he would have a copy of the treaty from New York, he would put it into the senate record and thus give it to the public. He said he had asked for a copy for that purpose and might receive it tomorrow.
The day's developments were taken as forecasting another bitter debate tomorrow when the resolution of Senator Johnson, republican, of California, ranking the state department for the treaty text, again comes before the senate.
Senator Johnson hopes to press his resolution to a vote during the day.
"Whether the state department will accede to the senate's request, should the Johnson resolution pass, has not been revealed by department officials."
Senator Johnson said he will call up his resolution tomorrow. He may do so during the first two hours of the session but at the end of that time it would be replaced by the Johnson resolution.
Senator Borah's project, aside from any diplomatic aspect, may present a serious problem to the state department tonight that unanimous consent is required under the senate rules to insert such documents in the record without reading them on the senate floor and predictions were general that unanimous consent could not be given. A reading of the treaty which is said to contain about 90,000 words, would be a task of many hours.

SENATE VOTES SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT

Vote of 56 to 25 Ends Controversy That Has Covered Period of Forty Years—Now Goes to the States, Ratification by Legislatures of Three-fourths of Which is Required—Senator Brandegee Was Consistent to the Last, Voting in the Negative, Supporting His Oft-Repeated Claim That Suffrage is a State Right and Not a Federal Matter

Washington, June 4.—Action by congress on equal suffrage—subject of a fight of forty years duration—ended late today in adoption by the senate by a vote of 56 to 25 of the historic Susan B. Anthony constitutional amendment resolution.
The proposed amendment, adopted by the house by a vote of 304 to 59 May 21 as the first act of the new congress, now goes to the states, ratification by legislatures of three-fourths of which is required.
The roll call today showed two votes more than the necessary two-thirds for the resolution. It was drafted by Susan B. Anthony in 1875 and introduced by Senator Sargent of California in 1878. Counting paired and absent members, the amendment usually stood at 59 for the measure.
Immediately after the senate's action, the resolution was taken to Speaker Gillett's office and signed. It was rushed back to the senate by its presiding officer's signature but arrived after the senate had adjourned, and will be approved tomorrow. President Wilson's signature, it was stated, is not necessary, although the resolution will be sent to the White House as usual and may be signed by the executive.
Upon the senate's roll call today the vote was as follows:
For adoption:
Republicans—Capper, Cummins, Curtis, Edge, Elkins, Fall, Fernald, France, Frelinghuysen, Geary, Hale, Harding, Johnson of California, Jones of Washington, Kellogg, Kenyon, Keyes, La Follette, Lenroot, McCormick, McCumber, McNary, Nelson, New, Newberry, Norris, Page, Phillips, Poin dexter, Sherman, Smoot, Spencer, Sterling, Sutherland, Warren and Watson—total 35.
Democrats—Asmuth, Chamberlain, Bailemore, Knox, Lodge, McLean, Moses and Wadsworth—total 8.
Total for adoption 56.
Against:
Republicans—Borah, Brandegee, Dillingham, Knox, Lodge, McLean, Moses and Wadsworth—total 25.
Total against 25.
Those paired were:
Senators Ball and King for with Shields against; Calder and Townsend for with Penrose against; Gerry and Johnston of South Dakota for with Martin against; Gore and Coit for with Pomeroy against.
Senators Owen, Robinson and Smith of Georgia were absent and were not paired. Senators Owen and Robinson favored the resolution and Senator Smith of Georgia was an opponent.
The amendment as it will be added to the constitution if ratified by the states reads:
Section 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.
Section 2. Congress shall have the power, by appropriate legislation to enforce the provisions of this article.
All efforts to amend the resolution in the senate failed. By a vote of 55 to 25 the senate rejected the amendment of Senator Underwood, democrat, of Alabama, proposing submission of the proposed article to popular state conventions instead of state legislatures. An amendment by Senator Gay, democrat, of Louisiana, proposing enforcement by the states instead of the federal government, was voted down, 52 to 18.
Although few state legislatures now are in session, woman suffrage champions tonight claimed that ratification would be secured, probably by next spring. In today's debate, however, Senator Gay predicted that with the southern states opposing the measure because of entailed enfranchisement of negro women, the required thirteen states would refuse to ratify and cause its rejection.
BRANDEEGE ELOQUENT AGAINST SUFFRAGE
Washington, June 4.—Senator Brandegee made a strong and eloquent speech today against the suffrage amendment. He said that it was not a constitutional amendment as the only proper way to deal with the question. Referring to the situation in Connecticut, he said: "I believe a large majority of the women are against it and it is an outrage to force it. It states that do not want it." He called attention to the fact that the legislature has rejected it and added: "There is no sense in dragging the constitution into the mire to amend it against the will of the people."

ANXIOUS DAY IN PEACE CONFERENCE CIRCLES

Paris, June 4.—(By The A. P.) This has been an anxious day throughout peace conference circles, with both the German and Austrian treaties in the balance, and every effort is being made to secure early and united action.
Indications were that certain general results are already beginning to appear. The German counter-proposals as a whole undoubtedly will be rejected, but a number of suggestions may be embodied in the allied treaty, with any purpose of modifying the German position. The German counter-proposals are being softened in the document, but for the purpose of making it workable and achieving the supreme end of getting it signed and restoring peace.
Certain concrete results appear to be taking form, namely, the fixing of reparations at a definite sum around one hundred billion marks, instead of giving the commission indefinite authority to assess beyond that sum; reducing the period of occupation of the western frontier from fifteen to ten years; readjustment of the Silesia terms; and that Germany was greatly aroused, so that the population may secure self-determination, probably through a plebiscite.
The German counter-proposals that they will be without merchant ships, it is suggested, will be met by the allies chartering a limited number of ships, so that the German coast will permit the payment of reparations. It was stated tonight that decisions on these subjects will probably be reached before the end of the week.
HOPEFUL OF APPREHENDING MEN WHO PLANTED BOMBS
Washington, June 4.—Secret service headquarters were uncommunicative but hopeful tonight as to prospects for the apprehension of the perpetrators of the series of bomb outrages Monday night. William J. Flynn appointed but not formally installed as head of the investigations bureau of the department of justice, was assisting in the operations.
Members of a coroner's jury assembled today to find a verdict as to the death of a bomber who was killed by the explosion of his own bomb at the home of Attorney General Palmer, adjourned without attempting to complete a verdict.
President Wilson in a cablegram to Mr. Palmer today said:
"My heartfelt congratulations on your escape. I am deeply thankful that the miscreants failed in all their attempts."

STATE POLICE HAVE RIGHT TO LICENSE AMUSEMENTS

New Haven, Conn., June 4.—Cases in which the allegation was that the secular law had been violated at Savin Rock a week ago Sunday by concessionaires, 65 of whom were arrested and taken before Judge Martin, who held that some were technically guilty, and others really guilty, were dismissed in common pleas court today by Judge Wolcott. The concessionaires claimed a right to do business on Sunday under permits issued by the superintendent of the state police under a recently enacted law. Deputy Judge Martin in the Orange court held that the law was regulatory and did not abridge any prohibitions against amusements contained in Sunday observance laws. Among those whom he fined was the proprietor of a moving picture house, who took an appeal. It was in the Orange court that Judge Wolcott held that the law did not violate the Sunday laws.
Judge Wolcott of the common pleas court in the Orange court held that local authorities could do business with the provisions of a state law, and the law in question gave the superintendent of the state police the right to license amusements seven days a week.
HOPE FOR SAFETY OF "ACE" JAMES ABANDONED
New York, June 4.—Hope for the safety of the Canadian "ace" pilot, James, who disappeared last Thursday while flying in a biplane from Lee, Mass., to Mineola, was virtually abandoned tonight after another day of fruitless searching by airplane and automobile parties.
Lieutenant John Frost, one of the aviators participating in the search, said he had only recently returned from a day of flying over Mount Riga and the woods near Millerton, N. Y., where it was reported, an airplane motor had been found.
Possibility that Captain James may have flown out to sea while attempting to fly over Long Island led Aero club officials today to request all steamers leaving New York to keep a lookout for any trace of him or his plane.

CRITICIZES GERMAN STAND ON PRISONER QUESTION

Berne, June 4.—(French Wireless Service).—The German propaganda against the retention of German prisoners of war by the allied governments does not take into consideration that the Germans did in northern France how deeply the systematic destruction there has influenced allied minds, says Professor Foester of the University of Cologne.
The review Montag criticizing the German attitude on the prisoner question, "The propaganda," he says, "reveals a lack of psychology and leads one to think that the mind that does not spread everywhere. One of the most famous of German university men wrote some time ago that the idea of detaining the German prisoners of war recalled the proceedings of the ancient Assyrians. It was not necessary for the writer to search the Assyrian annals. Did he not know that the deportation of Belgian workmen and of the unheard-of methods applied on that occasion? Does he really not know that hundreds of girls were carried away from occupied French towns and forced to work at hard labor, and does he not know that most of these girls were forced to aid in the destruction of the flourishing cities of their own country? Is he not aware of the fact that we have ourselves detained hundreds of goods of Russian prisoners, not only after the Brest-Litovsk peace?"
"What impression is likely to be made on those who are to determine the fate of our prisoners by the fact that the spokesmen of German opinion continue to conceal the German crimes? How would we feel toward France if our prisoners had been ruined for years and if, as we did in a great many places, our fruit-bearing trees had been cut down and only the ordinary trees left?"

The damage was estimated at $30,000.
The Halcyon II was formerly the private yacht of Henry Ford. Members of her crew narrowly escaped injury in the crash. Patrick Grafton, a fireman was thrown from his post and badly injured. The commanding officer, Commander John McConough, was also knocked from his chair.

PROBING DISPOSITION OF WAR DEBT FUNDS BY WAR DEBT

Washington, June 4.—Unanimous approval was given by the house today to a resolution increasing the war expenditures committee to fifteen members and the five separate investigations of disposition of funds by the war department may be made. The vote came after the republicans had refused to permit the democrats to offer an amendment which would increase the committee membership, nine republicans and six democrats instead of ten republicans and five democrats.
The republican leaders explained that they were planning into expenditures for aviation, ordnance, camps and cantonments, quartermaster supplies and in foreign countries. Each inquiry will be conducted by a sub-committee composed of two republicans and one democrat.
Democrats charged that the investigations were to be made by the joint committee in search of political capital for the 1920 campaign.
