DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Corporal Carl Anderson, after being in the service since June, 1918, and going through the Mexican border trouble and the big show over there, is back at his home here, mustered out. He comes back here still limping from the effects of a wound received in France that has kept him in hospitals of the army service for about a year and he comes back with the old time enthusiasm that made him say on Friday that he would be off again for the Mexican border, where they seem to have a chance for more fighting, if his leg would permit it, which he hopes will be the case by the time anything starts.

Corporal Anderson was mustered out at Camp Devens, where he has been a patient at the base hospital for months. He fought as a member of the 102nd Infantry, part of the 1st division, and was in the first line trenches when he was injured by the accidental discharge of a very light pistol. He leaves the service with a record of twenty years in the national guard, in the Spanish war, at his own expense, and a record of his contribution to the defense of his country. Corporal Anderson is entitled to wear mourning for his contribution to the defense of his country. Corporal Anderson is entitled to wear mourning for his contribution to the defense of his country.

In fairness to all concerned, attention is being directed to what many citizens and taxpayers consider unfair and prejudicial criticism of the manner in which the borough is being policed at night. It is pointed out that whatever ground for criticism may exist, no man that lives, by his own efforts alone, can guarantee protection of property in the borough from raids from time to time by burglars. It never has been, and never will be, who are liberal admit, never will be done by a solitary guard.

It is regarded by many, however, as too much to expect that one officer can do it. It is pointed out that a good way to demonstrate the rule of law is to have the police take the job for a few nights and let others who do not agree with them stand out in a way that will catch the eyes of the public. PUTNAM will be held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock and will be a solemn ceremony at which Rev. Joakin Alexopoulos, secretary to the Patriarch of the diocese of New York, will be in attendance as well as the Greek prelate of Norwich, Pawtucket, Webster and other New England clergies. The service is to be open to the public. Rev. Michael Thomas has been assigned here as pastor.

Private Philip Roberge, 102nd Machine Gun Bat., received a telegram Friday inviting him to go to Worcester, this (Friday) afternoon to receive at the army recruiting quarters there, the Croix de Guerre with gilt star. He is the only American soldier in the French government for extraordinary heroism in the Belleau Wood fight, in July of last year. The announcement that he is to be awarded a Croix de Guerre with gilt star was a distinct surprise to Private Roberge, who already has been awarded the Distinguished Service cross by the American government. The double distinction of which no other eastern Connecticut soldier can claim.

A union service is to be held at the Congregational church, this (Friday) afternoon and there will also be a union service on the park Sunday afternoon. Dr. Fred Kenworthy, James R. Welch, Frank H. Adams, and others are expected to be present. The service will be held at 8 o'clock.

It was announced that the town of Brooklyn will erect a memorial in honor of its servicemen. James E. Starnard of Lowell was a visitor with friends in Danielson on Friday. Milk that formerly went from this town into Providence over the Rhode Island company's line is now being sent out by motor truck, running from East Killingly. The service is said to be fast and satisfactory.

PUTNAM

J. Harry Mann left Friday evening to remain over Sunday at Gales Ferry. Mr. Mann starts on his annual vacation. Franklin Perry and Ruth Perry have returned from a visit with relatives at New Haven.

Arnold Berry, who was dangerously injured near Alexander's lake a week ago this evening was said Friday to be recovering. The New Haven hospital and his condition is somewhat more encouraging. Dr. S. E. Overlock has returned from Maine, where he was called earlier in the week on account of the death of his father.

The Narrows Golf club will be here this afternoon to play on the links of the Putnam Country club. Sergeant C. S. Albee, Jr., has arrived at Newport, New Hampshire, with the army in France.

Putnam is depending chiefly on motor vehicles again today to bring out of town shoppers here. As this service is getting pretty well established the condition does not seem so serious as at the beginning of the trolley strike. Mrs. C. S. Albee left Friday morning for a visit with relatives at Amherst.

Miss Ruth Bartlett is expected at her home here Monday, after spending a few days at Chauntauque people at Bar Harbor. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lapsley have gone to Canada, where they are to remain for several weeks, spending some time in trout and salmon fishing.

Sweet corn has made its appearance in the local market and is selling for 35 to 40 cents a dozen ears. Mayor A. W. Marcy has announced that his correspondence with the state highway department and with H. H. Davenport, in charge of the work in this section has resulted in his obtaining the agreement that more care will be exercised hereafter in applying oil to state highways and that every effort will be made to inconvenience the public as little as possible.

Applications for membership in the Putnam post of the American Legion may be obtained of Attorney Archibald Macdonald, Jr., chairman of the organization committee. There will be special pride in the future among the members of the post, so all are being urged to come in at once. Service in the army or navy also may join the local post if they so desire.

How about fishing in Alexander's lake? The water is taken for domestic purposes - supplies the village of Goodyear. A section of an act passed by the legislature which provides that one may fish in such a body of water without first getting permission from the officials in charge, is being enforced. The penalty for disobeying the act may be as much as $50 or 30 days in jail, or both.

One Putnam lawyer whose opinions are regarded as valuable said Friday afternoon that "getting permission from officials" was a nice little joke that must have made the judiciary committee laugh when they let it go through. "Who are these officials that are to give permission," the attorney asks, "and on what is their authority based?"

That section of the act seems like a joke. One might be arrested under the police power of the state and in the interest of the public health were to fish in the lake; this to protect the water from pollution. But who will say that a man who has written permission to fish would be less likely to pollute the water than a man who fishes without permission. This distinction makes the whole permission proposition look ridiculous.

"Again, the act does not specify any particular official as authorized to give permission." It will be recalled that bathing in Woodstock lake has been prohibited because of the danger to the health of the public. The restriction is not hedged about with any exceptions. The attorney said about persons getting written permission to fish in the lake.

The American Legion proposition is one that is stirring up a lot of interest here. Some have feared to fish since they heard of the written permission proposition. Others, however, are not so concerned. There are fish as frequently as they like. Top speed was the rule in the hayfields in this section of the county on Friday afternoon, when the sun was blazing and the first really good haying weather in nearly two weeks was being experienced. The whirr of the mowing machine was heard on every hand throughout the farming districts and the farmers were all too busy to talk. There is some damage to the crops, but the hay is being cut and the farmers are all too busy to care. The following from the church, who have been in the service, will be presented here at the Sunday morning service of the Second Congregational church of this city. Ruth L.

Daniels, Alice Cogan Morse, Lieut. Harold E. Corbin, Lieut. Edward P. Perry, Lieut. Gould Beard, Lieut. A. D. McIntyre, Lieut. John A. C. Warner, Lieut. Merrill P. Paine, Ensign Richard E. Gifford, Nelson E. Lown, Malcolm M. Willey, William F. C. Macintosh, Carl E. Weeks, Donald C. Johnson, Kenneth W. Anderson. Where these members are not present, the flags will be presented by parents or other relatives.

William P. Wainger and George Potvin, registrars of voters, have given notice that they are to be in session on Wednesday, August 14, for the purpose of making an enrollment of the legal voters of the town and making changes in the list as may be necessary and as the law directs.

CONVERSE! CONVERSE! (A GOOD OLD NORWICH NAME) Converse Tires! Converse Tires! (MADE IN NEW ENGLAND FOR NEW ENGLANDERS)

A few weeks ago, we made in these columns, a fair and friendly offer to Norwich dealers in extravagantly advertised tires to enter a fair contest with us; to determine for the public the real and comparative value of certain tires. We think the public of this town and vicinity are entitled to such a demonstration in order to learn, by being shown, which is which and where they can get the most mileage for their money. We suggested selecting the heaviest busses plying between Norwich and New London, as a rolling medium, believing that their heavy loads, with the wear and tear of the roads, would soon determine the real value of the tires with which they were equipped. That the best tire (and it is about time we found out which is the best) should lose nothing in the contest, it was stipulated that whatever tire wore out first under the least mileage, such tire should be accounted out, and its owner should pay the winner the full list price of his goods, besides contributing fifty dollars in cash for the good and welfare of any recognized organization in town.

Our offer was not accepted, but we resubmit it in good faith. We do not care to run in with practiced side-steppers nor professional press-agents, when ultimate determination is to avoid all competition, hoping that their reputation can best be served and most easily buoyed up, by a discreet and carefully maintained silence. There is no better tire made than the Converse. He who imagines to the contrary, is mentally carrying excess-baggage; while he who observes and thinks intelligently about tires, doesn't think about them at all, after he has put a Converse set on his car.

The Converse is not a vampire tire. It is not powdered and dolled-up with artistic scenery, or filigreed with beautiful designs and decorations, to catch the eye. No; it is but a plain, homespun, homely looking, New England masterpiece of mileage, "as good as wheat", and guaranteed for 6,000 miles on all kinds of roads. In short, it is a tire made for the road and not the window. We carry it in all sizes, no matter how large or small your rim may be.
