

What is Going On Tonight

Motion Pictures at Broad Theatre. Vandeville and Motion Pictures at Davis Theatre.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Davis Theatre. The charm and personality of Mary Pickford never were more delightfully in evidence in any of her previous screen portrayals than were manifested by her in her quaint Art-craft picture, Captain Kidd, Jr., which was presented with unusual success at the Davis theatre yesterday.

The second big feature on this bill is The Frontiers, with the ever youthful Pannia Ward as the star. As the title suggests the picture is a two-act western in the class of individuals who are striving to make two dollars grow where only one grew before—and at the expense of the purses of the spectators.

Broad Theatre. Theda Bara is seen in an unusual environment in the new William Fox super-production, The Siren's Song, which is the feature attraction at the Broad theatre today.

3 Story Factory Building For Thamesville

Ever since the war ban was put on building there has been little or no building done at the Norwich Woolen Company mill in Thamesville, but within the past week plans have been worked out for a three-story addition to their plant.

The building to be erected will be three stories in height and well-ventilated and lighted. The structure is to have brick walls and the lumber and planks used in the construction will be of hard yellow pine.

The roof will be set in steel sash. The second story will be finished with a floor of concrete and the third floor, the roof is to be covered with Neponset roofing paper and finished with a distance between each floor is to be 13 feet. A building application has been filed with Fire Marshal Howard L. Stanton and Carroll and Penton have the contract.

David R. Kinney has the contract for the erection of a frame house at 45 Perkins avenue for John F. Connors. The building is to be 24x30 feet and two stories high. The frame will be of the balloon type and the interior will be done in wood.

Adam Stanoulis has petitioned for permission to erect a barn and shed at or near Mohegan avenue and the street is to be 32x12 feet. Both are to be constructed of spruce and yellow pine. The house is to be 24x25 feet and will be one and one-half stories high. The roof will be finished in yellow pine and spruce. The roof will be shingled in cedar shingles.

John Nykiel is petitioned for permission to build a large addition to his present house at 63 Roosevelt avenue. The addition is to be 32x23, two stories high. There will be five rooms in the addition, all finished in hardwood.

NEW LONDON.

The contract for the first five houses which are to be built by the New London Home Owners' association has been awarded. The houses will be of wood, 22x22 having six rooms each with all modern conveniences. Each house will cost in the neighborhood of $4,300. The plans were drawn by Cudworth & Thompson, N. L.

The contractor has broken ground on Bank street for a one-story garage which will be erected for Max Lewand. It will be 21x30, of brick, and will be so constructed as to take another story at a future date. The cost is estimated at $2,000.

The New England Carpet Lining Co. will build a storehouse on Water street. It will be a one-story structure throughout. The cost will be $4,000.

L. Shraf will build a cottage for him at Padre Harbour. It will be of wood, containing six rooms. In the rear will be a garage. The cost will be $2,500.

The contract has been awarded for adding another story to R. P. Smith's building on Bank street. It will be 40x20 of brick and will cost $10,000.

Miss Edith A. Christman has awarded the contract for a cottage on Montauk avenue. It will be 28x17, of frame construction, with six rooms. It will cost about $2,500.

Estimates are to be made at once on the plans for the proposed new theatre, one of the gala bills presented at the Auditorium.

The crowds at the Majestic Roof Garden are also attracted by the feature pictures shown each pleasant evening on the screen and Rowland's jazz orchestra continues to draw many who enjoy the new dances. The roof has enjoyed his patronage during the summer season and it is very likely that there are many who would enjoy the pleasures of the well known amusement place if they had more time.

Fortland—Ye Old Elm Tree, which has stood for years through all vicissitudes by Ye Wayside Chapel in the Rose Hill district on Strickland street in the eastern part of the town, will be cut down because of road improvements.

past week show abnormal gains, the increase in the former city being 2.4 per cent; in New Haven, 5.1 per cent; in Waterbury, 20 per cent.

The number of sales of real estate by warranty deed in the Connecticut towns reported in the Commercial Record for the past week is 793, against 493 for the like week of the previous year. Mortgage loans aggregated $2,850,515 against $1,333,000 last year.

Norwich had 21 sales this year and the same number a year ago. The mortgages during the week were $447,812 against $317,254 a year ago. In New London there were 24 sales this year, 23 a year ago, while the mortgages were $75,550 this year and $70,475 last year.

Nineteen new joint-stock companies filed incorporation papers in the state during the past week, having authorized capital stock of $990,000. These figures compare with five companies in 1918, with $12,000 capital and 15 companies in 1917, with $485,000 capital.

Further indications of the unusual volume of business in the building industry is furnished by the number of building permits granted in New Haven, Bridgeport, Hartford, Waterbury, New Britain, Stamford, New Rochelle, West Haven, and Springfield, Mass., for the past week. Two hundred and sixty-three permits were taken out in these places in the period mentioned, against 187 in 1918, for buildings costing $241,000, and 187 permits in 1917, for buildings costing $223,162.

New incorporations are reported in this state during the past week indicated in the following comparative table:

Table with 3 columns: Year, Number, Capital. 1919: 19, $990,000. 1918: 5, $12,000. 1917: 15, $485,000. 1916: 8, 117,000. 1915: 15, 1,635,000.

SOUTH WILLINGTON.

A new bleaching is to be built here by W. H. Hall. It will be three stories high, of brick and concrete, 60x100.

PUTNAM.

The Mannasset Manufacturing Co. has in contemplation the erection of an addition to its plant. It will be of brick, two stories, 100x200, with construction.

POETRY

When autumn comes on a soft wing, When the leaves are falling, When the sun is shining, When the wind is blowing, When the birds are singing, When the flowers are blooming, When the world is bright, When the heart is glad, When the soul is free, When the spirit is soaring, When the mind is clear, When the body is strong, When the life is long, When the love is true, When the faith is firm, When the hope is bright, When the charity is pure, When the peace is sweet, When the joy is deep, When the sorrow is light, When the tears are dry, When the heart is whole, When the soul is saved, When the spirit is glorified, When the mind is enlightened, When the body is immortal, When the life is eternal.

LUCRETIA.

A poet was penning a lofty praise Of that noble matron of old days; When a great scholar, full of fame, Came to cool the poet's lyric flame. 'Twas not the praises of her life, 'Twas not the virtues of her name, 'Twas not the beauty of her face, 'Twas not the grace of her voice, 'Twas not the charm of her smile, 'Twas not the sweetness of her soul, 'Twas not the purity of her heart, 'Twas not the strength of her hand, 'Twas not the wisdom of her head, 'Twas not the courage of her spirit, 'Twas not the faith of her religion, 'Twas not
